Welcome to Holy Family

Holy Family Catholic community invites all to new life in Christ. Are you new to Holy Family? Are you considering becoming a registered parishioner? We welcome you to become engaged in carrying out our mission. New members are registered on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of every month (excluding holidays) immediately following the 9:00 A.M. Mass. Welcome Ministers will be available at the Welcome Desk to walk you through the short registration process. Saint Paul says, "We are the Body of Christ." We look forward to experiencing that reality with you. Fr. Terry Keehan, Pastor

Prodigal

Prodigal is defined as: Spending money or resources freely, recklessly and wastefully in an extravagant manner. We hear the parable of the Prodigal Son this weekend. The title tells us something about the younger son, but a deeper spiritual dive may generate a new title, one that captures the point or spiritual message more completely. A better title is The Forgiving Father, or even Unconditional Parental Love. The younger son's prodigal-ness (if that is a word) not only indicates the extent to which he was lost, but sets up the forgiveness of the father and ignites a reconciliatory tone of celebrating what was lost. The unconditional love of the father moves him to welcome his son back, to celebrate what was lost and now found. This incites judgment from the older, very obedient son. The Father's forgiveness of the prodigal son causes jealousy and resentment from the responsible son. Simply put, doing the right thing never got him a party. Life isn't fair sometimes, and because of that we need reconciliation even more.

Please consider that we all have the ability to forgive unconditionally as our God forgives. We can carry it out at any time, any day. Please consider that the Rite of Sacramental Reconciliation can help us, can bring us God's grace, particularly when the object of reconciliation (another person) may not be present or open to reconciling as well; OR when life isn't fair, as in the case of the older son in this weekend's parable. Please consider trusting in the Sacrament of Reconciliation and come to our All Parish Reconciliation Service, Wednesday, April 10 at 7:00pm.

The Holy Family Fund

This weekend we introduce the Holy Family Fund as part of our Lenten Social Justice Project. This fund, established in the name of our parish as an acknowledgement of our generous support of previous Lenten collaborations with Catholic Extension Society, will assist families that have been separated and are in crisis. It will lead to the unity that all families are called to, in the example of THE Holy Family, and challenge OUR Holy Family Catholic Community to embrace FAMILY as one of the important tenants of Catholic Social Teaching. Participating families contribute financially on a monthly basis and our donations will supplement their investment, therefore we offer a hand up and not simply a hand out to maintain stability for these families.

This fund is somewhat of an insurance policy for families, perhaps they will need it, perhaps not. Our donations this Lent, in support of both the Kino Border Initiative and the Holy Family Fund, will greatly help in addressing pressing immigration policy issues.

Please take a brochure available in our Narthex that will give you much more information about this fund.

Once again, I am asking you to familiarize yourself with and to pray with the Tenants of Catholic Social Teaching that have been the foundation of ALL of our Lenten Social Justice Projects and are displayed in the back of our church along with photos from the trip that Ro Geisler, Sue Geegan and I took recently to the border. These tenants are:

The Dignity and Gift of Life
Family as the First Community
Rights and Responsibilities of both Family and Society
The Importance of Work and the Rights of Workers
Solidarity with the Isolated and Vulnerable
Care for Our Common Home – Creation and
A Preferential Option for the Poor.

Fr. Sean Carroll, the Executive Director of the Kino Border Initiative, will proclaim a recorded version of our Gospel story THIS weekend and then NEXT weekend he will join us in person for ALL Masses. Please welcome him warmly in Holy Family style.

On Friday, April 12 at 7:00pm I am introducing a special Stations of the Cross for Athletes. These will be led by high school athletes from our parish, but are open to ALL and to ALL whose lives athletics plays an important role.

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @ <https://www.youtube.com/user/HFInverness/videos>.
Click on reflections for Sunday Readings 4-7-19 and listen to our Fr. Richard Rohr reflect on the readings.

Fifth Sunday of Lent

1. In the Gospel reading, Jesus values the dignity of the woman caught in adultery. How do you feel Jesus would respond to the undocumented immigrants living in our country in light of this Gospel message?
2. We also hear in our first reading: "I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth." What new things have occurred in your life for your betterment?
3. Paul says: "I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection." How do you strive to know Christ better?
4. Why is it difficult to believe that we have been forgiven? Could it be that we are not able to forgive others – or even ourselves – as we should?
5. This Gospel has a strong image of Jesus bent down, writing on the ground, as the question of forgiveness unfolds. Do you ever think about why this detail was recorded?

Beloved Retreat

The Beloved Retreat was created by a team of people from Old St. Pat's in Chicago and has grown to three full retreats per year there. The team recently began offering the retreat to other parish communities and with their help it has become a new Holy Family tradition.

