Fr. Terry Keehan

As October peaks this weekend, I am reminded that there are seven weeks left in our liturgical year. Sunday, December 2nd marks the beginning of Advent, and these remaining weekends give us continued messages from the Gospel of Mark that will help us reflect on some of the most important tenets of our faith. These tenets are clarified by Jesus in Mark's Gospel as concomitant with the physical journey Jesus shares with his disciples to Jerusalem. This symbolizes the spiritual journey that we all share into eternity.

For example, this weekend we hear of an encounter between Jesus and a rich young man. As we have stated before, people who asked Jesus a question in the scriptures always seem to embark on a challenging and even dangerous path. The young man's question seems simple enough. "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" Inherit is an interesting word choice, as if he doesn't intend to earn eternal life. Do we rely too much on inheriting eternal life and not demonstrate that we want to work for it?

Jesus answers in an equally simplistic manner, "You know the commandments." And he restates them. The young man assures Jesus that he has observed them from his youth. As I continue this reflection I would like you to ask you the same questions that were asked of the rich young man. He claims to have observed the commandments. I wonder if Jesus picked up on the possibility that the young man needed to do more than just observe the commandments. Did he integrate them into his life? Was observing the commandments something he did in the past, since his youth to this present day? Is he lacking a commitment to integrate the commandments into his life in the future?

Is Jesus challenging the young man to look at the commandments as a high bar and not a low bar? Is the young man's approach similar to a check list that he does as he steps over a low bar of observing the commandments out of obligation? Is Jesus challenging him to look at the higher bar of living the commandments as an ongoing spiritual exercise, one that can lift him up and urge him to grow in his faith?

Is the young man able to use the literal words of the commandments as a spring board to build his life around the classic values expressed by the commandments, such as the singularity of God's identity, the importance of full love of God, the sanctity of God's name, the sacredness of communal worship, the wisdom of our elderly, the sanctity of human life, the intimacy of our commitments, our loyalty to the truth, our respect for other peoples' property and other peoples' commitments, focusing on caring for what we have and not desiring what others have?

Jesus then conveys a very loving concern for the young man (the passage says Jesus loved him) and then he points out that the man is lacking one thing which, in fact, is several things. This emphasizes the challenge of asking Jesus a question. The answers that Jesus gives always seem to be filled with more. They always challenge the spiritual and religious imagination of the askers. In a very real way Jesus commissions/invites the young man into a spiritual process.

He challenges him to:

1. Go sell all your possessions
2. Give to the poor, and
3. Follow me.

As we heed the challenges of this passage, let us realize how fundamental the commandments are and how significant constant, regular reflection on them is to our continued faith development. It might be nice to memorize the commandments, but more important to seek the fullest spirit of the commandments.

Hospitality

Hospitality and welcoming are pillars of our mission here at Holy Family. From our warm welcome to newcomers and visitors to our regular Narthex hospitality, children, teens, young adults and seniors have shared the vibrant spirit of Holy Family Catholic Community. Tasty snacks, coffee, juice and other goodies are significant in extending our spirit before and after Masses on the weekends. There are several teams of parishioners who share this simple yet important ministry. We are in need of more hospitality ministers to bolster our welcoming efforts. Please consider becoming a minister of Hospitality by joining an existing team or creating your own. Perhaps you could do it as a family or with members of your ministry or group. Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @

Readings 10-21-18 and listen to Cari Pappas, SCC Ministry leader, reflect on the readings.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. In our first reading, Isaiah says: "It was the will of the Lord to crush him with pain." Who is "him" and why must the Lord crush him with pain?
2. In Hebrews it says: "For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses." Have you ever thought of Jesus as someone who sympathizes with your weaknesses? Does this affect the guilt you feel for your sins?
3. Hebrews also says to "approach the throne of grace with boldness." Today we approach this throne when we receive the Eucharist. Have you ever approached with boldness? What other types of feelings have you felt when taking Communion?
4. Along with Peter, James and John were Jesus' inner circle. Despite this, what do you think of them asking to sit on either side of Jesus in glory? How do you handle someone in your inner circle making a request that you cannot grant?
5. Our Gospel concludes with Jesus saying: "For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve." As Advent approaches, is this statement a call to action?

