The struggle for peace begins, not between me and another, but within myself.

If the events of today's world offer us anything, it's the opportunity to reflect and rethink what peace means and reorient our hearts. In this Sunday's gospel, Jesus sends out the seventy-two disciples to towns and villages, not to change them, but to offer them his peace. In a similar way, Jesus sends us out from Holy Family community to our homes, communities, and world to offer his peace. When Jesus sent the seventy-two, they went without a purse, bag or sandals. This reference is meant to be a metaphor for the baggage we carry, the baggage that continues to trip us up and deny us a heart at peace. It is the baggage of our past experiences, fears and wounds, grudges and resentments, pre-judgments and assumptions about others, old solutions and beliefs, our need to be right or better than the other, and sometimes our desire to play the victim.

This weekend, Jesus asks us to reflect on what peace means to us, what does it look like, and how do we attain and keep it? Jesus teaches that a heart at peace is about loving our neighbor as ourselves. It means that the other person, regardless of who she or he is, counts and matters as much as we do. A heart at peace refuses to lump masses of unknown people into lifeless categories such as Republican, Democrat, Conservative, Liberal, Gay or Lesbian, Jewish, Muslim, or Christian, and make them objects to be dealt with or enemies to be defeated. A heart at peace encounters everyone as a person. It looks another in the face and recognizes itself. What do you see when you look in the face of another? What if a heart at peace means being merciful and not judging, refusing to throw the first stone, and taking care of the log in my own eye rather than the speck in the eye of another? What if a heart at peace offers forgiveness, not seven times but seventy times seven? Are we willing to do that? What if a heart at peace means feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, clothing the naked, and visiting the sick and imprisoned? What if a heart at peace is about loving our enemies, doing good to those who hate us, turning the other cheek, giving our shirt to the one who has taken our coat, and doing to others as we would have them do to us? Before we can ever do that, we must first regard the life, needs and desires of another as important as our own. It means we must refuse to betray ourselves and refuse, "to horrible-ize others."

All these "what ifs" about peace are not so much prescribing behaviors as they are describing ways of being. Peace does not begin with our behaviors toward each other, but with our way of being toward each other, our seeing each other as human beings created in the image and likeness of God. Our behavior toward one another will be determined by our way of being toward one another. It is a matter of the heart, your heart and my heart. If our hearts are at war, it makes no difference how polite or nice we are to each other. Violence is present. Offering the peace of Christ is more than a friendly handshake, a warm hug, or a "How are you? It's good to see you." It's the recognition of another's existence and his or her value as a human being, regardless of whether he or she is family, friend, stranger, or enemy.

When Jesus sent out the seventy-two, he did not condition their offers of peace on who the recipients might be, their worthiness, what they had done, or what their response might be. Neither can we condition our offers of peace. Some will receive the peace and others will not. Either way, "the kingdom of God has come near" if our hearts are at peace. The peace of Christ is not defined by the absence of conflict and it is not an ideal to be attained. It is a practice to be lived every moment of every day of our lives. That means practicing peace with our friends and family. It means practicing peace with our enemies. It means practicing peace with the stranger, with those who are different from us, and with those who scare us.

Let us number ourselves among the seventy-two sent to every town and place where Christ himself goes. Let us enter every house first saying, "Peace to this house." Let us become people with hearts of peace, not injustice. Isn't that what we want for ourselves? For our children and grandchildren? For our families and friends? For our world? Let us not give the same old answers. Let us not use the same old excuses. Let us not offer the same old solutions. Let us not meet the world with the same old beliefs. The struggle for peace begins, not between me and another, but within myself. Let us consider what a heart at peace might look like. What baggage might you need to leave behind to go into the world fully equipped with a heart at peace? What does peace mean to you? What comes to mind when you think of peace? What does it look like? What shape does it take?

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @ <https://www.youtube.com/user/HFInverness/videos>.
Click on reflections for Sunday Readings for 7-14-19 and listen to Fr. Bill Zavaski reflect on the readings.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. In our first reading, Moses dismisses the idea that the Law is impossible to follow and understand. Today, what in our faith seems difficult to follow or understand?
2. Paul says: "Christ is the image of the invisible God." What does this statement mean to you?
3. Paul tells us that "in Christ all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell." How can the fullness of God dwell in you?
4. Over time, what has been your definition of a "neighbor?"
5. In the Gospel, the Samaritan followed the spirit of the law rather than the letter of the law? Have you ever done the same?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION: We are instructed to treat our neighbors as ourselves. Your next door neighbors are a loving family with a well-kept home. You find out they are illegal immigrants. How does this affect your relationship with them?

Parish Support & Services

Electronic Giving continues to have a significant positive impact on our budgeting and cash flow. As we complete our 2018-19 fiscal year our total number of electronic givers is 540 and represents 40% of our Sunday contributions. While the number of electronic givers is up from 528 as of June 30, 2018 there are still many parishioners who have not yet made a commitment to electronic giving. We ask you to prayerfully consider electronic giving and help us reach our new goal for 575 for fiscal 2019-2020.

