Fr. Rich Jakubik

This weekend we focus on the part of the liturgy known as the Gathering Rite and the Liturgy of the Word. The Gathering Rite consists of our gathering at the church before Mass, the Opening Hymn, the Sign of the Cross, the Greeting, the Penitential Rite, the Gloria and the Opening Prayer. First and foremost, the Mass or liturgy is something done by everyone together. Therefore, we should show kindness, hospitality, and graciousness to everyone who gathers. We greet one another warmly and make this place welcoming to all – those of us with disabilities, those with young children, and those who are elderly, those we do not know.

The preliminary thing we do as a community is gather, congregate, assemble. This begins in the narthex area at Holy Family and moves into the main body of the church. One of the first things we hear upon entering the church are words of greeting and welcome by the liturgical leaders. As stated in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), #27, “Christ is really present in the very liturgical assembly gathered in his name...” For Jesus said, “Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst” (Matthew, chapter 18, verse 20). Christ is also present “. . . in the person of the minister, in His Word [Sacred Scripture], and indeed substantially and continuously under the Eucharistic species.” So, let us then acknowledge Christ’s presence in all those who are gathered.

We are invited to come forward into the main body of the church and fill up the front rows, not just the middle or back rows, not sitting just on the end of the pews but moving to the middle as if we are inviting others to sit beside us. We begin the gathering or entrance rite together. Though some of the assembly is in the ritual procession, we are all in procession, all moving into the liturgy. The entrance song is for all of us. We sing to signal the transition into communal activity that begins from moving from where we are to where we want to be in Christ. According to the GIRM, #47, “The purpose of the opening song is to open the celebration, foster the unity of those who have been gathered, introduce their thoughts to the mystery of the liturgical season or festivity, and accompany the procession of the priest and ministers.”

The presider then leads us in the sign of the cross, a simple but profound gesture that proclaims who we are and whose we are in Christ. We then move into the penitential rite where we acknowledge that we are all imperfect and wounded human beings in need of God’s blessing, healing, and reconciliation. During this time the presider reminds us to express sorrow for our sins and ask the Lord for forgiveness and mercy. We then sing the Gloria to recognize that Christ’s redemption is given to all who ask. The GIRM, #53, reminds us that “The Gloria is a very ancient and venerable hymn in which the Church, gathered together in the Holy Spirit, glorifies and entreats God the Father and the Lamb.” We then observe a brief moment of silence and the presider then leads the assembly in a prayer which is customarily known as the collect and through which the character of the celebration is expressed. The people make the prayer their own with the acclamation, Amen.

During the Liturgy of the Word, we are all listening and responding to the Word of God. To enable us to listen and respond most effectively, the liturgy asks us to be seated. We sit so that we can better enter into active listening and responding. The dialogues at the ends of the readings, the Responsorial Psalm, and the Gospel Acclamation all remind us that we respond to the Word of God, not just by saying or singing “Thanks be to God,” but by taking in the Word within us so that we are nourished by it. The proclamation of Sacred Scripture is more than the printed words on the page. It is the living Word of God spoken through the mouths of the lectors and presider. We proclaim the text orally in the midst of our community and we receive it aurally into our own minds and hearts during the living liturgy. It is a living, breathing, active Word for our present day, proclaimed for all of us who are listening and receiving actively. Into our daily struggles, our own joys and sorrows, our own hopes and fears, the Living Word of God comes afresh to nourish us, strengthen us, challenge us, and help us grow in faith. Let us be attentive to the Living Word of God!

We stand to hear the Gospel because it tells us of the life, ministry, and preaching of Jesus and therefore receives a special sign of reverence. The gathered assembly stands to hear the Gospel, just as one would stand for the guest of honor when he or she enters the room. We beautify the proclamation of the Gospel with a sung “Alleluia” beforehand. The Hebrew word Alleluia means “Praise for the Lord!” Another sign of reverence for the Gospel is the proclamation by the deacon – if no deacon is present, the priest proclaims the Gospel. A special Book of Gospels is used for this proclamation. The book of the Gospels is reverently processed by the deacon or presider from the altar to the ambo, where it is passionately proclaimed. The Liturgy of the Word focuses on the letters and writings assembled in the Bible so that the faithful will always be taught the scriptures. The readings are a way in which God communicates to each person. If I ignore the readings, I am not opening my ears to hear Him speak.

