Awake, Aware, Open, Receptive

In this Sunday's gospel, we reflect on the familiar story of Mary and Martha. Mary is often equated with the contemplative life and Martha with the active life. In this particular context, Jesus reveals that Mary made the better choice, but it was a choice for a specific moment, place, and circumstance. Jesus is reminding us that our choices do matter. But Jesus is not necessarily saying that sitting and listening is better than being active and busy. While we might distinguish between the choices of Mary and Martha, there is another more important theme: the gift of presence. Both Mary and Martha represent two ways of being present. Both ways are necessary, faithful and holy. There is not simply one choice that is to be made forever and always. We are asked this Sunday to be a faith community that must discern what God is inviting us to do in each moment and situation. What is the one thing needed in this time, this place, these circumstances?

The story of Mary and Martha is a reflection about the choices we make every day. We are always making choices. I wonder how many choices we make every day? Sometimes we may choose unconsciously, sometimes quickly and easily, and other times with great deliberation and struggle. Some choices are insignificant, forgotten in a moment or by the next day. But other choices have far greater meaning and significance. The consequences of our choices can be long lasting and life changing. Our daily choices ultimately shape the person that we become. They establish in us patterns, behaviors and habits of how we see and act, the words we speak, and the ways we relate to one another. Our choices set a trajectory for our lives. Our choices do make a difference in us and in the lives of others.

Too often we equate the choices we make, and their subsequent approval or rejection, with our goodness, our worthiness, our acceptableness, our faithfulness, our lovable-ness. That's what most spiritual reflections have done with the story of Mary and Martha. But change the setting and Martha's choice may have been the better one. We can see that in Jesus' own life. Sometimes he went off by himself to be alone, silent, still, to pray, to sit and listen, and to be present to his Father. At those times he was more like Mary. Other times Jesus was active, on the move, in the midst of people, and busy teaching, healing, feeding 5000. On those days he was more like Martha.

When we reflect on some of our choices, we may be certain that it was the right choice to be made in that moment. If I had to do it all again, I would make the same choice, and do so with the same thanksgiving and gratitude. But there have also been times when I made what I thought was the right choice, but now I see that there was a better choice to have been made. I would do things differently if I had the chance to choose again. I suspect most of us could say the same thing. This weekend's gospel reminds us that every day we are called to a deeper awareness of the connection between our relationship with Christ and our choices. With Christ comes a new way of choosing. When we can reconnect with our higher self, our heart, and with God, take responsibility for what is going on in our life, and for our own behaviors (patterns and fears), we will change our life and the life of others and be well on the way to finding a new joy!

Some days our choices may mean sitting quietly and listening to the heartbeat of God within us, reading and studying, watching a sunset with our spouse, or praying for the needs of the greater world. Other days, it may mean speaking words of hope and encouragement to another, offering actions of compassion and hospitality, seeking forgiveness and making amends, or just spending quality time with another. We are reminded by Christ that we must each choose our way into life, love, relationships, faith, and even salvation, and that our choices do matter. Choose the better part! But there will be another choice to be made after that, and another one after that one. Either way we must choose. Let us take a moment and reflect on our relationship with Christ and the choices we make.

What is the one thing needed that will keep us awake, aware, open, receptive, and present to Christ?

What is the one thing we need to do right now, in this moment, just for now?

What is the better part given our particular situation?

How do we be present, show up, to the divine presence that is already and always before us?

What patterns are going on in our life that are interfering with and blocking our joy?

O God, help me to choose rightly—and to choose the right way. Help me not necessarily to choose what I want to do, but what you want me to do. Grant that I may not be swayed solely by fear or by hope of gain, by selfish love of ease or comfort or by personal ambition, by the desire to escape or by longing for prestige. Help me today in humble obedience to say to you, "Lord, what will you have me to do?" and then await your guidance, and accept your will. Amen.

Do you like babies? Would you like a joyful service opportunity?

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @ <https://www.youtube.com/user/HFInverness/> videos. Click on reflections for Sunday Readings for 7-28-19 and listen to Marsha Adamczyk reflect on the readings.

