St. Patrick's Day

My dear, all German mother Pat used to say that there are two kinds of people: those who are Irish and those who want to be Irish. She caught so much good from the old sod heritage from my all Irish father Bill. I know that every person filled with pride about their ethnic heritage can say the same, but for me, it made me appreciate my own Irish and German background. Many saints are heavily associated with certain ethnicities based on their backgrounds, and as we celebrate their feast days we can come to a greater appreciation of them, through their saintly examples and the cultures they express. We are all Irish this weekend as we celebrate St. Patrick's Day, and let us celebrate the story, literature, song and humor that are Irish hallmarks!

Lent

As we kicked off Lent on Ash Wednesday and were introduced to the theme, The Return: a radical journey of the heart, I shared an image of this that I would like to repeat. On a recent vacation I was using GPS a lot to get to various golf courses and restaurants. I put in the destination address and BOOM, the electronic feminine voice took me right there—every time. Periodically I would stop for gas, or take a short detour. The voice would respond with three different commands, depending on how far off the original course I had gone. The first is "Make a U-turn;" the second is "Return to the route;" and the third is "Re-routing."

Our hope this Lent is that through extra reflection, prayer, simplicity and charity that we would all take some time to evaluate where we are en route to our spiritual destination. Perhaps we need to make a U-turn. Perhaps we need to Return to the Route. Perhaps we need Re-routing.

We also may be assuming that the voice leading us is, in fact, the healthiest or best voice. Another assumption that we may be making is that we don't need to make a U-turn, return to the route or be re-routed. These are assumptions that can cause a stall in our spiritual growth.

The environment of our church is particularly stark this Lent and open to much interpretation. Please take some time to sit with it, to take a good long look at it, to pray with it. Sue Geegan, our Director of Human Concerns, has offered my favorite interpretation so far. She observes that the pallets don't seem to belong in church. That observation then invites, and certainly challenges us to reflect on how we deal with things and, most importantly, people who don't seem to belong, here or anywhere.

Lent is certainly a time for Reconciliation. Please be aware that we are offering the Sacrament of Reconciliation every Monday from 6:00-6:45pm in the Reconciliation Room in the back of church. We will continue to offer the Sacrament at that time throughout the year. In addition, we offer a Reconciliation Service (Form B of the Sacrament) every First Saturday at 4:00pm in the chapel. This is a short service including Scripture, a Reflection, an Examination of Conscience, and INDIVIDUAL confession, penance and absolution. In addition, as we do every Advent and Lent, we are offering an All Parish Reconciliation Service (again, Form B) on Wednesday, April 10 at 7:00pm. Please join us for Fish Fry Dinners from 6:00-7:30 on Fridays (except for March 29) through April 5 and for Stations of the Cross following.

On Friday, April 12 I am introducing a special Stations of the Cross for Athletes. These will be led by high school athletes from our parish but are open to ALL and to ALL whose lives athletics plays an important role.

As has been the case for each of our Lenten Social Justice Projects, we once again this Lent ground our project in Catholic Social Teaching. In keeping with The Return theme, I am asking all of us to return to a focus on the tenants of this important Roman Catholic Church teaching. Please see the back wall of our church that explains the various principals of Catholic Social Teaching: The dignity of life, family as the first community, rights that protect the dignity of life, the importance of work, solidarity with those who are isolated, care for our common home-God's creation, and preferential option for the poor.

Cupich Meeting

Ro Geisler, Mary Whiteside, Sue Geegan and I met with Cardinal Cupich this past Monday regarding the results of our Clergy Sexual Abuse Survey. He definitely read it, studied it and will send us a personal response with specific directives addressing our major concerns. Look for this response soon. More details to follow.

As we journey through this Lenten season towards Easter, please consider honoring your loved ones with a memorial donation to our Liturgical Arts Flower and Environment fund. We will list all memorials in a bulletin during the Easter season. Envelopes may be found on the counters in the narthex or in the parish office. Thank you!

Stations of the Cross

Fridays at 7:00pm in church:

March 22 - Finding strength and hope through the way of the cross:
a journey with cancer with Alice Brown

It is difficult to imagine anyone in today's world whose life has not been touched by cancer in some way. As a cancer survivor, Alice Brown has used the Stations of the Cross as a framework for this contemporary evening of healing and hope. The uplifting stories, prayers and music weave together the lessons she has learned – that when something frightening drops on our doorstep, God gives us opportunities. Whatever pain you experience in your life – whether it is cancer or something else – you are not alone. On his journey to the cross, Jesus teaches us how to be strong. And, like Jesus, we can choose to help light the way for others.

March 29 with the Human Concerns Community -
Each station becomes a journey through the lens of the poor and suffering of our brothers and sisters throughout the world.

April 5 with the Family Faith Community and Kid's Choir

April 12 with Fr. Terry

Tuesday, April 16 at 2:45pm in church

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @ <https://www.youtube.com/user/HFINverness/videos>.

Click on reflections for Sunday Readings 3-24-19 and listen to our Deacon, Dennis Brown, reflect on the readings.

