Greatness as a Servant Model

How do we measure greatness? What makes us great? In this weekend's gospel, Jesus reflects a servant model of greatness. The gospel focuses on two brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee. Their request brings to light our natural human desire to be approved of and rewarded in worldly terms. These two disciples seek positions of importance next to Jesus. But Jesus' teaching shows discipleship as a self-denying, self-risking part of lowly servitude for the redemption of the world. In contrast, much of our secular life views greatness as gaining a secure position of power, prestige and possessions. These two definitions of greatness stand in sharp contrast to one another. It is precisely the tension between these two definitions that gives this passage so much of its power and force. Unlike those who are regarded as ruling over nations, a disciple of Jesus must become a servant if one wants to be first. Suffering is also a part of true discipleship. Not an end in itself, but the consequence of a life of solidarity with the poor, marginalized, and outcasts of society.

For three years Jesus' disciples walked with him, seen him perform miracles and heard his teaching. Yet, in this passage from Mark, James and John show how little they understand what Jesus had been showing them. At the first opportunity, they compete for special positions among themselves in the new heaven and new earth. If they really understood what Jesus was offering them, they would have seen how firm a foundation they stood upon, and how profoundly secure they were in Christ. There was no need to compete among themselves for positions with Jesus because Jesus offers more than they could possibly imagine. Because of what Jesus secured for us, we too stand on solid footing, a foundation that will never be taken away from us. From this position, we don't need to compete with others; we can love them from the overflowing cup of love that God pours out on us through Jesus.

Despite all that Jesus taught them, despite their intimate association with Him, despite everything they had seen Him do, the disciples also could not understand Jesus as a suffering Son of Man. The disciples therefore had two specific kinds of misunderstanding: the necessity of Jesus' sufferings, and their competition for greatness within the community. They not only misunderstand the message of suffering, but also reject Jesus' suffering and call for a suffering discipleship. This passage affirms that Jesus' life was one of service and that His death was for others. His life and death were peaceful, for the supreme service of Jesus Christ was the voluntary giving of His life as a ransom for many.

Jesus said to the disciples James and John that what makes us great is not our ability to rule over others, but rather to invest ourselves in the welfare and good of one another. The value of this weekend's gospel is the manner in which Jesus reveals greatness as being quite different from the way the world uses the word "great." Catholics are not called to find their validation in communal religious rituals, in pronouncements on social issues, or in the quality of our theology and religious tradition. Greatness is to be defined by our total and unconditional love for one another.

One of the most important ways our Holy Family parish community manifests greatness is through acts of kindness, love, and mercy, by providing a bag of groceries to the distraught, life-giving accompaniment to someone who is going through an unexpected crisis of grief or difficulty, and a willingness to go farther than others are willing to go. Discipleship is not only about hearing the words of Jesus, but having a willingness to act upon the words so that others may be supported and cared for. Sometimes we think of being members of a faith community as a kind of full-service mini-mart, a place to pick up the spiritual sacraments, resources, and services we need at the time in a quick and efficient manner. We may come to church for a mood boost, to receive a dose of forgiveness, comfort or belonging in the midst of acute grief and disappointment. Many come to church for encouragement when they feel depressed, confidence when they feel afraid, and inspiration when life grows stale. We all want to feel loved, cared for, validated, and significant. Ideally, we all ought to be. But if we are going to be Jesus' disciples, we must give more than we receive.

The gospel of Mark has provided for us a unique description of early discipleship. Rather than idealizing the first followers of Jesus, Mark highlights their weakness, struggles, and failures. The disciples, like us, experienced confusion, were baffled, misunderstanding, and recoiled before the message of the cross and suffering. The disciples, like many religious leaders of our time, failed to grasp the essential nature of Jesus' boundary-shattering ministry and servitude. Jesus' nature expressed itself in a concept of messianic authority, oriented not to power over others, but power exercised to spread holiness and life. May we find our greatness in our willingness to follow Jesus' example of servant-hood and accept suffering as solidarity with the poor, marginalized, and outcasts of society.

From Fr. Terry: Sixth graders in our Family Faith program are in the Secret Service. So far they have worked on combating nastiness with random acts of kindness and looked for opportunities to give compliments. See the Family Faith pages for more details on the good works they have done. Well done, sixth graders!

