Fr. Terry Keehan

For the next five weeks we will be hearing a very significant portion of the Gospel of John. It is referred to as the Bread of Life Discourse. Every three years we hear this discourse because it helps us to see the essential role that the Eucharist plays in our Catholic spiritual life. Jesuit priest, Tad Guzie, says that at the Last Supper Jesus identifies himself with bread and wine. This simple concept helps us to understand that Bread and Wine are essential elements to the celebration of the Eucharist. We at Holy Family are dedicated to the documents of Vatican II that tell us, "...Christ is present in four ways in the Eucharist: the people gathered, the word of Scripture proclaimed, the elements of Bread and Wine and the person of the priest." They also tell us that the Eucharist is "...the source and summit of our faith life as Catholics."

Below I have highlighted portions of what we will hear proclaimed for the next five weeks, and these words of Jesus do underscore the ultimate importance of the Eucharist in our Catholic faith. Each of the coming weeks we will focus on a certain segment or aspect of the Eucharist, and we will highlight unique ways that we at Holy Family ritualize and proclaim parts of the Eucharist. This week we will focus on the word liturgy which you may hear often. Liturgy is a Greek word meaning 'the work of the people.' In this case the word work means participate. The documents of Vatican II call us all to "...full, conscious and active participation in the Mass." We here at Holy Family try to create a very vibrant worship experience which is not confined to music. We encourage you to actively listen to the scriptures proclaimed, to let the wide range of rituals speak to your heart. This requires some openness on our part, to be open to what God is saying ALL throughout the Liturgy.

Two unique Holy Family rituals that highlight this are our welcoming newcomers and visitors at the beginning of Mass and the congregation standing as the offertory gifts are brought forward, indicating that the gifts come from the people as an offering. I then encourage the gift bearers to walk all the way up to the altar so that they FACE the assembly as they PLACE the gifts of Bread and Wine on the altar, further emphasizing that they are gifts from us being offered to God. There is a lot of full, conscious and active participation by ALL during this part of the Liturgy.

This Weekend, July 28 & 29

We hear the only miracle story that is told in all 4 gospels. It is commonly referred to as the Multiplication of the Loaves and Fishes. Jesus is faced with a seemingly impossible task of feeding a multitude of people. He simply asks what is available. The answer is five loaves of barley bread and two fish. This is nowhere near enough. He asks the people to sit down. He takes what he has, gives thanks for it and shares it, and in the end there is not only enough, there is more than enough. In fact, there are 12 baskets full of leftovers that signify this is a beginning, a starting point similar to the people of Israel starting their formation with 12 tribes and Jesus calling 12 apostles to start his ministering community. When you feel overwhelmed, try giving thanks for what you have and sharing it, and see what happens.

Next week, August 5

People follow Jesus after they have been fed. He encourages them not to seek another meal but to work for things that last. They inquire as to his definition of work. Jesus replies that the work is to believe in God and to believe in him. They refer to the fact that Moses fed them in the desert. Jesus responds that it was not Moses who fed them but God who feeds them through Jesus. He then clearly states, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." "I am the bread of life" will be repeated several times.

August 12

The people murmur against Jesus. He states that their ancestors ate manna in the desert but they died. Whoever eats this bread (himself) will live forever, and the bread that is him and that he gives them is his flesh for the life of the world.

August 19

There is more murmuring. Jesus responds, "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man, you have no life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life and I will raise them up on the last day. My flesh is real food and my blood is real drink..." That weekend we will welcome Bishop Elect Ron Hicks as our summer mission appeal speaker.

August 26

There is still more murmuring against Jesus. Some could not handle or believe his words so they stopped following Jesus. Jesus asks the disciples if they want to leave as well. Peter responds, "To whom shall we go Lord? You have the words of everlasting life and you are the holy one of God." This statement helps us to see that much of our connection with the Eucharist is a leap of faith.

There is a boy
here who has five barley loaves and two fish

© 2018, J.S. Paluch Company, Inc.

