Fr. Terry Keehan

As October dims and November brightens, we turn to a time of tapping into saints, spirits, costumes and remembering our deceased heroes and loved ones. The original idea of this time is rooted in All Saints Day which we celebrate this coming Thursday, and the “Hallowed” or Holy “Eve” that we have come to mark by putting those two words together for Halloween. These important days and evenings are deeply rooted in our Catholic spirituality, but have been supplemented by secular images of dressing up, ghosts, haunting, goblins and other spooky things. So now we have a series of three interesting rituals: one can be fun or adventurous; the second an acknowledgement of truly holy people who have inspired millions and millions through the centuries; and the third is our tender and prayerful memories of our deceased loved ones and friends, many of whom hold a holy and special place in our hearts. We celebrate Halloween this Wednesday, October 31, All Saints Day on Thursday with Masses at 7:00am, 9:00am (led by our Academy children for the entire parish) and 7:00pm. Masses on All Souls’ Day, Friday, November 2 are at 9:00am and 7:00pm.

As I was preparing for the All Saints Mass with our 3rd grade Academy students, they asked me a couple of important questions that I did not have the answers to, but I do now. I want to share this information with you and hope that it enriches your All Saints and All Souls’ Day prayer. They asked who the first saints were and who are the youngest saints?

The earliest and youngest are the Holy Innocent Children who were killed by Herod in his attempt to kill the baby Jesus, followed by Anna, Mary’s Mother, and Joachim, Mary’s Father. Jacinta, age 9 (died in 1920) and Francisco, age 10 (died in 1919) of Fatima Portugal, whom Mary appeared to in that town, are the youngest individual saints to be canonized by Pope Francis last May. Maria Goretti (1890-1902), age 11, canonized in 1950, and Dominic Savio (1842-1857), age 14, canonized in 1954 were previously the youngest saints to be canonized.

As for All Hallows Eve, the earliest celebrations of Halloween were limited to dressing up like your favorite saint, but now that custom has expanded into dressing up like all sorts of heroes, famous and even scary characters. The more mysterious and adventurous side of Halloween turns some people into the ghoulish realm of ghosts and tales of fright. An additional ritual, “trick or treat,” is a proclamation made by children visiting homes dressed up in costume. It began in Britain and Ireland in the 16th century and made its way to North America in the 1920’s. It refers to a mostly idle threat that if no treat (candy or money) was given out that the little visitors would play a prank, or trick, on the home.

These special celebrations also invite us to ask and answer some question that I suggest are quite important. What will you be or dress up as on Halloween? Some people go to elaborate parties with sophisticated costumes on or around Halloween. This gives us an opportunity to step into another character or persona. It can be quite fun. Enjoy it. Be playful.

How generous will you be to visitors during Halloween and beyond? What kind of treat will you share, especially with strangers who come to the door of your home, or the door of your heart?

Who is your favorite saint and why? What kind of spirituality do they inspire in you? How can you be more like them and use them as a motivation for your own spiritual growth?

Who will you remember in a special way on All Souls’ Day and why? How are you keeping their example or legacy alive?

Remember, we are encouraging you to bring a photo of any of your deceased loved ones or friends for display in our church from November 2 through 18. This is a unique way to include them in the Communion of the Saints with confidence that they share the fullness of life now.

Our Gospel this week tells us of the blind Bartimaeus outside of Jericho. When summoned by Jesus, the crowd encourages him in three ways: “Take courage ... get up ... he is calling you.” Where do you need courage? Are you rising up to challenges? Can you hear the Lord calling you?

Thank you for being so attentive to my requests last weekend. As I mentioned, we will be sending a budget catch up letter to all parishioners. If you haven’t already received it, you will within the next week.

The Liturgical Arts
Community... creates a vibrant prayer
and worship experience
so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and
worship experiences,
for all attending Holy Family.

In our Catholic liturgical calendar, the month of November begins with two days devoted to those who have died: the Solemnity of All Saints on November 1st and All Souls Day on November 2nd. This is also a time to remember all those who have gone before us. As part of our community's remembrance of the dead, photos of those who have passed are displayed in the worship space and the Book of the Names of the Dead is placed by the Paschal Candle and baptismal font, symbolizing their Baptism into New Life.

We invite you to participate in this remembrance by bringing a photograph or memento of your deceased loved ones to be displayed in the church and by writing their names in the book.

Mark your items with your name and phone number, and bring them to the Front Office by October 31st. Likewise, you will be able to collect them from the front office after November 18th.

