Fr. Terry Keehan

Hope is Alive here at Holy Family Catholic Community! This virtue is manifest in so many ways in our community, but one of them is the dedication, creativity and hard work that so many people put into our ministries, services, activities, programs and, on a REGULAR basis, our Liturgical Arts Ministering Community.

We have just concluded the busiest week of the entire year with SEVERAL major celebrations from Palm Sunday to Easter. I would like to list as many of the ministries and services as possible that plan, execute, breakdown and clean up after our many events. I hope that this list gives you some idea of the complexities and very hard work that goes into what we host and carry out here at Holy Family Catholic Community. We strive to do them TOGETHER in order to CARRY OUT OUR MISSION of LEADING ALL TO NEW LIFE IN CHRIST THROUGH VIBRANT WORSHIP, LIFE-LONG LEARNING AND PASSIONATE COMMUNITY. We are not always perfect, and as evidence of that I will still omit some, and for that I apologize, but I hope this gives all of you a glimpse of the range and depth of our services and ministries, the effort expended by so many and the scope of work that is done here to carry out our Mission. On behalf of our entire community, I thank the following for:

LITURGICAL ARTS – planning Lent and Holy Week that began in September, carrying out the many prayer experiences of the season, crafting detailed liturgy plans that guide EACH celebration. The major components of Liturgical Arts include:

Table and Light – those who bear the light and set the table, follow slightly different instructions for the Masses and services from Palm Sunday to Easter.

Proclaimers – those who practice and execute several different scripture proclamations for various services.

Ushers – assist the assembly with seating, counting attendees, collecting the offering, directing communion flow.

Greeters – those who welcome all who enter our doors. We have improved in this area, but my vision of Holy Family is a much warmer, authentic and inviting welcoming at EVERY liturgy, but we have so many guests at Easter time and Christmas, this aspect of our mission is critical during these special times.

Mass Coordinators – provide direction and implementation of the liturgy plans that guide our celebrations.

Eucharistic Ministers – trained ministers who prayerfully serve the Body and Blood of Christ at many liturgies.

Presiders – not only homily preparation for various Masses but extra Reconciliation times here at Holy Family as well as surrounding parishes and Catholic high schools such as St. Viator and Carmel.

Rehearsals – each of the major celebrations as well as the Passion Play require rehearsals, sometimes multiple rehearsals for all involved.

Music – planning music that expresses and complements the dramatic events of Holy Week; many, many practices for at least 4 major different Masses which include singers, musicians, guests musicians.

Environment – Art and Environment committee who create a prayerful atmosphere all year long but have so many extra challenges, particularly changing the environment from Palm Sunday to Holy Thursday to Good Friday to Easter not only in the church, but in the multitorium, gym and chapel.

Foot washers and candle bearers lighting the procession on Holy Thursday.

Adoration Ministry – those who set the table on Holy Thursday, removing host from and replacing host to Adoration Chapel on Holy Thursday and Easter Sunday.

Small Christian Communities – responsible for preparation of LB-SCC materials year 'round, and forming additional Small Christian Communities for Lent.

Volunteers – who assist with just about all of the above.

OTHERS INVOLVED IN HOLY WEEK ACTIVITIES:

Teen Faith – Passion Play: writing of a script that is presented and tweaked in November, auditions, rehearsals that go through January and up to Good Friday, parents who cook for the teens, set people, AV, lighting, music, choreography, costumes etc.

Family Faith – staff and catechists who help with Passion Play, Prayer Festival during Lent.

Human Concerns – Research, planning and creating the Lenten Social Justice Project, this year our Violence Prevention Initiative that has created Peaceful Pathways for Hope for so many, both here in our community and in two neighborhoods in Chicago.

Maintenance – Practical assistance and muscle needed to move, arrange, rearrange, assist with the creative planning of the environment and then set up and take down in three locations (multitorium, gym and church) as well as other areas such as the narthex and the knuckle, filling of the Baptismal font and moving various crosses used for Passion Play and adoration, and setting up for our PADS guests on Easter Sunday evening.

