From my Heart...

I want to offer a hearty congratulations to over 70 teens who received the Sacrament of Confirmation last weekend. One of our new Auxiliary Bishops, Robert Casey, was here with us to celebrate and, as always, when I point out to the Bishop that five of the newly Confirmed give the Body and Blood of Christ during the Mass, I do so with particular pride. Eucharistic Ministers must be Confirmed, so the fact that these young people are so eager to share Communion, they do so literally minutes after they receive the Sacrament.

Many, many thanks to our Teen Faith department under Dr. Peg Hanrahan's direction; to Grant Guthrie and Amy Hodson, our Associate Directors; to the catechists, sponsors and parents who all worked together in the formation of our teens, and all at the celebration of the Sacrament. Thanks to Gene Garcia for leading such prayerful music, and our staff for welcoming so many to join us in prayer.

This Saturday and next we will celebrate First Communion. Once again, Dr. Peg has provided great direction along with our Principal, Kate O'Brien, Marta Robak and Laura Ferlita from our Family Faith office, Academy teachers, Faith catechists and parents who have all collaborated in preparing and celebrating with our youngsters as they receive the Sacrament of the Eucharist for the first time. Please join me in praying for those blessed with God's grace in both of these Sacraments.

Easter revelations of the Risen Christ...

At the beginning of this weekend's Gospel from John, Peter announces that he is going fishing. Seriously Peter!! After everything that you and the disciples have just been through—being called by Jesus, following him, witnessing his miracles, sharing his story, being immersed in his love, celebrating Passover, being taught about service through washing feet, being with Jesus as he instituted the Eucharist, giving you and all his REAL presence for the rest of time, betraying him, being forgiven by him, living through his brutal suffering and crucifixion, witnessing his Resurrection—seriously Peter, you are going back to fishing?

This seems like such a giant step backwards and a statement of a man returning to a 'normal' life, or a former life, after having the greatest opportunity to be transformed by an intimate relationship with Jesus Christ, one that is far from 'normal.'

Yet Peter is obviously a leader and the other disciples follow him back to that former way of life. We will go back with you they seem to be saying. We will return to something we used to know.

You would have thought that Easter had broken through, not only the locked doors of the place the disciples were staying, but through the locked doors of their hearts. You would have thought that the disciples would be so inspired by the new life of the Lord's Resurrection that they would be poised for a completely new life ahead, and a future filled with ministry and radical change. Instead, they return to fishing?

As the story progresses we hear of a repeat performance by Jesus. These disciples, returning to their former work, catch nothing. Seemingly they have not been transformed by the risen Christ at all, so Jesus instructs them. They follow his command and the result is that abundance replaces nil.

To acknowledge the humanity of the early disciples, they, like all of us, fail to recognize the Lord in our midst, and that his direction should always guide us. They begin to recognize him in the breaking of bread and sharing of fish that they have just caught. The text tells us that this is the third time Jesus revealed himself to the disciples. A spiritual spin on the number three leads us to see that first, there is a beginning of our recognition of Jesus; secondly, there is a next step; and finally, the eternal or lasting recognition. This revelation of Jesus could be the eternal one and the disciples finally recognize the fullness of Jesus. The locked doors of their grief and sorrow, their desire to return to fishing perhaps now has been replaced by the true belief in the Lord who has beaten suffering and death.

Jesus relies on the spiritual number three again though in asking Peter for love, not once or twice, but three times. Perhaps Jesus wants to emphasize the eternal nature of his loving presence to Peter and to us. I believe that Jesus wanted to be sure that Peter does not go back to fishing so he concludes this passage by saying again, "Follow Me." Let us join Peter in following the Lord yet once again. Let's not return to our former selves. Let's return to New Life!!

Thank you, good and faithful servants!

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @ <https://www.youtube.com/user/HFInverness/videos>.

Click on reflections for Sunday Readings 5-12-19 and listen to Sue Geegan, Director of Human Concerns, reflect on the readings.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

1. Paul and Barnabas seized an opportunity to grow the Church by preaching directly to the Gentiles. In what ways is Holy Family working to grow our Church? Do you have new ideas?
2. Like those who persecuted Paul and Barnabas, why is it so difficult for some people in positions of power and wealth to accept new ideas?
3. In Revelation, we are again told that the Lamb is our shepherd. How does this reading speak to you and provide you with comfort?
4. In the Gospel, Jesus says: "My sheep hear my voice." When and how do you hear the voice of Jesus?
5. Jesus assumes the figure of the Good Shepherd and the sheep, recognizing the voice of the Shepherd, they follow him with absolute trust. Do you recognize when Jesus speaks to you and fully trust in Him when a justice issue is at hand?