We currently have over 111 "Beloveds" in our Holy Family group and we are preparing for Beloved Retreat #4! Since it has been so popular and we have received word that the winter months are hard for some people, we have moved the next retreat to early November. The retreat will be held November 1-3, 2019 at University of St. Mary of the Lake in Mundelein. The cost will be $195 per person (Beloved Angel Scholarships are available if cost is an issue, so never let that stop you from registering!).

Registration will begin in July, but if you would like to be contacted when registration begins, please send your name, address, phone number and email to Mary Whiteside at mwhiteside@holyfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3450. Space is limited to 33 participants so get your name in early!

Here's what others have said about the retreat:

"The Beloved retreat was amazing. I cried, I laughed, I was so moved. I was surprised how much the stories related to people in my own life. I not only felt more loved, I felt I am able to give more love..."

"We came in as outsiders, anxious, a little nervous, completely unsure of what to expect, but did feel in my heart that God wanted us here. I feel like I have been run over by a LOVE steam roller!!!"

"The image of the Holy Spirit bestowing blessings of grace and kindness and pure joy captures my feelings about the Beloved experience."

RCIA

Our RCIA group will be participating in the Just Neighbors program during the period of Mystagoga. This program will be an introduction to concrete ways to live out the Gospel message to love our neighbors. We have space for some additional people to join us for this program. If you are interested, please contact Mary Whiteside at 847-907-3450 or mwhiteside@holyfamilyparish.org.

The schedule is as follows:

- Sunday, May 5, 10:15 am – 11:30am – "Who is My Neighbor?" (Charity and Justice)
- Sunday, May 12 (Mother's Day), 10:15-11:30am – "Our Children, Our Future" (Option for the Poor)
- Sunday, May 19, 10:15-11:30am – "Making Ends Meet" (The Call to Family, Community and Participation)
- Sunday, June 2, 10:15-11:30am – "What Would You Choose?" (Solidarity)
- Sunday, June 9, 10:15-11:30am – "Stepping Out in Faith" (Charity, Justice and Discernment in Ministry)

Preregistration is required as there are a limited number of seats for this program. There is no cost. To pre-register, contact Mary Whiteside at 847-907-3450 or mwhiteside@holyfamilyparish.org.

The Human Concerns

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

The season of Lent began a few weeks ago. Lent is an opportunity to pray at a deeper level, allowing God to speak to us about God's desires for us, not for us to present our wish list for God. We empty ourselves through fasting so God has more room to work within us. We give alms, or financial donations, to support a cause beyond ourselves recognizing our solidarity with others who have fewer resources than we do.

Our Lenten Social Justice Project this year supports two programs working with immigrants that are trying to find a better life for themselves and their families. Fr. Terry, Ro Geisler and I met many immigrants at the US/Mexican border last November during an immersion trip with Catholic Extension. The stories they shared with us were hopeful and they were also horrific. Extortion, unspeakable acts of violence, gangs, corruption were all reasons they felt no other option but to flee their homeland and seek a safer place to live and raise their families, knowing the risks they faced on their journey as well as the odds of gaining asylum here in the United States.

I've been told the immigration issue is too political and has no place at church. I strongly disagree. We are called to respect the dignity of all humanity. If we, the Church, will not take a stand for humanity, then we are not listening to the Gospel message and we don't really know the radical Jesus who came to comfort the afflicted and to afflict the comfortable. Jesus stood up for the vulnerable and the suffering. Our immigration system is broken and until it is fixed, there will be collateral damage. Immigrants fleeing gangs, corruption and violence are the collateral damage.

We recently got a glimpse of The Kino Border Initiative program. Kino does more than welcome the stranger. They engage in research to help find solutions and guide policy-making on pressing issues like immigration. This weekend we will introduce The Holy Family Fund. Both programs meet immigrants without judgment and offer respect and dignity in their time of great suffering. I pray this Lent that the good and faith filled people of Holy Family find either a new or renewed sense of solidarity, especially with those who encounter the Kino Border Initiative and the Holy Family Fund and through prayer and fasting, our parish, with generous almsgiving, lets immigrants know their pain and suffering is also our pain and suffering.

- A reflection by Sue Geegan, Director of Human Concerns

Our goal is to raise a total of $25,000 for the two programs – the Holy Family Fund and the Kino Border Initiative. Both programs are supported by Catholic Extension Society. We look forward to walking this Lenten journey with you.

Human Concerns

What does the Church say about political activity?

Definition: The word Politics is Greek for "Affairs of the City". The purpose of politics is to enable the members of a society to collectively achieve important human goals they cannot otherwise achieve individually.

Our faith calls us to engage in humanitarian affairs by educating ourselves on a particular issue, praying for guidance and being open to engaging in fruitful dialogue, especially with others of differing opinions. The purpose is to open ourselves up to all sides of an issue and then using our well-formed conscience to act on behalf of the common good. We are social beings, thus we are political in nature. We do not act as Church when we isolate ourselves from matters that affect others adversely simply because it either does not affect us or it makes us uncomfortable.