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. In the first reading, Abraham showed great persistence in seeking God's mercy for the people. When have you showed great persistence in asking God for something?
2. Like Abraham, have you ever felt guilty about being too persistent in asking God for something?
3. Paul said: "God made you alive together with him, when he forgave us all our trespasses." Why is it sometimes hard for us to believe that God has forgiven our sins?
4. What were the first prayers you learned to pray? As you've gotten older, have these prayers taken on new meaning? Have new prayers been added or taken their place?
5. What word or phrase in the Our Father has special meaning to you?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

The gospel message speaks of being persistent in prayer for the gift of the Holy Spirit. How are you persistent in your pursuit to work toward the glory of God in your home, community and church?

Parish Support & Services

Electronic Giving continues to have a significant positive impact on our budgeting and cash flow. As we complete our 2018-19 fiscal year our total number of electronic givers is 540 and represents 40% of our Sunday contributions. While the number of electronic givers is up from 528 as of June 30, 2018 there are still many parishioners who have not yet made a commitment to electronic giving. We ask you to prayerfully consider electronic giving and help us reach our new goal for 575 for fiscal 2019-2020.

What past participants have said:

- ◆ This was the most beautiful, meaningful, life-changing retreat I have ever been a part of. I feel a very special bond not only with the people at my table but at those very special people who shared their life experiences with all of us. I feel that I learned to trust in the love of God. He's got me! Thank you to the Beloved Team each and every one of you, you are special and loved. I also feel loved.
- ◆ Preaching the limitless, abundant love of God for us is essential to grasping the mystery of how God regards us, His creation. You fleshed out the idea that baptism is a verb, not a noun. I believe this retreat will motivate me to go to the next level of practicing my faith with a stronger action component.
- ◆ You can never go around what you've got to go through. Not a single one of my circumstances has changed, but I have! I came here literally shaking and am leaving with the most joyful heart and biggest smile.

It is not your parents CCD!

Things to consider when deciding whether or not to send your children/teens to Religious Education and Faith formation at Holy Family.

1. Extensive research shows children given a strong foundation in faith development gain several key advantages

- An increased sense of personal happiness, security and overall well-being
- The ability to make friends more easily; a greater sense of acceptance and belonging, higher rates of community engagement
- Development of better coping skills during times of stress
- Lower rates of anxiety and depression
- Higher rates of academic success
- A stronger appreciation of diversity
- Lower rates of addiction and delinquent behaviors

2. Family & Teen Faith (FTF) at Holy Family is engaging and effective. How do we know?

- Consistent increases in participation rates in all programs (except IGNITE)
- 45% increase in parent satisfaction with the programs since 2016-17
- Positive testimonials from students, parents and catechists
- 68% of our teens continued to be actively involved in the practice of their faith and parish life after being Confirmed (the national average is between 15-20%)

Participant Testimonials (we are not including last names for security reasons)

"Holy Family has given me more than just people to share my faith with, it has given me a family." Kelsey, Teen Faith student

"This is the strongest the program has ever been since I started teaching."
Carole, Catechist

"We are grateful for the amazing opportunities provided as a result of being a part of this community. Throughout this year of IGNITE, we have learned to openly be in the Spirit of Jesus."
The 2018-19 Kozlowski IGNITE Group (7th grade)

Life is busy. The array of choices before us are often overwhelming. Many kids do not want to go to Religious Ed. Church means nothing to them, they say. Yet year after year, young people whose families persevered tell us they are grateful they did.

“Holy Family changed me from a freshmen who didn’t want to leave my house on Sunday night to a senior who doesn’t want to leave Holy Family on Sunday night.”
Justin, Teen Faith student

“Holy Family made me feel welcome and at home. The time I have spent here, the ministries I’ve been a part of, and most importantly the relationships I’ve made have been some of the best experiences of my life.”
Ryan, Teen Faith student

End of Year Blessings

One of our parish school's treasured traditions is our end of year blessing as we begin summer break.