The shortfall in this years' Christmas and Easter collections have resulted in a loss of $30,000 for the parish through the first three quarters of the fiscal year that ends June 30, 2019. At the current giving rate for Sunday contributions the parish is forecasted to lose $70,000 for the year.

We appreciate and thank you for your response to our Sunday collection budget catchup request last fall. Unfortunately, our Christmas and Easter collections have fallen significantly below previous years' holiday donations resulting in a negative impact on our collection revenue. Your contribution of an additional $10 per week or a onetime gift of $100 will assist in eliminating a budget loss for 2018-19.

Family & Teen Faith

alleluia We are an Easter people is our song

Look over the list of spiritual practices. Choose one or two you will focus on from now until Pentecost. Maybe you want to do one as a couple/family and then choose another for yourself. Let your children each choose one. Share with each other the practice you have chosen to do so you can encourage each other. Compliment your children or your parents when 'you catch them practicing their resurrection faith'. Make time each day or every other day to share with each other how being an Easter disciple is going for you.

Do you have an Easter plan?

SIMPLE SPIRITUAL PRACTICES

- Breathe deeply for three minutes each day
- Wonder and admire God's creation
- Take note of all growing things – plant something new
- Give three compliments each day
- Be mindful of what you do
- Cultivate the art of making connections
- Pray for others every day
- Forgive someone
- Say 'thank you' ten times a day
- Send two affirming text messages each day
- Delight in new ideas
- Find a place to be quiet each day for a few minutes
- Do something for your spouse
- Be a peacemaker
- Be creative
- Donate an hour a week to a worthy cause
- Treat someone to a cup of coffee or an ice cream cone
- Do something for yourself

The Human Concerns Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In the Gospels, Jesus teaches us to be a living expression of God's kindness, showing the light of God's goodness and mercy to all of our brothers and sisters, but especially to the poor, the vulnerable, and those facing challenging circumstances. Each year on Mother's Day, Catholic Charities invites us to be a living expression of God's goodness through our gift to the Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection. With our support, Catholic Charities carries out the important work of the Church to help the poor and vulnerable in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

People often come to Catholic Charities at the most difficult times of their lives—hungry, afraid, hurting, alone, homeless, helpless, hopeless. Catholic Charities cares for people at these desperate times, helping them rebuild their lives and restoring hope for the future.

Catholic Charities provides a broad range of services to people of all ages and at every stage of life, regardless of religion or background. Whether it's helping young mothers with pregnancy and parenting services; offering educational and support programs for at-risk children and teens; counseling those facing addiction, mental illness or grief; delivering emergency assistance to families coping with homelessness and hunger; or providing affordable housing and a variety of in-home services for seniors. Catholic Charities brings Christ's love and mercy to the people and the places that need it most.

We each have an important role to play in the Church's sacred mission to care for those in need. Please accept my sincere gratitude for your past support of the Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection, and please consider being as generous as you can again this year. Contributions can be made during the regular collection on Mother's Day using the envelopes provided in the narthex, anytime at www.catholiccharities.net/donate. or mail your gift to Catholic Charities, 721 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago, IL 60654. May God bless you and those you love this Mother's Day and always.

With every good wish, I remain
Sincerely yours in Christ,
Blase Cardinal Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago

- LGBT Community to share stories and insights

Throughout the year, One in Love will host a variety of events to provide education, explore and discuss issues surrounding sexuality, gender and our faith, to listen to our stories and to discover ways to serve our community. Coffee and light refreshments will be served.

May is National Mental Health Awareness Month

Pope John Paul II's 1977 message to healthcare workers in the L'Osservatore Romano Weekly Edition states "Whoever suffers from mental illness always bears God's image and likeness in (themselves), as does every human being. In addition, (people with mental illness) always have the inalienable right not only to be considered as an image of God and therefore as a person, but also to be treated as such."

The people of God, the church, are called to be communities of compassion, hope and justice for people with mental illness and their families. It is important that persons with mental illness feel welcomed and supported within the parish. This requires the purest spiritual outreach, i.e., non-judgmental love and acceptance of the individual. The more that parishes can project non-judgmental love, the more its members suffering with mental illness, or those who have a family member with mental illness, are likely to acknowledge their needs and overcome their fears of rejection.

Excerpts from Deacon Tom Lambert's Mental Illness and Justice Issues. Deacon Tom is on the Chicago Archdiocese Commission on Mental Illness. The full report is available at the Social Justice table in the west coatroom.