July 29, 2018 • Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Put yourself in the place of the boy in today's Gospel. He had five barley loaves and two fish. Probably just enough for himself and his family, or a friend who made the journey to hear Jesus with him. What must he have thought, as he heard Andrew tell the Lord about the meal he had brought with him? Did he go to Andrew to tell him about the food, and offer it, or did someone notice that he had the food and let the others know? However it came to pass, the boy's gifts were called forth, and his small meal was given to the Lord. The boy trusted that in Jesus' hands, his barley loaves and fish would be put to good use. Jesus blessed the loaves and fish and fed thousands with them.

A LITTLE BECOMES A LOT

In the hands of the Lord, the little boy's food became a feast for many. Each of us has been given particular gifts and talents—the minutes, hours, and days that make up our lives, and material and financial resources. We may feel that it is barely enough for us. We might hesitate before we give anything to another, out of fear that we will not have enough, or simply because we do not let the need of the other into our mind and heart. Like the boy in the Gospel, our gifts may seem insignificant; we may feel that the little we have is not enough to truly make a difference in the life of another. Any who have given of themselves in service know that very often the opposite is true, however. We gain so much more than we give! Our gifts are called forth in community. We must trust that in giving for the sake of another, God's love will be known and shared.

Readings 8-5-18 and listen to Fr. Rich Jakubik reflect on the readings.

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. In the wilderness, the Israelites complained to Aaron and Moses that they had been brought out of Egypt only to die of hunger. They did not believe that something good was coming. When has your source of complaint turned into something good that you did not see coming?
2. On seeing the manna the Israelites didn't recognize God's blessing. When have you missed a blessing from God, and what opened your eyes?
3. Paul tells us to "put away your former way of life." When aspects of our former way of life creep back in, how do we deal with it and "put away" our old self again?
4. In our daily life, we all work for the food that perishes. What must we do more of to work for "the food that endures for eternal life"?
5. Jesus says, "I am the bread of life." What does this truth mean to you, and how does it shape your understanding of the Eucharist?

RCIA/ Footsteps

"I started my journey as someone wanting to get married in the Church with full participation during our Mass. After going through the process, I have found much stronger faith, and understanding of how God has played such an important role in every aspect of my life."

"I initially joined RCIA to unify my faith with my wife and daughter, who were already Catholic. However, as the journey progressed, I felt myself reaching a new level of personal faith with Christ, who I saw in every person I encountered on the journey. I met an amazing group of people who made me feel so accepted and loved, just as Christ accepts and loves us for who we are."

"I came to Holy Family because a friend suggested I visit. My husband is Catholic, and this church really feels like home to both of us. After a year of attending on Sundays, I decided to commit to becoming Catholic so I could fully participate in Communion and so that my children, who are watching us as parents, will see us united as a family in faith. As a result of this amazing experience, I feel so fully a part of the Church. I'm clear on what we are doing and what we stand for. I feel like I really belong. The RCIA experience was a springboard to launch me on a deeper and daily faith journey, which had been lacking in my life before."

There are countless reasons that seekers are drawn to RCIA each year to fully enter the Catholic faith. Some people seek unity in the family, some are hurting and want a strong foundation to help them through tough times, some feel a need to experience a deeper, more meaningful faith life, and others are cradle Catholics interested in completing sacraments. Are you feeling that tug in your heart? Reach out and invite someone who is seeking answers or a faith community.

Our RCIA Inquiry session will be on Sunday, August 26th at 10:15 (right after the 9:00 Mass).

We welcome anyone who would like to learn more about the RCIA/Footsteps process and we look forward to your questions. Contact bonroon@aol.com if you can join us!