Academy - Stations of the Cross

AV – In order to pray and celebrate the way we have become accustomed to here at Holy Family, our AV efforts are critical. They help us to carry out our vibrant and unique liturgies. Creating each of the countless individual slides with the standard of excellence that you have come to appreciate takes A LOT of time.

Operations – overseeing all regular functions of our campus that we take extra care in attending to so ALL experience a warm, comfortable and holy place to pray and one that gets challenged when we have so many visitors, parishioners and guests assembling. (Think of the details that you attend to when you host a large crowd at your home. We have the same, right down to providing enough toilet paper and emptying the garbage.)

Knights of Columbus – Traffic control

Adult Faith – RCIA / Footsteps, who welcome adults seeking full communion with our church, meet with them beginning in September, walk with them during their continued formation, coordinate various rituals with Liturgy team, sponsors. There are always Lenten themed talks and presentations for adults and an annual parish mission.

Multicultural – Thursday evening preparation of the church for exposition of the Blessed Sacrament while the procession following Mass takes place.

ALL OF YOU – who share your prayerful presence here to heighten the celebrations.

Thank you ALL, and those I have omitted. God knows who you are and thanks you.

THE WOUNDS OF JESUS

In the Gospel passage from John, Jesus appears twice to his disciples, and both times Jesus shows them his wounds from his crucifixion. Thomas actually touches the wounds. Jesus' wounds did not disappear after the Resurrection. Jesus meant for his followers to know that his sufferings, and ours, are part of our encounter with him. Jesus revealed how God is present in our human suffering, joining us in our most painful moments with consolation and with mercy.

Suffering is a great mystery, and we cannot adequately explain or justify the many wounds we experience in life. However, in prayer God can open a way forward. The Holy Spirit might offer wisdom to perceive when or how our sufferings make healing or hope possible for others or for ourselves. When we enter into this mystery we follow Jesus, who radically trusted God to transform his sufferings into new life.

In just a few verses, we see that the disciples received not only a new perspective on suffering, but a new energy and a new task in their lives. Their new energy, Jesus' very breath, is the Holy Spirit. Their new task, given in the same breath, is to embody God's forgiveness and proclaim this forgiveness to all. When Jesus appeared to them, he didn't castigate them for their abandonment and betrayal of him just days before. Jesus gave them the peace of being forgiven. He gave the Holy Spirit, so to forgive others.

The experience of being forgiven and forgiving others is at the heart of the Gospel. Jesus came to proclaim and to manifest God's desire to reconcile with God's very sons and daughters, us human beings. God is always working toward reconciliation and rejoices when any broken relationship is healed. When we accept forgiveness from God or from others, we are letting God into our hearts. When we forgive others or ourselves, we are participating in God's work.

Third Sunday of Easter

1. In our first reading from Acts, Peter gives a powerful witness at the temple gate. Has there been a particular homily or testimony that made a difference in your faith life?
2. Peter tells the people he knows that they acted out of ignorance in order to fulfill the words of the prophets, but still need to repent. Why do we need to repent even when we have acted in ignorance?
3. John tells us in our second reading that Christ is our Advocate with the Father. As we know from the Gospels, the Holy Spirit is also an Advocate. Who do you pray to for forgiveness and why?
4. Why was it important for Jesus to eat a piece of fish in the presence of everyone?
5. In the Gospel, Jesus says that everything written about Him had to be fulfilled. How does this knowledge strengthen and secure your faith?

Comprehensive, intentional and systematic: The Purpose of Religious Education and Faith Formation

The aim of catechesis is to make "...each person's faith living, explicit and active..." (National Catechetical Directory [NCD] # 14). Catechesis, like all educational endeavors, is developmental and occurs over time. The catechesis offered through the Family & Teen Faith (FTF) programs and Holy Family Catholic Academy (HFCA) is known as initiatorily catechesis. This type of catechesis is basic and essential formation, which

- cultivates the roots of faith, which for Christians is characterized by a personal relationship with Christ;
- nurtures a distinctively Christian spiritual life, as opposed to an eclectic and/or general sense of the spiritual;
- prepares the person to be nourished at the table of the Eucharist and
- incorporates the individual in the ordinary life of the Christian community that knows, lives, celebrates and bears witness to the faith.

