Vision Statement

Holy Family Catholic Community invites all to new life in Christ. Our response to God's call is evident through full, conscious and active participation in our community.

Mission Statement

To engage all in the sacramental life through vibrant worship, life-long learning and passionate community.

Core Values

Animated by our faith in God to evangelize, we live the following core values:

- Integrity
- Excellence
- Unity
- Service
- Justice

Welcome to Holy Family

Holy Family Catholic community invites all to new life in Christ. Are you new to Holy Family? Are you considering becoming a registered parishioner? We welcome you to become engaged in carrying out our mission. New members are registered on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of every month (excluding holidays) immediately following the 9:00 A.M. Mass. Welcome Ministers will be available at the Welcome Desk to walk you through the short registration process. Saint Paul says, "We are the Body of Christ." We look forward to experiencing that reality with you. Fr. Terry Keehan, Pastor

Fr. Terry Keehan

This weekend we continue our journey through the Bread of Life Discourse from the sixth chapter John in which Jesus repeatedly identifies himself as the Bread of Life and offers himself to us as such in the gift of the Eucharist. Please read the sixth chapter of John. It won't take long. Reading it in its entirety will give you a renewed appreciation for our belief in Christ's REAL presence in the Eucharist, which we celebrate every day and in a more dramatic way each weekend. In my reflections I have emphasized Life as much as Bread, because it is important to see our Life experiences as being enriched by the Bread we receive in the Eucharist, which is Jesus Christ.

We began the first week with an emphasis on words such as LITURGY (the work of the people) as well as Church documents that call us to "...full, conscious and active participation" in the Eucharistic celebration. Building on that we emphasized the activity of the Mass as well as the objects of bread and wine, thus underscoring that the Eucharistic celebration is as much a verb (action of the Holy Spirit) as a noun (something that we receive), sacred OBJECTS that nourish us for spiritual ACTION.

Last week we focused on the Gathering Rite as setting the tone for each Mass and the Liturgy of the Word (Christ's real presence in both the people gathered and the Scriptures proclaimed).

This weekend we turn our focus to the Liturgy of the Eucharist. We move from Christ's real presence in the people gathered and Scripture proclaimed to his presence in the elements of bread and wine. This part of the Mass begins with members of the assembly (who represent all of us) bringing forward and placing the elements of bread and wine on the altar as an OFFERING. Here at Holy Family the assembly ushers forth the Offertory in a unique way – by standing in a wave from back to front. Consider that we are using the offering of bread and wine to emphasize that we are offering ourselves to God.

The presider then leads the assembly in a prayer of CONSECRATION that calls down the Holy Spirit to change bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ, thus carrying out his command to be with us in this profoundly spiritual event, both now and forever.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist continues with the assembly praying the Our Father. At Holy Family we accentuate this prayer by joining hands, even across the aisles, sometimes singing the prayer, all of which celebrate our unity.

We then come forward to receive The Bread of Life. We share it. We receive it as a gift. When presented with the Body and Blood of Christ, we respond AMEN. This is a Greek word that has no clean interpretation into English, but we consider that it means at least three things. First, it means "yes." Second, it means "I believe." Third, it is a commitment to be what we are receiving, namely the Body of Christ. With our "Amen" we are making a statement of who Christ is and who we. We are receiving a gift and making a commitment at the same time.

The liturgical documents encourage us to bow slightly prior to receiving the Body and Blood of Christ as a sign of reverence and respect. At Holy Family we encourage you to STATE YOUR NAME after bowing. This is a statement of who you are in the face of who Christ really is. It also makes a sacred moment more sacred because it is made more personal.

Please consider making your own altar with your hands flat and open to receive the Body of Christ, one hand beneath the other so that the Eucharistic minister can place the host on your altar safely and reverently. Please do not grab or take the host; allow it to be placed on your altar as a gift received.

Please consider receiving both the Body and Blood of Christ. The cup contains the Blood of Christ, but it also represents the divine/human covenant. Slightly different from the bread/Body that we receive, the cup of Christ's Blood is passed from one to another, from minister to assembly. In other words, we are entrusted with holding the covenant and drinking from it. There is great sacredness in the act of passing the covenant from one to another. It is the ultimate act of sharing and celebrating community by sharing the common cup containing something far from common. Consider that it also represents many other sacred things that we share with each other along life's journey. Obviously, God understands if you choose not to receive from the cup because of allergies or other reasons pertaining to the alcohol content of the wine/Blood.

