Are You Looking for a Firsthand Experience or a Secondhand Faith?

John the Baptist was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, “Look, here is the Lamb of God!” It was now the disciples’ moment of decision. Would they stay with John or would they go and follow Jesus? Would they settle for a secondhand faith, being told about Jesus, or would they choose a first-hand experience and follow Jesus themselves? If they choose a firsthand experience, they will have to leave John behind. They will have to let go of that which is familiar, comfortable and known. They will have to open themselves to something new and something different. You can probably remember times like that. It can be difficult to let go of a secondhand faith and life. It usually means there will be more questions than answers. What are you looking for? Where are you staying? Those are not so much questions to be answered as they are experiences waiting and wanting to be lived. A firsthand faith is never what somebody tells you it should be, even if that person is a parent, friend or priest. Firsthand means you went after it for yourself and now it’s yours.

A firsthand experience invites us to discover the answers by living the questions. Firsthand experiences are not determined by or conditioned on our life’s circumstances. They arise from God’s eternal longing for and love of each one of us. In every circumstance of our life, good or bad, desired or dreaded, Jesus is calling us to himself. A firsthand experience won’t let us stay where we are. It moves us to a new place. It opens our eyes to a new reality. It turns our life in a different direction. It gives, grows and sustains life in a way secondhand faith never will. The deepest and most profound firsthand experience is Jesus himself. In each of our lives, Jesus comes toward us. His coming is always a moment of decision. We must choose whether we will be spectators or participants in his life. That was the choice John the Baptist set before his disciples. Firsthand faith leads to a life of joy, hope, peace and confidence based on our connection to God.

A secondhand faith can neither sustain nor transform life. That happens only by firsthand experience. Secondhand faith leads to a life of anxiety, fear and stress. Think about it for just a minute. Would you rather be told how pretty the sunset was, or be drenched in the pinks, oranges and purples of the evening sky? Would you rather read a travel brochure or travel to a new land? Would you rather know about Christ or know him? That’s the difference between a secondhand faith and firsthand experience. Our relationship with Christ, with one another, and with ourselves cannot be based on a second-hand faith. It must be a firsthand experience. That kind of faith changes everything, but most people only find it by facing tough questions:

*I wonder what Jesus wants to show you? In what ways does he want to share his life with you? How might he be offering himself to you, asking you to participate in his life? Look at your life. What do you see? What is it like? Is it full and abundant? Empty and desolate? Filled with change, chaos or the unknown? Is it one of joy and celebration? One of loss and sorrow? Do you feel lost and confused? Is it weighed down by guilt, shame, or despair? However you might describe your life, Jesus’ response is always the same. Christ is offering himself as the firsthand experience of your truest self, your truest life. Don’t just take my word for it. Don’t believe it just because I said it. Get up and go look for yourself.

If you’re still stuck in a secondhand faith, I invite you to begin moving into a firsthand experience of God through the Spirit of Christ. It can be as simple as taking time to sit quietly alone with the Lord and whisper a prayer to Him, asking for a deeper experience of His presence, being still to know that He is God. The most important relationship for every one of us is our relationship with Jesus Christ. Choosing to believe that He is who He claimed to be – the Son of God – and receiving him by faith as your Lord and Savior is the most vital act anyone will ever do. As John the Baptist recognized, Jesus is the Living Water, the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.

Here is a prayer for firsthand faith:

Jesus, I believe you are the Son of God. I choose now to turn away from my sins, my self-centeredness, and every part of my life that does not please you. I choose you above all things. I give myself to you. I receive your forgiveness and blessing, and ask you to take your rightful place in my life as my Lord and Savior. Come and reign in my heart. Fill me with your love and your life. Help me to become a person who is truly loving, a person like you in all ways. Restore me, Jesus. Live in me. Love through me. Thank you, God. In Jesus’ name I pray. Amen.