A few minutes before or after Mass, read through the Scripture passages. Ask God to help you reflect on His word and think about it throughout the day. The daily Mass readings can be easily accessed through the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops website, <http://uscbb.org/bible/>. St. Jerome is attributed with saying that “Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ.” As we listen to the Scriptures at Mass, let us reflect on them, encounter Christ, and truly grow in our love and knowledge of God!

Holy Family is blessed with a group of parishioners – the Linen Sacristan Ministry – who launder our altar cloths and other liturgical linens. Their ministry is completely behind the scenes, but vital to our parish's celebration of the Eucharist. It's a quiet, peaceful, personal and important ministry.

As we focus on the Eucharist in our liturgies this month, it's a perfect time to invite YOU to consider joining the Linen Sacristans. The sacristans serve on a rotating schedule. Currently each member has a turn about every 6 weeks.

I'd also like to extend a THANK YOU to the ministry members: Marsha Caccamo, Carol Clark, Ann Conforti, Ellen Dethloff, Mary Pat Horn, Marion Tuttle, and Mary Vreeland for all they do and continue to do as sacristans. Special thanks go to Patty Miller who has led the ministry for several years and has recently "retired" from the sacristans. We're grateful for her dedication and service!

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @
<https://www.youtube.com/user/HFInverness/videos>. Click on reflections for Sunday Readings 8-12-18 and listen to Fr. Bill Zavaski reflect on the readings.

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. When Elijah could go no further, an Angel came and ministered to him. Who has served as an angel in your life, ministering to you in your time of need?
2. The Angel came a second time to help Elijah. Why is it important that we don't consider our help to others as a "one and done?" When have you given or received repeated help from someone else?
3. Paul gives us a list of things to "put away" to better live a Christian lifestyle. As you read Paul's entire list, how hard is it to avoid these things every day?
4. In our Gospel, the people think that Jesus is "just too ordinary" to be the Messiah. What is the lesson for us here? Have you ever misjudged another person, or have others ever misjudged you?

Summer is surely a favorite time of the year ... so many activities to enjoy - vacations, family events, cabins in the woods, a baseball game, a trip to the city, a pool party or a round of golf. While we manage our family schedules, we may lose track of some of our regular, not quite as exciting activities.

RCIA/Footsteps

"I decided to join RCIA after many years of feeling this undeniable missing piece to my life puzzle. Growing in my faith has always been something that I wanted to pursue, regardless of what else was happening in my life. I was baptized Catholic as an infant and have always felt this slight void in my life not having completed my Communion or Confirmation, hence making the decision as an adult to do so. I did a little bit of research and found Holy Family Catholic Church. I was drawn to its progressive and welcoming nature and after just one informational meeting where I had the pleasure of meeting the Adult Faith team, I knew I had made the right decision. This experience has been one of the most authentic, emotional, and reflective personal journeys that I have ever been on. From that initial informational meeting all the way to the Easter Vigil, the amount of love and support I have received from the team and the other candidates is indescribable..."

"I initially joined RCIA to get a 'quick' certification to become a legitimate godparent. I never expected to be deeply involved in the process; I certainly never expected a genuine transformation to occur. In fact, at first I was frustrated that it was going to take months! However, I am beyond grateful that it took so long. The time it took ended up changing my life..."

There are countless reasons that seekers are drawn to RCIA each year to fully enter the Catholic faith. Some people seek unity in the family, some are hurting and want a strong foundation to help them through tough times, some feel a need to experience a deeper, more meaningful faith life, and others are cradle Catholics interested in completing sacraments. Are you feeling that tug in your heart? Reach out and invite someone who is seeking answers or a faith community.

Our RCIA Inquiry session will be on Sunday, August 26th at 10:15 (right after the 9:00 Mass).

We welcome anyone who would like to learn more about the RCIA/Footsteps process and we look forward to your questions. Contact bonroon@aol.com if you can join us!