Please consider that intinction, or dipping the host in the wine, is not the ideal way to receive Christ's Blood. First of all, Jesus' words at the last supper with the cup are a command, "Take this all of you and drink from it..." Secondly, we have more germs on our hands than in our mouths. By dipping the host, our hands often come in contact with the cup as well as the tips of our fingers in the wine. Next, from the minister's standpoint, it is difficult to hold a cup while another person dips the host in it. Finally, several members of the assembly have gluten allergies and dipping the host in the wine injects elements that make them very sick as they receive from the cup.

All of the above has been carefully reflected upon to make our celebration of The Bread of Life more sacred. Thank you for your prayerful consideration.

Next weekend, August 18 & 19, we will hold our annual summer mission appeal, this year for Nuestrros Pequenos Hermanos. Fr. Tom Byrne will speak on Saturday and Bishop-Elect Fr. Ron Hicks will speak at Sunday Masses. Further information on NPH can be found on page 19 of this bulletin.

Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Our Mass times are 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. in church.

Is a Small Christian Community for Me?

Are you interested in enhancing your experience of the larger Church by participating in a periodic small gathering of friends and neighbors, sharing and discussing life experiences in the light of Scripture, and supporting each other on the spiritual journey? If so, the SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITIES ARE FOR YOU!

For more information, please contact:

Peter & Cari Pappas

815-670-3734 or pmpbears@comcast.net

You can also see us in the Narthex after all Masses on August 25 & 26 (except 4pm).

WE LOOK FORWARD TO TALKING WITH YOU!

Can you help with our "dirty laundry"?

Holy Family is blessed with a group of parishioners – the Linen Sacristan Ministry – who launder our altar cloths and other liturgical linens. Their ministry is completely behind the scenes, but vital to our parish's celebration of the Eucharist. It's a quiet, peaceful, personal and important ministry.

As we focus on the Eucharist in our liturgies this month, it's a perfect time to invite YOU to consider joining the Linen Sacristans. The sacristans serve on a rotating schedule. Currently each member has a turn about every 6 weeks.

For more information contact Vicki Peters, Liturgical Environment Coordinator at vpeters@holyfamilyparish.org or 847.907.3441

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @

<https://www.youtube.com/user/HFInverness/videos>. Click on reflections for Sunday Readings 8-19-18 and listen to Fr. Charlie Bolser reflect on the readings.

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. In Proverbs we hear: "You that are simple, turn in here!" In this passage, what does the word "simple" mean to you?
2. Who do you consider to be wise, and why?
3. Paul speaks of "hymns and spiritual songs." What role has music played in your faith life? What psalms or hymns have really touched you?
4. In the Eucharist, Jesus gives his entire person. How can we give our "entire person" to God in return?
5. We are in week three of the "bread of life" discourse. Why did Jesus stress this point over and over again?

our ministries,
compassionate pastoral care with support and guidance for those who suffer in mind, body and spirit.

The call to serve is sometimes a quiet call or whisper within your heart, a nudging you to reach out to help others, bring comfort to others, or simply do something for others.

Here is an opportunity to learn the basic skills to become a minister of care at Holy Family.

If you are a man or woman* who would like to serve others by bringing the "Body of Christ" with the sacrament's healing presence, then look below for information to become a Minister of Care.

If you are a mom or dad* with children in school and have one or two hours a week to bring joy to someone who is unable to join us for Mass, then please consider this opportunity to become a Minister of Care.

Hours to serve are customized to your availability.*

What: Basic Training for New Ministers of Care

When: September 22 and October 13, 2018 (Attendance on "both Saturdays" will complete your training requirements)

Place: St. Peter Damian, 131 S. Crest Ave., Bartlett, IL 60013 in the basement of the chapel building

Time: 9:00am to 2:30pm both days

For more information or to register please call Mimi Ferlita at

Rising From Divorce Ministry

Relationships that end are difficult transitions for all regardless of the uniqueness of the relationship. These times call for patience and understanding. Come join others who are on the journey to discover how to live fully and peacefully.