CREATIVE SEWING MINISTRY

We meet monthly to create the baptism bibs and stoles given to each of Holy Family's newly baptized children. Members also knit and crochet items such as prayer shawls and chemotherapy hats to bring comfort and healing to others. We work as a team to complete each item, sharing our talents and creating friendships along the way.

Meetings are on the 4th Tuesday of each month from 1:00-4:00pm.

Our next gathering is on Tuesday, January 28 from 1-4pm.

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @ <https://www.youtube.com/user/HFInverness/videos>. Click on reflections for Sunday Readings for 1-26-20 and listen to Karen Brady, SCC member, reflect on the readings.

Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

1. In your life, how have periods of darkness and gloom been lifted? How has your faith sustained and supported you in tough times?
2. What role has your faith played in times of joy? Do you find it difficult or easy to sustain periods of joy?
3. Paul urges us to remain united in the same mind and purpose. How do we stay united as a faith community when scandal and controversial issues within our Church arise?
4. In asking his disciples to follow Him, they each had to leave something behind. What do we need to "leave behind" in order to be a better follower of Christ?
5. Jesus showed us the importance of choosing the right people for His inner circle. Who is in your inner circle, and why?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

What justice issue do you feel called to address? Whom would you choose as your "disciples" to join your efforts? Why did you choose these individuals?

Bible Study at Holy Family

Our Thursday evening Bible Study always welcomes new members! If you would like to spend some time examining Scripture with a welcoming group, contact Jan Wood and be added to the email list. It's a great resolution for the New Year to spend some extra time with the Word of God and some good people! Jan can be reached at jan@wood5.com.

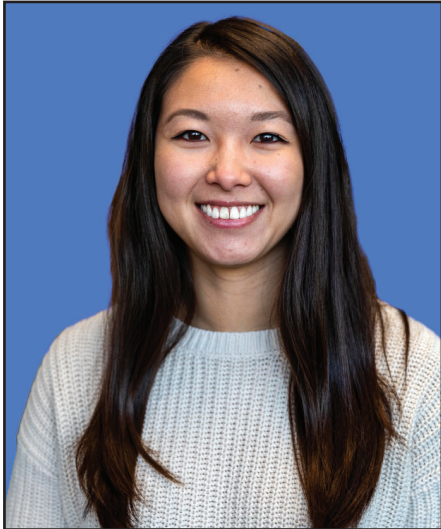

Welcoming a New Year

*A new year stands on my doorstep
Ready to enter my life's journey.
Something in me welcomes the visitor:
The hope of bountiful blessings
The joy of a new beginning
The freshness of unclaimed surprises
Something in me rebuffs this visitor:
The swiftness of the coming
The boldness of the entrance
The challenge of a year's good-bye
Something in me fears this visitor:
The unnamed events of future days
The wisdom needed to walk love well
The demands of giving away and growing
A new year stands on my doorstep.
With fragile caution I move to open the door for its entrance.
My heart leaps with surprise,
Joy jumps in my eyes,
For there beside this brand-new year
Stands my God with outstretched hand!
He smiles and gently asks of me;
Can we walk this year together?
And I, so overwhelmed with goodness,
Can barely whisper my reply:
Welcome in!*

RCIA

Over the next couple of months we will be introducing our RCIA candidates and catechumens, just two or three at a time, to the community. Please keep them in your prayers as they open their hearts to this journey of becoming full, active members of the Catholic Church.

Candidate Claire Sladek

My name is Claire Sladek. I was raised Lutheran. My fiancé, Michael, and I came across Holy Family while looking for a new church when we moved to the area. We fell in love with the church, decided we want to get married here and to raise our future family here as well.

My faith has become stronger while attending Catholic Mass with Michael and his family over the years. I have decided to take the next step into strengthening my relationship with God.

Both my mom and fiancé have inspired me. My mom has always encouraged me to pray, especially when I needed guidance. Michael has been my main inspiration recently. He embodies everything that is good. He is patient, forgiving and always puts others ahead of himself. His faith shines in all aspects of our lives. This inspires me to exemplify that goodness and strength in my faith.