We give thanks for the teaching and learning that has taken place and for the talents and gifts that have been shared. We give thanks for the challenges that have been faced, the hurts that have been healed, and the respect and care that has been given. We are thankful for new friends and for the opportunity to grow in our faith. We are thankful for our community of teachers, students and parents.

We end each year with a special blessing that teachers give to each of their students, recognizing their many gifts and talents and thankful for our time together and memories to cherish. We also say good bye to treasured faculty, staff and students who are moving on.

Finally, we ask that God watch over us during summer break and bring us back together in August renewed and refreshed to continue our journey to become global thinkers, leaders grounded in faith.

The Human Concerns

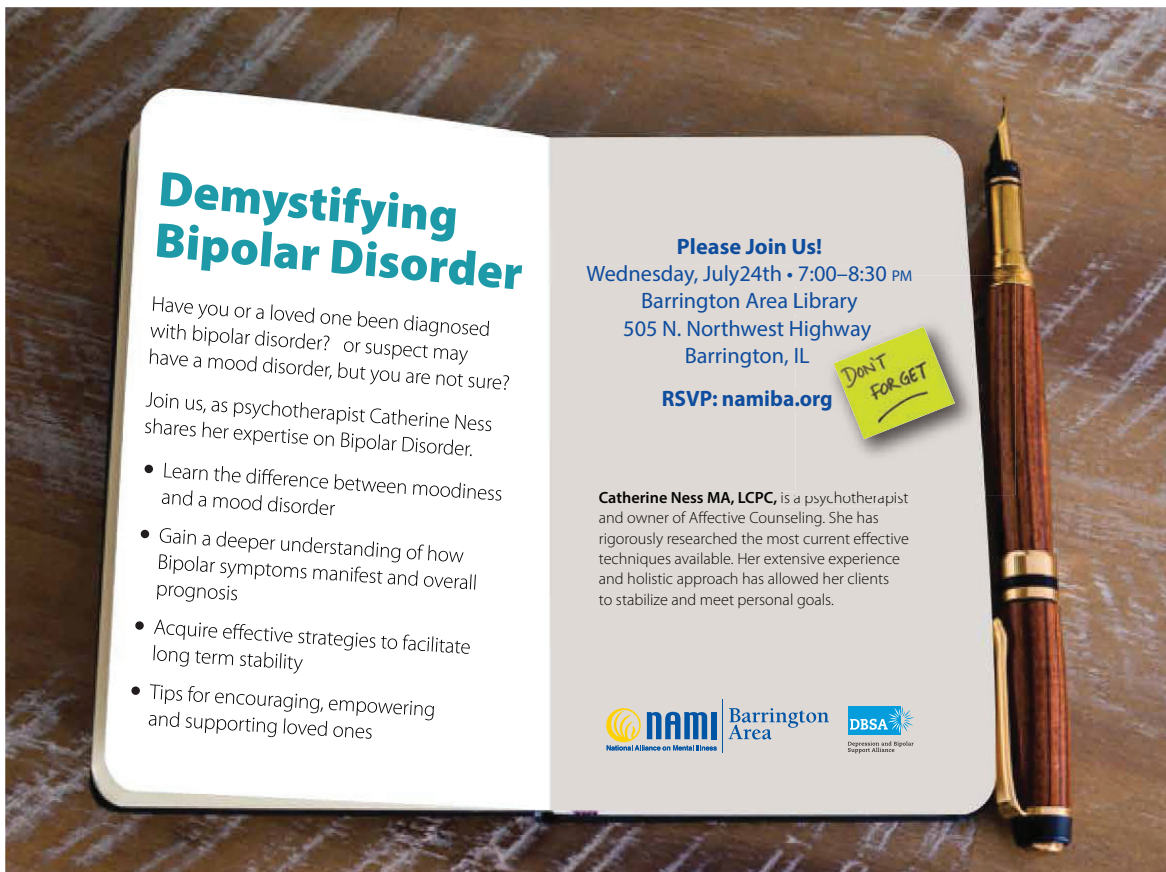

Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

The Little Sisters of the Poor are seeking adult volunteers in many areas throughout the day Monday through Saturday.

