God is in the Changes, Chances and Chaos of our Life

In today's gospel, some were speaking about the temple, its beautiful stones and gifts, dedicated to God. The temple is what structured their community. It gave the people their identity, purpose and meaning. It was the center of all Jewish life. Jesus looked at the temple and said, "The days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down." Jesus was speaking about more than just the physical temple in Jerusalem. The Jerusalem temple includes every temple you and I have built. So, what do we do on the day when one or more of our temples fall?

Margaret Silf, a retreat leader and the author of several guides to the spiritual journey, gives us a few insights. Her own faith journey has been shaped by the Ignatian spirituality, which has helped her to find real, living connections with the Gospel for transformation in our modern age. Margaret Silf, in her book, The Other Side of Chaos, suggests we must be willing to tolerate, and even welcome these interruptions to our smooth running lives. As Silf points out, God's purpose is not to restore, rehabilitate or return us to a former state, but to re-create, to take the broken pieces and put them back together into something new and of even greater value.

In order to change our perspective, we may need to discern what we are willing to let die, or what the Lord is asking us to let go of. Each of these events results in some type of loss. After a loss, there is a grieving process we must all go through. We may encounter some form of denial (e.g., I can't believe this happened). There will even be those who are angry and resist moving forward from their former place of security (e.g., But, we've always done it this way).

These are normal responses and need to be acknowledged and understood. During this process of letting go, we are called to encourage one another to move forward, to appreciate that the old ways of doing things may not be what is best anymore. My own experience of change has encouraged me to believe that it is often precisely those times when I am "dislodged" and forced to leave my accustomed comfort zone that are really an invitation to "begin to be set free." Transitions are never comfortable. They change us, whether we like it or not, and they usually don't give us the option of ever going back. Things will never be quite the same again. So, what does moving forward mean? Ultimately, the other side of chaos gives us courage to trust God when our life is breaking down and to see our messes, not as something to be rescued from, but as something that will help us break through to a place where God makes all things new.

The greater story is how we discovered God next to us in the temple ruins and how, stone by stone, God rebuilds what we cannot. It is the ongoing story of God recreating life out of loss and ruin, a story of God rejoicing and delighting in his people. This story is the holy gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, lived in each one of us. It is Real, Sacred and True. Trust your story, tell it over and over to yourself, proclaim it to all you see, and then go live that story.

What lies on the other side of chaos? Can a negative experience of change be the catalyst for a new beginning, calling us forward into deeper freedom? Where is the meaning and hope in all our disruptions? Are times of transition simply chaotic periods that we have to survive or might they mean more than that? Might they actually be times when something radically new is gestating within us, and painfully coming to birth? As you look around the world we live in, and inside yourself, notice where you feel that there are crisis points. In those situations, where do you see the danger? Where might there be an opportunity?

I have found the following prayer to be helpful when events like these occur in my life or my ministry:

Mighty Everlasting Father, everything is changing around me. Help me to not fear these changes. Rather, may I embrace them daily. Please give me strength to rise above every situation and overcome the darkness. When temptations, and storms and struggles are thrown at me, I will seek You and be wrapped in Your holy presence. Grant me joy where there is sadness. Bless me with faith where there is no hope. Shower me with light in the midst of darkness. But most of all, give me peace within the chaos. These changes in my life baffle me at times, my God. But let me be still and remember who is the author. Lord, You bring it all together for my betterment. And therefore, I trust that things will work out according to Your will and plan for my life. For in the end, I will be able to say: "Thank You, Jesus, for bringing me thus far... I now understand why I had to go through this and to You I am eternally grateful." In Jesus mighty name I pray, Amen.

Christmas Flower Memorials

The Christmas season is a time of memories, especially of our loved ones born into eternal life. As we prepare to order flowers for the Christmas liturgies, consider making a donation in memory of a de-ceased loved one. We will list all donations in a bulletin during the Christmas season. Envelopes may be found on the counters in the narthex or in the parish office. Thank you.

CREATIVE SEWING MINISTRY

We meet monthly to create the baptism bibs and stoles given to each of Holy Family's newly baptized children. Members also knit and crochet items such as prayer shawls and chemotherapy hats to bring comfort and healing to others. We work as a team to complete each item, sharing our talents and creating friendships along the way.

Meetings are usually on the 4th Tuesday of each month from 1:00-4:00pm, however, this month only, we are meeting on the third Tuesday of the month which is November 19th from 1:00-4:00pm.

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @ <https://www.youtube.com/user/HFInverness/videos>.
Click on reflections for Sunday Readings for 11-24-19 and listen to Fr. Terry Keehan reflect on the readings.

