WHOLE AND HOLY TOGETHER

TODAY WE CELEBRATE what is often referred to as the birthday of the Church. Happy birthday to all! It's the Feast of Pentecost! We celebrate by wearing red today, or traditional clothing from our culture of origin. As we enter the doors of the church this weekend, sit in our seats, exchange the Sign of Peace, and share a sacred meal, we bring to completion the celebration of the Paschal Mystery – the suffering, death, resurrection, ascension and coming of the Holy Spirit on Jesus' disciples. Today's feast of Pentecost reminds us what being a Christian is all about. It is a call to holiness and wholeness together. We are a people representing many languages, cultures, histories, and colors. Together, we are more vibrant and more Spirit-filled.

Fr. Richard Rohr, the great spiritual writer of our time, describes Pentecost not as a private holiness, but as connectedness with others. Rohr quotes the words of St. Peter, "You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a consecrated nation, a people set apart, who have been called out of darkness into this wonderful light. Once you were not a people at all; now you are the very people of God." (1 Peter 2:9-10) Jesus' image of discipleship is the Reign of God and the Kingdom of God. St. Paul's uses the image of the Body of Christ. St. John's Gospel speaks of a journey into a mystical union where "I and the Father are one." (John 14:20) All of these writers give similar reasons for why we look for a communal image of our relationship with God, because an individual image cannot carry God's glory and greatness alone. Our relationship with God provides us with an open, relational invitation to become more whole and holy.

Here at Holy Family Catholic Community, we all play an important role in how we structure our lives, respect one another, receive questions openly, honor our differences, practice hospitality and generosity, and work for justice in all our relationships in the world. Richard Rohr reminds us that built into every one of us is a "human becoming...an incompleteness, set on a trajectory of personal growth and formation. God creates us as finite, limited, and dependent creatures."

Pentecost invites us to growth in love with God and others as we learn to be and become more loving and hospitable in our daily lives. As we become more loving, more just, more compassionate, more merciful, and more generous, we are also becoming more integrated into the life of God made possible by the sanctifying work of the Spirit. As we become more whole and holy, we become more like Christ.

Although we are all created to be and become the image of God for one another, becoming whole and holy is not guaranteed or automatic. It takes time, attention, and intentionality. We can aid in this process by creating contexts more amenable to Christian formation — contexts that invite questions, hold our tensions with a loving embrace, respecting our doubts, and trusting in the Spirit's work in the life of all God's people. The reading of Sacred Scripture, serving together, prayer, worship, meditation, and self-reflection are just a few practices from our tradition that are given to our parish community as gifts of God for our formation and faithful living.

As we celebrate together the birthday of the Church, may we celebrate how Holy Family Catholic Community participates with God in bringing all people together as one holy and whole family. May we also seek healing and forgiveness from God for the ways in which the Church has, at times, failed to be inclusive of the differences of one another who are made in the image and likeness of God. May this healing and reconciliation cross all the barriers that divide us - such as race, class, gender, sexual orientation, marital status - which can impinge on our lives as we work for complete wholeness and holiness.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

1. Moses reminds his people that they have witnessed the power of God "by trials, by signs and wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm." What have you experienced that has led you to believe in the one, true God?
2. Does God still reveal himself today as he did in the time of Moses? As a community of faith, how do we see His presence?
3. Paul tells us that: "All who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God." Is the Holy Spirit an active part of your life? Do you feel the Holy Spirit leading you?
4. Jesus has commissioned us to "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations." What is our responsibility at Holy Family, and on a personal basis, to fulfill this commission?
5. If a non-believer asks you to explain the concept of the Trinity, what would your answer be?

Attention all Landscape Specialists and Gardeners

The flowers, trees and shrubs surrounding the building have been maintained by volunteers since the building opened. This does not include the Courtyard. We use a service to mow the grass. However, one of our volunteers recently decided to retire after many years of service, which leaves us with a team of one.

We are hoping to find a group of individuals who would be willing to maintain beds (pulling weeds), planting, dead heading flowers and minimum pruning of shrubs. The work is typically done once a week so as not to become overwhelming and takes about 3-4 hours. As previously mentioned we do have a volunteer who has been a part of the ministry and is committed to continue.

This is a great opportunity to spend time with friends while outdoors and supporting Holy Family. Please consider this ministry and feel free to contact Maureen DeRosa at 847-907-3489 with any questions.

New Prayer List Procedure

Our Liturgy team has revised our Prayer List procedures.

If you call to request prayers for a sick family member, their name will appear on the screens during Masses the upcoming weekend and for that weekend only. This is same procedure for the deceased.

You may call each week for three consecutive weeks (names will appear on the screens during the following weekend Masses). After three weeks, the name will be moved to our Parish Book of Continual Prayer.

