Fr. Terry Keehan

Happy Mother's Day to all of our mothers and women who play a motherly role in the life of others. I have come to deeply appreciate the statements, "Give birth" and "Give Life." They both flow from but are not limited to the physical act of childbirth.

The word "give" is a huge part of both statements. Obviously, as life begins in the womb, and then when a child separates from mother physically, there are endless possibilities for that new life to give life to others. A gift is given and then gives more.

We all know the feeling of energy that comes from a person who gives life to others in ways beyond childbirth. Their energy and enthusiasm are uplifting. They too are giving and enhancing life. Giving birth and giving life are acts where the physical and the spiritual of our one world can come together. Unfortunately, at times, all of us can zap or take life from others for a variety of reasons. We all know how that feels.

Not all gifts are appreciated so not all acts of giving are recognized, but where the spiritual and physical giving come together, grace can explode and life as we know it can break open very powerfully. As I so often say, it becomes more.

You have probably heard me quote my friend and great theologian, Jack Shea, who says, "In the physical realm, when we give something to someone, we lose it. In the spiritual realm, when we give something to someone, it becomes more."

Jesus is the great example of this, and in so many scripture passages he demonstrates this "more" as he gives. The story of Jesus feeding 5,000 is the prime example. Shea also says, "When Jesus comes on the scene, there is always more" – more compassion, more hope, more forgiveness, more love – more life.

Let's be grateful this weekend, and always, for so many women who give birth and give life, because they have collectively made our world so much more. Let us give thanks for women who give life with their energy, talent, creativity, tenderness, gentleness, strength, generosity and love – and have made our world so much more by doing so.

As I continue to write extensively about work, I am amazed at how prevalent the word is in our culture and in scripture. This week's scripture includes a line from the Gospel that refers to work and the works of Jesus more than the other, from the Gospel of John.

We hear Jesus say, "Whoever believes in me will do the works that I do. (John 14:11) It is my very strong contention that we are urged to work like God and that our work really is an extension of God's work. The question is, do we believe that?

I am inspired by and blessed by so many life-giving women. They fill my journey. They include my three sisters-in-law, Sharon, Mickie and Mieke; my nieces; my great niece; my friends and colleagues; and so many of you who make Holy Family holy.

Your faith, your belief has already enabled you to do the works of God. Your faith in Jesus Christ and your faith in God so often come together in such a seamless way and make you give life. It also happens so often that you are probably unaware that your faith is leading you to do God's work. So many of you give birth. So many of you give life, and from us who are the recipients of that life, thank you for making the world so much more. Thanks for giving life.

Meditations and Guided Meditation

Soon I will make some meditations and calming prayer experiences available via Facebook. Many have voiced a need for some calming prayer recently. As I am reflecting on very busy motherly women in the world, some of you can benefit from a little calm amidst your hectic life.

Tune in With Terry

I am also offering a series of 20 minute presentations on various topics with 20 minutes of discussion to follow, called Tune in With Terry. They will be offered Tuesday mornings and Thursday evenings. Look for details in our email blasts and on our website.

A Prayer for Our Uncertain Times

May we who are merely inconvenienced remember those whose lives are at stake.

May we who have no risk factors remember those most vulnerable.

May we who have the luxury of working from home remember those who must choose between preserving their health and making their rent.

May we who have the flexibility to care for our children when their schools close remember those who have no options.

May we who have to cancel our trips remember those who have no safe place to go.

May we who are losing our margin money in the tumult of the economic market remember those who have no margin at all.

May we who settle in for a quarantine at home remember those who have no home.

As fear grips our country, let us choose love.

And during this time when we may not be able to physically wrap our arms around each other, let us yet find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbors.

Amen.

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @ <https://www.youtube.com/user/HFIInverness/> videos. Click on reflections for Sunday Readings for 5-17-20 and listen to Deacon Dennis Brown reflect on the readings.