The Feast of Christ the King

1. In our first reading, David was anointed king over the tribes of Israel, as he was considered worthy. What characteristics are desirable for those who lead our Church?
2. In our second reading, Paul writes that we have "redemption, the forgiveness of sins." How does this gift guide you in your forgiveness of others? Where could you improve?
3. If you witnessed Jesus' death where do you think you would be: closer to His side or farther away, in the crowd?
4. At the crucifixion, what do the two thieves represent to you? Like question 2 above, how does their exchange with Jesus influence your idea of forgiveness?
5. What are your hopes for this upcoming Advent and Christmas?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

Jesus on most occasions confronts injustice with action. However, in Luke's Gospel he is silent. When do you decide to fight for what is right and when to remain silent?

The 5 Year Strategic Plan and The Capital Campaign

The last several weeks we have presented information on two important initiatives — the Capital Campaign, Providing for our Family's Future, and our 5 year Strategic Plan, Renew Our Church. In 2018 we began the creation of the Strategic Plan and our look into the future for our church. What must our church look like in the future to Build our Community and create programs that will engage current and future generations, Sustain our Mission and Maintain this very large and beautiful campus which provides the space to engage our community, and the flexibility to respond to unanticipated future needs facing an expansive facility? The results of our two workshops and multiple meetings was the creation of eight Pillars to support our Mission: 1) Adult Spiritual Growth, 2) Worship, 3) Sacramental Theology and Practice, 4) Community Building, 5) Charity, Justice and Pastoral Care, 6) Leadership Development, 7) Stewardship of Resources, and 8) Holy Family Catholic Academy. Each of the Pillars has a Statement of Purpose, Key Goals and Actions to support our Mission and the future of Holy Family.

Providing for Our Family's Future campaign provides financial support for our Strategic Plan Renew Our Church to Build our Community for now and the future, Sustain our Mission, and continue the works of Charity and Justice in our greater community. The details of the campaign have been described in more detail in the bulletin, in our case statement and on the website. The Strategic Plan was presented in the October 13th bulletin and can also be found on the website. Please take the time to familiarize yourself with these two very important and integrated initiatives. They are the future of Holy Family!

Bible Journey presents:

“Justice and Peace Have Embraced”: Reflections on the Themes of Peace and Justice in the Hebrew Scriptures

Presented by Friar Johnpaul Cafiero, OFM

Wednesdays, November 6, 13, 20 and December 4
9:45-11:45 am
Cost: $35

Social justice is one of the fundamental issues in the Bible. God created the world and humankind, and the life and happiness of all His people are His deepest desires. The Bible brings to center stage continually those who are oppressed and turn to God in prayer. Prophets such as Isaiah and Amos raise their voices on behalf of the poor and the marginalized, those belonging to the “weaker” social groups. God himself prescribes a brotherly and sisterly social order in his Torah, and, in the same divine wisdom, Jesus develops a Christian ethics of love. We can look at different aspects of the framework for social justice that is set out in the Bible and see how the instructions of the Old Testament are developed in the teachings of Jesus.

Snuggle up one night and watch a Christmas movie as a family – every family has a favorite Christmas movie and most have a few. Parents why not share YOUR favorite childhood Christmas movies with your kids. Do it soon so you feel the longing and excitement for Christmas early and often.

Pray with song - create a Christmas playlist. Just listening To the words of your favorite carols can begin to prepare your heart for the coming of the Christ child. Playing them in the car is a good way to introduce your kids/grandkids to the religious significance of Christmas.

HFCA Celebrates All Saints

Every Wednesday during the school year the Academy gathers together at our all school Mass. Each class in grades kindergarten through 8 will meet with Fr. Terry or Fr. Rich and discuss the readings and plan for their assigned Mass.

Last week our 3rd grade students hosted our all All Saints Day Mass. In addition to preparing for the scripture readings, these students chose a saint that interested them, researched his/her life, identified which International Baccalaureate learner attribute most exemplified their saint, created a stain glass art piece to honor each saint, and presented their saints to our larger community of students, parents and parishioners.

They did a terrific job sharing how saints were thinkers, leaders grounded in their faith.

Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Holy Family's PADS site, a Sunday evening shelter for people facing homelessness, is in its nineteenth season. It takes many volunteers to set up, provide and serve meals, work shifts, clean up as well as offer an atmosphere of comfort and safety. PADS shift and food sign up will be next Sunday, November 24 after Mass.

If you have not completed orientation, go to www.journeystheroadhome.org and click on Volunteer Opportunities to find the 2019-20 orientation schedule or find a copy of the schedule on the narthex shelves. Online sign-ups are available to all volunteers who have completed orientation.

To provide food for dinner, lunch or breakfast, visit www.carecalendar.org using our own calendar ID and password listed below and feel free to sign up for food donations through the end of the season. Food can be dropped off hours, even days earlier, and prepared just prior to our guests arriving. Please feel free to pass this information along to anyone else you know that might want to donate items for our weekly PADS site. The calendar ID is 134413 and the security code is 9236.

