The Eucharist: Vertical and Horizontal Dimensions of Faith

This Sunday, we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi, the mystery of the Body and Blood of Christ present in the Holy Eucharist. We read this Sunday, from the Gospel of Luke, how Jesus feeds five thousand men, not including women and children, with five loaves of bread and two fish. The Feast of the Holy Eucharist invites us to reflect on our ability to see the world through both the vertical and horizontal dimensions of our faith.

On the one hand, the vertical dimensions of faith are associated with one's direct and personal relationship with God. This involves participating in the sacraments, Eucharistic adoration, devotions such as the Rosary, the Stations of the Cross; honoring the saints and cultivating private prayer. On the other hand, the horizontal dimensions of faith commonly refer to how we demonstrate our faith in Christ by serving and loving others. This includes a special concern for the poor and suffering. These horizontal dimensions of faith can also be understood by focusing on the seven principles of Catholic social teaching as outlined by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. These teachings are: Life and Dignity of the Human Person; Solidarity; Care for God's Creation; Call to Family, Community and Participation; Option for the Poor and Vulnerable; Rights and Responsibilities and Dignity of Work and Rights of Workers.

Neither the vertical dimensions nor the horizontal dimensions are sufficient by themselves and each requires the other. These two dimensions of faith, vertical and horizontal, can and often are viewed from opposite ends of the spectrum. It is sometimes assumed that "conservative" Catholics prioritize the liturgy and the vertical dimension of faith, while "liberal" Catholics prioritize social justice and the horizontal dimension of faith. The polarizing of these two dimensions of faith is not only harmful in establishing harmony within ourselves, but divisive and harmful in establishing harmony as a community of faith.

In the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council deemed the liturgy to be "the first and necessary source from which believers can imbibe the true Christian spirit. Although liturgical worship and social justice exist in a mutual relationship and are incomplete without each other, primacy belongs to the Eucharist. The Eucharist demands and provides substance to the work of social justice." In a very similar vein, the Council Fathers, in the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, also describe the Eucharist as "the source and culmination of all Christian life."

What these church teachings translate to is that what happens during the Mass must always be seen as being related to and affecting how we as Catholics live and serve those around us in everyday life. The sacred liturgy is meant to serve as the foundation of the Church's entire mission. Social justice does not necessarily commit an individual to the Eucharist. By its very nature, however, "the Eucharist commits us to the poor." The proper order is divine worship which then leads us to justice. Through our participation in the Eucharist, we have an intimate encounter with Christ, as well as develop an authentic Christian spirit that includes a loving concern for all who are oppressed and ostracized members of society. Everything we as Catholic Christians do to serve the poor and the least of these can never be devoid of our relationship with Christ in the Eucharist. If our relationship is absent from Christ, then our efforts fall short of their true potential. Both the person who identifies his or her Catholicity solely with daily attendance at Mass and the person who claims his or her daily work at the soup kitchen is the essential feature of his or her Catholicity are both misguided in their estimation.

Neither Sunday Mass nor caring for the needy is optional for those who claim to live as Catholic Christians in the world. U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops highlights the social dimensions of the Eucharist, citing the late Pope John Paul II's declaration that the Eucharist fosters "a social love in which we put the common good ahead of private food, take up the cause of the community, the parish, the universal church, and extend our charity to the whole world." The bread of life is the Eucharist and more than the Eucharist. On the Feast of Corpus Christi, let us reflect as a community of faith on these questions about the mystery of the Eucharist and our commitment to Jesus and one another:

Does the Eucharist lead me to truly feel and believe that we are all brothers and sisters in Christ? Does the Eucharist increase my capacity to rejoice with those who are rejoicing and cry with those who are crying?

Does the Eucharist urge me to go out to the poor, the sick, the marginalized? Does the Eucharist help me to recognize in other people the face of Jesus? We all participate in the Mass to experience the love of Jesus and share, through the Eucharist, in Christ's passion, death, and resurrection, but does our participation at Mass lead us to love, as Jesus did, those brothers and sisters who are the most difficult to love?

When have you been bread in someone else's life? When and where have you fed and nourished them? When have you sustained them? When have you strengthened them? What kind of bread will you eat this week? What kind of bread will you be for another this week?

Over 70½ Years Old, Have an IRA and Want to Donate to Holy Family?

