What does a relationship with God look like for you?

Relationships tell us who we are, whose we are and what is expected of us. Our relationships define where we've been, where we are, and where we're going. In Matthew 5, Jesus teaches us that we are to love our enemies. "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven." When it comes to loving and praying for our adversaries, Jesus's words are inspiring and challenging, encouraging and convicting. Jesus reminds us that beyond the appearance of our most difficult adversary is a person loved by God and capable of good. Today's gospel invites us to see our spiritual life in the context of a God who sees me, hears me, knows me, and provides for me. When I open my eyes up to that God, I truly want to get to know Him better. Holiness means imitating God and trying to be as generous as we can. We are to act as God does in loving all, just or unjust, good or bad. His mercy and graciousness are radical, disproportionate, and outrageous.

Many of us have been hurt by another person at one time or another. Broken relationships may manifest as fight, divorce, violence, abuse and war. That's why God calls us, as a faith community to not just think about the relationship between justice and mercy, but to really live it out. When it comes to personal relationships, Jesus reminds us that our first and foremost response must be one of mercy rather than retribution. We are called to seek and restore, rather than to tear down. God is "gracious" and "compassionate." And if God is "gracious" and "compassionate," then we who claim to be His beloved children must also be "gracious" and "compassionate."

In today's gospel, Jesus is showing us an example of compassionate offered healing. Repeatedly we read that Jesus "had compassion on them" in stories of healings. Compassion and grace offer something real and tangible. Kindness is demonstrated. It is shown. It is offered to another. Grace and compassion do something. Compassion is not simply a feeling. Compassion acts. Compassion enters into the darkness with the one who suffers, and does something about it. Compassion costs us something. It demands something of us. We must step in, get dirty, invest something of ourself and our resources to demonstrate kindness to the other. We have to be willing to risk. As Henri Nouwen phrases it, "Who can take away suffering without entering into it?"

God offers us all grace. He reaches out to every one of us. He reveals himself to us in Jesus Christ and has extended the offer of new life. God's grace and compassion are not just an abstract. They can and should do something to who we are. Finally, grace and compassion are inherently indiscriminate. Just as God's grace and compassion are freely given, so too must ours. Just as God is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked, we too must be kind and gracious even to those we may not want to. We far too often hold back our love and kindness from some people. We see the sin, the brokenness and poor choices. We use all sorts of excuses to get around helping people.

So what does it mean to love our enemies? And how can we love our enemies the way that God loves His enemies? How do we express love for our enemies when they are our enemies precisely because they have perpetrated acts of violence on the innocent? How do we love the innocent victims of violence while at the same time expressing grace and compassion for those who are rightly our enemies because of their actions? What would it look like if the Church as a whole decided to actually imitate the compassion of Jesus Christ? What if we offered good news instead of a threat of retribution? What if we told sinners God is for them instead of God is angry? God's compassion lifts up, it doesn't tear down.

Lord You desire all Your children to love others as Christ loved us, but my love is poor and weak and is far removed for all that You desire of me. Fill me I pray with the love of Christ that I may love others in the same way that Christ loved me – so that as Your love pours into my soul, so I may be used as a conduit for Christ's love to stream out to others with whom I come into contact.

Help me to demonstrate Your love not only to those that are lovable, but also to those that who lash out at me through pain or anger, disappointment or loss. May the love of Jesus be manifested in me and may the love of Jesus be distributed, by grace through faith – to all with whom I come in contact, in Jesus name I pray. Amen

Help needed with our Liturgical Linens

Do you like reflective service opportunities?

Prefer to lend a hand “behind the scenes?”

Our Linen Sacristans are our behind the scenes ministers who clean and press altar linens and purificators. We are in need of several people to join this important ministry which is vital to our parish's celebration of the Eucharist.

Linen sacristans choose their schedule and pick up the soiled linens after weekend Masses, launder and return them in time for the next weekend. Schedule is flexible and instruction is provided.

THANK YOU to our current ministry members for their continued dedication and service!

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @ <https://www.youtube.com/user/HFIInverness/> videos. Click on reflections for Sunday Readings for 3-1-20 and listen to Fr. Terry Keehan reflect on the readings.

First Sunday of Lent

1. Who or what are the serpents in today's world? What can we do to arm ourselves against them?
2. When Eve ate the apple, she thought this was a good thing. When have you pursued something that turned out to be “too good to be true?”
3. Paul describes Jesus Christ as a gift five separate times. During Lent, is your awareness of this gift heightened? What can you do to deepen your awareness?
4. What is temptation to you? Over time, how have you learned to avoid it? What do you still need to work on?
5. Who are the angels in your life who support you? Who can you be a comfort to?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION:

In whom do you trust? Does this trust enhance or hinder your ability to live by Christian values, especially when it involves mercy and justice?