Our volunteer meeting is Tuesday, October 30th at 7:00 p.m in the Common Ground room. Please join our crew. Feel free to invite a friend. All are welcome and encouraged to pitch in. If you are unable to attend the meeting, but would like to offer your assistance, please contact us.

Thank you for considering sharing your time and talents to make this an incredible event for the parish.

The Qur'an refers to Judaism, Christianity, and Islam as "people of the book" - meaning that Islam sees similarity and continuity between these three religions. Judaism, Christianity, and Islam are related religions complete with all the problems relatives experience: closeness, yes—but also misunderstandings, competition, spats, feuds, and the need to mend fences. This series of talks presents a primer on the three religions, showing how they interrelate in important basics, but also how they offer separate, distinctive, and sometimes opposing ways of approaching the divine. For this portion of Bible Journey there will be no small group discussion.

We hope you will join us! We are thrilled to have Jerry Leitner back at Holy Family for this engaging three morning program!

To register, please contact Jeannie Parry at 847-907-3448 or jparry@holyfamilyparish.org.

TEEN FAITH TACKLES MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES FACING TEENS

Every year our teen faith program addresses key mental health issues that teens are facing today. Our primary message, no matter which issue we discuss is, You are not alone, we are here for each other in the good times and the hard times.

This past week we talked about Teen Depression and Suicide Prevention, holding separate sessions for both teens and parents. Later in the year we will address Worry, Stress & Anxiety.

It's important to acknowledge that many teens struggle with depression. The latest CDC study reports that 20% of young people will experience clinical depression during their teenage years (1 out of 5). It is also important that parents as well as teens recognize that

- Depression is different from sadness and grief. Sadness is not the only or even necessarily the principal symptom of clinical depression

- Depression is not a weakness or character flaw; it is a serious health disorder that responds well to treatment
- Depression needs to be accurately diagnosed in order to be treated effectively
- Teen depression is associated with high levels of stress, anxiety
- Teen depression is often misdiagnosed or under diagnosed because
 - Depression symptoms in teens manifest themselves in different ways than in adults due to the different social and developmental challenges facing teens.
 - It is difficult to tell the difference between the ups and downs that are part of being a teenager and teen depression.
 - Depression shares symptoms with ADHD, anxiety disorders and concussive events.
- Evidence is mounting to say that social media is a significant influence in both teen anxiety and depression.

There are many factors that contribute to Teen Depression. Each case is unique and there is no one size fits all treatment for teen depression. Yet there are ways all of us at Holy Family can play a part in preventing teen depression and mitigating its effects on teens. We can help teens

- Make and keep healthy friendships;
- Develop realistic expectations;
- Manage the stress in their lives by simplifying life, staying healthy and developing effective time management skills;
- Stay active and engaged, especially providing opportunities for community engagement (i.e. service);
- Decrease time spent on social media;
- Find healthy and creative avenues for expressing emotion;
- Provide them with a caring supportive group of peers;
- Teach them to ask for help and offer their help to others.

We can make a difference. We can educate ourselves and our teens about teen depression. We can extend a warm and compassionate hand to any teen (and their families) who is dealing with the pain of mental illness. We can advocate for those in our midst who suffer from mental illness, eradicating the stigma attached that often makes people unwilling to seek treatment. We can continue to make our Teen Faith program an effective vehicle for providing teens with support and work with them to improve out each and efficacy.

HFCA Students and Teachers Pilot the Workspace of the Future

Just as corporate workspaces are changing to accommodate different ways of working, learning environments are changing to be more stimulating for students and support quality teaching.

Gone are the days where children are required to sit still to learn. At HFCA we believe learning spaces should be flexible and accommodate children moving around to collaborate, create and easily access a variety of educational resources.

After much research we focused on classroom furniture that was light, sturdy and flexible so it could be easily rearranged by students or teachers to meet the needs of the learners.

Thanks to a generous donor, HFCA has been able to replace traditional desks with white board tables. Thank you to our Grade 4 teachers and students for piloting workspaces of the future at HFCA!

“Wow! I feel like I am in the future!”

Catholic Social Teaching – United States Catholic Conference of Bishops

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching. We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person.

All human beings, therefore, are ends to be served by the institutions that make up the economy, not means to be exploited for more narrowly defined goals. Human personhood must be respected with a reverence that is religious. When we deal with each other, we should do so with the sense of awe that arises in the presence of something holy and sacred. For that is what human beings are: we are created in the image of God (Gn 1:27). Economic Justice for All, #28

Catholic Charities New Hope Apartments A Transitional Housing Program for Homeless Families August, 2018 Update

Family #30

Our family consists of a mom and her two sons ages 4 and 2.