If you are over the age of 70½, you are required to take minimum distributions each year from your IRA, and you have to pay income tax on those distributions. However, the “charitable rollover” law lets you transfer assets from your IRA to a charity, and whatever amount you transfer reduces the amount you are required to withdraw. So if you are required to withdraw $20,000 in 2019, but you instead donate $20,000 to charity, you do not have to withdraw any funds for yourself, and you do not have to pay any income tax.

You will not get a charitable deduction for the amount you donate in this way. However, donating directly from an IRA may be better than taking a distribution and then making a donation, because it results in a lower adjusted gross income – which can help you avoid taxes on Social Security benefits, reduce your Medicare premiums, and qualify for other deductions and credits.

What past participants have said:

- ◆ This was the most beautiful, meaningful, life-changing retreat I have ever been a part of. I feel a very special bond not only with the people at my table but at those very special people who shared their life experiences with all of us. I feel that I learned to trust in the love of God. He's got me! Thank you to the Beloved Team each and every one of you, you are special and loved. I also feel loved.
- ◆ Preaching the limitless, abundant love of God for us is essential to grasping the mystery of how God regards us, His creation. You fleshed out the idea that baptism is a verb, not a noun. I believe this retreat will motivate me to go to the next level of practicing my faith with a stronger action component.
- ◆ You can never go around what you've got to go through. Not a single one of my circumstances has changed, but I have! I came here literally shaking and am leaving with the most joyful heart and biggest smile.

Kid Church gathers to worship on the 2nd & 4th Sundays at 10:15

Why bring your kids to Mass?

Celebrating the Eucharist is an encounter with Christ. One of the most effective ways we can help our children to develop a personal relationship with Christ is to worship regularly as a family.

Celebrating the Eucharist is an encounter with the Body of Christ. Are not our children members of that Body? This sense of belonging is critical to the faith development and spiritual well-being of children (and adults).

Celebrating the Eucharist teaches us about our faith. Just being present at Mass teaches our kids that Jesus invites everyone to hear the Words of life; Jesus gathers everyone around the table. Children learn that the Eucharist unites us, people of all ages and cultures, as one community, sharing one faith. The Mass is not an experience of private prayer nor is it a performance that seeks to entertain. We come to Mass to be in the presence of God and in communion with others who love Him.

Bringing children to Mass helps nurture their inner life. Being in the presence of Christ and those who love Him awakens the spiritual self. Children are intuitive and readily embrace the world of symbol and ritual, for their inner lives are rich in wonder and imagination. Taking the leap of faith is second nature to them. Worship is not just an event it is an attitude of the heart. The Catholic author and speaker, Kate Wicker, reminds us that as parents we opened the door to the Church at Baptism; we told our children that receiving the Body and Blood of Christ was important. It is not fair to confuse them by saying one thing and doing another.

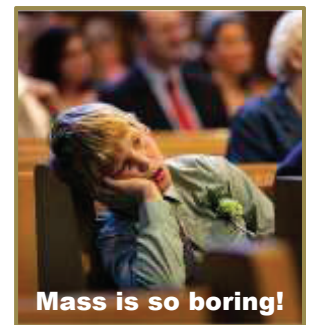

Worship is an attitude of the heart

Young people gather to worship at our 4:00 pm Teen Mass.

"I don't get anything out of Mass — why should I go?" Faith is a journey. Like all journeys, it has its ups and downs. All of us have our moments when we ask, 'When are we going to get there? Why it is taking so long!' We need to let our kids know that we often feel the same way they do. Yet, as Catholics we believe celebrating the Eucharist, is what keeps us grounded; it's our point of connection; it is where we are reminded about what is essential. If we want to be close to Christ we have to spend time with Him, even on the days we don't feel like it! In Christ's Church, everyone matters. Being part of the Body of Christ means we are there for each other. It is this experience of community that speaks to so many of our young people.

"Never before has a place allowed me to be so unapologetically myself all the while supporting me through everything I do. This is where I found my friends, my Faith and myself...there truly is no place I'd rather spend my Sundays." Grace Milke

Mass is so boring!

At Holy Family such responses are more common than you might imagine. It does not happen overnight. Faith is a long distance journey and it takes time, energy and lots of encouragement to get to this place. Yet for those who make the investment the rewards are amazing.