- Is this your only job?
- Is God a boy or a girl?
- Did God create the Milky Way?
- Who created God?
- What's your favorite color?
- Is God older than the dinosaurs?
- Why do you live at the Church?
- Did God create the devil?
- Why does God let bad things happen?
- What do you do besides say Mass?
- Do you have a favorite prayer?
- What's your favorite animal?

TEEN FAITH SUMMER MISSION TRIP

Are you looking for an

Eye-opening experience?

Whether you are an adult (21+) or a teen if you are looking for a unique way to 'practice' your faith consider being part of this year's Summer Mission Trip.

Sunday, June 21 - Friday, June 26

Home base for this year's Mission Trip will be Our Lady of Sorrows Parish in Farmington, MI, one of the northern suburbs of Detroit.

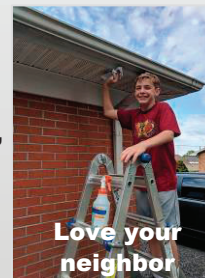

We will be assisting those who are elderly or disabled in the local community. Start each day with Mass and the morning program. Travel to your worksite to serve (painting, cleaning, building, clearing, sorting, interacting, etc.) Return to camp to enjoy free time with friends, experience musician-led music and prayer, and interact in high-energy games and activities.

Why do this?

Help others, grow closer to God, meet new people, have a blast!

Celebrate the power of the gospel, with members of the Holy Family community as they join 300 others from Catholic communities from around the country, who will also be part of this year's Catholic Heart Work Camp.

Return renewed in faith knowing you have MADE A DIFFERENCE.

Sign-up at <https://holyfamilyparish.org/catholic-heart-workcamp>.

Lent still holds power in the imaginations of Catholics. It is not unusual to find Catholics who have left the Church, still consciously keeping the Lenten disciplines of prayer, fasting and alms-giving. Ash Wednesday is still a day when Catholic Churches are filled to the rafters – more people come to Church on Ash Wednesday than on Easter!

So what is it that Lent speaks to in our lives?

Ann Barr Weems, the gifted and prolific “Presbyterian poet laureate” wrote,

“Lent is a time to take time to let the power of our faith story take hold of us, a time to let the events get up and walk around in us,
a time to intensify our living unto Christ,
a time to hover over the thoughts of our hearts...

Lent is a time to allow a fresh new taste of God!

Is it the Lenten promise of a new start that draws us to engage in Lent; to practice prayer, fasting and alms-giving in the hopes of re-igniting our personal faith?

Does keeping the season of Lent anchor us in hope at a time when the natural world can seem to be so arbitrary, winter fiercely hanging on even as daylight valiantly warms the earth desperate to break forth in bloom, heralding the potent possibility that lies just below the surface?

Could it be the deepest parts of us realize that over time, our hearts and souls get messy and Lent invites to roll up our sleeves and sort through the clutter of our lives – a spiritual spring cleaning if you will?

Whatever the reason, Lent does speak to our on-going need for personal renewal. It is a season that encourages us to sort things out and let things go. Lent is a season that speaks of our need to re-set our internal clocks, tidy up the inner recesses of the heart in order to commit yet again to what is important.

These are wonderful lessons to share with our children and teens. Lent is a time to make sure they know

- We repent not to be loved, but because we are loved;
- We fast not to suffer for past transgressions but to de-clutter and re-focus, clearing out what distracts us from seeing and feeling God’s love;
- We give, not to insure some far-off inheritance, but because we are confident in God’s generosity.

PRAYER, FASTING & ALMSGIVING these are the ways we grow closer to God and our neighbor, resources to help us live hopeful, joy-filled lives rich in the harvest of justice, mercy.

Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her

Last week our community lost a beloved teacher and colleague. Mrs. Nikki Carso passed away after a valiant 14-month battle with pancreatic cancer. Nikki joined HFCA in 2012 and prepared 8th grade students for high school and beyond. Mrs. Carso set high expectations for her students, and not surprisingly many wrote thanking her for their smooth transition to high school. Please pray for her family and our school community as we mourn her passing.

All are invited to join us for:

- February 28—Coffee with 5th grade teachers—9-9:30 followed by a visit to the classrooms.
- March 5—What to Expect in Middle School—6PM—meet our middle school team and learn about our innovative approach to educating the whole student.

Please consider donating to Illinois' Tax Credit Scholarships. For every net $1 donated our parish school receives $12 to use to provide scholarships to qualifying families.

LENT SOCIAL JUSTICE 2020 LOVE FIRST, A CHANGE IN PERSPECTIVE

The number 7 is highly significant in the bible as God rested on the 7th day of creation. Holy Family has completed six Lenten Social Justice Projects since the first visit to St. Paul in Kentucky in 2014. This is our 7th year and we plan to “rest” by focusing on a change in perspective. We will reaffirm our commitment to the 7 major principles of Catholic social teaching and review and receive current updates on the impact of our past six Lenten projects. Through the Lenten disciplines of prayer, fasting and alms-giving, let us be energized and recommit ourselves to share time, talent and treasure within our community of faith and beyond.