Preparing for Next Week...

Click on reflections for Sunday Readings 10-28-18 and listen to Marsha Adamczyk, Associate Director of Adult Faith, reflect on the readings.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. In our first reading, Jeremiah describes the hoped-for trip home from exile for God's people. Although we likely have not experienced physical exile, is there such a thing as spiritual exile? Have you ever been in exile spiritually? Who or what brought you back to God?
2. Hebrews begins with: "Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf." What does the term "high priest" mean to you? Does this role also exist outside of the priesthood and outside of the Church?
3. As children of God, what is our "appointed" role as The Mass Never Ends?
4. Like the blind beggar in our Gospel, how do we cry out for God's mercy when we need it the most?
5. Jesus showed us that God's love is unconditional, and we should strive to do the same. Have you received or given unconditional love? How has this enriched your life?

The People of the Book: One God, Three Visions

Presented by Jerry Leitner, M.A., Theology

Wednesdays, November 7, 14 and 28, 2018 - 9:45-11:45 am

Note: This is one part of our Bible Journey program, but for these three weeks

there will be LECTURE ONLY, no small groups!

Cost: $35 (book included)

We welcome Jerry Leitner back to offer this program for those who prefer the morning time!

The Qur'an refers to Judaism, Christianity, and Islam as "people of the book" – meaning that Islam sees similarity and continuity between these three religions. Judaism, Christianity, and Islam are related religions complete with all the problems relatives experience: closeness, yes – but also misunderstandings, competition, spats, feuds, and the need to mend fences.

This series of talks presents a primer on the three religions, showing how they interrelate in important basics, but also how they offer separate, distinctive, and sometimes opposing ways of approaching the divine.

To register, contact Jeannie Parry at 847-907-3448 or jparry@holymfamilyparish.org.

Catholic Social Teaching – United States Catholic Conference of Bishops

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching. We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person.

This teaching rests on one basic principle: individual human beings are the foundation, the cause and the end of every social institution. That is necessarily so, for men are by nature social beings. Mother and Teacher (Mater et Magistra. . .), #219

Holy Family will hold its annual Fall Clothing Drive for St Vincent dePaul on Saturday, October 27 and Sunday, October 28. We are suggesting that you bring your donations of winter clothing to the truck located in the parking lot before or after mass (except the Sunday 4pm mass). There will be volunteers there to take your donations and put them directly on the truck. Tax receipts will be available. PLEASE DO NOT BRING ANY DONATIONS TO THE CHURCH PRIOR TO SATURDAY, October 27. WE HAVE NO STORAGE SPACE AVAILABLE.

Please contact Mary-Frances at mfonway94@comcast.net if you would like to help or have questions.

HOLY FAMILY PADS SITE for the Homeless

Holy Family's PADS site, a Sunday evening shelter for people facing homelessness, began its eighteenth season on October 7. It takes many volunteers to set up, provide and serve meals, work shifts, clean up as well as offer an atmosphere of comfort and safety.

Sign-ups for food and shift positions will take place after mass in the narthex Sunday, October 28. If you have not completed orientation, go to www.journeystheroadhome.org and click on Volunteer Opportunities to find the 2018-19 orientation schedule. Online sign-ups are available to all volunteers who have completed orientation.

Here are some of the things we will need to stock all year – just bring them to the west coatroom PADS cart at any time:

- Sterno Cans
- Ziploc bags - gallon size
- Ziploc Bags - sandwich size
- Extra large brown lunch bags
- Peanut butter
- Jelly
- Heavy Duty Aluminum Foil
- Aluminum pans for serving line - full size and half size
- Individual Mayonnaise packets
- Individual Mustard packets
- Oyster Crackers
- Salad dressing

PADS NEEDS FOOD DONATIONS

Our PADS site depends on volunteers to provide meals for our guests on Sunday evening and Monday's breakfast and lunch. You do not need to cook to donate. Food can be purchased from stores such as Costco and GFS and dropped off hours, even days earlier, and volunteers will prepare your dish just prior to our guests arriving. Gifts cards to Aldi, Jewel, Costco, GFS are also welcomed. Drop off gift cards to Sue Geegan at the front office marked "PADS". To volunteer to bring a dish or other food item, visit www.carecalendar.org using calendar ID 134413 and password 9236 to sign up for food donations. Please feel free to pass this information along to anyone else you know that might want to donate items for our weekly PADS site. Thank you!