I am so happy to report our mom is doing great! She loves her new job as a CNA assistant working 4 days per week and rotating weekends. This job will pay for her CNA certification after 90 days of employment.

The children are doing well. Her youngest child failed the hearing test at the doctor and at school and needs to see an audiologist. He also needs glasses. She is focused on addressing his needs so he excels and feels confident at school.

Goals:

- Save up at least 3 month's rent
- Obtain a CNA certificate
- Apply for low income housing

Family #31

This family consists of a 24 year old female and her two sons ages 7 and 5.

Our mom is currently experiencing some setbacks. She was let go from her job because she had to bring her kids with her to work on two occasions due to a lack of dependable child care. She has had a difficult time over the last couple months between work and her transportation issues.

She has a job interview for a customer service representative position. She is excited because it might be more manageable than her previous job. She has applied for other state assistance programs to get her through this time of transition. She feels very fortunate to still be with New Hope while she is going through this tough time.

Goals:

- Save up at least 3 month's rent
- Attend work and school as scheduled
- Apply for low income housing

New Hope and these two families are very grateful to be a part of the Peace and Justice Cluster Parishes!

FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP

November 6, 2018

Catholics Care. Catholic Vote.

As Catholic citizens, we should remember three things when voting:

1. Respect for the dignity of each person is the core of Catholic social and moral teaching. This is our most basic principle.
2. We focus on the common good, not our own personal interests. We ask, how can we make the world a better place? Not, how can I improve my own personal situation?
3. We have a responsibility – a true obligation – to form our consciences and participate in the civic life of this nation.

The bishops recognize that the laity is a powerful voice in our nation and state. Their hope is that this information will be helpful to you in discerning not only how to vote, but also in encouraging you to become further involved in promoting the common good of our nation. Visit www.faithfulcitizenship.org for more information.

Words to Consider...

"In violence we forget who we are." - Melissa McCarthy

"From every wound there is a scar and every scar tells a story. A story that says I survived."

"Don't judge yourself by what others did to you."

"Love is about giving freedom and power, not about gaining control or possession."

"You don't have to wait for someone to treat you bad repeatedly. All it takes is once and if they get away with it that once, if they know they can treat you that way, then it sets the pattern for the future." — Jane Green

"The effects of abuse are devastating and far reaching. Domestic violence speaks many languages, has many colors and lives in many different communities." — Sandra Papatello

Break the Silence
Break the Cycle
Begin the Healing

WEEKEND HOSPITALITY MINISTRY NEEDS YOUR HELP

Are you a "people person"? We thought so! We have an urgent need for "people persons" to help prepare and serve coffee and refreshments after Mass. It's a very modest commitment of serving just once every 5 weeks for the Mass you regularly attend. You'll have the ongoing support of your enthusiastic teammates, plus training and tips to make it a fun, rewarding and a joyous experience for all.

Know other "people persons"? Why not make it a group event? Families, friends, and all groups are welcome to serve on a team together. And we also send the call out to those of you who are bakers and "foodies". Although culinary skills and food preparation aren't required for the Hospitality Team, it's another great way to share your passions and practice your art.

Remember how special you felt when someone within the Holy Family community reached out and connected with you? The unique, warm, welcoming spirit of Holy Family is contagious, and serving on the Hospitality Ministry is the perfect way to spread and pay it forward to others. If you have questions or would like more information, please contact Sue Geegan at 847-907-3443; sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org.

Of Special Note

October 17, 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Each time our community gathers, we remember all those who have walked through the mystery of death. Our community will remember all those who have died this past year in a special way when we gather together to celebrate the Feast of All Souls on Friday, November 2, 2018 at 7:00 pm. On that day, we will especially remember all those who have been buried from Holy Family Catholic Community during this past year.

We invite and welcome you, your family and friends to this Mass. Light refreshments and fellowship will follow afterward.

Also, we would like to include your deceased loved one in our November display honoring the dead. Please bring a framed photograph, marked with your name and phone number, to the Front Office by October 31st. Likewise you will be able to collect them from the front office after November 18th.

As you have journeyed these past days and months, please know that our community has held you in our hearts and in prayer. If there is any other way we can help you during this time, please don't hesitate to call Mimi Ferlita at 847-907-3425 or email at mferlita@holyfamilyparish.org.