Third Sunday of Lent

1. God used a common item – a burning bush in the desert – to show Moses his glory. How has God revealed his wonder and glory to you?
2. Through Moses, God accomplished many great things. Who is a “Moses” in your lifetime? What did God accomplish through them?
3. Paul closes our second reading by saying: “So if you think you are standing, watch out that you do not fall.” Is this a warning to us? What does it mean to you?
4. How do we avoid thinking that others are “worse offenders” than ourselves? Does gossip and idle chatter play a role in this? How do we guard against this?
5. The United States is viewed as a land of “milk and honey” to many people living in places around the world that are oppressive and violent. What is your response to their suffering?

• Conversion to LED lighting reducing electrical usage by 9%
• Overage in Arch Assessments partially offset by lower insurance

Expect to see first half operating profit reduced with lower income projected in the second half of the year

Teens solve interesting Biblical mysteries in 2019 Passion Play

“The Centurion’s Tale”

Some Helpful Background

Catholics and Orthodox Christians view Scripture as one of two definitive witnesses to divine Revelation, claiming Christ taught many things to the Apostles. Some of the teachings from the Apostles are simply referenced in Scripture; other teachings attributed to them (i.e. The Apostle’s Creed) are not included at all. Many of their writings were not included in Scripture, but stood along the Scriptural texts providing additional details, commentaries, responses to questions the Early Christians asked (e.g. letters, The DIDACHE). Clearly both oral and written teachings remained important in Christianity.

“So then, brethren, stand firm and hold to the traditions which you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by letter.” (2 Thess 2:15).

What the apostles handed on that is not contained in Scripture is referred to as referred to as Sacred Tradition. Catholic and Orthodox Christian traditions teach that Tradition stands with Scripture, complimenting and confirming one another in forming the one single deposit of the Faith. They believe that Sacred Tradition

Finding our roots is all the rage. Knowing where we come from, who our ancestors are and what their lives were like, is very satisfying. Many say they gain whole new insights into who they are and a deep appreciation and respect for the sacrifices made by their ancestors. Having the details makes the story more engaging, more thought provoking.

In this year’s Teen Faith Passion Play we have engaged in a similar process by introducing some often overlooked individuals in the Gospel narratives. We have already highlighted the Centurion at the foot of the Cross in a previous bulletin. Today we want to highlight another new character, Mary of Clopas (in some translations spelled Cleopas).

In John 19:25 we read, “...standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary of Magdala.”

Mary the wife of Clopas

If you are like most of the Passion Play cast and crew you might respond the same way we did, “Mary had a sister? I never knew that. After you learn of Mary of Cleopas it doesn’t take you long to figure out that she would have been Jesus’ aunt and her husband would have been his uncle. How often do you think about Jesus having an extended family? You might ask if Mary had a sister might she have had other siblings. You might want to know where could find out? You might want to know if we know anything else about Mary of Clopas? Did she have children? Was she close to Mary? To find out we can begin to search for her in other scripture passages. Yet the likelihood of finding out much within the Scripture itself is not promising. After all we hardly have many details about Jesus' mother so why would we expect to find much about her sister?

Passion Play unravels biblical

This is when Tradition can be very helpful. We possess more than 9,000 letters written by the early Christians, as well as thousands of homilies, prayer and hymn texts, and early Creedal formulations. We have access to Roman, Greek and Jewish histories and other writings from antiquity which can help us corroborate evidence, not to mention vast quantities of archeological artifacts and early Christian art work. Most especially we are the inheritors of this great legacy because of the painstaking scholarship of so many.

Please come to the Passion Play on April 19 @ Noon, 3 pm or 7 pm and let us help you explore your biblical ancestry and spiritual legacy. Just like in our family histories, knowing the details makes the story much more engaging and helps us develop new insights into our own heart's journey and gain a new appreciation for the sacrifices made for us by our ancestor's in the faith.

Background continues

Tradition is free from error just as Scripture is inerrant, both of them flowing from the same divine wellspring – the Holy Spirit.

This is one of the major theological differences between Christians. Many Protestant Christians see Scripture as the sole source of Divine Revelation. Sola Scriptura was coined by Martin Luther and other Christian Reformers who protested against the idea that all of Church Tradition is inerrant and not able to change.

In response to the reformers both within and outside of the Church Catholicism made explicit that Sacred Tradition should not be confused with ecclesial tradition, the vast collections of customs and mores that do change over time and highlight particular cultural expressions of the faith (e.g. receiving the Eucharist in the hand or on the tongue, or what language is used during the Liturgy).

ILLINOIS CATHOLIC ADVOCACY NETWORK (I-CAN)

Are you concerned about issues and policies that affect our social fabric as a Catholic? The Illinois Catholic Advocacy Network, or I-CAN, is an email network that allows Catholics to contact state lawmakers on issues that affect the church and her mission.

I-CAN focuses on issues such as Catholic education, immigration reform, the plight of young Dreamers, and anti-violence efforts. It seeks to protect the sanctity of life by fighting abortion expansion and physician-assisted suicides. For example, in Illinois, there are currently two House and two Senate Bills that support what the Bishops call "extreme abortion legislation." The Catholic Conference also advocates for criminal justice reforms as well as care for creation.