Equally important, Academy students are challenged to be the hands and feet of Jesus and make a positive difference in our world.

Please join us for our Open House, Sunday, January 26 from 10-11AM. We are also offering the following sessions to learn more about our award winning Academy.

GREETER MINISTRY Sign up to serve online or in person at the parish

Fr. Terry has challenged each and every one of us to engage in Servant Hospitality. Holy Family is known for its welcoming atmosphere, however, there is definitely room for improvement by adding more greeters before Mass at the building's entry doors and at the doors entering our worship space. If you are able to arrive at your usual Mass 15 minutes early, smile and be friendly to those who enter our parish, we'd love to have you join this ministry. Greet only once during the year, or as many times as you would like. Families are welcomed to greet together.

For online sign ups, contact Sue Geegan at sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org and you will receive an invitation to sign up for a Mass that's convenient for you online through Signup.com.

If you would like to sign up in person, the Greeter Ministry Binder is located on the counter across from the front office. Contact Sue with any questions at the email above or 847-907-3443.

The Holiday Season at Viator House of Hospitality provides interesting snap shots.

Olajide, a Muslim, making a gingerbread house and cookies with his tutor. Jacinto, a Catholic, building a stable for his tutor's outdoor manger set.

A reception thanking Muslim friends for the generous donations they made during their holy season of Ramadan last summer - which ended beautifully with participant Mohammed leading the group in afternoon prayer.

A group of participants (Christians and Muslims) joining 11 St. Viator High School students for an evening of packing food for hungry kids in other countries.

God bless you and fill you with peace this Holiday Season.

Catholic Social Teaching – United States Catholic Conference of Bishops

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.

Rights and Responsibilities

The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities—to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

As for the State . . . It has also the duty to protect the rights of all its people, and particularly of its weaker members, the workers, women and children. It can never be right for the State to shirk its obligation of working actively for the betterment of the condition of the working man. Christianity and Social Progress (Mater et Magistra. . .), #20

"Seamless Garment: A Consistent Ethic of Life" On the 47th Anniversary of Roe vs Wade (January 22, 1973)

Since its inception Holy Family Catholic Community has supported Cardinal Bernardin's pro-life position to be a consistent ethic of life. This position has been validated by Pope John Paul and Pope Francis. It is important to appreciate the gift of life at ALL STAGES – from womb all the way to tomb. When too much emphasis is given to only one issue, there is less attention paid to the others. No one person can take care of every pro-life cause, however, when the Church and all its members work together, all issues that protect life at any stage can be addressed.

On March 11, 1984, Cardinal Bernardin delivered a moving speech at St. Louis University. A particular portion of his lecture series became known as the "Seamless Garment: A Consistent Ethic of Life". His message emphasized the importance of why we need to espouse a consistent ethic of life: (1) the dimensions of the threats to life today; and (2) the value of our moral vision.

Cardinal Bernardin continued, "The idea of a consistent ethic of life – one which stands for the protection of the right to life and the promotion of the rights which enhance life from womb to tomb – manifests the positive potential of the Catholic moral and social tradition. It is both a complex and a demanding tradition; it joins the humanity of the unborn infant and the humanity of the hungry; it calls for positive legal action to prevent the killing of the unborn or the aged and positive societal action to provide shelter for the homeless and education for the illiterate.

Quoting Pope John Paul, "it is only through a conscious choice and through a deliberate policy that humanity can be saved." Quoting Pope Francis, "Our defense of the innocent unborn, for example, needs to be clear, firm and passionate, for at stake is the dignity of a human life, which is always sacred. Equally sacred, however, are the lives of the poor, those already born, the destitute, the abandoned and the underprivileged, the vulnerable infirm and elderly exposed to covert euthanasia, the victims of human trafficking, new forms of slavery, and every form of rejection."

All faiths welcome!
