Fr. Terry Keehan

Isn't there something nice about sharing an experience with another person? It can be comforting if it is a relatively insignificant thing and, particularly if it is very powerful thing, can provide tremendous bonding. We all must develop a personal relationship with God, but as I call it, the God of the Gathering, an experience that reveals God in a sacred way as well, the God of two or more. The public and private moments of the Holy Spirit work to complement each other in recognizing how God is manifest in our midst.

This week's Gospel from Matthew ends with a quote from Jesus, "Where two or three are gathered, there am I in their midst." This simple line illustrates that the gathering doesn't always have to be a large one, such as at Mass. However, I believe the God of the Gathering is most significantly manifest when we, God's people, gather to realize Christ's Real Presence in song, in breaking open the stories of Scripture, in receiving the Body and Blood of Christ—in these and more that make up the Eucharist.

In these Covid days we have splintered off into small groups, mostly of family members who live together. This provides safety and health in fighting a pandemic. There are limitations in our smaller groups, but there are also opportunities. In these times of smaller, distanced gatherings we can heighten our appreciation of God's presence with us in the two, three and four or so.

Our Holy Family Catholic Academy is off to a great start during this unique year. We have a combination of students, faculty and administration coming here to our campus, and e-learners at home. Our faculty has shown tremendous flexibility and creativity in responding to our families' needs. Because of the dedication and diligence of Kate O'Brien, our principal, and our faculty and staff, our students are happy to be with their friends and safe and healthy while they are here.

I am amazed as I have visited classrooms and talked with teachers how compliant our students are while wearing masks and having to eat lunch in their classrooms. I am very proud of their respect for the protocols and procedures that are in place. I am also very inspired by both faculty and students who are seizing this unique opportunity to learn in a different way and to give honest feedback regarding procedures and activities that are simply not promoting vehicles for learning. Our maintenance staff has both provided and constructed various pieces of equipment that add to the healthy environment of our school.

Drop-off and pick-up procedures were very time consuming the first couple of days but are more efficient now while continuing our safety protocols.

Racism Education

In our commitment to address many issues of racism in our world, we will continue to provide resources for you both here in my article every week and in Sue Geegan's Human Concerns articles as well, in addition to those found on our website. Just below our parish statement on the sin of racism is a bar marked "Click here to view our Educational Resources." I'm sure you will find these resources helpful.

One way to begin this information sharing is defining key terms. A second click under the Educational Resources on Definition of Terms (click to view) will give you the definition of many words related to racism. They include:

Ally — A person of one social identity group, who stands up in support of members of another group, typically of a dominant group standing beside members of a group being discriminated against or treated unjustly.

I would like to remind all of you that we continue to provide a very prayerful taped Mass each week. You can watch this Mass on any device and access it in our website. In the midst of limitations and fears that many have during this pandemic, please make every effort to pray along with this vehicle of prayer. Stay with the Mass, allow yourself to be led in prayer and lessen your concern that it is not a "live" Mass. I am not aware of any other parish that provides the creative and prayerful elements that Gene Garcia creates in this taped Mass. That makes it a special vehicle for the Holy Spirit. Thank You.

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for September 13, Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, and then reflect on these questions:

Liturgical Arts

The Liturgical Arts
Community... creates a vibrant prayer
and worship experience
so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and
worship experiences,
for all attending Holy Family.

1. In our first reading, we are reminded that “wrath and anger are hateful things.” How can we better handle frustrations that lead to anger?
2. How well do you “overlook faults?”
3. Paul tells us, “whether we live or die, we are the Lord’s.” What reminds you daily that you are a child of the Most High?
4. When Jesus tells Peter to “not forgive seven times, but seventy-seven times,” what is Jesus really teaching us?
5. What is the relationship between forgiveness and justice?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

God gives us unending gratitude that we can never repay. Is there a debt owed to you that can be forgiven? What is that debt?

Congratulations to our newly baptized and welcome into the Body of Christ and Holy Family!

Beloved Retreat

Due to the many restrictions to keep everyone safe during the pandemic, we have had to postpone our November 2020 Beloved Retreat. We are exploring some on-line options and some other spiritual enrichment possibilities, so stay tuned. We will reschedule the live retreat for the fall of 2021.

If you'd like to be added to the direct mailing list for the next retreat, contact Mary Whiteside at 847-907-3450 or mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org.

Spiritual Direction

We realize that there are many challenges in life, and especially during a global pandemic. This might be a great time to explore the possibility of walking with a Spiritual Director, someone who can support you in your faith journey. We now have two trained Spiritual Directors at Holy Family, and also a connection to Spiritual Directors at Bellarmine Retreat Center. We would like to introduce you to this opportunity to:

- Open yourself to the sacred space of your true self
- Meet with a trained Spiritual Director one-on-one to explore God's call in your life and your response to that call.
- Grow in relationship with God.

