Fr. Terry Keehan

Vatican II was a gathering that was truly inspired by the Holy Spirit. I believe this with all my heart for many reasons. It came at the right time in history, 1962-65. Many of you do not remember the Council, or even the immediate impact that it had on the Catholic community all over the world, many of you do. It breathed new life and energy into the Church at every level. It was a Council of the entire world-wide Church that included elements that unite us rather than divide us. And, Vatican II was a breath of newness (spirit means breath) and a retrieval of tradition at the same time. It was an energy that looked ahead and looked back in the same Council gathering.

I am presently on the Board of Trustees for my alma mater and neighboring St. Viator High School. Part of the mission of the school states that it is a place where "Tradition and Innovation Meet." That is the essence of the impetus of the Second Vatican Council.

Only the Holy Spirit can pull all of that off.

One of the greatest examples of the Council's urgings involves retrieving the essence of the source and summit of our faith life – THE EUCHARIST. We are still encouraged to refer to our gathering around Scripture and the altar every week as EUCHARIST, because it includes Communion and a structure called the Mass. The sacredness of the gathering is primarily EUCHARIST, WHICH MEANS "TO GIVE THANKS." Communion and the Mass and other ritual helps to express EUCHARIST.

The earliest ones to celebrate it, and we who continue it's eternal legacy, should primarily give thanks for the Lord's REAL presence through gathering, scripture, story, music and simple elements of bread and wine that we can ALL share to REALIZE Christ's REAL presence NOW.

Hopefully the energy of the Eucharist flows into and out of almost everything else that we do, and inspires us to give thanks for everything that we have. Hopefully its energy also inspires us to a greater awareness of all that God has given us and then to care for it the best that we can; not simply care for it, but do so in the best manner possible.

That is one of the connections with this week's Gospel from Luke. The words steward and stewardship are mentioned several times in the story that Jesus tells to his disciples. The story is quite complicated and has several different morals. It speaks of the evils of Mammon (wealth regarded as an evil influence, or false object of worship, or a greedy pursuit of gain) in light of service. One cannot serve both honest and dishonest wealth. Another moral is based on what has been entrusted to us and how trust from one to another in small matters is an indication of trust in larger, more important matters.

So, if we approach all of life through the lens of the gratitude that the Eucharist was instituted by Jesus in – if we recognize that EVERYTHING we have is a gift from God and we celebrate the Eucharist in gathering, story, bread, wine and song in this spirit – we can't help but be inspired to care for the totality of God's giftedness to us in real and genuine ways.

In each Eucharistic gathering then there is a looking back to appreciate what we have been given, and looking ahead in nourishment and inspiration to care for what God has given us.

This Eucharistic Stewardship then grounds our care for our gifts by honest and true gratitude. That then should always lead us to God who is the ultimate source of every gift.

Classic stewardship means caring for what we have been given through the sharing of our time, our talent and our treasure.

Bernie Schaeffer, our Director of Operations and Pete Barber, a very involved parishioner, usher and member of our Parish Pastoral Council, will give a presentation at each Mass this weekend. They will focus on the financial part of the stewardship that EVERY ONE OF US is called to participate in if we are truly in this TOGETHER.

I urge you to listen to them through the lens of Eucharistic Stewardship. God has blessed us with countless gifts here at Holy Family. May the gratitude inspired by the Eucharist lead us to care for them in the best way possible.

Catechists are still needed for Family Faith teaching 5th and 6th graders on Sunday mornings following 9:00am Mass, or Sunday evenings following 4:00pm Mass. Our Academy is also in need of a music teacher for all grades five days a week.

I would like to extend a sincere thanks to Gene Garcia, our Director of Liturgical Arts, and the many talented people that he has engaged to make our Mass of Rock a resounding success. Thanks a million, Gene!

The Blessing of the Pets

Saturday, October 5 at 10:00am

Pets bless us with unconditional love and joy every day. On the feast of St. Francis of Assisi, people of faith around the world host events where animals receive a special blessing. Bring your pet(s) to the Courtyard of Holy Family Parish on Saturday, October 5th, at 10:00-11:00am for the annual Pet Blessing.

Why a pet blessing? It's an opportunity to celebrate God's compassion and concern for all creatures...It's an occasion to meet neighbors and enjoy easy conversation about a common interest – pets we love.

