Promoting Catholic Critical Thinkers

From time to time, our teens, just as adults do, struggle with how to integrate our Catholic Faith with the rich and diverse world we live in. Last Sunday, after the 4pm Mass, Melanie Tomal, the Associate Director of our junior high and high school programs here at Holy Family, acted as facilitator of questions composed by our FLAME (Friendship, Leadership, Acceptance, Ministry, and Education) teens. Dr. Peg Hanrahan, the Director of Family and Teen Faith, and I (Fr. Rich), held an hour-long panel discussion in the church. The teens raised great questions about faith, moral and ethical issues facing the Church and world today. Here is a sample of the questions they came up with:

- What is the difference between a Catholic and a Christian?
- Why did Jesus reappear to the disciples multiple times after death but he doesn't appear now?
- Why did God even need to send someone to His death? Why couldn't He just take away sins himself?
- Why do we believe that the bread and wine turn into the body and blood of Christ rather than just become a symbol of it?
- What does God look like?
- Why does God let bad things happen (death, diseases, homelessness)?
- Why does it feel like religion counters things I've learned elsewhere? Like the world being created in 7 days, etc...
- What does the Bible really say about being gay?

What I hoped to communicate to our teens in the panel discussion was both a respect and gratitude to my teachers and professors in high school, college, and seminary, who supported and encouraged my growth in faith and my development as a critical thinker.

Prior to entering the seminary, I had a science teacher at Ridgewood High School in Norridge by the name of Mr. Fred Hein who made a distinctive impression on me and my faith. At one of the initial lectures in the auditorium, he announced to the students that he was a man of both science and faith. He encouraged me and my classmates to have an open mind and see science and religion as compatible with one another. I remember some of the students around me expressing their own skepticism of the compatibility of religion and science and discounting his perspective. I, however, felt a bit more optimistic that the objective world we were discussing in science could also support a search for a deep and abiding faith in God.

Questioning and debate has been part of the Catholic tradition from the beginning of its history and is an integral part of its dynamic of "faith seeking understanding." The truths discovered by other cultures and by science, art, and other disciplines of academics are prized by our Catholic tradition. Some of my favorite professors at the seminary - Fr. Jack Shea, Fr. Bob Barron, and Fr. Larry Hennessey - taught their theology classes with a focus of integrating faith in God with the world we live in, while deepening our own sense of self. The challenge of how to balance and integrate our engagement within the world and the living Christ lies at the heart of our Catholic calling. This Catholic approach aims for unity and universality and the cultivation of love for nature, for others, and especially for God. It is such love of other-directedness that allows us to respect our own experience and the unique experiences of one another. An intellectual tradition in the mystery of Christ enhances our understanding of ourselves and the world, rather than blinds us from deeper truths. The history of the Church and of Western civilization testified to the fruitful interchange between Catholic culture and the sciences. In past situations, where conflict arose between science and religion, a shared concern for the common good prevailed and continues to lead us to a more constructive resolution of these conflicts.

Some of the conflicts that exist between the Church and the diverse world we live in today can only be resolved through the passing of time, the contributions of new generations, and a shift in our willingness to listen more attentively to the complexity that influences the discernment of higher learning. The Catholic intellectual tradition is a way of thinking about God, humans, and the world in which love rather than methodical questioning is the primary motive in drawing the thinker to discover the truth that makes all things work together for good. Just as the individual thinker has a mind, body and spirit in a fruitful interplay, so also our Catholic community, with its diverse members, is called to complement and challenge one another. I hope our teens continue to follow the rich Catholic intellectual tradition here at Holy Family and embrace a holistic model where unity does not always have to equal uniformity of thought. I am proud of our teens who shared their questions, thoughts, and beliefs in the context of a healthy and respectful dialogue.

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly LBSCC reflection @
<https://www.youtube.com/user/HFInverness/videos>. Click on reflections for Sunday Readings 4-22-18 and listen to Pete & Cari Pappas, SCC leaders, reflect on the readings.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

1. In our first reading, Peter was filled with the Holy Spirit as he preached to the leaders and elders. When have you felt the presence of the Holy Spirit? How did His presence strengthen you?
2. Our first reading also speaks to healing through the name of Jesus Christ. Have you witnessed this kind of healing in your own life, or that of another?
3. In our second reading, John says: "See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God." It's easy to feel like a child of God at Church. How can we keep this feeling inside of us as we go about our daily lives?
4. In our Gospel, Jesus says: "I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice." Who is Jesus referring to? How can we help?
5. The one who saves us is a humble shepherd. How does that contrast with the type of leader that our society looks for today? Why don't we seek out humble leaders?