Next session: MONDAY, August 20, 7:00 - 9:00PM

"What Does the Owner's Manual Say?"

- The true nature of marriage
- Under what circumstances does the Bible clearly permit divorce?
- How to use the Bible and other tools to make wise post-divorce decisions

Walk-ins are welcome. For more information please email kathykv2@gmail.com.

To Be Joyful Again

Are you or someone you know widowed? Consider attending one of our gatherings with others who have experienced a loss of a spouse or loved one.

Come join us on the 1st & 3rd Thursday of every month at 7:00pm.

The retreat is created for young adults to listen for the voice of God and rest in His love and mercy. Bring an open heart and a willingness to be present for others and Jesus in our lives. Please also bring a Bible and a journal or paper for reflections during the day.

The cost for the retreat is $15 per person and includes retreat materials and lunch. Please visit <https://vic1chicago.org/> to register.

Our retreat will be led by Janet Olivieri Caschetta. Janet is a Director of Religious Education currently in the Archdiocese of Chicago and formerly in the Diocese of Joliet. She has been ministering in the Catholic Church for over 30 years.

RCIA/ Footsteps

We invite anyone who is interested in becoming Catholic, or who wants to complete their sacraments to join us as we begin the Footsteps in Faith journey 2018-2019. We start wherever you are, so come as you are and bring your questions! There are countless reasons that seekers are drawn to RCIA each year to fully enter the Catholic faith. Some people seek unity in the family, some are hurting and want a strong foundation to help them through tough times, some feel a need to experience a deeper, more meaningful faith life, and others are cradle Catholics interested in completing sacraments. Are you feeling that tug in your heart? Do you know someone who is? Reach out and invite someone who is seeking answers or a faith community. Our RCIA Inquiry session will be on Sunday, August 26th at 10:15 (right after the 9:00 Mass).

We welcome anyone who would like to learn more about the RCIA/Footsteps process or Catholicism in general, and we look forward to your questions.

Contact bonroon@aol.com if you can join us!

The Qur'an refers to Judaism, Christianity, and Islam as "people of the book" - meaning that Islam sees similarity and continuity between these three religions. Judaism, Christianity, and Islam are related religions complete with all the problems relatives experience: closeness, yes—but also misunderstandings, competition, spats, feuds, and the need to mend fences. This series of talks presents a primer on the three religions, showing how they interrelate in important basics, but also how they offer separate, distinctive, and sometimes opposing ways of approaching the divine.

We hope you will join us! We are thrilled to have Jerry Leitner back at Holy Family for this engaging three night program!

To register, please contact Jeannie Parry at 847-907-3448 or Registration by September 10 is appreciated so we can plan for seating.

Bible Journey

“Digging in God’s Garden: Archaeology in the Bible”

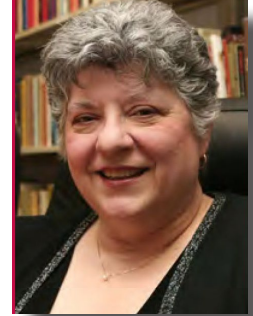

Presented by Pauline Viviano, Ph.D.

Wednesdays, October 10, 17, 24, and 31, 2018

9:45-11:45 am (one hour of lecture and one hour of small group discussion)

Cost: $35

Archaeology in the Middle East has had a profound impact on reading the Bible. In this four week series we will explore the major archaeological discoveries that have expanded our knowledge of the ancient Near East and the Greco-Roman world and have revolutionized our understanding of the Bible. Our focus will be on written material uncovered over the last century, but we will also take into consideration what we have learned about the way life was lived in the biblical period.

Richard Rohr Webcast –

“The Path of Descent is the Path of Transformation”

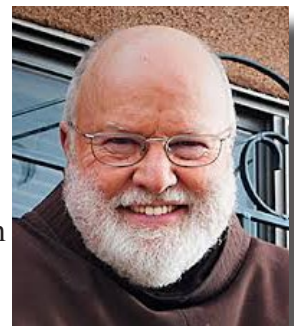

Tuesday, October 23, 2018 from 7:00-9:00 pm

We need to deeply trust and allow both our own dyings and our own certain resurrections, just as Jesus did! This is the full pattern of transformation. If we trust both, we are indestructible. That is how Jesus “saves” us from meaninglessness, cynicism, hatred, and violence—which is indeed death.