The People of the Book: One God, Three Visions

Presented by Jerry Leitner, M.A., Theology

Thursdays, September 13, 20 and 27, 2018 - 7:00-9:00 pm

Cost: Suggested donation of $10 per night

(Note: For those of you who prefer morning programs, Jerry Leitner will be presenting the same topic during our morning Bible Journey program this year – stay tuned for details)

The Qur'an refers to Judaism, Christianity, and Islam as "people of the book" – meaning that Islam sees similarity and continuity between these three religions. Judaism, Christianity, and Islam are related religions complete with all the problems relatives experience: closeness, yes – but also misunderstandings, competition, spats, feuds, and the need to mend fences. This series of talks presents a primer on the three religions, showing how they interrelate in important basics, but also how they offer separate, distinctive, and sometimes opposing ways of approaching the divine.

To register, contact Jeannie Parry at 847-907-3448 or jparry@holyfamilyparish.org. Registration appreciated by September 11 so we can plan for seating.

"The Path of Descent is the Path of Transformation"

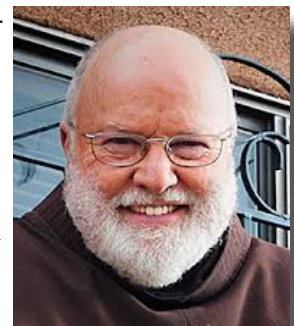

Tuesday, October 23, 2018 from 7:00-9:00 pm

We need to deeply trust and allow both our own dyings and our own certain resurrections, just as Jesus did! This is the full pattern of transformation. If we trust both, we are indestructible. That is how Jesus "saves" us from meaninglessness, cynicism, hatred, and violence—which is indeed death.

—Richard Rohr

There is no charge for this webcast program, but free will offerings to help with Adult Faith programs are welcome!

To register, please contact Jeannie Parry at jparry@holyfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3448 by October 18 so we can plan for seating.

The Family & Teen Faith Community... offers faith formation
and catechesis to preschool through elementary school aged children and high school teens
and their families.

As for being church

let us not let the perfect stand in the way of the good. We are a work in progress. Our website claims

- Our worship services are stimulating, insightful and musical,
- Our faith community is vibrant,
- Our reach-out is compassionate,
- Our adult formation is creative, our education programs are cutting edge,
- Our welcome is warm.

All of this is both true and not as true as we'd like it to be. Here's the painful truth; you don't always get what you want from faith or Church and that is by divine design. Unlike subscription services, retailers, service providers of every stripe that strive to make us feel like they are all about us; faith communities have a more nuanced pitch to make – you must be all about others.

Marketing ourselves is a difficult task. Let's face it some of the best things about being a faith community simply don't sell well. Faith communities do not exist to satisfy the desires of their members, they exist to do God's will. This is not to say the Catholic Community of Holy Family doesn't meet many of our needs or satisfy many of our desires; just not all of them, at least right now. Unfortunately, whether our needs have been met or challenged, our desires satisfied or frustrated, that doesn't stop us from coming to the community, or going forth from the community, with our own agendas, with an expectation that what's good for me and mine/us and ours is the full measure of the good, when in fact sometimes it has nothing to do with the good at all.

The Christian
PARADOX
lose to gain;
give to receive
die to live

The truth is our Catholic community, parish, Church, does not exist to serve us, to meet our needs, or improve our lives. It exists so that rooted in Christ's love we can serve, meet the needs of other's and improve all of life, everywhere (including our own). This is the ultimate Christian paradox; the way of God. When each one serves, everyone is served. When each one welcomes, all are welcomed. When each one forgives, everyone is forgiven.

I'll admit, what looks simple is not. What appears easy is anything but and there are days I don't want to be either Catholic or in community. At those times I try to remember God wants far more for me than I want for myself and this is the Lord's way of giving it to me.

CATECHIST

Have you ever thought about being a catechist? Yes you! Let me tell you why I have been a catechist for the last 40 years.

1. Catechists change lives
2. I have the opportunity to inspire and be inspired at least once a week.
3. My own faith has deepened dramatically since being a catechist
4. I love children and admire t'weens and teens
5. Jesus told his disciples to "go and teach all nations" and as a baptized Catholic I am a disciple of Jesus

Dr. Peg Hanrahan

What exactly do catechists do?

They accompany another on their Journey of Faith. If you can listen, pray, affirm, share, encourage, reflect and bless, you'd make a great catechist. And as you are accompanying the children the Faith staff and other catechists will accompany you. Catechists are needed for K-grade 6. If you are interested contact Laura Ferlita, lferlita@holymfamilyparish.org.