Names will continue to be printed in the bulletin (three weeks for the sick, two weeks for deceased).

Please remember that you are always invited to say your loved ones' names, both sick and deceased, aloud during the prayers of the faithful at weekend and daily Masses.

If you have any questions, please contact the Pastoral Care office at 847-907-3425.

The Pastoral Care Community... provides, through our ministries, compassionate pastoral care with support and guidance for those who suffer in mind, body and spirit.

FUNERAL LUNCHEON MINISTRY

*Do you enjoy offering compassion through hospitality?
Why not consider becoming a part of the Funeral Luncheon Ministry?*

The Funeral Luncheon Ministry is made up of men and women who support Holy Family's welcoming spirit by helping to serve a luncheon after a Funeral Mass or Memorial Service. They help prepare the room for guests (no putting up or taking down of tables), and offer a smile as they serve the families who have just attended a funeral at Holy Family. They set up the buffet service and organize the beverage and food donations.

If you do not wish to serve at the luncheon, you may volunteer by donating a side dish or dessert.

We invite you to call the Pastoral Care office at 947-907-3425 or e-mail mferlita@holyfamilyparish.org for more information.

The Adult Faith Community... supports the mission of lifelong learning by providing educational, spiritual, and formational activities for the parish and the community.

In order to give you a view of what our RCIA program offers, we will be posting feedback from those who have participated fully in it in upcoming Bulletins. If you are interested in learning more about completing Sacraments or becoming Catholic (or you know someone else who might be interested) through Holy Family, please contact Bonnie Rooney at bonroon@aol.com or 847-977-4715 for more information.

Here's what our Neophytes had to say:

What are your thoughts about the Easter Vigil experience?

"It was a beautiful and reflective night. Many things had to occur before making it to this point and I met a lot of wonderful people along the way throughout the process."

"It made me feel special and accepted as part of the Holy Family and Catholic communities, and reinforced the significance of the decision each of us made when we chose to embark on this journey."

"One of the most blessed moments of my life."

"It was beautiful, serious, sacred. Awesome."

"The Easter Vigil and ceremonies prior will forever be one of my favorite life moments. The beauty of constant reflection during the remembrance of Jesus' great sacrifice was incredible. The emotions ran deep! The deep sorrow followed by the great celebration was unbelievably evident. From the feet washing, to the veneration of the cross, the Passion Play to the baptism. So many tears were shed out of sheer beauty, reverence and praise. Unless you've experienced it, I don't know how to describe it."

Wedding Rehearsal Ministry

If you love a good wedding and you would be interested in training to become a wedding rehearsal minister, please contact Eileen Neal at eneal@holyfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3448 and we will set up a time to begin the training process. This ministry is full of wonderful people who give great attention to the details of each wedding and help make the day a little easier for the families of our brides and grooms. Wedding season is about to start, so it is helpful to begin when you can "shadow" during some weddings and see how the process goes at Holy Family.

Time commitment - Lead or assist wedding rehearsals (about 1 hour each) and set-up, clean up and assist during weddings (about 4 hours). Training provided.

Adult Faith

What does it mean to be Catholic?

Our RCIA (the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)/Footsteps Team invites you to inquire into our amazing process that will help you deepen in your faith journey. RCIA is the process by which persons become fully initiated Catholics.

RCIA/Footsteps is especially for adults who were:

- Never baptized
- Baptized in another Christian faith and wish to become Catholic
- Baptized Catholic but never completed Sacraments

We will meet on September 10th at 10:15 am for an overview of RCIA.
Please let us know if you can join us!

Family & Teen Faith

Looking for an alternative to weekly Faith classes?

Why not consider home-schooling for Religious Education @ Holy Family

Why home school for religious education?

Teaching religious education at home is a wonderful option for many families. Home schooling, with the parent as catechist, has unique benefits and is still seen as a partnership between parents and the parish.

Benefits of home schooling for religious education

- To have more quality family time
- To give children with special needs one-on-one attention
- To eliminate scheduling conflicts
- To provide stability in the midst of frequent moves

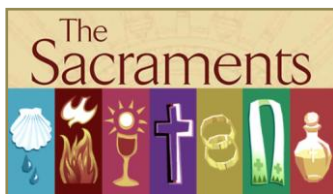

Does the Catholic Church allow home schooling for Religious Education?

Absolutely. The Second Vatican Council document on Christian education, Gravissimum Educationis, states that parents, society, and the Church all have a duty regarding the education of children, but that the primary and principal duty belongs to parents.

What is the role of the Parish community in home schooling for religious education and what is expected of parents who choose to home school their children for religious education?

