With Whom is Your Most Significant and Decisive Relationship?

This weekend, the gospel of Luke invites us to see a more challenging image of Jesus than we are used to seeing. It is not the image of the sweet baby Jesus asleep on the hay, walking on the Sea of Galilee engaging in miracles of healing, the bringer of peace, or the one suffering and dying-for-me on the cross. It is an uncomfortable image of Jesus who brings fire upon the earth, family conflict and division, challenging our identity and way of life.

The gospel of Luke comments on the many relationships each of us has in our life. Our distinct identity as persons is given by our various relationships: biological, natural, social and political. Regardless of whether we judge them as good or bad, healthy or unhealthy, taken together this vast complex of relationships makes you and me the persons we are. These include our relationships with family and friends, our pets, the natural environment, our work, our country, our beliefs, and the things we possess. Some of these relationships are tangible and associated with people, places, animals and objects. Some are not so tangible but no less real: our spiritual relationships, beliefs, values, attitudes.

Ultimately, however, only one of these many relationships can finally be the most significant and decisive for us. This one relationship makes us uniquely who we are and not someone else. For example, if I decide that my relationship with my spouse is the definitive one, then all my other relationships will be seen and lived out through this one relationship with my spouse.

Jesus' relationship with the Father is what ultimately determines his identity and being. He freely chose that one relationship above all others. That does not mean he rejects all others, rather all his other relationships are mediated through his relationship with the Father. Jesus' choice brought about division with the religious leaders, the world and all who would choose differently.

That is the choice Jesus sets before us today. It is a choice that may initially bring division. "Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division!" We may be wondering how this image of Jesus can be helpful to us when we are already more than aware of the divisions in and around us. We are divided socially, racially, economically, politically, religiously not only in our own country, but throughout the world. There is division in marriages and families, in the workplace, in our schools and in our nation, but this is not the division that Jesus is speaking of. His division is not a division that kills, oppresses or separates.

The division that Jesus is speaking about is growth. Jesus is growing us up into the fullness of life and holiness. Regardless of our age, we are always in the process of growing up. But growing up is difficult and often painful work. Division is the way of life and growth. It means choosing God our Father as the one primary relationship that finally determines who we are and what we do.

If we choose the Father as that one relationship, then it means our parents, children, spouses, or friends do not determine who we are. It means that our jobs, our country, our politics, our possessions do not create our identity. God now determines those things. All other relationships exist within the context of our relationship with God our Father. This leads to new dynamics, new priorities, and new divisions.

Just as division offers physical, emotional and spiritual growth, Jesus is calling us to put our relationship with God our Father first, and by doing so enter more deeply into all other relationships that make growth possible. For our part we must reexamine our relationships and the priorities we have given them. We must choose a relationship with God our Father, not in exclusion of other people, places or objects, but one that gives us our truest and most authentic identity. This division does not diminish or reject others; instead, it offers wholeness and perfection. It is the division that transforms our lives, makes sacred all our other relationships, and ultimately heals the world.

Let us turn to our Heavenly Father in prayer as we strive to put God first in our lives: Heavenly Father, we ask that you guide our decisions and turn our hearts to deeply desire you above all else. We ask that you open doors needing to be opened and close the ones needing to be shut tight. We ask that you help us release our grip on the things to which you've said "no," "not yet," or "wait." We ask for help to pursue you first, above every dream and desire you've put within our hearts. We ask that your wisdom, strength and power to be constantly present within us. We pray you would make us strong and courageous for the road ahead. May we bring honor to You by lives of love and service, and may all be drawn to you. Amen.

Reflect on your life right now to consider what factors most determine how you choose to live: Who or what is the determining relationship that gives you your identity and being? What relationship matters so much to you that you allow it to shape your life and give you identity? Where are you investing most of your time, money and energy? Which relationships and activities do you devote yourself to every day? Where do you currently place God on your list of priorities? If your relationship with God isn't your top priority right now, what specific changes do you need to make in your life to devote yourself to God first?

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @ <https://www.youtube.com/user/HFInverness/videos>.
Click on reflections for Sunday Readings for 8-25-19 and listen to Fr. Rich Jakubik reflect on the readings.

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. The Prophet Isaiah said that all nations shall see the glory of God. Despite centuries of Christian missionary work, why do some nations refuse to see His glory?
2. Hebrews tells us that the "Lord disciplines those whom he loves." Have you ever felt the Lord's discipline?
3. Jesus tells us: "Strive to enter through the narrow door." What will it take to enter through the narrow door?
4. When did you first come to realize that you are saved?
5. The Gospel ends with: "Indeed, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." What does this statement mean to you?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells His followers: "Strive to enter through the narrow door." What current practice of mercy and justice are you following which enables you to enter through the narrow door?

Parish Support & Services

Electronic Giving continues to have a significant positive impact on our budgeting and cash flow. As we complete our 2018-19 fiscal year our total number of electronic givers is 540 and represents 40% of our Sunday contributions. While the number of electronic givers is up from 528 as of June 30, 2018 there are still many parishioners who have not yet made a commitment to electronic giving. We ask you to prayerfully consider electronic giving and help us reach our new goal for 575 for fiscal 2019-2020.