—Richard Rohr

There is no charge for this webcast program, but free will offerings to help with Adult Faith programs are welcome!

To register, please contact Jeannie Parry at jparry@holyfamilyparish.org

The Family & Teen Faith Community...

let us not let the perfect stand in the way of the good. We are a work in progress. Our website claims

- Our worship services are stimulating, insightful and musical,
- Our faith community is vibrant,
- Our reach-out is compassionate,
- Our adult formation is creative, our education programs are cutting edge,
- Our welcome is warm.

All of this is both true and not as true as we'd like it to be. Here's the painful truth; you don't always get what you want from faith or Church and that is by divine design. Unlike subscription services, retailers, service providers of every stripe that strive to make us feel like they are all about us; faith communities have a more nuanced pitch to make – you must be all about others.

Marketing ourselves is a difficult task. Let's face it some of the best things about being a faith community simply don't sell well. Faith communities do not exist to satisfy the desires of their members, they exist to do God's will. This is not to say the Catholic Community of Holy Family doesn't meet many of our needs or satisfy many of our desires; just not all of them, at least right now. Unfortunately, whether our needs have been met or challenged, our desires satisfied or frustrated, that doesn't stop us from coming to the community, or going forth from the community, with our own agendas, with an expectation that what's good for me and mine/us and ours is the full measure of the good, when in fact sometimes it has nothing to do with the good at all.

The Christian

PARADOX

lose to gain;
give to receive
die to live

The truth is our Catholic community, parish, Church, does not exist to serve us, to meet our needs, or improve our lives. It exists so that rooted in Christ's love we can serve, meet the needs of other's and improve all of life, everywhere (including our own). This is the ultimate Christian paradox; the way of God. When each one serves, everyone is served. When each one welcomes, all are welcomed. When each one forgives, everyone is forgiven.

I'll admit, what looks simple is not. What appears easy is anything but and there are days I don't want to be either Catholic or in community. At those times I try to remember God wants far more for me than I want for myself and this is the Lord's way of giving it to me.

School starts in mid-August but summer is NOT over!

Join us Friday, August 24 at 6:30 pm in the Multitorium

First round of popcorn is on us. Additional concessions will be available for sale or feel free to bring your own.

We will be showing the delightful animated film THE TALE OF DESPEREAUX, a film adaptation of Kate DiCamillo's Newbery Award-winning children's book. Put your little ones in their pj's and let the kids curl up in their sleeping bags or on a blanket so they're ready for bed when you get home.

CATECHIST

Have you ever thought about being a catechist? Yes you! Let me tell you why I have been a catechist for the last 40 years.

1. Catechists change lives
2. I have the opportunity to inspire and be inspired at least once a week.
3. My own faith has deepened dramatically since being a catechist
4. I love children and admire t'weens and teens
5. Jesus told his disciples to "go and teach all nations" and as a baptized Catholic I am a disciple of Jesus

Dr. Peg Hanrahan

What exactly do catechists do?

They accompany another on their Journey of Faith. If you can listen, pray, affirm, share, encourage, reflect and bless, you'd make a great catechist. And as you are accompanying the children the Faith staff and other catechists will accompany you. Catechists are needed for K-grade 6. If you are interested contact Laura Ferlita, lferlita@holyparish.org.