WEEKEND HOSPITALITY MINISTRY NEEDS YOUR HELP

We have an urgent need to build a team for the 5pm Mass to help prepare and serve coffee and refreshments after Mass once every 5-6 weeks. If you like to bake, you are more than welcome to serve something homemade for our parishioners and visitors to enjoy.

If you have questions or would like more information, please contact Carrie at carrie.crall@yahoo.com or Sue Geegan at 847-907-3443 or sgeegan@holymfamilyparish.org.

We also welcome cookie and juice donations at any time for our weekend Mass Hospitality teams to serve after Mass. Mark them "hospitality" and leave in the kitchen across from the parish office. Thank You!

PADS Guests Need Undergarments & Warm Clothing

As our guests prepare for the colder months ahead, they can use the following items:
All warm clothing items such as coats, hats, gloves, boots and scarves and long underwear – M, L and XL for both Women and Men

Also needed:

Women's underwear: sizes 8, 9 10 and 11

Men's undershirts: 34-36; 38-40; 42-44; 46-48

Men's underwear: 32-34; 36-38; 40-42; 44-46

Human Concerns

Catholic Social Teaching – United States Catholic Conference of Bishops

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

The person is not only sacred but also social. How we organize our society-- in economics and politics, in law and policy -- directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. Marriage and the family are the central social institutions that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined. We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

The primary norm for determining the scope and limits of governmental intervention is the “principle of subsidiarity” cited above. This principle states that, in order to protect basic justice, government should undertake only those initiatives which exceed the capacities of individuals or private groups acting independently. Government should not replace or destroy smaller communities and individual initiative. Rather it should help them contribute more effectively to social well-being and supplement their activity when the demands of justice exceed their capacities. This does not mean, however, that the government that governs least governs best. Rather it defines good government intervention as that which truly “helps” other social groups contribute to the common good by directing, urging, restraining, and regulating economic activity as “the occasion requires and necessity demands”. Economic Justice for All, #124

Providing For Our Family's Future

Sharing the Loving Presence of God

THANK YOU for your vision for Holy Family Catholic Community.

THANK YOU for your commitment to our future.

THANK YOU for supporting this capital campaign.

THANK YOU for sharing the blessings that God has given to you.

THANK YOU for participating in Providing for Our Family's Future.

We have much to be thankful for as we reflect on the unique role Holy Family plays in our community and region. This campaign is an exciting moment for us to come together once more to ensure this church will be stronger than ever for current and future generations.

Today, I invite all Holy Family parish families to be a part of our capital campaign, Providing for Our Family's Future. Your participation ensures our success!

Please consider making a sacrificial pledge if you have not done so already. By contributing, you set a beautiful Christian example of trust in the God we serve and faith in the future he has for us. We have a unique opportunity to honor the traditions of our past, to celebrate the present, and to ensure a bright tomorrow. Together, we can set the course for our future that is brighter and more generous than ever. Every gift is important and necessary to secure the future of our Holy Family.

By supporting the Providing For Our Family's Future campaign we can:

- 1) Build Our Community – An initiative aimed at reenergizing parishioners, providing spiritual renewal for the disenchanted, and engaging the future leaders of our Church
- 2) Sustain Our Mission – To provide for the ongoing maintenance and upgrades needed for a welcoming and functional facility that can serve our parishioners and visitors for years to come
- 3) Support Our Archdiocese – As a leader in the larger Church community we must continue our mission to provide for the less fortunate. We will support programs for innovative education for Catechists, Scholarships, and infrastructure of facilities throughout the Archdiocese

Knights Commitment/Mission
As Knights our mission is to work in harmony with Holy Family Catholic Community and its Mission, and to serve others in the spirit of the basic

A few weeks ago we introduced the Knights of Columbus in the Bulletin and promised to continue to inform you of the many ways the Knights assist the staff and ministries at Holy Family. They are committed to supporting our Teen and Family Faith ministries and you will often find them behind the scenes at many events---they are the chefs for Pasta Palooza and they prepare the food and help with set up for the Family and Teen Faith Beginning of the Year Kick-Off event. The Thanksgiving Turkey Football Bowl, the Kringle Classic Basketball Tournament for Holy Family Academy, The Men's Gathering in February are also Knights sponsored. They are also significant supporters, i.e. work crew, for the Fall Fest. They are the Parking Lot Monitors for Christmas Eve and Easter and most recently were the chefs and servers for the Gene Garcia Concert. There are many other ways in which the Knights support our Church, as well as other Ministries outside our Church. The next time you see a Knight thank them for their support and participation of Holy Family and it's many ministries.