If you are interested, please visit our website under Pastoral Care/Spiritual Direction or contact Mary Whiteside to get connected with one of our new Spiritual Directors. Mary can be reached at mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3450.

The Family & Teen Faith Community... offers faith formation
and catechesis
to preschool through elementary school aged children and
high school teens
and their families.

Faith Parents consider the following

Like all learning,
religious education
requires consistency.

If you skip this year, your child/teen will, not only lose out on this year's religious education, but incur learning losses from previous years.

Advantages of Digital Learning

- E-Learning is a safer option at this time.
- E-Learning provides families with the most flexibility.
- E-learning is often more efficient.
- E-learning offers us the possibility of personalizing faith formation, by catering to individual needs. It allows learners to choose their learning path and navigate at their own pace.
- E-learning leads to better retention. Modern learners prefer bite-sized, interactive content. E-learning tools enable us to make content interactive.
- E-learning allows us to engage our children, teens and parents in new ways.

If you have other questions or concerns please contact a FTF staff member.

Questions Parents are asking about Faith Classes

Will the FTF schedule remain the same? We are staying quite close to our normal schedule (September-April). The digital learning lessons will be designed to go for 45 minutes rather than our regular 90-minute lessons.

Are you expecting parents to teach their own children if we opt for at home digital learning? NO! The teaching part of the lesson will be presented via pre-recorded short videos. If Teen Faith families choose the weekly Zoom classes, Catechists and peer ministers provide the instruction.

Each lesson will include a range of engaging ways for children, teens and parents to choose from in exploring and sharing their faith with one another. For families with younger children, each e-learning lesson is designed to meet the needs of all grade levels, as opposed to separate lessons for each child. Families can do the e-lessons when it is most convenient for their schedule.

Is digital religious education effective? We believe, of course, in-person classes are more beneficial over all. However, at this time it is simply not safe to do so. We also recognize there are advantages digital learning provides (see sidebar)

How will children/teens/families receive their materials? Lesson plans will be posted on the Parish website, along with Flipgrid or Google Classroom links. Families will select a date and time via Sign-Up Genius at the beginning of September to pick-up the other materials they will need to complete the lessons.

Will Tuition Remain the Same? This year we will only use the participating parishioner rate. The Home Faith Tuition scale will follow the same schedule. The 2020-21 tuition schedule is available on the registration link – <https://holyfamilyparish.org/family-and-teen-faith-registration>

Salaries and benefits account for 70% of our annual budget. At the end of June, we cut one full-time position from FTF. Further staff cuts would result in cutting services. We will still need to purchase books and supplies, and this year we will have to pay subscriptions for some e-learning platforms and digital learning tools as well. Some of the learning aids we use in the various classrooms from year to year will now have to be purchased, so each family has access to them.

Tuition assistance is available to all registered parishioners. Please let us know, if you need assistance at the time of registration, by emailing Marta Robak, mrobak@holyfamilyparish.org.

GCFD Produce Mobile Distribution Thursday, September 10 - 7:30am-noon

Holy Family Parish will be distributing fresh produce from the Greater Chicago Food Depository in the remote parking lot on Thursday, Sept 10. If you would like to help with the distribution, contact Sue at 847-907-3443 or sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org. This will be a drive-through distribution to maintain social distancing between volunteers and guests. We ask for adults and children no younger than 12 years old. Due to the pandemic, numbers of people coming for food has doubled, so we need many hands to assist us in distributing the produce to our neighbors in need. We need helpers at 7:30am unloading pallets and setting up before the distribution and people to clean up until about noon. Distribution is outdoors rain or shine.

Holy Family's Statement Against the Sin of Racism

Individual and systemic racism, in our past and currently, is a sin. It is antithetical to the founding principles of our nation's Democracy, the vision of equality in which our God created us and the Gospel values of Jesus Christ. Sin is reconciled by truly acknowledging it, being as sincere as possible in asking for, and trusting in, God's forgiveness and genuinely committing to change through action.

WE here at Holy Family Catholic Community will carry out our commitment to reconciling racist sin by fully living out the seven principles of Catholic Social Teaching and will carry out that commitment through education, formation, discussion and engagement.

I ask all who call Holy Family home for a full and genuine commitment to this reconciliation.

Fr. Terry Keehan

"Life nowadays tells us that it is much easier to concentrate on what divides us, what keeps us apart. People try to make you believe that being closed in ourselves is the best way to keep safe from harm. Today, we adults need you to teach us, as you are doing today, how to live in diversity, in dialogue, to experience multiculturalism, not as a threat but an opportunity. You are an opportunity for the future."