According to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, "the separation of church and state does not require division between belief and public action, between moral principles and political choices, but protects the right of believers and religious groups to practice their faith and act on their values in public life. Catholics are called to participate in the political process, be informed voters, and to encourage elected officials to act on behalf of the common good."

There are limits to official Catholic Church political activity. The Church engages in issue-related activity, not partisan political candidate activities. This restriction does not apply to individuals or group provided they do not represent themselves as acting in an official Church capacity.

Growing Hydrangeas Thursday, April 11, 2019—4:00pm to 6:00pm Holy Family Common Ground

Enjoy a colorful and fact-filled presentation on successfully growing hydrangeas in the Chicago area by our own parishioner, Glenn Grosch. Glenn was a member of the Grounds Ministry here at Holy Family for many years. He will cover each of the 5 species of hydrangeas as to hardiness, light requirements, and moisture needs. The issues of how to prune for flower display and how to manage the blue/pink will be discussed in clear detail. This very popular presentation is "one of a kind" in the Chicago area.

Glenn is an experienced horticulturist and entertaining lecturer with strong academic credentials. He has been on the Chicago Botanic Garden teaching staff since 1997 and has been offering programs through the Garden Clubs of Illinois since 1999. He is a certified arborist and his fast-paced presentations have a high educational content with an emphasis on understanding both "the why and the how".

There is no charge for this event, but please email either Eileen at dwstjs@aol.com or Barb at owlsnest2018@aol.com OR fill out your name on a form located on the shelves in the narthex and put in Ministry box 25 in the west wing so we may plan accordingly for our attendees. Come and join us for this free presentation. Hospitality will be served.

Vocation Prayer Challenge 150 years, 150 Holy Hours

The Little Sisters of the Poor, St. Joseph's Home for the Elderly is celebrating 150 years in America this year (2018-2019). The Sisters arrived from France to New York in 1868. Following in the footsteps of St. Jeanne Jugan, the Little Sisters of the Poor have been caring for the elderly poor at St. Joseph's Home in Palatine for the past 52 years. As part of our celebration, we are asking for the faithful to pray for vocations to the Little Sisters of the Poor so that our work may continue for generations to come. The Little Sisters have had to recently close Homes in the United States due to the lack of religious vocations. Beginning April 15, 2019 until the end of May, 2019, the Little Sisters are inviting the faithful to pray one holy hour for vocations. Our goal is to have 150 people to join us in prayer. You are also invited to join the Sisters on a Sunday evening at 4:30-5:30 for a weekly holy hour. If you are willing to take the challenge, please contact Cindy at volpalatine@littlesistersofthepoor.org or call 847-358-5700 to let you know of your commitment.

From a humble heart, a great wave of charity

Welcome Fr. Sean Carroll, SJ

Executive Director of the Kino Border Initiative in Nogales, AZ and Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, at all Masses next weekend, April 6 and 7.

He will share information about KBI and his experiences working with immigrants on the US and Mexico borders.

2019 Lenten Social Justice Project Kino Border Initiative and Holy Family Fund

*Humanize the immigration issue; recognize its complexity;
accompany people on their journey.*

Kino Border Initiative (KBI) promotes U.S./Mexico border and immigration policies that affirm the dignity of the human person and a spirit of bi-national solidarity through direct assistance and education. Every year, thousands of migrant men, women and children are deported to Nogales, Sonora, Mexico or arrive in the city fleeing from Central America. They often arrive with only the clothes on their backs and a small plastic bag that contains their belongings. They often do not know where to turn to receive a meal, find shelter and to make a phone call. They also arrive emotionally and psychologically devastated, due to separation from their family members or the inability to work legally in the United States.

The Holy Family Fund is a program provided by Catholic Extension in partnership with local Catholic Charities offices. It provides emergency funds and services to a family after one or more of the undocumented income earning adults in the home are detained or deported by the US government. The families contribute to the fund on a monthly basis ($20 for an individual, $30 for a couple). The participant becomes eligible by enrolling through an agency such as Catholic Charities and paying their monthly fee to the Holy Family Fund. After the needs of the family are assessed, the family may receive benefits up to $5000 per enrolled participant to help pay for rent or house payments, utilities, health care, etc. to maintain stability for the family.

Our goal is to raise a total of $25,000 for the two programs – the Kino Border Initiative and the Holy Family Fund. Both programs are supported by Catholic Extension Society. When you are prepared to give alms, there are Lenten SJ Project envelopes in the narthex. Please make your check payable to Holy Family with a notation: Lent SJ Project or go to www.holyfamilyparish.org to make an electronic donation. If you need more information or have questions, contact Sue Geegan, the Director of Human Concerns, at sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3443.