End of Year Blessings

One of our parish school's treasured traditions is our end of year blessing as we begin summer break.

We give thanks for the teaching and learning that has taken place and for the talents and gifts that have been shared. We give thanks for the challenges that have been faced, the hurts that have been healed, and the respect and care that has been given. We are thankful for new friends and for the opportunity to grow in our faith. We are thankful for our community of teachers, students and parents.

We end each year with a special blessing that teachers give to each of their students, recognizing their many gifts and talents and thankful for our time together and memories to cherish. We also say good bye to treasured faculty, staff and students who are moving on.

Finally, we ask that God watch over us during summer break and bring us back together in August renewed and refreshed to continue our journey to become global thinkers, leaders grounded in faith.

Catholic Charities New Hope Apartments A Transitional Housing Program for Homeless Families April, 2019 Update

Family #30

Our family consists of a mom and her two sons ages 4 and 2.

Our mom is doing great and continues to increase her savings. She is currently working on her exit plan. Her lease will expire on 9/1/2019 and she would love to stay in her current apartment, however the rent will increase due to remodeling of the building so she will begin searching for a more affordable unit in the area or close to her job. Her children are stable and ready for the summer.

Ongoing Goals:

- Save up at least 3 month's rent
- Obtain a CNA certificate
- Secure affordable housing before July 2019

Family #31

This family consists of a 24 year old female and her two sons' ages 7 and 5.

Our mom has reached out to a staffing agency, which has found her a temporary assignment that could potentially turn into a permanent full-time position. The hours are from 9am to 5pm, which will make her available for her children after school and save money on childcare. She will keep working at her current part-time jobs until she finds full-time work.

New Hope Staff is also working with this mom on an exit plan. She is hopeful that she will be stable enough to take over her rent when the current lease expires. She is also looking at other housing options that are more affordable. She says that she can always fall back on waitressing in the evenings to bring in additional funding.

Ongoing Goals:

- Save up at least 3 months' rent
- Apply for low income housing
- Look for full time employment

New Hope Staff would like to personally thank the Parishioners of the Peace and Justice Cluster Parishes for your continued support over the years!

Tradesmen/Tradeswomen & Handymen/Handywomen Volunteers Needed

The Spring of Life Partnership of churches in conjunction with Habitat for Humanity Northern Fox Valley needs handymen/handywomen and recently retired tradesmen/tradeswomen to participate in our current construction project. Habitat builds affordable housing for deserving families in the Northern Fox Valley. Homeowners complete 500 hours of sweat equity and demonstrate the ability to afford a home mortgage.

We began construction on our current Elgin site in January, 2019. Come join other volunteers on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Come once or as often as you like. To learn more about our program, contact Larry Buettner at Larrybuettner@comcast.net or call 847-438-1468.

Did You Know No One Gets a Free Home?

You may not know that all the homes we build or rehab are purchased by families who not only meet financial requirements, but who also work alongside our Spring of Life volunteers on the construction team.

Spring of Life Partnership Role

Our partnership provides all the labor and up to $35,000 on each home we build. We raise this money through a variety of sources, from individual donations to faith community contributions.

On behalf of the families you have helped, God Bless you and thank you for your past support.

Little Sisters of the Poor

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING FOR 150 YEARS

Our story tells the greatness of the Lord;
and together we rejoice in the love of God our Savior.
For he has smiled down upon our lowliness and cared for us,
in his Providence, these 150 years.
The Almighty has done great things for us and holy is his name.
His mercy is from age to age on those who trust in him.
He has shown his power in weakness and revealed the mysteries of His kingdom to little ones.
He humbles the powerful and lifts up the lowly.
From the rich he calls forth generous hearts so that the hungry may be filled with good things;
He comes to the help of his servants, remembering His promise of mercy;
For when God fills the house he will never abandon it.
And when God is with us, anything can be accomplished.

Maintenance Needs Your Help!

Do you know someone who could donate a boom or scissor lift for a week?

During the summer months we try to get a number of cleaning or repair projects completed that we can't accomplish while school is in session. This summer we need both a boom lift and a scissor lift, each for a week duration. This equipment is expensive to rent. Do you know someone who would be willing to donate the use of either of these for a week and both help us complete these projects and save on our overall expense. Contact Bernie Schaeffer if you do at 847-907-3420.