As we enter into the week before Lent, the Gospel teaches us to love our neighbor. Catholic social teaching (CST) expresses that love in the first and most fundamental CST of Respecting the Life and Dignity of the Human Person at All Stages of Life. We also love our neighbor by Caring for Creation since human life cannot exist without the resources God created to sustain everyone on this planet.

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. Our belief in the sanctity of human life and the inherent dignity of the human person is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching. We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person.

Care for God's Creation

We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. Care for the earth is not just an Earth Day slogan, it is a requirement of our faith. We are called to protect people and the planet, living our faith in relationship with all of God's creation. This environmental challenge has fundamental moral and ethical dimensions that cannot be ignored.

Lenten Social Justice Project 2016 – JOURNEYS | The Road Home

Four years ago, Holy Family's Lenten Social Justice Project supported JOURNEYS | The Road Home, a non-profit agency in our Northwest Suburbs, by raising awareness around the issue of homelessness and collecting $54,384 in alms-giving. JOURNEYS | The Road Home provides shelter, social services and housing to the homeless and those at risk of becoming homeless in 37 towns in north/northwest suburban Cook County. The mission of JOURNEYS is to individually assess and serve its clients, while broadening community awareness and involvement. The agency consists of the PADS Shelter Program, the HOPE Center Supportive Services Program, and the Pathways Housing Readiness Program, all focused on assisting those in need. JOURNEYS currently provides over 50,000 services to more than 900 people across the north and northwest suburbs of Cook County

Love First – A Change in Perspective:

Northwest Suburban PADS, Inc. was created in 1989 and eventually merged with HOPE NOW, Inc. in 1992 to address the growing homeless population in the northwest suburbs. In October of 2001, Northwest Suburban PADS and HOPE NOW legally merged—forming the new agency known as JOURNEYS | The Road Home, a multi-funded, comprehensive service agency with wrap-around services including case management, job counseling, minor medical care, mental health screenings and securing permanent and stable housing.

Holy Family had been PADS site for 16 years at the time of our Lenten project and we understood the importance of reaching out to the homeless population. Our Lenten project increased our parish's awareness and increased JOURNEYS capacity to serve their clients. It just so happened that in 2016, the number of families facing homelessness was on the rise. This created a new challenge for JOURNEYS to properly serve not only adults, but now the many children caught in the trap of homelessness. Our gift was a huge blessing to the JOURNEYS staff as well as the families being served.

The momentum is continuing as JOURNEYS recently announced they will construct a 3-story, 27,000-square-foot facility adjacent to their current building, which will eventually be demolished. The new structure will have first-floor offices, 42 beds for PADS clients to use overnight on the second level and 11 permanent, affordable supportive living apartments on the third story.

As affordable housing options diminish in our area, JOURNEYS provides the care and dignity to individuals and families facing homelessness during their time of struggle. Holy Family Parish and its parishioners are a beacon of light to our neighbors, especially our neighbors in need. For more information about JOURNEYS, go to journeystheroadhome.org.

Viator House of Hospitality Justice At Last

He sometimes was ready to give up hope after nearly 3 years of waiting for his asylum proceedings. But his inner strength wouldn't let him - and, he now says, the Viator House Community restored his hope each time he seriously doubted asylum could ever happen.

That inner strength and resilience paid off in January when Boureima, from Niger, opened his email while in a college class and read that he had won his asylum case.

Congratulations to Boureima who now can pursue his dream of working in computer technology with confidence about his future. And congratulations to the Viator House Community - the staff, mentor, tutors and drivers who continually encouraged him to hang in there, build his life and keep faith in himself and his case.

Habitat Project Update

Luz Figueroa is a twenty-year resident of Elgin and mother of two teenagers who is about to become the proud owner of her first home. Luz is thrilled her children, ages 14 and 18, will continue to thrive and flourish in their forever home. She has been employed by U46 for seven years and takes pride in being diligent and hard-working. She is looking forward to painting her new home. Luz will contribute 150 hours of sweat equity toward the construction of her home.

Construction on the home has made remarkable progress during the milder winter weather. In the next week, the home will be completely insulated and most of the exterior siding installed. We will need volunteers to assist with dry wall insulation and painting. Come spend a Saturday with us! Contact: Larrybuettner@comcast.net

Holy Family Parishioners, Drive Cautiously in the Parking Lot

Every Sunday evening until the last weekend in April, Holy Family hosts a PADS site for our homeless friends to provide them with a nutritious meal and a safe and warm place to sleep. Be aware that our guests arrive on foot, on bikes as well as in automobiles. They are traveling along Palatine Road in the darkness of the evening hours and are difficult to see at times. Please drive slowly and use extra caution as you leave the church through the parking lot and onto Palatine Road. We want our guests to arrive safely. Thank You!