The People of the Book: One God, Three Visions

Presented by Jerry Leitner, M.A., Theology

Thursdays, September 13, 20 and 27, 2018 - 7:00-9:00 pm

Cost: Suggested donation of $10 per night

(Note: For those of you who prefer morning programs, Jerry Leitner will be presenting the same topic during our morning Bible Journey program this year – stay tuned for details)

The Qur'an refers to Judaism, Christianity, and Islam as "people of the book" – meaning that Islam sees similarity and continuity between these three religions. Judaism, Christianity, and Islam are related religions complete with all the problems relatives experience: closeness, yes – but also misunderstandings, competition, spats, feuds, and the need to mend fences. This series of talks presents a primer on the three religions, showing how they interrelate in important basics, but also how they offer separate, distinctive, and sometimes opposing ways of approaching the divine.

"The Path of Descent is the Path of Transformation"

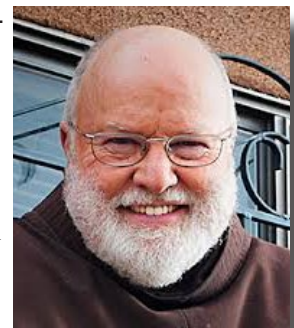

Tuesday, October 23, 2018 from 7:00-9:00 pm

We need to deeply trust and allow both our own dyings and our own certain resurrections, just as Jesus did! This is the full pattern of transformation. If we trust both, we are indestructible. That is how Jesus "saves" us from meaninglessness, cynicism, hatred, and violence—which is indeed death.

—Richard Rohr

There is no charge for this webcast program, but free will offerings to help with Adult Faith programs are welcome!

To register, please contact Jeannie Parry at jparry@holyfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3448 by October 18 so we can plan for seating.

becoming a

CATECHIST

Have you ever thought about being a catechist? Yes you! Let me tell you why I have been a catechist for the last 40 years.

1. Catechists change lives
2. I have the opportunity to inspire and be inspired at least once a week.
3. My own faith has deepened dramatically since being a catechist
4. I love children and admire t'weens and teens
5. Jesus told his disciples to "go and teach all nations" and as a baptized Catholic I am a disciple of Jesus

Dr. Peg Hanrahan

What exactly do catechists do?

They accompany another on their Journey of Faith. If you can listen, pray, affirm, share, encourage, reflect and bless, you'd make a great catechist. And as you are accompanying the children the Faith staff and other catechists will accompany you. Catechists are needed for K-grade 6. If you are interested contact Laura Ferlita, lferlita@holymfamilyparish.org.

During Step 2 catechists

- Affirm the other
- Share the story of Jesus
- Answer questions
- Share their own questions
- Pray with the other

During Step 1 catechists

- Welcome the other
- Invite one to tell their story of encountering God
- Listen
- Share their own stories of encountering God
- Pray for the other

During Step 3 catechists

- Encourage the other
- Helps the other discern their gifts
- Helps the other discern the needs in the world
- Serve along with the other

During Step 4 the catechists

- Bless the other

Bringing an International Education to the Northwest Suburbs

Holy Family Catholic Academy achieves International Baccalaureate World School status!

HFCA has been named the first suburban elementary school in Illinois to become authorized as an International Baccalaureate World School--Primary Years Programme (IB). HFCA joins only 15 other schools in Illinois to be awarded this distinction.

This announcement completes our multi-year IB candidacy and follows the school being named the first middle school in the state to become STEM certified by AdvancED as well as the distinction of receiving a 2017 US Department of Education Blue Ribbon Award for exemplary learning and teaching.

Principal Kate O'Brien states, "HFCA is committed to offering our students a more future-focused education which will instill in them the skills, knowledge, and outlook to succeed in the 21st century, both in their local communities and in the wider world. At the same time, our teachers will have the opportunity to be a part of an international network of experts leading the field of education."

Dr. Jim Rigg, Superintendent of Chicago Catholic Schools added his congratulations. "This is a significant accomplishment for HCFA! I know that IB programming will enable your school to serve the students even more deeply. We are excited for the future at HFCA! "

Please join us in congratulating Assistant Principal Laura Clark, IB Coordinator Colleen Biere, and the dedicated faculty and staff of HFCA who have worked diligently to align and enhance HFCA's already nationally recognized curriculum to meet the IB framework.