Any pet that is safe to bring is welcome. Please get the word out and invite friends, family, and neighbors to bring their pets along as well.

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @ <https://www.youtube.com/user/HFInverness/videos>.
Click on reflections for Sunday Readings for 9-29-19 and listen to Friar Johnpaul Cafiero reflect on the readings.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. In the first reading, Israel was enjoying political and economic strength, but Amos lamented the complacency of the affluent. How does this resonate today in our world?
2. How do we guard against complacency, personally and in our community?
3. Paul tells Timothy to pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, and gentleness. Which of these are you focused on today?
4. Is there a Lazarus in your life who needs more from you?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

The Gospel paints a picture of two extremes – the “Haves” and “Have Nots”. We partner with injustice when we ignore the “Have Nots”. Is there one specific injustice that you tend to ignore? If so, why?

Note: Parish fiscal year is July 1 to June 30

The summer has been very productive around our large campus with many projects, both scheduled and unscheduled, started and almost all completed. Many of the projects you will not notice or experience, unless you were here in the hottest days in June and July when one of the several air conditioning systems stopped working. You will also be comfortable this winter when the building requires heat and you can relax knowing the various systems have been serviced.

Our crack maintenance crew has painted, cleaned, repaired and serviced throughout the building and noticeably in our large meeting rooms. One of our parishioners generously gave of their time and talent and cleaned the carpet in the Church.

As you drive on to the campus, take a moment to notice the exterior of the building. We have been painting various grates and A/C units, cleaning, and clearing and updating the landscape. The farmhouse was painted this summer and the landscape has been trimmed and pruned to better represent our beautiful facility. We have many new plantings scheduled for installation in the latter half of September. All of this is the result of contributions from a few of our generous parishioners. We thank them for their leadership and guidance in the various outdoor projects.

Over the next few months we will provide you more in-depth detail regarding completed projects, finances and budgets, as well as changes implemented to continue to reduce our expenses.

What past participants have said:

- ◆ This was the most beautiful, meaningful, life-changing retreat I have ever been a part of. I feel a very special bond not only with the people at my table but at those very special people who shared their life experiences with all of us. I feel that I learned to trust in the love of God. He's got me! Thank you to the Beloved Team each and every one of you, you are special and loved. I also feel loved.
- ◆ Preaching the limitless, abundant love of God for us is essential to grasping the mystery of how God regards us, His creation. You fleshed out the idea that baptism is a verb, not a noun. I believe this retreat will motivate me to go to the next level of practicing my faith with a stronger action component.
- ◆ You can never go around what you've got to go through. Not a single one of my circumstances has changed, but I have! I came here literally shaking and am leaving with the most joyful heart and biggest smile.

Celebrating Catechetical Sunday

Creating a culture of witness

Faith begins with an encounter with the living God. Most of us first encounter God through someone or something. As Christians, we believe that such an encounter results most often from the personal witness of one who already has a relationship with the Lord. This encounter develops into a deeply personal, intimate life-long relationship when nurtured. From the time of Jesus, the way one comes to deepen their relationship with the living God, is by following Christ. We become believers by being welcomed into the community of faith and watching, listening and learning how members of the Church live the way of the Gospel.

Today, Catechetical Sunday, we commission men, women and teens, who serve in a formal way as catechists for our community, at the 9:00 am and 4:00 pm Masses. Your presence and participation is a sign of your gratitude and support for...

- The members of the RCIA/RCIC teams. These folks work with adults, teens and school age children who wish to be baptized and adults, teens and children 4th grade and up who wish to complete their sacraments of initiation (Eucharist, Reconciliation and Confirmation).
- The Adam's Apple and Family Faith catechists who work with children in P-K thru Grade 6
- The staff and faculty of Holy Family Catholic Academy
- The Catechists and Peer Ministers who work with our teens

As Christ's witnesses to the world, we accompany all those who seek to know the one we call Lord.

These men, women and teens come from, but do not replace the catechizing community of Holy Family parish. As the welcoming community of faith, we are asked to accompany those entrusted to our care who are seeking an authentic faith and credible ways of expressing that faith, in a skeptical world and a less than perfect Church as guides, mentors, teachers and healers.

"Parents and grandparents catechize primarily by the witness of their Christian lives and by their love for the faith."