During Step 2 catechists

- Affirm the other
- Share the story of Jesus
- Answer questions
- Share their own questions
- Pray with the other

During Step 1 catechists

- Welcome the other
- Invite one to tell their story of encountering God
- Listen
- Share their own stories of encountering God
- Pray for the other

During Step 3 catechists

- Encourage the other
- Helps the other discern their gifts
- Helps the other discern the needs in the world
- Serve along with the other

During Step 4 the catechists

- Bless the other
- Send the other forth
- Pray for the other
- Reflect on what they have learned from the other
- Continue to give witness

Catholic Charities New Hope Apartments A Transitional Housing Program for Homeless Families June, 2018 Update

Family #30

Our family consists of a single 23 year old African American mom and her two son's ages 4 and 2. She became homeless due low income status. She reported that she had a history of being homeless during her high school years.

Our mom continues her focus on finding a better paying job. She is interested in pursuing a career as a Certified Nursing Assistant or a personal assistant. The State of Illinois offers a WIOA program to achieve a training certificate which would be at no cost to her through the unemployment office. Client is still very excited about finally earning her high school diploma. She reported that she still has not received her IRS refund and is waiting for a response. New Hope is evaluating her case to see if she can get assistance for 3 additional months after her lease ends as she continues to work towards her self-sufficiency goals.

Goals:

- Save up at least 3 month's rent/saving IRS tax refund
- Obtain her GED
- Apply for low income housing

Family #31

This family consists of a single mixed race (white and black) 24 year old female and her two son's ages 7 and 5. Client became homeless due to emotional abuse from her ex and his family with whom they lived. Her oldest child is from another relationship.

Our mom's car continues to be a challenge for her as it now needs another repair. These repairs dip into her savings and she cannot depend on it for transportation to and from work. She reported that she went back to her previous job in Schaumburg due to her lack of dependable transportation which made her very happy. She was spending $90 per day on an Uber to get to the Vernon Hills job and it also cut down on the time that she was able to spend with her children because of the distance. New Hope is also evaluating her case to assist for an additional three months after her lease ends. She reports that she would like to move closer to work.

Goals:

- Save up at least 3 month's rent/saving IRS tax refund
- Attend work and school as scheduled
- Apply for low income housing
- Repair car
- Relocate closer to employment after lease

These two families are very grateful to be a part of the Peace and Justice extended family. New Hope is also very grateful for all the assistance and resources you provide for our families.

Human Concerns

St. Sabina Strong Futures and The Peace Corner Youth Center Thank Holy Family for the Lenten Social Justice Project Donation

Dear Fr. Keehan and the Faith Community of Holy Family,

I can't thank you enough for your generous donation and support to our Strong Futures Program. This program focuses on young men and women between the ages of 17 and 28 that are not in school or working and have been made to feel as if they are society's throwaways. We have had great success watching lives changed and seeing young people, once again, living to achieve their God given purpose and destiny.

Your Lenten program not only became a living witness for your congregation in living the Gospel, but it is a model for the Archdiocese of Chicago, and beyond, on how to make the Gospel flesh and become an active participant in eradicating this plague of violence.

Thank you for your faith, passion, and commitment to helping us save lives.

In the Pursuit of Justice....

Rev. Michael L. Pflieger
(Senior Pastor, St. Sabina Church)

Dear Fr. Keehan,

The Peace Corner Youth Center is deeply grateful to Holy Family Parish Community for its recent generous $51,567 capital gift. Please accept our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for this unexpected wonderful donation.

Founded in 2002, The Peace Corner Youth Center provides a safe place for youth to engage in activities outside of school and opportunities to reach their full potential. The Center offers a variety of programs for youth ages 12-18 in Chicago's Austin neighborhood. Young people who participate are predominantly African American and they typically live at or below the poverty level. We offer serves that include Education and Enrichment, Building Life Skills and Increasing Psychological Well-Being, Recreational Programming, Violence Prevention and Summer Programming.

Frederick Douglass said, "It is easier to build strong children than to repair broken men." This is the philosophy underlying the work of The Peace Corner.

Thank you for this remarkable donation. We are deeply grateful.

Sincerely,

Msgr. Michael M. Boland