During Step 2 catechists

- Affirm the other
- Share the story of Jesus
- Answer questions
- Share their own questions
- Pray with the other

During Step 3 catechists

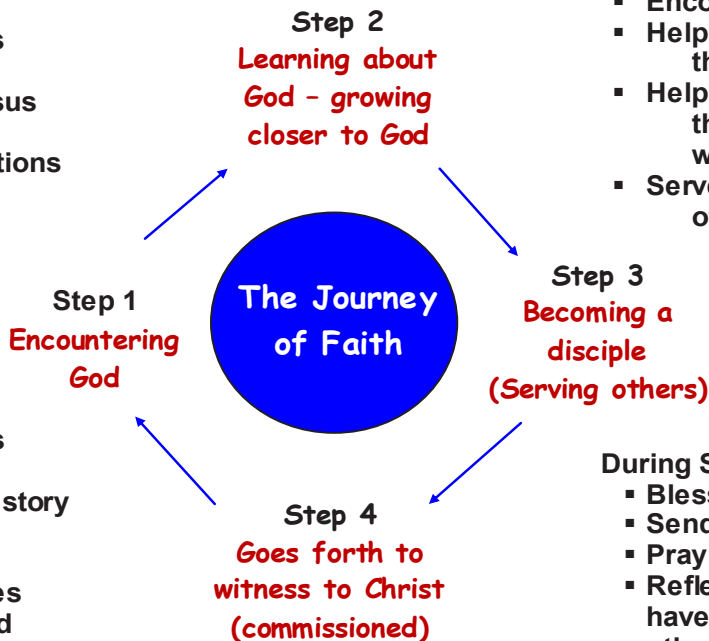

- Encourage the other
- Helps the other discern their gifts
- Helps the other discern the needs in the world
- Serve along with the other

During Step 1 catechists

- Welcome the other
- Invite one to tell their story of encountering God
- Listen
- Share their own stories of encountering God
- Pray for the other

During Step 4 the catechists

- Bless the other
- Send the other forth
- Pray for the other
- Reflect on what they have learned from the other
- Continue to give witness

The Human Concerns
Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Dear Fr. Keehan and the Faith Community of Holy Family,

I can't thank you enough for your generous donation and support to our Strong Futures Program. This program focuses on young men and women between the ages of 17 and 28 that are not in school or working and have been made to feel as if they are society's throwaways. We have had great success watching lives changed and seeing young people, once again, living to achieve their God given purpose and destiny.

Your Lenten program not only became a living witness for your congregation in living the Gospel, but it is a model for the Archdiocese of Chicago, and beyond, on how to make the Gospel flesh and become an active participant in eradicating this plague of violence.

Thank you for your faith, passion, and commitment to helping us save lives.

In the Pursuit of Justice....

Rev. Michael L. Pflieger
(Senior Pastor, St. Sabina Church)

Dear Fr. Keehan,

The Peace Corner Youth Center is deeply grateful to Holy Family Parish Community for its recent generous $51,567 capital gift. Please accept our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for this unexpected wonderful donation.

Founded in 2002, The Peace Corner Youth Center provides a safe place for youth to engage in activities outside of school and opportunities to reach their full potential. The Center offers a variety of programs for youth ages 12-18 in Chicago's Austin neighborhood. Young people who participate are predominantly African American and they typically live at or below the poverty level. We offer serves that include Education and Enrichment, Building Life Skills and Increasing Psychological Well-Being, Recreational Programming, Violence Prevention and Summer Programming.

Frederick Douglass said, "It is easier to build strong children than to repair broken men." This is the philosophy underlying the work of The Peace Corner.

Thank you for this remarkable donation. We are deeply grateful.

Sincerely,

Msgr. Michael M. Boland
President and CEO

Human Concerns

Make a day of it at Royal Oak Farm Orchard Thursday, September 20, 2018

This orchard lies on 120 beautiful acres and has over 30 varieties of apples on over 17,000 trees. You can visit the Apple Barn or Harvest Barn for fresh pre-picked apples, pumpkins, squash and their famous apple cider slushees. And don't forget the delicious apple cider, available in the Country Market, Apple Barn and Harvest Barn!

Stop in for a wonderful home-cooked lunch (at your expense) at the Country Kitchen famous for their chicken pot pie. A slice of pie from the selection of many different fruits will be a tasty end to your lunch or visit the Bakery where their famous fresh apple cider donuts can be purchased. Browse through the Country Market gift shop and purchase a nice gift for a friend, family member or yourself while enjoying a nice cup of coffee from the coffee bar.