This weekend we lift up, pray for and bless parents, grandparents, and godparents whom we recognize as the primary catechists of their children. They "prepare the soil and plant the first seeds of faith." We commend these men and women to the Lord, as they make their households a place where faith is passed on to the next generation.

As we worship today, each of us is asked to consider our role in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. How will we respond to the commission Jesus gave to us, as baptized, confirmed Christians:

Go, therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Matthew 28:19

House System Builds Community in Middle School

HFCA's goal is to develop the whole child and foster an environment where each child is known and supported academically, socially, emotionally, and spiritually.

Much has been written about the importance of adolescents being part of a community and the benefits of being in trusting relationships with teachers and experiencing positive interaction with supportive peers. These are the key factors that create a culture of belonging.

Last spring our faculty visited Ron Clark Academy in Atlanta, a model junior high known for its academic rigor, high expectations, creative and innovative teaching methods, and passionate climate and culture.

Ron Clark uses a House System to build learning and leadership communities. These communities allow students to build relationships with both students and teachers beyond the classroom. The Houses then compete against each other. Points are awarded by faculty and staff when students excel in such things as academics, teamwork, compassion, and humility.

To learn more, see our article posted in both the Palatine Patch and the Daily Herald. <https://bit.ly/2IUZaZW>

Welcome to our House!

GREETER MINISTRY

Fr. Terry has challenged each and every one of us to engage in Servant Hospitality.

Holy Family is known for its welcoming atmosphere, however, there is definitely room for improvement by adding more greeters before Mass at the building's entry doors and at the doors entering our worship space. If you are able to arrive at your usual Mass 15 minutes early, smile and be friendly to those who enter our parish, we'd love to have you join this ministry. Greet only once during the year, or as many times as you would like. Families are welcome to greet together.

If interested, contact Sue Geegan at sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org and you will receive an invitation to sign up for a Mass that's convenient for you online through Signup.com.

HOLY FAMILY PADS SITE for the Homeless

Holy Family's PADS site, a Sunday evening shelter for people facing homelessness, will begin its nineteenth season in October. It takes many volunteers to set up, provide and serve meals, work shifts, clean up as well as offer an atmosphere of comfort and safety.

Sign-ups for food and shift positions will take place after mass in the narthex NEXT Sunday, Sept 29. If you have not completed orientation, go to www.journeystheroadhome.org and click on Volunteer Opportunities to find the 2019-20 orientation schedule or find a copy of the schedule on the narthex shelves. Online sign-ups are available to all volunteers who have completed orientation.

To provide food for dinner, lunch or breakfast, visit www.carecalendar.org using our own calendar ID and password listed below and feel free to sign up for food donations through the end of the season. Food can be dropped off hours, even days earlier, and prepared just prior to our guests arriving. Please feel free to pass this information along to anyone else you know that might want to donate items for our weekly PADS site. The calendar ID is 134413 and the security code is 9236.

Human Concerns

Catholic Social Teaching – United States Catholic Conference of Bishops

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.

The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected--the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization and joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative.

All people have the right to economic initiative, to productive work, to just wages and benefits, to decent working conditions, as well as to organize and join unions or other associations. A Catholic Framework for Economic Life, #5

All these rights, together with the need for the workers themselves to secure them, give rise to yet another right: the right of association, that is to form associations for the purpose of defending the vital interests of those employed in the various professions. These associations are called labor or trade unions. On Human Work (Laborem Exercens. . .), #20

ASSIST A FAMILY HOLIDAY PROGRAM NEEDS DONORS

We are looking for volunteers to join the Assist A Family Ministry's Holiday Program. Assist A Family provides local individuals and families in need with food and gifts appropriate to the holiday at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. We serve families from Mision San Juan Diego in Arlington Heights, Partners In Our Community (POC) in Palatine and Holy Family parishioners in need.

Your involvement can be structured to your own desired participation level. You can choose to do one, two or three of the holidays, the maximum number of family members and if you would like to shop for your individual family or purchase gift cards for them to use.

Limited financial resources can make the holidays a stressful time for parents. The Assist A Family program offers relief and support to families having to choose between gift giving and paying for food and/or shelter.

Please consider joining as a donor. For more information, please see the narthex shelves for a form or go online to the Assist A Family Ministry website at www.holyfamilyparish.org or contact Kathy at either 847-977-1061 or ambikak@comcast.net. Thank you!