2019 Lenten Social Justice Project

Kino Border Initiative and Holy Family Fund

Humanize the immigration issue; recognize its complexity; accompany people on their journey.

This Lenten season, Holy Family will walk a path alongside individuals and families striving to live a life that is productive, strengthens the family unit, and maintains inherent dignity - all within an environment that is safe and nurturing. Our intent is to humanize the immigration issue and to recognize its complexity, while emphasizing accompaniment of people on their journey.

Respecting the human dignity of every individual is the first and foremost Catholic social teaching. Throughout Lent, this project will address six of the seven main Catholic social teachings. These teachings include: Respecting Human Dignity; Call to Family, Community, and Participation; Rights and Responsibilities; Option for the Poor and Vulnerable; The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers; and living in Solidarity with our brothers and sisters everywhere.

Our goal will be to raise a total of $25,000 for the two programs – the Holy Family Fund and the Kino

Border Initiative. We look forward to walking this Lenten journey with you.

The Kino Border Initiative will be introduced at Masses this weekend. Here is a summary of their mission and programs.

Kino Border Initiative (KBI), which promotes U.S./ Mexico border and immigration policies that affirm the dignity of the human person and a spirit of bi-national solidarity through direct assistance and education. Every year, thousands of migrant men, women and children are deported to Nogales, Sonora, Mexico or arrive in the city fleeing from Central America. They often arrive with only the clothes on their backs and a small plastic bag that contains their belongings. They often do not know where to turn to receive a meal, find shelter and to make a phone call. They also arrive emotionally and psychologically devastated, due to separation from their family members or the inability to work legally in the United States.

The Kino Border Initiative is responding to the critical humanitarian needs of migrants in many ways:

Aid Center for Migrants (CAM – Initials in Spanish)

The CAM provides two meals a day to migrant men, women and children deported to Nogales, Sonora, Mexico. The CAM also distributes clothing and personal care items, as well as providing orientation for social service assistance.

Nazareth House

Nazareth House is a shelter for migrant women and children, to respond to their vulnerability in the streets of Nogales, Sonora. It is a safe space where women and children can bathe, eat, sleep, call their families and reflect on their experience. They receive opportunities for prayer and pastoral support as well.

First Aid Station

Many migrants arrive in Nogales, Sonora with severely blistered feet, flu symptoms and dehydration. We offer some first aid assistance at the KBI Comedor.

Presentations, Talks and Workshops

A presentation might be a simple talk on the reality along the US-Mexico border and how the KBI and other faith groups are responding to the humanitarian crisis. Or it could be a power point presentation that explores further the reality of undocumented immigration, the causes and possible solutions. Or it could be a longer workshop that would cover the details of immigration on a world-wide scale as well as give those attending the workshop time to reflect and share with others their beliefs and concerns regarding immigrants and immigration.

Immersion Experiences

Our immersion experiences offer participants an opportunity to spend time with migrants and learn from their stories, as well as to understand the broader context of the border and immigration. Every trip includes time in the comedor (soup kitchen) where participants serve food and have the chance to speak with recently deported migrants. The trip is intended to humanize the immigration issue and to recognize its complexity, while emphasizing accompaniment of people on their journey.

Retreat Day/Day of Reflection

Offers a day-long retreat to reflect on the issues surrounding immigration. “Welcoming the Stranger” is a theme seen nearly 120 times throughout Scripture. In the Bible, migration is a central theme. God’s people are forced time and time again to move, to migrate, to escape a bad situation or to find a better life.

Human Concerns

Kino Teens

Is a network of high school youth groups providing students the opportunity for direct service to deported migrants, for participation in educational activities offered to interested groups and organizations and for advocacy visits to local legislative offices.

Research

Migration is a complex phenomenon and for this reason, the Kino Border Initiative recognizes the importance of providing a space in which scholars and students can do research on migration and help find solutions to pressing policy issues. Past researchers have investigated topics such as service learning, nursing care for women migrants and the effects of security policies on the U.S./Mexico border.

Advocacy

The KBI's advocacy efforts are rooted in Catholic teaching and are a response to the human realities that we encounter at the border. We partner with other organizations to advocate in the US and Mexico for policies that advance humane, just and workable migration in the region. KBI's advocacy is supported by a survey in its Aid Center for Migrants to obtain basic information about the people served and to document abuses committed against them as well as ongoing, in-depth documentation of migrants' experiences in Mexico and the U.S.

She has handled this situation appropriately by notifying the landlord and New Hope staff.

Client is doing well besides her housing issues. She is saving and thinking about her future and is looking for affordable housing in the area.

Goals:

- Save up at least 3 month's rent

She reported recently being let go from her hostess job because of overstepping the job description. She finds it difficult to not be in a leadership position so she is back looking for work. She is currently working with the New Hope Job Developer and the IDES (Illinois Department of Employment Security).

Mom's children are stable; however she is struggling with depression since the loss of the hostess job and is currently seeking a therapist for support and guidance.

Goals:

- Save up at least 3 month's rent
- Attend work and school as scheduled
- Apply for low income housing
- Look for full-time employment