The Human Concerns Community... offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Family #30

Our family consists of a single 23 year old African American mom and her two son's ages 4 and 2. She became homeless due low income status. She reported that she had a history of being homeless during her high school years.

Our mom reported that her father passed away from a heart attack. He was a veteran and was buried in a veteran's cemetery in Springfield. She reported they had a rocky relationship early on, but recently the relationship began to soften and things were getting better between them. She's very sad that they will not be able to continue building their relationship. She also found out that her mother has a hole in her heart so she is quite concerned about her health. Adding to the misfortunes, she recently experienced online theft from her savings account which has set her back a bit.

On a brighter note she passed her GED exam and now has a high school diploma. She continues working at her current job. This month was tough for her but she is determined to work toward her goals and keep a positive attitude.

Goals:

- Save up at least 3 month's rent/saving IRS tax refund
- Obtain her GED
- Apply for low income housing
- Obtain her driver's license by paying off outstanding debts

Family #31

This family consists of a single mixed race (white and black) 24 year old female and her two son's ages 7 and 5. Client became homeless due to emotional abuse from her ex and his family with whom they lived. Her oldest child is from another relationship.

Our mom is doing great! She still does not have a car, but is waiting for the repairs to be completed. Unfortunately, the repair costs will deplete her savings. She has officially accepted the Manager Position at the restaurant. Eventually she will be managing the store in Vernon Hills and is so excited about her added job responsibilities. In spite of her car problem she is quite pleased with her raise and looking forward to her future. Her children are doing well and she has enrolled them in summer camp.

Goals:

- Save up at least 3 month's rent/saving IRS tax refund
- Attend work and school as scheduled
- Apply for low income housing

New Hope sends sincere gratitude to the parishioners of the Peace and Justice Cluster! We are grateful to have your continuous support over the years. Thank you so much!

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Human trafficking is the world's second largest enterprise, after drug smuggling and arms dealing, bringing in $32 billion annually. In Illinois, victims are found most often in Chicago and its suburbs working in restaurants, fields and resorts. It is estimated that 5.5 million children are being trafficked. 55% are women and girls; 45% are men and boys. Traffickers use violence, threats and lies, withholding documents and payment to control the movement of their victims. Contact your legislators and urge them to protect human dignity and combat human trafficking.

Illinois Women Religious Against Human Trafficking

Yes, it's Back to School soon!

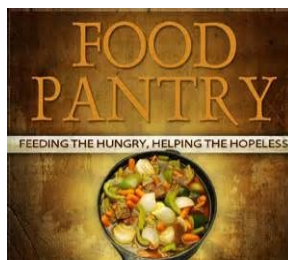

Last year Holy Family, through your overwhelming support and generous donations, was able to give 140 under-privileged children a head start with new backpacks filled with basic school supplies. This year, 190 children, kindergarten through college, from Catholic Charities, St. Mary's Services, The Peace Corner and Wings, need our assistance.

Please consider supporting at least one child by selecting a tag in the Narthex. Each tag represents a child ready to learn who needs our help. Backpacks are due ASAP and should be placed in the Chapel hallway.

If you have any questions, please contact Barb Stec, bstec58622@aol.com.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT

FOOD PANTRY REPORT June, 2018

Six families, including 16 individuals, were served 500 meals.

Thanks to our parishioners and St. Theresa parishioners who continuously bring food to the shopping cart each week. Approximately 64 bags of food were collected! We are truly blessed to have such generous and thoughtful donors. All of our food pantry clients are so appreciative of the foods and other products you donate for their use. Thanks, also, to our pantry stewards who serve our clients with compassion and dignity. Please be mindful that we provide our clients with food products that are still within its freshness date and not expired. Check the date before making a donation, especially if it was not a recent store purchase. See the food pantry door for items in short supply.