Transportation will be provided by bus at a cost of $12 per person. Arrive at Holy Family no later than 10:15am, returning to Holy Family at 3:00pm. To reserve your seat, return the completed form to the front office with your payment for transportation by Sunday, September 16. See the narthex shelves or www.holyfamilyparish.org/owls for a registration form. For more on the orchard, go to www.royaloakfarmorchard.com. Contact Eileen with questions at dwtjs@aol.com.

OWLS SUPPORT SUMMER SUPPERS WITH DONATIONS AND VOLUNTEERING

A big shout out to the people of the OWLS ministry who donated food, beverages or monetarily to the Summer Suppers for the Homeless on Monday, July 23, 2018. Our volunteers who helped set-up or serve came away with many "thank you"s from the attendees. Providing for this great need of others definitely put our faith into action. Thank you, too, to the people who donate their time monthly to make life just a bit easier for those in a homeless situation.

Annual Food Pantry Statistics

Over the past 12 months, Holy Family's Food Pantry served 203 individuals providing 6580 meals and giving out $105 in food certificates to supplement items we cannot offer. 971 bags of food/personal care items were donated by our parishioners and St. Theresa parishioners. 167 bags of food and other items were shared with local pantries and agencies while our volunteers lovingly gave 93 hours of their time to service our clients. Thank you for your continued dedication through your donations to provide basic needs to our parishioners and local community in need.

Greed vs. The Common Good

An article by Dylan Selterman
National Geographic Magazine Vol 233. No.6

Dylan Selterman is a lecturer at the University of Maryland College Park, and former editor in chief of the psychology magazine In-Mind and lives in Washington, DC. To teach his students about individualism vs common good in an article in the National Geographic Magazine, he challenges his students to choose final points added to a final paper grade – zero, two or six. If more than 10 percent of the class chooses 6 points, no one will receive any points. If you choose zero points, you cancel out one of the six-point choosers, who will receive no points. The point is to teach people about the consequences of personally taking too many resources in hopes they will not. His class usually fails the test. The Global Footprint Network calculates the date each year what humans demand on nature - food, wood, fiber and carbon dioxide absorption - exceeds what Earth can regenerate in a year. In 2017 the 'Earth Overshoot Day' was the earliest on record and humans used roughly 1.71 Earths' worth of resources. Learn more about your Global Footprint at footprintcalculator.org. What resources can you use less of so others may get their fair share?

HOLY FAMILY ANNUAL MISSION APPEAL

August 18 and 19

Preaching at next weekend's Masses during our annual mission appeal will be Father Ron Hicks (Sunday Masses) and Father Tom Byrne (Saturday evening Mass). Both of these priests from the Archdiocese of Chicago will be speaking about their experiences with Nuestros Pequeños Hermanos (NPH), which is Spanish for Our Little Brothers and Sisters.

Father Ron Hicks currently serves as the Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Chicago. Last month, he was named by Pope Francis to be an Auxiliary Bishop within the Archdiocese. Father Ron spent from 2005-2010 working at NPH El Salvador as the Director of Central American operations for Nuestros Pequeños Hermanos. To the right is a photo of Father Ron taken last year with a number of children being served by NPH El Salvador.

Father Tom Byrne works at the University of St. Mary of the Lake as the Associate Dean of Formation, Director of Chicago Seminarians, and Director of Teaching Parish Program. As a seminarian, Father Tom spent several summers ministering at NPH El Salvador and learning Spanish.

Inspired by its Catholic Christian values, NPH creates a loving and safe family environment for vulnerable children living in extreme conditions. Through an array of residential, educational, and healthcare services, NPH gives orphaned, abandoned and at-risk children the opportunity to develop their potential, shaping better futures for themselves, their families and their communities. There will be a second collection to benefit NPH at next weekend's Masses. We invite you to learn more about this worthy mission at www.nphusa.org.

RCIA— Footsteps in Faith

RCIA, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults/Footsteps, is the process by which persons become fully initiated Catholics. It is a process structured around adult learning and spiritual renewal.

RCIA/Footsteps is especially for adults who were:

- never baptized
- baptized in another Christian faith and who wish to become Catholic
- baptized Catholic, but never completed sacraments.

Our Footsteps team is ready to serve you and help you on your journey to full initiation in the Catholic Church.

Join us for our first Inquiry meeting on Sunday, August 26, 2018 after the 9:00 Mass.
