Requirements for being a disciple of Jesus Christ according to Luke:

- Hate your family
- Hate life itself
- Pick up your cross
- Renounce all of your possessions

Who would sign up for such a thing?

Our Gospel this week has Luke's Jesus continuing to lay down some unbelievable criteria for his followers. Such stern challenging messages have been prevalent in the past several weeks. It is one of the major themes of Luke's Gospel - discipleship requires giving things up.

As always, some context is helpful. Our first reading from the book of Wisdom begins, "Who can know God's counsel or who can conceive what the Lord intends?" It then goes on to say, "...but when things are in heaven who can search them out?"

The disciple message of Jesus is almost impossible to fathom or understand, much less actually do. Even the book named as Wisdom is scarce in advice on how to actually comprehend a spiritual message for an earthly calling of discipleship, however the rest of the Gospel parable does give us some insight; unless we are sure we can finish a job, don't start it. Access the resources you have before you start a project, or even a battle, that you intend to win. Some of the most inspiring sports stories are those about a victorious team that had no chance of winning, but somehow they did. (2004 Boston Red Sox winning over the New York Yankees after being down 3-0 in the best of 7 American League Championship series; the 1980 US men's hockey team who defeated Russia and ultimately won the gold medal; the 1985 Villanova men's basketball team vs. Georgetown in the championship game, to name a few. There are many more, including David defeating Goliath). If these underdog teams and individuals would have followed the criteria and process for discipleship laid out by Jesus, they never would have started the battle, and thus never would have gained the miraculous nature and inspiration that they hold in our culture and our hearts, hearts that love a good underdog story.

Spiritually, the goal for all of us Christian people should be attaining eternal life. The challenge of Jesus seems to fly in the face of a part of our culture that awards a trophy to all participants.

The message of Jesus challenges us all to identify many goals in many walks of life, but most importantly, the ultimate goal we are seeking. If that goal is eternal life, it has earthly, physical, heavenly and spiritual dimensions. So, what is your ultimate goal? I suggest setting some others along the way that will help to attain the ultimate one.

In the midst of these Gospel challenges, I suggested last week that we practice a profound spiritual exercise: listening. Most of us think we are good listeners. Jack Zengler and Joe Folkman wrote an article that appeared in the Harvard Business Review in 2016 entitled "What Great Listeners Actually Do." They reviewed some conventional criteria for good listening, including not talking when someone else is, providing verbal feedback to a speaker, such as saying "hmm," "uh huh" and non-verbals such as nodding your head and then being able to repeat what the speaker says word for word.

But they go on to indicate that great listeners are not simply silent - they ask questions. They provide positive reinforcement to the speaker that bolsters their self-esteem, they cooperate and encourage the transactional (my word) mutual flow of feedback and thus avoid the classic mistake of formulating a response or a point to be made before the speaker is finished speaking. Finally, they offer suggestions. Healthy suggestions are born out of great, authentic listening. Listening is an essential component of a healthy prayer life.

I would like to share some news and points of interest from our community. 10 of 11 families who came regularly to PADS last year were placed in more permanent housing due to our coordination and collaboration with other social service agencies. We averaged 25 guests for Summer Suppers over the past three months. Bible Journey, a staple of the quality adult scripture study offered here at Holy Family, begins the first week of October on Wednesday mornings with our neighbor, Fr. Joji, leading. Our next adult Beloved Retreat is November 1-3. A few spots are available, but not many. Sign up by contacting Adult Faith. Our annual All Souls' Mass will be offered on Saturday November 2 at 7:00pm. This is a prayerful Mass to remember all of the deceased, particularly those who have passed away in the past year.

Our Family Faith registration continues for all grades. Faith class registration can be done online or at the front office. This serves as a particular reminder for families of students from grades 7-9. We are in need of Catechists for Sunday morning and evening classes as well as Wednesday afternoons. One teen Faith Catechist is needed for a one year only commitment in our high school program Flame. Please contact Grant Guthrie or Laura Ferlita in the Faith office, or encourage a qualified fellow parishioner to contact them.

Kid Kare, a new initiative for children aged 1-4, begins October 6 and will be available on the first and third Sundays from 8:30-10:30am on non-Kid Church weekends. Children will be cared for in the preschool classroom near Breakout 1 (not the old nursery) during the 9:00am Mass.

Click on reflections for Sunday Readings for 9-15-19 and listen to Deacon Dennis Brown reflect on the readings.