Sixth Sunday of Easter

1. Peter and John laid hands on recently baptized Samaritans so they would receive the Holy Spirit. Have you ever witnessed a laying of hands? What was the result?
2. What role does the Holy Spirit play in your life?
3. In today's world, why is it so difficult to act with "gentleness and reverence" as Peter implores us to do? What can we do better?
4. The commandments are usually viewed as a list of "nots." How can they be viewed instead as a list of "do's?"
5. Jesus says: "On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you." When do you sense that you are in Him, and He is in you?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

The Holy Spirit plays a pivotal role in our lives. How do you see the Holy Spirit working through you to address a justice issue?

Attention Richard Rohr Fans!

Deacon Dennis Brown will be hosting a weekly discussion on Zoom for those who would like to unpack the daily meditations from Richard Rohr's Center for Action and Contemplation. These discussions will begin on Monday, May 11 at 7:00 pm. If you aren't receiving the daily meditations via email, please sign up to receive them prior to attending the Zoom meeting at www.cac.org. If you would like to be part of the discussion and enrich your spiritual life during our time at home, please email Mary Whiteside at mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org to be added to the Zoom invitation list. We look forward to seeing you on Zoom!

Beloved Retreat

Our next Beloved Retreat will take place at the beautiful University of St. Mary of the Lake campus on the weekend of November 6-8, 2020. This retreat is a lay led, open and accepting weekend of being drenched in God's unconditional love. We will explore our baptism and what it means to be baptized...and we will ponder, "Was I baptized (only in the past) or AM I baptized (currently recognizing my identity as a beloved child of God)?"

All are welcome to this retreat. It is not a silent retreat, and it is not a "couples" retreat, although couples are certainly welcome to attend together. It is for anyone who wants to be spiritually fed.

Registration will begin in July with priority given to those on last year's retreat waiting list. If you would like to have materials sent when registration opens up in July, please contact Mary Whiteside at mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) Becoming Catholic

It is a small community within our larger community where all questions are welcome, and it is a safe place to share your story and learn about our beautiful faith.

If you would like to explore completing the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation as an adult, or you or someone you know is interested in becoming Catholic, please contact Mary Whiteside at mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org.

May is National Mental Health Awareness Month

Pope John Paul II's 1977 message to healthcare workers in the L'Osservatore Romano Weekly Edition states, "Whoever suffers from mental illness always bears God's image and likeness in (themselves), as does every human being. In addition, (people with mental illness) always have the inalienable right not only to be considered as an image of God and therefore as a person, but also to be treated as such."

The people of God, the church, are called to be communities of compassion, hope and justice for people with mental illness and their families. It is important that persons with mental illness feel welcomed and supported within the parish. This requires the purest spiritual outreach, i.e., non-judgmental love and acceptance of the individual. The more that parishes can project non-judgmental love, the more its members suffering with mental illness, or those who have a family member with mental illness, are likely to acknowledge their needs and overcome their fears of rejection.

In these trying times during the COVID-19 shelter in place directives - isolation, grief, job loss and uncertainty are causing many to suffer mental health conditions. NAMI in Barrington is a local resource for anyone needing mental health support services. Contact them at www.namiba.org for more information.

Catholic Charities COVID-19 Collection on Mother's Day

The Archdiocese of Chicago with Catholic Charities' serves people in need through 70 programs and 150 locations across Cook and Lake counties while also providing unique service opportunities for various parish organizations. Once a year – on Mother's Day – parishes across the Archdiocese of Chicago hold a collection for Catholic Charities.

This year, this special collection is hindered by the COVID-19 crisis. I'm reaching out to ask if you would be willing to donate funds to help those who reach out to Catholic Charities at this critical time. Your support will provide food, shelter, financial assistance, counseling and more.

If you are in the position to support Catholic Charities, go to www.catholiccharities.net/donate or mail your gift to Catholic Charities, 721 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago, IL 60654. May God bless you and those you love this Mother's Day and always.

PADS Sheltering at Local Hotels Continues Through May

The PADS regular season normally ends at the end of April. However, these times are anything but normal. It is with great pleasure to share with you that JOURNEYS | The Road Home is able to extend shelter to the 98 guests currently in the system until May 31. Holy Family will continue to assist with meals throughout the month of May due to the generosity of so many people.

Thank you -- and while Holy Family extends its prayers to each of you, please continue to keep our homeless community and those who serve them in your prayers.