Initiatorily catechesis "... includes more than instruction: it is an apprenticeship of the entire Christian life (NCD # 204). It is meant to be comprehensive, intentional and consistent. It is celebrated in the reception of all three sacraments of initiation: Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation.

What does God want for us?

- ✚ An authentic, life-giving relationship with Him that is personal and unique, characterized by love, trust and faithfulness.
- ✚ An authentic, life-giving relationship with each other that is characterized by a trust born out of compassion.

What do we want from God?

- ✚ A sense of deep connection with something larger than ourselves;

- ✚ A sense of purpose and meaning and
- ✚ A sense of belonging to something that is bigger than ourselves.

Christian faith is about relationships.

When the Scriptures tell us we are made in the image and likeness of God, they reveal to us a central truth about human nature – we are hard wired to connect. We were made to love and be loved. We understand that God, Father, Son and Spirit, share a sacred communion that is not just loving, but the source of love itself. This single, indivisible union of three persons in one is life-giving (creates), radically healing (redeeming) and holy (sanctifying). We are called to experience this powerful presence, this source of life and love and all the energy that flows from it. We, like all of creation, were formed by this life and love, invited to participate in this life and love and called to share this life and love with all.

Developing relationships takes time and effort.

Becoming like Christ is a life-long pursuit. It does not happen haphazardly or half-heartedly. This is why our apprenticeship as Christians must be marked by intentionality and consistency. A deeply personal, intimate relationship is not an on again off again reality, it takes total commitment. This is why catechesis must be comprehensive. Such a commitment is not possible without support, which is why "catechesis is the responsibility of the whole Catholic community and occurs most fruitfully within the community" (NCD # 32).

Love is not convenient; it is abiding. Love is not self serving; it is sacrificial. To love is a purposeful act. Christian faith is rooted in love. Faith comes as a result of God's love, is nurtured and sustained by love and is recognized by the fruits of love.

Family & Teen Faith

Is it that time already? Yes it is. There are only two (2) classes left for this year. Registration will begin April 5. As Always

- All students need to re-register each year
- If you register late we cannot guarantee your choice of class placement
- Your 2017-18 tuition balance must be paid in full OR parents must make arrangements for an extended payment plan with Dr. Peg Hanrahan prior to registration for 2018-19.

To re-register your children/teens choose one of the following options:

Fast track forms will be emailed to parents on April 5 AND sent home on April 8th (Sunday classes) or 11th (Wednesday classes) with students. Parents will need to check to make sure the information is correct and return the form to the Faith Office with a $100.00 deposit.

*Online registration will open on April 9

Go to www.holyfamily.org

Registration will be complete upon payment of the $100.00 deposit.

For new student enrollment

1. Forms will be available in the Narthex and in the Faith Office beginning on April 9. Parents are asked to pick one up, fill out the form and return it to the Main Parish Office or the Faith Office (see parish website for Faith Office hours).
2. Register on line at www.holyfamilyparish.org
$100.00 deposit is required to complete registration.

* Online registration is a multi-step process. Unfortunately the data base programs available to Catholic Religious Education programs do not provide parishes with the ability to customize their online registration process. This is why most Catholic RE programs do not use online registration. We are working to make the process less cumbersome. Payment can be made on line.

If you are having trouble registering or have questions please contact Marta Robak at 847-907-3447 or email her at mrobak@holyfamilyparish.org

Members of the FTF staff will be present before and after classes on April 14 to collect forms and payments and answer questions.

IMPORTANT REGISTRATION NOTE

Those requesting to prepare to receive a sacrament must have at least two years of formal religious education prior to the reception of the sacrament. This means that if parents wish to have their child receive First Eucharist in the spring of second grade they must have their child enrolled by the fall of first grade. If a teen wants to receive Confirmation in 10 grade they must be enrolled by the fall of 9th grade.