The Path of Descent is the Path of Transformation

Tuesday, October 23, 2018
7:00-9:00 pm

Free will offerings appreciated.

We need to deeply trust both our own dyings and our own certain resurrections, just as Jesus did! This is the full pattern of transformation. If we trust both, we are indestructible. That is how Jesus “saves” us from meaningless, cynicism, hatred, and violence—which is indeed death.

Divine Wisdom,

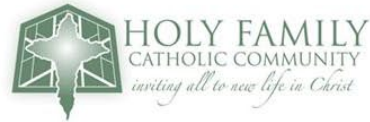

You led men and women to put in the Bible words that would bring us closer to you.

Help us to search the Holy Scriptures better each day. Enlighten us in these changing times to acquire the wisdom and grace to understand your call, reinterpreting it for our contemporary lives while remaining loyal to its eternal message.

Let your word, like good seed, take root in our hearts and bear fruit in our lives.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Faith kids speak up as year begins

Any chance we could play Fortnite at Faith classes? I know lots of kids would come for that.

Me too and art projects.

I love having my Mom as my Faith teacher.

I hope we do meditation this year.

FallFest was awesome! We should do that every week!

Ideas other kids suggested to make Faith classes great this year are more plays during class, playing music during class, making stuff with play doh, the labyrinth, having snacks more often, doing the Church tour again, playing games, reading the Bible, having candle prayer, talking about things, getting rid of our sins, having Festivals, doing service, sharing ideas, showing more videos

We can't do FallFest every week and we're not going to play Fortnite during class. Everything else on the list so far we will do. Dr. Peg will continue to collect ideas from kids so if you have one to add to the list let her know.

All parents who attended the Opening Family & Teen Faith Parent Meeting were entered into a drawing for a year's free tuition.

The Human Concerns

Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching. We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person.

All human beings, therefore, are ends to be served by the institutions that make up the economy, not means to be exploited for more narrowly defined goals. Human personhood must be respected with a reverence that is religious. When we deal with each other, we should do so with the sense of awe that arises in the presence of something holy and sacred. For that is what human beings are: we are created in the image of God (Gn 1:27). Economic Justice for All, #28

Pope Francis' Day for Life Greeting stated: "Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn, the poor, are masterpieces of God's creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect."

HOLY FAMILY PADS SITE for the Homeless

Holy Family's PADS site, a Sunday evening shelter for people facing homelessness, began its eighteenth season on October 7. It takes many volunteers to set up, provide and serve meals, work shifts, clean up as well as offer an atmosphere of comfort and safety.

Visit www.carecalendar.org using calendar ID 134413 and password 9236 to sign up for food donations. Food can be dropped off hours, even days earlier, and volunteers will prepare your dish just prior to our guests arriving. Please feel free to pass this information along to anyone else you know that might want to donate items for our weekly PADS site.

Here are some of the things we will need to stock all year – just bring them to the west coatroom PADS cart at any time:

- Warm clothing, L & XL underwear, sweaters, boots, shoes
- Sterno Cans
- Ziploc bags - gallon size
- Ziploc Bags - sandwich size
- Extra large brown lunch bags
- Peanut butter
- Jelly
- Heavy Duty Aluminum Foil
- Aluminum pans for serving line - full size and half size
- Individual Mayonnaise packets
- Individual Mustard packets
- Oyster Crackers
- Salad dressing

What is Domestic Violence?

Domestic violence is the willful abusive behavior as part of a systematic pattern of power and control perpetrated by one intimate partner against another. The frequency and severity of domestic violence can vary dramatically; one constant component of domestic violence is one partner's consistent effort to maintain power and control over the other. Domestic violence includes:

- Intimidation
- Battery
- Physical violence
- Psychological violence
- Physical assault
- Sexual assault
- Sexual violence
- Emotional abuse

Domestic violence is an epidemic-affecting individuals in every community, regardless of age, economic status, sexual orientation, gender, race, religion, or nationality. The devastating physical, emotional, and psychological consequences of domestic violence can cross generations and last a lifetime.
