Fr. Terry Keehan

Happy Unique Father's Day to all of you who have been fathers to us and to those who have filled fatherly roles. WE honor you today as Fathers, Grandfathers, Great Grandfathers, God-fathers, Stepfathers and sources of wisdom and strength.

Perhaps you can't be in the same place with your fathers because of our social distancing limits this year. Perhaps you are fortunate enough to be with your father and those who fill a father's role in your life. Either way, we can bless them all in the traditional way. Let us take advantage of Zoom or Teams or FaceTime or other electronic means - and certainly take advantage of being together in person - and convey our appreciation for the fathers among us, an appreciation that God shares for their role in our families, society and communities.

Extend your hands now in blessing over the fatherly among us whose day we celebrate today:

Lord, your love and grace flow through our outstretched hands.

Give these and all who fill the role of father what you have given to fathers in scripture.

The Trust of Abraham who struggled to share the gift of fatherhood for so long with his wife Sara, and because of that trust became our FATHER in faith.

The Courage of Moses who encountered you in such a personal way in the desert and then passed the wisdom of those encounters on to the people he was leading and provided an enabling spirit to his son Aaron.

The zeal and focus of John the Baptist, who never had children of his own, but proclaimed the coming of Jesus with such passion and constantly extended his energy and faith to tell the world about Jesus.

The persistence of Joseph who played such an important role in the life of Jesus as he grew, and supported his wife Mary as you directed him through an angel.

May your blessing console these, our loved ones, when they are discouraged. Comfort them when they are in pain, and guide them to be the fathers that you have intended them to be.

*We pray TO you our loving creator,
BY the working of the Holy Spirit and THROUGH Christ our Lord, Amen.*

We are working VERY hard to adhere to the health procedures of the State of Illinois and the Archdiocese of Chicago regarding our phased re-opening process. Please be attentive to the regular Friday email blasts and other communications that we send to you in order to share the most updated and accurate information about this process. As time goes on we are all receiving varied information from many sources and often that information reflects differences and even contradictions.

I emphasize that procedures vary from parish to parish and certainly from non-Catholic churches. I cannot emphasize enough that we are being very diligent and attentive to providing worship and other prayer experiences as SAFELY as possible in compliance and unique to Holy Family.

I certainly sense an excitement among us to return to pre-pandemic ways, because so many non-church businesses, organizations and activities seem to be ignoring requirements to wear masks and to practice social distancing. These experiences do not permit us to do the same. YOUR health and safety is paramount to me and our staff. Please adhere to the registration process and other safety requirements that we are conveying to you. The recent video that is available on our website will probably answer many of your questions and clarify our procedures.

I know this has been difficult and these procedures appear to severely limit our prayer, particularly the celebration of the Eucharist, but I ask for your patience and understanding as we move forward, methodically yet safely. Thank You.

Today's scriptures give us some timely commentary. The Gospel encourages us to worry more about what can kill our soul than our body. I am making a renewed commitment to address the sin of racism that I believe can kill the soul of our nation. I find hope in the wisdom of our first reading from a great prophet, who at a time of significant challenge not unlike ours as the violence and protests in the midst of a call for greater justice continue. The prophet Jeremiah says, "In you I entrust my cause." Let us trust in the presence of God in a cause that must come, and may that wisdom be complimented by the words of the French poet Victor Hugo, "Nothing can stop an idea whose time has come."

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for June 28,
Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time,
and then reflect on these questions:

The Liturgical Arts Community...
creates a vibrant prayer
and worship experience
so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and
worship experiences, for all attending Holy Family.

1. Unlike the story of Abraham and Sarah, Elisha's prophecy is directed toward the woman. What might be the significance of this gender reversal?
2. Paul writes: "Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?" What does this statement mean to you?
3. The first part of our Gospel is quite challenging. How do we ensure that we are worthy of Jesus without lessening the love we have for our family?
4. The second part of our Gospel centers on receiving and welcoming. How can we be better at this individually? How can our community do a better job of welcoming?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

Jesus tells his disciples "Whoever receives you, receives me". Have you been blessed by welcoming someone into your life recently? If yes, how so?

The Family & Teen Faith Community... offers faith formation
and catechesis
to preschool through elementary school aged children and high school teens
and their families.