IT'S NEVER TOO LATE TO

OR RESUME

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Religious Education classes and faith formation activities are offered for those ages 3-18. Register your child/teen now for 2018-19. Go to www.holyfamilyparish.org for information on Faith classes and sacramental preparation at Holy Family.

Like all educational endeavors religious education achieves its most effective results when it is intentional, systematic and consistent.

HFCA Students Explore Learning in Washington, DC

As HFCA marks the 15th Anniversary of our founding, we pause to celebrate the many traditions that make our parish school so unique.

One such tradition is our 8th grade class trip to Washington, DC. Every 8th grade class from our very first in 2010 to the present have experienced this 3-day/3-night trip.

The trip is planned to provide unique opportunities for students to learn in a new environment and make real world connections to the topics they have studied in the classroom.

Equally important, the trip provides our soon to be high school students with a sense of independence. Many parents and staff recognize a difference in their students as they return a little more mature and a little more confident than when they left.

Catholic Social Teaching – United States Catholic Conference of Bishops

Over the next 12 months, all seven themes will be highlighted.

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society. Modern Catholic social teaching has been articulated through a tradition of papal, conciliar and episcopal documents. The depth and richness of this tradition can be understood best through a direct reading of these documents. In these brief reflections, we highlight several of the key themes that are at the heart of our Catholic social tradition.

Care for God's Creation

We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. Care for the earth is not just an Earth Day slogan, it is a requirement of our faith. We are called to protect people and the planet, living our faith in relationship with all of God's creation. This environmental challenge has fundamental moral and ethical dimensions that cannot be ignored.

The environment is God's gift to everyone, and in our use of it we have a responsibility towards the poor, towards future generations and towards humanity as a whole. . . Our duties towards the environment are linked to our duties towards the human person, considered in himself and in relation to others. It would be wrong to uphold one set of duties while trampling on the other. Charity in Truth (Caritas in Veritate. . . ), #48, 51

St. Mary's Services For Women and Families

St. Mary's is moving to your area! We are an adoption agency and women's counseling center, serving women and families since 1887. Since the closing of PHD, their clients truly do have a loving, caring place to go—St. Mary's. We were called to serve them by Northwest Community Hospital and we are very happy to do so. In addition to our adoption and teen programs, we have added counseling for women with postpartum depression, grief and loss due to miscarriage, stillborn, post adoption, and post abortion, as well as difficulty transitioning into motherhood. With the move to our new location in Palatine, we will also have a "baby closet" to help with the needs of the families in our programs.

If you know of anyone in need of our services or if you are interested in volunteering, please call (847) 870-8181 for further information.

Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

2018 Lenten Social Justice Project “Peaceful Pathways”

This Lenten season, walk with us along “Peaceful Pathways”, our social justice project. We’re joining Cardinal Cupich’s violence prevention initiative (endorsed by Pope Francis) targeting vulnerable, at risk youth in Chicago’s most troubled neighborhoods. Although “Violence Prevention” describes our intent, “Peaceful Pathways” describes our approach. Our contributions will support two highly successful local programs: Strong Futures on the south side of Chicago (www.saintsabinapeacemakers.org/strong-futures), and The Peace Corner Youth Center (www.thepeacecorner.org) on the west side.

Through providing a safe physical space, academic help, job counseling, physical activities and a strong support network, both programs work by peacefully rescuing, training and shielding high-risk youth. They arm young people with the fortitude, skills and support needed to avoid the pitfalls of drugs, gangs, and violence. Strong Futures and The Peace Corner Youth Center both have impressive histories and proven results. This Lenten season, we want to help them do even more. The total amount raised will be split evenly between these two programs.

As our project draws to a close, please be as generous as possible with your financial donation. As successful as these programs are, both want to do even more for the at-risk youth in their neighborhoods. Holy Family can make a difference with our financial support and partnership.

Make checks out to Holy Family Parish, notation “Lent”.
Envelopes are in the narthex or donations can be made online.
Contact Sue at sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org for more information.

Upon the conclusion of Lent and as we enter into the Easter season, more information will be shared about volunteer opportunities at both locations.