He's got me! Thank you to the Beloved Team each and every one of you, you are special and loved. I also feel loved.*
- ◆ Preaching the limitless, abundant love of God for us is essential to grasping the mystery of how God regards us, His creation. You fleshed out the idea that baptism is a verb, not a noun. I believe this retreat will motivate me to go to the next level of practicing my faith with a stronger action component.
- ◆ You can never go around what you've got to go through. Not a single one of my circumstances has changed, but I have! I came here literally shaking and am leaving with the most joyful heart and biggest smile.

7:00 pm – 9:00 pm in the Rectory

Do you want to complete your Sacraments?

Do you know of someone who is interested in becoming Catholic?

Our formal RCIA process for adults who would like to be part of a warm spiritual community while becoming fully initiated Catholics will begin in September, but this is an opportunity to learn more about the process. Join us for some wine, cheese, and conversation in the Rectory. Bring any questions you have and please invite anyone you know who might be interested in learning more about our faith.

There is no obligation attached to this meeting. It is an opportunity to learn more, in a very comfortable and relaxed setting, about what it means to become Catholic, to wonder out loud, and to meet our team. We'd love to talk with you.

Please RSVP to Mary Whiteside at 847-907-3450 or mwhiteside@holyfamilyparish.org

End of Year Blessings

One of our parish school's treasured traditions is our end of year blessing as we begin summer break.

We give thanks for the teaching and learning that has taken place and for the talents and gifts that have been shared. We give thanks for the challenges that have been faced, the hurts that have been healed, and the respect and care that has been given. We are thankful for new friends and for the opportunity to grow in our faith. We are thankful for our community of teachers, students and parents.

We end each year with a special blessing that teachers give to each of their students, recognizing their many gifts and talents and thankful for our time together and memories to cherish. We also say good bye to treasured faculty, staff and students who are moving on.

Finally, we ask that God watch over us during summer break and bring us back together in August renewed and refreshed to continue our journey to become global thinkers, leaders grounded in faith.

A Letter of Thanks from JOURNEYS | The Road Home

Holy Family hosts a homeless shelter from October 1st through April 30 each year. Many parishioners provide time volunteering as well as donating food and other items our guests appreciate from toiletries to articles of clothing. Below is a note of thanks from the shelter manager, Carol Marie O'Marrah.

Dear PADS Site Directors and Volunteers,

Thank you all for your investment in our shelter program here at JOURNEYS | The Road Home. Each of you support us with your time and talent and we could not be more grateful. This past winter season brought many challenges, but despite that, we had an incredible year of serving people without housing in our community.

From October 1st, 2018 to April 30th, 2019, we served more than 400 people in our shelters during the 2018-19 season, including 16 families with children. Thanks to you, all of these individuals were able to find a warm, safe and dry refuge from the elements over this long winter. Through the efforts of case management at the HOPE center, 66 people were housed, including 6 families. These shifts in numbers stretched everyone involved and has required the staff to look at the future growth of the PADS program. We plan to continue to add winter shelter sites, summer sites and sister sites to help support the growing programs.

Your generous gifts of time and effort are the reason our PADS program continues to thrive. Your faithful and dedicated service has made it possible to accommodate an incredible number of guests this year, and we could not do what we do without you. Our mission of serving the homeless and near-homeless relies on your heart and your passion for this issue, and we are grateful that you have chosen JOURNEYS as the channel through which you serve your neighbors.

Today, we are one month into our summer season where we have continued to serve people without housing through our summer shelter program. As we begin to think about the start of the next winter season in October, I would encourage each of you to reflect on your time in this PADS ministry. Perhaps, consider your next step as a volunteer. That could look like trying an overnight shift or plugging in to one of the summer shelters to serve year-round. We hope that by volunteering with us, you might continue to grow, fall more in love with this work, and uplift those in this community.

We say goodbye to a few of our long-term supporters as other priorities make their way to the top of the list. We will certainly miss those of you who need to move on and thank you deeply for your dedication and service. For those who are on the fence as to whether you can continue to serve, remember these successes are only possible with you and your help. Thank you so much for all that you do. I cannot wait for the start of another beautiful season!

Best,
Carol Marie O'Marrah
Shelter Manager

Maintenance Needs Your Help!

Do you know someone who could donate a boom or scissor lift for a week?

During the summer months we try to get a number of cleaning or repair projects completed that we can't accomplish while school is in session. This summer we need both a boom lift and a scissor lift, each for a week duration. This equipment is expensive to rent. Do you know someone who would be willing to donate the use of either of these for a week and both help us complete these projects and save on our overall expense. Contact Bernie Schaeffer if you do at 847-907-3420.

Boom Lift (45', two person) for parking lot light replacement & cleaning church stone walls.

Scissor lift (40') for indoor use to perform cleaning and repair work in the narthex, gym and multitorium

IF YOU NEED HELP

Medical emergencies happen during Mass. If you need help, please notify an usher.

*In all emergencies, please do what you can to stay calm.
Notify an usher if you are capable and willing to assist others.*

REUNIFICATION AREAS

In case of a building evacuation, Family Faith and HFCA children & parents will be reunited outside in the parking lot adjacent to Palatine Rd.

In case of severe weather, Family Faith classes will dismiss from the basement cafeteria after the danger has passed.

IF YOU WITNESS A PERSON IN DISTRESS

Please keep the person comfortable in the pew and ask others to vacate the adjacent rows to allow access for First Responders (Paramedics). Stay with the person until the First Responders arrive.