Attention all Landscape Specialists and Gardeners

Our Ministry Leader of the Landscape Ministry, who is a landscape specialist and Arborist, since the construction of Holy Family has recently decided to retire. He has been the visionary of the landscape surrounding our beautiful campus. He has dedicated many, many hours to the design and care of the campus and we will be forever grateful. While he has decided to rest his back a bit and do some other things, he has so generously offered to consult with us as needed. We are thrilled for him and can't thank him enough for his dedication and generosity of time and talent.

We are now in need of someone who would have an interest in becoming the Ministry Leader. We currently have a volunteer who has worked with the ministry and is willing to stay on as a helper, but we are looking for someone to assume the leadership role.

If you are interested in more information about the Ministry,

FAMILY & TEEN FAITH Restructures Tuition & Fees to insure equity

Family/Teen Faith Tuition for the coming year will increase by $25.00 per family. The last tuition increase occurred in 2014. Sacrament fees and Adam's Apple tuition were restructured last year will remain the same. 50% of Family & Teen Faith's budget is covered by tuition and fees. The remaining 50% comes from the Parish (the weekly Sunday collection and grants from Gala Funds and the Holy Family Foundation).

In the past we have had one tuition rate for registered parishioners and one for non-registered parishioners. Sacrament fees are the same for both. Tuition assistance is available to all registered parishioners. We have not refused such assistance to anyone who has asked. All early discounts and late fees have been abolished and there is no separate book fee which is common in parishes. A tuition discount was established for catechists and extended this year to those who serve as hall monitors on a weekly basis. To avoid paying the higher rate many families register as parishioners at Holy Family but do not support the community in terms of volunteering their time or contributing to the financial well-being of the parish. This seems unfair. Why should those who donate their time and contribute financially, pay the same tuition rate as those who do not?

To remedy this inequity, this year we are moving to a Participating Parishioner Rate and a Non-Participating Parishioner Rate. A participating parishioner is asked to meet the following criteria

1. Be a registered parishioner – Holy Family has a formal two-step registration process. The person who coordinates parish registration in Sue Geegan, sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org.
2. Contributes 5 hours of service to the Faith program annually. We instituted this policy this year. To date 65% of parents have complied. As a result we have seen a five-fold increase in parent participation in the Faith program.
3. Contribute financially to the parish – financial contributions can be made through
 - the Sunday collection, either during the weekend Masses or through our on-line giving,
 - The Gala (the major parish fundraiser held in February),
 - The Holy Family Foundation or The Holy Family Building fund.

The amount is not what is important, what is important is the act of doing one's part. In order to track your donations you must make your contributions electronically or by check – we have no way to track cash donations.

Any and all families can apply for tuition assistance in the form of full or partial waivers. Families can also request to be on a payment plan. Each year we give between $6,000-$7,000 in tuition assistance.

We will keep the $100.00 non-fundable registration fee that is applied to the final bill for tuition and fees. Families can request to be waived from the registration fee or arrange to pay it at a later date and their children will be placed in a class. When Dr. Hanrahan became Director of Family and Teen Faith she noted a disturbing trend: the amount of uncollected tuition (over and above the tuition assistance given) was increasing and enrollment was declining. In the last three years the amount of uncollected tuition has been cut by 75% and in 2016-17 enrollment increased for the first time in 12 years.

Tuition Schedule for 2018-19 (sacrament fees are extra)

Participating Parishioner Rate	Amount per yr.	Non-Participating Parishioner Rate	Amount per yr.
1 child/teen	$325.00	1 child/teen	$400.00
2 children/teens	$400.00	2 children/teens	$475.00
3 or more children/teens	$450.00	3 or more children/teens	$525.00

PASSION PLAY 2018

The Passion of the Lord is a richly layered and evocative narrative. Though marked by unimaginable suffering the Passion is in the end a story of love, a love that roots all Christians in hope, our Lenten theme for this year.