- We are looking for a volunteer licensed beautician who is willing to come a half day once a week. Our beauty shop could always use volunteers that are not licensed, but enjoy doing hair.
- Help is needed with manicures on Friday mornings.
- When the weather is good, volunteers are welcome to help with our grounds, and sit outside with Residents in the late afternoons.
- St. Joseph's Home is also looking for a volunteer dressmaker.

If you are inclined to make a weekly commitment to volunteering, please contact Cindy DeLuca for requirements and more information, or stop in and fill out an application. TEENS: St. Joseph's Home accepts students from 8th grade through college as temporary volunteers, usually for service hours. Students are able to assist with outdoor grounds work or help in activities. To contact Cindy DeLuca, please call 847-358-5700 or email her at: volpalatine@littlesistersofthepoor.org.

Holiday Sharing Tags

Backpacks are due Sunday, July 21 so our organizations can distribute in time for first school day.

Please place your generous gift in the Chapel hallway with the tag attached.
If you have any questions, please contact Barb Stec, bstec58622@aol.com.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT.

For Courage to do Justice

O Lord, open my eyes
that I may see the needs of others
Open my ears that I may hear their cries;
Open my heart so that their need not be without (assistance);
Let me not be afraid to defend the weak
because of the anger of the strong,
Nor afraid to defend the poor
because of the anger of the rich.
Show me where love and hope and faith are needed,
and use me to bring them to those places.
And so open my eyes and my ears that I may this coming day be able to do some work of peace for thee.
Amen.

- Alan Paton

Human Concerns

Dear Viator House Community,

Their journeys started thousands of miles away, led them each through a dangerous jungle, several Central American nations, often on foot and sometimes alone, and after several months, up to the U.S. border where they sought asylum.

But perhaps the most remarkable part of that common journey was Thursday night, when these three Viator House participants crossed a small stage at Truman Middle College and received their high school diplomas.

Congratulations to Mustaf, Opu and Fauzi shown above. We also congratulate Major, who graduated from Hersey High School last month. They inspire us. They faced obstacles to which many might surrender - and they overcame. The trauma of their journey. The hope-draining uncertainty that comes with waiting as long as two or more years for an asylum hearing. The exhausting challenge of reading textbooks, doing homework and taking tests in a new language. The sometimes overpowering fears for family members back home. They faced it all with courage and confidence - and they overcame.

And along the way, despite those personal obstacles, they spent hours caring about others, doing everything from packing food for hungry kids on Viator House service days to greeting our volunteers with food, tea or coffee.

I pray that I might find that courage, confidence and selflessness when necessary.

Their victories over these obstacles, however, were not theirs alone. The victories also belong to you, the Viator House Community, which surrounded them with van drivers who made the 90 minute daily journey to Truman shorter, with tutors who helped them master everything from English to Algebra, with house assistants who greeted them with smiles and compassion when they arrived home after a long day. Seven Viator House men have graduated high school in the last two years because of you and more will do so next year.

You, Viator House Community, inspire us too and show us the face of God, the God who unceasingly calls forth faithful people to stand with courageous immigrants bringing their gifts to our nation.

Let's all celebrate. And join us in offering farewell prayers for Opu, who left after graduation to live with friends and attend college in New York.

In closing, the federal government has recently made a disturbing decision about programs that house young immigrants who flee to our nation without adults - programs many of our men lived in before turning 18. The Trump Administration is canceling English classes, recreational activities including soccer, and legal aid for unaccompanied migrant children who are staying in federally contracted migrant shelters as they consider them not essential to protecting life and safety. Please read more at <https://www.npr.org/2019/06/05/730082911/administration-cuts-education-and-legal-services-for-unaccompanied-minors> and consider calling your congressional representative if you are as saddened as we are.

Finally, please consider helping us out. We need a college Math tutor and a...

- House assistant/driver this Monday, Noon-3 p.m.
- House assistant/driver Saturdays, 8-10 p.m.
- House assistant/driver Fridays, 9 a.m. to Noon.