The General Directory for Catechesis (GCD) reminds us that education in the faith is carried out in different ways in different places. At Holy Family we realize that much if not most education in faith takes place outside a classroom setting: in the family, in the neighborhood, in the larger parish community. It is in these settings that children see and experience the faith lived.

- Liturgy in the parish community is where the proclamation of the Gospel begins and where we, regardless of age, are invited to conversion and to follow Christ.
 1. Families who home-school for religious education will be asked to make a commitment to participate in the Sunday assembly on a regular basis.
- Genuine religious education informs, forms, and transforms! The Church calls all religious educators, including parents to foster both knowledge and understanding of Catholic teaching and practice, and develop an appreciation for Sacred Scripture and tradition in young people.
 2. Families who home-school for religious education will be asked use catechistical materials provided by the parish, submit completed work online and meet with one of the Faith or Teen Faith staff at regular intervals.
 - Bringing children to the parish programs for sacramental preparation further enriches their lives by bringing them into contact with other adults and with peers on the same faith journey.

3. Families who home school their children for religious education are asked to participate in the parish-based sacramental preparation programs. In the case of Confirmation, home schooled students will be asked to take part in community service opportunities, attend the FLAME 1 & 2 Retreats, and attend one of the PIZZA WITH THE PASTOR sessions.

The cost of the home-schooling option for Religious Education at Holy Family

- Tuition: $200.00 per family per year (a $100.00 non-refundable fee is due at the time of registration)
- Instructional Materials: $20.00 per child per year
- Sacramental and retreat fees are in addition to tuition.

Congratulations, Principal O'Brien!

Holy Family Catholic Academy's Principal, Mrs. Kate O'Brien was recently recognized by the Archdiocese of Chicago for relentlessly fostering excellence in education. In presenting the St. Thomas Aquinas Award, Dr. Jim Rigg, Superintendent of the Archdiocese of Chicago Catholic Schools, noted Mrs. O'Brien's commitment to rigor, continuous improvement and emphasis on 21st century instructional practices.

Principal O'Brien's award marks the third such distinction that our parish school has received during our year-long 15th anniversary celebration. HFCA was nationally recognized as a US Department of Education Blue Ribbon School for exemplary learning and instruction and also, notably became the first middle school program in the State of Illinois to be STEM Certified by AdvancED. Later this year, we hope to complete our multi-year candidacy* and become the first elementary school in the northwest suburbs to be authorized as an International Baccalaureate World School -- Primary Years Programme.

Fr. Terry complimented Kate by saying, "Raising standards, setting expectations and building collaboration is accomplished by a leader who embodies energy, humility, integrity and determination. Congratulations to Kate, Assistant Principal Laura Clark and all of HFCA's teachers who relentlessly focus on our students and live the Academy's motto of being thinkers, leaders, grounded in faith."

Hope Out of Darkness

“I was a stranger and you welcomed me..”
(Matthew 25:35)

Just as the Spirit was poured upon the first Christians, let the Spirit inspire us this Pentecost to have the courage to speak up for immigrant families, especially families separated by detention and deportation. Invite the Spirit to heal children and parents affected by detention.

ACTIONS: Pray that the Spirit fills our hearts with compassion for immigrant children separated from their families. Learn other practical ways to be in solidarity with our sister and brother immigrants at www.CatholicsAndImmigrants.org.

55+ MINISTRY
IS COMING...

OWLS

Older Wiser Lively Spirits

In the developmental stages is a new 55+ ministry for men and women; married and single; meeting at Holy Family Church. Meetings will take place twice a month to enjoy social activities; hear speakers relevant to today and our 55+ community; provide outreach opportunities and to join in spiritual fellowship. Stay tuned for updates relating to the OWLS Ministry kickoff.

May is National Mental Health Awareness Month

Pope John Paul II's 1977 message to healthcare workers in the L'Osservatore Romano Weekly Edition states "Whoever suffers from mental illness always bears God's image and likeness in (themselves), as does every human being. In addition, (people with mental illness) always have the inalienable right not only to be considered as an image of God and therefore as a person, but also to be treated as such."

"The people of God, the church, are called to be communities of compassion, hope and justice for people with mental illness and their families. It is important that persons with mental illness feel welcomed and supported within the parish. This requires the purest spiritual outreach, i.e., non-judgmental love and acceptance of the individual. The more that parishes can project non-judgmental love, the more its members suffering with mental illness, or those who have a family member with mental illness, are likely to acknowledge their needs and overcome their fears of rejection."

Excerpts from Deacon Tom Lambert's Mental Illness and Justice Issues. Deacon Tom is on the Chicago Archdiocese Commission on Mental Illness. The full report is available at the Social Justice table in the west coatroom.