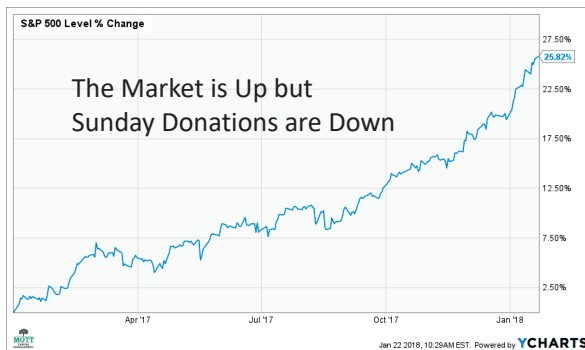

We want to thank all of our current electronic givers and remind you to grab an electronic giver card on your way in to church to place in the plate during the collection. Let's continue to be an example to everyone.

Retrouvaille (for marriages in need of a lifeline)

The word Retrouvaille™ (pronounced re-tro-vi with a long i) is a French word meaning rediscovery. The program offers tools needed to rediscover a loving marriage relationship. Thousands of couples who have experienced difficulty in their marriage have been healed through this process.

The Retrouvaille Program consists of a weekend experience combined with a series of 6-12 post-weekend sessions over 3 months. It provides the tools to help put your marriage in order again. The main emphasis of the program is on communication in marriage between husband and wife. It will give you the opportunity to rediscover each other and examine your lives together in a new and positive way.

Retrouvaille is not a retreat, marriage counseling, or a sensitivity group. There are no group dynamics or group discussions on the weekend. It is specifically for couples who are considering marriage separation or couples who have already separated that want marriage help.

For more information, contact Northern Illinois & Northwest Indiana Retrouvaille at 800-470-2230 or 708-802-1830, or visit www.helpourmarriage.com for dates of upcoming Retrouvaille weekends.

What past participants have said:

- ◆ This was the most beautiful, meaningful, life-changing retreat I have ever been a part of. I feel a very special bond not only with the people at my table but at those very special people who shared their life experiences with all of us. I feel that I learned to trust in the love of God. He's got me! Thank you to the Beloved Team each and every one of you, you are special and loved. I also feel loved.
- ◆ Preaching the limitless, abundant love of God for us is essential to grasping the mystery of how God regards us, His creation. You fleshed out the idea that baptism is a verb, not a noun. I believe this retreat will motivate me to go to the next level of practicing my faith with a stronger action component.
- ◆ You can never go around what you've got to go through. Not a single one of my circumstances has changed, but I have! I came here literally shaking and am leaving with the most joyful heart and biggest smile.

Indiana Mission Trip Log

PART 1/3: Describe the work you completed this week:

Cleaned windows and walls at group homes for adults with mental disabilities such as bipolar disorder and schizophrenia.

We worked at a daycare, and we washed their fences, organized their entire library, and power washed and scrubbed all of their playground equipment. We also helped out with the kids who were around the ages of 3 months- first grade.

Painting parking lot lines at a church/elementary school, interacting with residents at a summer camp for mentally disabled adults, washing windows, painting shed, painting fence

Built a wheelchair ramp at a residence.

Mostly we built a fence. Also we built a trampoline and some furniture, as well as cleaned up inside the house and around the yard.

Weed whacking on a 30 acre property.

I built a donation box and I constructed a ramp.

Thank you to all of our generous donors who made this trip possible. With your help we were able to change so many lives for the better, including our own. We will forever be grateful.

WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES September 29, 2019

At the request of various bishops' conferences, Pope Francis has changed the date of the World Day of Migrants and Refugees to the last Sunday of September. The day, which was instituted in 1914 by Pope Pious X, was celebrated in January, however, September is now the designated month which is also the feast of archangels Michael, Gabriel and Raphael.

Recognize World Day of Migrants and Refugees
RUN FOR YOUR LIFE
2 hour sessions Sept 13-16, 2019
Cabrini Retreat Center, Des Plaines

An interactive event that engages groups physically and emotionally in the refugee journey and the challenges they face as they flee for their lives.

Share the refugee experience through a simulation that is part game, part escape room, part team building. Each group has a unique experience – where will the journey take YOU? This 2 hour “mini-retreat” will stay with you for a lifetime.

What will you be asked to do? The journey begins with the decision to flee your home country with what resources you can bring. Perils and challenges are encountered personally and with other travelers each step of the way to a new home. The simulation is an immersive experience, complete with boats, tents, sound effects and border security situations. Exodus World Service leaders guide participants and provide an opportunity for reflection on the experience.

Hannah McKay/Reuters via CNS

There is no charge for this experience. The event is appropriate for ages 5 to older adults.

Registration deadline is Monday, August 26, 2019. Forms are located on the narthex shelves. To register or for more information, go to www.cabrinicenter.org/rfyl/ or call 847-297-6530. Email: info@cabrinicenter.org.

Want to participate in a different way? Adults are needed to populate the simulation as border guards, smugglers and other interesting characters. Contact Nancy at nancy@cabrinicenter.org if you are interested.