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. In Exodus people worshipped false idols. Today, what forms of “idolatry” cause people to turn away from God?
2. Also, per our first reading, are you surprised that “the Lord changed his mind”?
3. Paul said that “the grace of our Lord overflowed for me.” Have you experienced an overflowing of grace as Paul did?
4. Has there been a time in your life when you have identified with... The prodigal son... His father... His brother? Looking back, what might you have done differently?
5. The story of the Prodigal Son centers on forgiveness. Are you where you want to be in this area?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

In the story of the prodigal son, we are discouraged from engaging in self-pity and resentment. God celebrates when we admit and reconcile our transgressions. How do you feel society looks upon people who were incarcerated and completed serving their time?

The summer has been very productive around our large campus with many projects, both scheduled and unscheduled, started and almost all completed. Many of the projects you will not notice or experience, unless you were here in the hottest days in June and July when one of the several air conditioning systems stopped working. You will also be comfortable this winter when the building requires heat and you can relax knowing the various systems have been serviced.

Our crack maintenance crew has painted, cleaned, repaired and serviced throughout the building and noticeably in our large meeting rooms. One of our parishioners generously gave of their time and talent and cleaned the carpet in the Church.

As you drive on to the campus, take a moment to notice the exterior of the building. We have been painting various grates and A/C units, cleaning, and clearing and updating the landscape. The farmhouse was painted this summer and the landscape has been trimmed and pruned to better represent our beautiful facility. We have many new plantings scheduled for installation in the latter half of September. All of this is the result of contributions from a few of our generous parishioners. We thank them for their leadership and guidance in the various outdoor projects.

Over the next few months we will provide you more in-depth detail regarding completed projects, finances and budgets, as well as changes implemented to continue to reduce our expenses.

The Adult Faith
Community... supports the mission
of lifelong learning by providing educational,
spiritual, and
formational activities for the parish and the community.

Registration is open for the Beloved Retreat that will be held on November 1-3, 2019, at beautiful University of St. Mary of the Lake in Mundelein, and led by the dynamic and spiritual Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson and team. The Beloved Retreat is a lay led, comfortable, welcoming, open retreat that will give you a chance to be reminded that you are loved beyond comprehension by our God who wants to hold you through all joys and challenges of life. It is for any adult, any age, any gender, religious or skeptic, hurt or healing, laid back or caffeinated...It is a safe, inclusive environment in a quiet pastoral setting.

Is the Beloved Retreat for married couples?

The Beloved Retreat is for any adult who wants to attend! It is called the Beloved Retreat because it is focused on our Baptism and our understanding that we are BELOVED children of God. It is not a marriage retreat. It is for individuals, but married couples are also welcome to attend together.

What is the cost of the Beloved Retreat?

The cost of the retreat is $195 per person. This is not the true cost of the retreat, but this low cost has been made possible by funding from last year's Gala! We also have "Beloved Angels" who have contributed to a fund for those who request scholarship. So, Beloved is AFFORDABLE! P.S. Please support the Gala so this ministry can continue to be possible for all!

Who leads the retreat?

This retreat is led by Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson and team.

What are the rooms like at the retreat center?

The rooms are all private, so you will be in your own room with your own bathroom if you attend alone. If you are attending with your spouse, you will be placed in a room together.

How do I sign up?

Please contact Mary Whiteside at 847-907-3450 or mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org to have registration materials sent to you, or look on the counters in the narthex for information and registration forms. You will be registered on a first come, first served basis after registration form with payment is received. A waiting list will be started once the retreat is full.

Our current Faith programs are good – at least that’s what our children, teens and parents say. Indeed many of our parents and catechists say they are better than good, a far cry from their own experiences of Religious Education and many say they are improving. That’s good news. And there is more than talk backing up those claims.

- 100 new students have already registered for the coming year.
- Our Adam’s Apple enrollment increased dramatically last year and will again this year.
- Our catechist retention rate is high, double the national average
- Parent participation has increased every year over the past three (and doubled last year).
- Our Teen Faith program is one of the largest and most active in the Archdiocese, and indeed in the country, drawing 400+ teens annually.
- The numbers of teens that remain active in parish life after Confirmation is triple the national average.

we will grow and offer new and better programs

To accomplish this right now we need

Parents

- To register their children/teens in Faith Classes NOW.
- to sign-up to participate as volunteers in the programs
- to attend the opening Parent Meeting on Sept. 9 (am or pm)

Catechists & Peer Ministers

"We've Always Done it This Way," Said No Innovator Ever!