For questions about food donations, contact Ginny at ginnylangtim@gmail.com or 847-331-3838.

Children Exposed to Violence

Many children witness domestic violence or are the victims of physical, sexual or emotional abuse. Others witness community violence or experience bullying behavior.

The negative experience can alter brain development, delay developmental milestones and affect the well-being of the child. Children may have behavior difficulties and strained relationships with their caregivers. Without intervention, this may lead to learning problems and poor relationships.

Signs a child may have been exposed to violence

- changes in sleeping patterns, nightmares, difficulty falling or staying asleep
- tantrums, aggressive behavior, irritability, anger
- changes in eating habits
- sadness, withdrawn or isolative behavior
- poor concentration or hyperactivity
- somatic complaints such as headaches or stomachaches
- fears and anxiety
- excessive crying
- easily startled
- bullying behavior
- concern with potty training, wetting the bed

WEEKEND HOSPITALITY MINISTRY NEEDS YOUR HELP

Are you a "people person"? We thought so! We have an urgent need for "people persons" to help prepare and serve coffee and refreshments after Mass. It's a very modest commitment of serving just once every 5 weeks for the Mass you regularly attend. You'll have the ongoing support of your enthusiastic teammates, plus training and tips to make it a fun, rewarding and a joyous experience for all.

Know other "people persons"? Why not make it a group event? Families, friends, and all groups are welcome to serve on a team together. And we also send the call out to those of you who are bakers and "foodies". Although culinary skills and food preparation aren't required for the Hospitality Team, it's another great way to share your passions and practice your art.

Remember how special you felt when someone within the Holy Family community reached out and connected with you? The unique, warm, welcoming spirit of Holy Family is contagious, and serving on the Hospitality Ministry is the perfect way to spread and pay it forward to others. If you have questions or would like more information, please contact Sue Geegan at 847-907-3443; sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org.

FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP November 6, 2018 Catholics Care. Catholic Vote.

As Catholic citizens, we should remember three things when voting:

1. Respect for the dignity of each person is the core of Catholic social and moral teaching. This is our most basic principle.
2. We focus on the common good, not our own personal interests. We ask, how can we make the world a better place? Not, how can I improve my own personal situation?
3. We have a responsibility – a true obligation – to form our consciences and participate in the civic life of this nation.

The bishops recognize that the laity is a powerful voice in our nation and state. Their hope is that this information will be helpful to you in discerning not only how to vote, but also in encouraging you to become further involved in promoting the common good of our nation. Visit www.faithfulcitizenship.org for more information.

The Quiet

A reflective prayer experience for healing and peace

Taking place at 6:00pm in the church on the last Thursday of each month, The Quiet will provide a monthly opportunity and space for reflection and healing prayer
in response to all types of violence or natural disaster.
Come as you are.

Upcoming dates: October 25, November 29

All are invited and encouraged to attend.

PART-TIME HELP NEEDED

The front desk in the parish office is seeking friendly, welcoming team members for our parish front desk operation. The time slots are evenings, Monday through Friday, and Saturday and Sundays during the day.

This is a paid part-time position. Please contact our front office manager, Debbie Macaluso, at 847-907-3445 or stop by the desk weekdays, 8:30-4:30 pm. Flexibility and availability to work during these times is essential. We look forward to meeting you. It is a great group to work with, make friends and help the parish as well.

We greatly appreciate your consideration and hopefully joining our parish team!
Thank you!!

CREATIVE SEWING MINISTRY

We meet monthly to create the baptism bibs and stoles given to each of Holy Family's newly baptized children. Members also knit and crochet items such as prayer shawls and chemotherapy hats to bring comfort and healing to others. We work as a team to complete each item, sharing our talents and creating friendships along the way.

Meetings are on the 4th Tuesday of each month from 1:00-4:00pm.

Our next gathering is on October 23rd.

Come join us! To learn more about the Creative Sewing Ministry, contact Cely Andal at ctandal@comcast.net