The Ablaze Young Adult Ministry celebrated its first anniversary this month! As we approached the end of this first year, we decided to send out surveys to those who have been involved with the ministry to ask how this ministry has benefited them throughout the year. Below are some of the responses we received:

“Ablaze has provided me with a community of fellow young adult Catholics and provides a space where I can share my faith confidently and freely”

“It has granted me a great sense of belonging & community”

“It’s given me a place to connect with people my age discussing our religion and God”

“It helped me see friends and have a chance to go back to church and think about God during a busy time”

“It’s been just a great opportunity to relax & it’s been holding me up to some prayer time which is fantastic”

This ministry has made an impact on young adults in a time when it is most difficult to remain connected to faith - in college.

In this time of slowed-down life, we have also taken time for evaluation and reflection. In evaluating the success of Ablaze and its potential, we sent out surveys to many college students from our community and received over 60 responses. Based on these survey responses, we are making adjustments to the Ablaze ministry to allow it to better serve our young people.

We are excited to announce that the Ablaze Young Adult Ministry will now be the Ablaze College Ministry. By fine-tuning the age group of this ministry, we will be better able to address the specific challenges that are faced in the years after high school. Those who are not attending college but are still in this age group are also invited to join. For anyone post-college, we are currently forming new Small Christian Communities to continue their faith journeys in communities that better meet their needs. If you or someone you know is interested in joining one of these small faith sharing groups, please contact Courtney at csmola@holyfamilyparish.org for more information or register at: <https://forms.gle/aGZHBgpBf8rexSxP9>

As many parishioners in Ablaze live near their college campuses during the academic year, this ministry will be primarily meeting online via video calls with some in-person meetings when many are back in town on school breaks. We will be focusing on topic-based faith discussions, service events, retreats, praise and worship events, mission trips, and shared witness talks. We hope this ministry can assist our college students in better understanding what makes us Catholic, why we have the beliefs we do, how to grow spiritually in college and stay connected to our faith, and ways to incorporate faith into the busy college lifestyle.

To learn more about other changes we've made in remodeling this ministry, check out our webpage at holyfamilyparish.org/ablaze and follow us on Instagram @holyfamily.ablazeministry

Catholic Social Teaching Why CST needs to be practiced more than ever!

Sue Geegan
Director 847-907-3443
sgeegan
@holyfamilyparish.org

The Human Concerns Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

You could say Catholic social teaching (CST) has been the foundation of our faith since the inception of Christianity, as Jesus Christ lived and preached loving your neighbor and concern for the poor and outcast. However, CST began to be articulated when Pope Leo XIII wrote the famous 1891 encyclical, Rerum Novarum, which advocated for worker's rights and responsibilities during the Industrial Revolution. The world was very different in Jesus' time as well as in the 1890's. But, is it really so different?

This week we read the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops (USCCB) statement on Rights and Responsibilities.

Rights and Responsibilities

The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

We must speak of man's rights. Man has the right to live. He has the right to bodily integrity and to the means necessary for the proper development of life, particularly food, clothing, shelter, medical care, rest, and, finally, the necessary social services. (St. John XXIII, Peace on Earth [Pacem in Terris], no. 11)

As for the State . . . It has also the duty to protect the rights of all its people, and particularly of its weaker members, the workers, women and children. It can never be right for the State to shirk its obligation of working actively for the betterment of the condition of the workingman. (St. John XXIII, Christianity and Social Progress (Mater et Magistra), no. 20)

Last week's questions remain important today. What can Holy Family do to bring about a better understanding of racial harmony? What can you do to face racial discrimination when you see it in a non-violent way? In our economic and criminal justice systems, what needs to be changed so people of ALL colors, cultures and economic status have the same rights? What are we doing as a Parish to identify these needs and address them? These are very difficult questions with no easy answers, however, if we tackle them together, collectively we can make a difference. I ask you to pray about these important questions and respond to me at sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org with your thoughts and suggestions. I also welcome personal thoughts you'd like to share with the parish about your feelings on what has happened these past few weeks. We are truly in this together!

Holy Family delivered Easter Baskets to many young families and children in May (a bit late due to the church shut down) and was appreciated by all. Here is one comment from a new mother that has been served by Hopeful Beginnings of St. Mary's Services in Palatine.

"I just want to thank you so much for the Easter basket you gave to my baby. you brought him joy and to me as well and he was so happy with the toys, the truck the candy snacks and everything!! As a mom, when someone makes my baby happy, they make me happy too so thank you for this joyful moment you brought to us through this difficult time. May God bless you all the way and one day I wish I will be able to pay it forward. Thank you so much again, and thank you for your genuine giving and continued support. Much love and respect to all of you."