Problem solving is more than finding the right answer-- it is focusing on asking the right questions. And sometimes, those questions require an open mind to challenge long held traditions. Recently, HFCA set out to solve a problem and ended up questioning an age-old school tradition.

Problem solving is a hallmark of HFCA's nationally and internationally recognized curriculum. As the only International Baccalaureate World School (IB) in the northwest suburbs, HFCA teaches its over 500 students in preschool through grade 8 to ask questions, build knowledge, and solve authentic, real world problems. Authentic problem solving opportunities present themselves all the time—even in the operation of our own parish school.

Last year, led by our award-winning middle school Genesis One Club, we began sorting food waste for composting. Each week we diverted 70 pounds of food waste from the landfill to the compost pile. This amounts to over one ton of cafeteria waste annually! How do we ultimately reduce total food waste from student lunches?

We began the year with a scheduling change. Students had recess before lunch. The results were about a 40% reduction in food waste the first week! Consistent with other studies, we found children who played before eating lunch ate more food and drank more milk and water than those that ate before recess. Scheduling recess first also resulted in less trips to the nurse's office for stomach aches and a better transition back to the classroom.

Lots of “clean plate rangers” when students exercise before eating!

CATHOLIC EXTENSION SOCIETY'S HOLY FAMILY FUND

This past Lent, Holy Family raised almost $37,000 to support immigrant families facing a crisis such as a wage earner being deported. The week of August 5th, immigrants living in the Diocese of Jackson, Miss were impacted by raids. Bishop Joseph Kopacz called the raids "a man-made disaster. These folks are our neighbors, the vast majority are not criminals. They are hard-working people." The first distribution from the Holy Family Fund was made to the Diocese of Jackson to provide aid and support to the families now dealing with this tragic situation. Please keep them in your prayers.

The Human Concerns Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Holy Family's Human Concerns Annual Report

The 2018-2019 Human Concerns Annual Report is available on the social justice wall in the west coat room. More than 15,000 hours of service were given to Holy Family ministries and other community events over the past fiscal year. Please take a copy and see all the works of charity, mercy and justice our parishioners generously provide to so many people, especially those who are disadvantaged.

Thank you to all who have given time, talent and treasure impacting thousands of lives for the better. God Bless!

HOLY FAMILY PADS SITE for the Homeless

Holy Family's PADS site, a Sunday evening shelter for people facing homelessness, will begin its nineteenth season in October. It takes many volunteers to set up, provide and serve meals, work shifts, clean up as well as offer an atmosphere of comfort and safety.

Sign-ups for food and shift positions will take place after mass in the narthex THIS Sunday, September 8. If you have not completed orientation, go to www.journeystheroadhome.org and click on Volunteer Opportunities to find the 2019-20 orientation schedule or find a copy of the schedule on the narthex shelves. Online sign-ups are available to all volunteers who have completed orientation.

Human Concerns

Catholic Social Teaching – United States Catholic Conference of Bishops

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.

The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected--the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization and joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative.

Work is, as has been said, an obligation, that is to say, a duty, on the part of man. . . Man must work, both because the Creator has commanded it and because of his own humanity, which requires work in order to be maintained and developed. Man must work out of regard for others, especially his own family, but also for the society he belongs to, the country of which he is a child, and the whole human family of which he is a member, since he is the heir to the work of generations and at the same time a sharer in building the future of those who will come after him in the succession of history. On Human Work (Laborem Exercens. . .), #16

VIRTUS - Protecting God's Children Offered at Holy Family on Monday, Sept 9 2019 And Wednesday, Sept 18

Class starts promptly at 6:30pm & concludes at approximately 9:30pm.

Since 2004 all adult volunteers who work with children have attended the Virtus - Protecting God's Children training. The Protecting God's Children program is designed to raise awareness about the nature of child sexual abuse, to educate on how to recognize the warning signs, and to train about what to do when we suspect a child is being victimized.

It is also important for all of us to join together to build a society where children are no longer at risk of being sexually abused, where those who have been victimized can find the resources and courage to heal, and where all people live together in loving, supportive relationships.

To register for one of these sessions or a session at another location, visit www.virtusonline.org and click on the First-Time Registrant button on the left side of the homepage. Let's join together and help to keep all of God's children safe!