Luke Schwarz,
8th grade, Plum Grove, plays John the Baptist.

Here at Holy Family the Passion is brought to life each year by our Teen Faith Passion Play. This year our teens, as always, did a wonderful job. We had several parishioners who spoke about how moved they were by the witness of the teens, not only through their well-prepared production, but also through their reflections on what being part of the Passion Play meant to them which were published in this year's program.

Holy Family's Teen Passion Play is recognized by the Passion Play Ministries International, another example of how young people are called to use their gifts as leaders in our parish community.

Congratulations and a heartfelt thanks to all who worked on the Passion Play this year. We want you to know how much we appreciate your dedication. Thanks also to the parents who fed the cast and crew every Sunday during rehearsals and to the Swenson's who hosted the cast party.

If you missed this year's Passion Play check this out highlight video (not quite 4 minutes) done by Mr. Mike Kielba - thanks a million Mike!

ATTENTION FAITH PARENTS

If you still have an outstanding balance for tuition and/or sacramental fees and did not make alternate arrangements, your balance must be paid in full prior to the reception of the sacrament. If possible we would like everyone's balance settled by April 25, 2018.

Way to go parents!

65 % of our Faith families have completed their 5 hours of volunteer service and many have given far more than 5 hours. As a result we have increased parent participation in the program by over five-fold.

Because of your generosity we were able to:

- Keep class sizes small
- Provide additional assistance to catechists, especially with special projects
- Substantially improve safety on our campus
- Update and expand our Faith Festivals
- Make our Faith classes more interactive by
 - developing new service projects for every grade level
 - increasing the number of art projects that could be done in classes
 - freeing up Faith Staff members to visit classes to answer questions or give presentations,
 - observe catechists and intervene on behalf of special needs students,
 - help insure better classroom management at every grade level,
 - make changes in the curriculum to incorporate suggestions from catechists and students in real time and

HFCA Students Explore Learning in Washington, DC

As HFCA marks the 15th Anniversary of our founding, we pause to celebrate the many traditions that make our parish school so unique.

One such tradition is our 8th grade class trip to Washington, DC. Every 8th grade class from our very first in 2010 to the present have experienced this 3-day/3-night trip.

The trip is planned to provide unique opportunities for students to learn in a new environment and make real world connections to the topics they have studied in the classroom.

Equally important, the trip provides our soon to be high school students with a sense of independence. Many parents and staff recognize a difference in their students as they return a little more mature and a little more confident than when they left.

First stop at the FDR Memorial—a perfect tie into their WWII unit.

The Human Concerns Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Over the next 12 months, all seven themes will be highlighted.

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society. Modern Catholic social teaching has been articulated through a tradition of papal, conciliar and episcopal documents. The depth and richness of this tradition can be understood best through a direct reading of these documents. In these brief reflections, we highlight several of the key themes that are at the heart of our Catholic social tradition.

Care for God's Creation

We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. Care for the earth is not just an Earth Day slogan, it is a requirement of our faith. We are called to protect people and the planet, living our faith in relationship with all of God's creation. This environmental challenge has fundamental moral and ethical dimensions that cannot be ignored.

The environment is God's gift to everyone, and in our use of it we have a responsibility towards the poor, towards future generations and towards humanity as a whole. . . Our duties towards the environment are linked to our duties towards the human person, considered in himself and in relation to others. It would be wrong to uphold one set of duties while trampling on the other. Charity in Truth (Caritas in Veritate. . .), #48, 51

Born in India to deeply-committed Catholic parents, Fr. Britto is one of seven children. He joined the Salesians of Don Bosco as a young man and was ordained a priest in 1981. After he completed his priestly formation and his early education in India, he came to the U.S. Moved by his pastoral experiences in parishes in the Midwest during his graduate studies at Marquette and the U of I in Champaign, he requested to be incardinated into the archdiocese and became a diocesan priest in 2003. He holds Master's degrees in Physics, journalism, and Systematic Theology and a Doctorate in Mass Communications. He envisions the ideal Catholic parish to be a community of disciples who seek to live the example of Jesus as defined in our Catholic tradition.
