Walk the Walk and Do the Will

I know that it has been some time since almost all of you have been on our beautiful campus. Many of you have been here to celebrate Mass, but not able to congregate afterwards because of the current virus restrictions. Some of you might have gotten glimpses of our maintenance staff who have been working so hard to keep our campus clean and safe. This has been a monumental task and I want to commend the entire team for their hard work.

Many of you may simply remember that members of our hard working maintenance staff all wear light green shirts that identify them. The shirts have a collar and a pocket. They are very stylish, in my opinion. About six years ago I asked Ray Lacek from the staff if I could have a cool maintenance staff green shirt. Two days later, draped across the chair in my office, was the green shirt. I was proud to have it and talked a lot about having one.

One day I put the shirt on and was walking around the campus. Ron Biesiada, one of the senior members of the maintenance staff, noticed that I was wearing the shirt and heard me talking about it. As I passed Ron in the hallway he calmly said, "Terry, don't wear the shirt if you are not going to do the work." I have come to know Ron well since the beginning of my time here at Holy Family. He has been with us long before I arrived. I know that he meant no disrespect, and even admits that on one level he was kidding, but his words rang true to me and give me a lasting example of the importance of the old adage, "Don't talk the talk, walk the walk." This is also articulated as "Actions speak louder than words."

This whole concept is at the heart of our Gospel story this weekend. Jesus tells a story to the chief priests and the elders, the leaders who are always talking about God and promoting themselves as faithful and obedient to the Law, but also stuck in a tradition that is stagnant because of judgment towards others. Jesus perceived that this religious tradition, and hence they as leaders, was in need of change.

The story is of two sons given the same order by their father to work in the vineyard. One says "No," and changes his mind and actually works in the vineyard. The other initially says, "Yes," but never works. Jesus asks, "Which one walked the walk?" —or, more importantly and spiritually put—which one did The Father's (God's) will? The answer is easy. The first son actually did the work or the will of the father. The second lost integrity because his words and actions were not consistent.

It seems that the significant message here is that a change of heart leading to changed behavior is a powerful path towards doing God's will. Doing God's will is a matter of action, not words. We can all get stagnant and stuck if we cling to strong judgment and condemnation of others, as the Elders condemn the prostitutes (sexual sin) and tax collectors (sins of power). A change of heart for them could have led to doing the Father's will. Let us all apply these lessons to our lives.

This weekend we will begin live streaming Masses, starting with the first two of three First Communion Masses, and 9:00am Mass Sunday morning. Our pre-recorded Mass will no longer be available, but following the live 9:00am Mass the streamed Mass will be available for viewing any time on our website. Just go to the tab on the website marked Live Streamed Mass. The 5:00pm Saturday evening Mass will not be available initially, but please be patient as we work out some kinks in the very labor intensive live streaming process, particularly as we add some of the unique Holy Family elements.

We congratulate our young Academy and Family Faith parishioners making their First Communion this weekend and next weekend. These students have been very patient in waiting to celebrate this very important milestone.

Racism

We are continually offering resources for a heightened awareness and education around Racism and its sin. More are offered on our website following our parish statement on Racism. One of our first steps is to clarify terms such as:

Implicit Bias – the attitudes or stereotypes that impact understanding, actions, and decisions in an unconscious manner. These biases, which encompass both favorable and unfavorable assessments, are activated involuntarily and without an individual's awareness or intentional control.

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for October 4, Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time, and then reflect on these questions:

Liturgical Arts

holyfamilyparish.org

The Liturgical Arts Community... creates a vibrant prayer and worship experience so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and worship experiences, for all attending Holy Family.

1. Like the vineyard in Isaiah, how are we failing to take care of God's vineyard in our community, country and world?
2. In the first reading, is God acting out of love, anger or both?
3. Paul provides a list of things we should focus on so the God of peace will be with us. What prevents us from feeling this peace as often as we should?
4. In the Gospel parable, we hear: "This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance." What could the tenants possibly hope to gain from this desperate, illogical act? What today seems desperate and illogical?
5. In the Gospel, we also hear: "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." What causes people to not recognize and reject the cornerstone?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

What God-given gifts do you possess that have the potential to nurture someone struggling with poverty, prejudice or injustice? Have your efforts produced fruit?

HOPE

Our Adult Faith Life team invites you to focus on HOPE in the months ahead with us! The colder days are coming, and with the pandemic still impacting our lives, we need to remember that our God doesn't ever leave us without hope!

We have chosen some offerings to remind us that even in the most difficult days, we can rest in our faith and trust that new life is ahead. We would love for you to join in on our discussions. HOPEFULLY you were able to pick up your "HOPECORN" bag at Holy Family over the last two weeks, and you are ready for a good movie!

Please watch the movie, The Shawshank Redemption, at home and join us on Zoom on one of the following dates to discuss the movie with Fr. Terry.

"We need to participate for the common good. Sometimes we hear: a good Catholic is not interested in politics. This is not true: good Catholics immerse themselves in politics by offering the best of themselves so that the leader can govern."

- Pope Francis, 9/16/13

The League of Women's Voters is providing important information about voting in the upcoming election.

Will you vote... By mail? In person early? In person on Election Day? YOUR VOTE IS YOUR VOICE. www.lwvpalatinearea.org

It's a good idea to plan ahead! If you use a mail-in ballot, return your completed ballot as soon as possible by USPS, secure drop box, or in person:

- USPS: Your ballot must be postmarked by November 3, but don't wait until the last minute! It is best to allow at least two weeks for your completed ballot to reach the election authority.
- Secure drop box: Your county will post on its web site the secure drop boxes' locations, dates they will be available, and other helpful information. The dates and locations will vary; many secure drop boxes will be inside early voting locations starting October 19. No postage will be needed to return your completed ballot via drop box. ID may be requested.
- In person delivery to an election authority: Check your county's web site for locations and office hours. If you wish to vote in person before Election Day: Early voting is widely available October 19 - November 2, though a few locations begin earlier. Check your county's web site for updated information.

If you wish to vote in person on Election Day, Tuesday, November 3, go to your assigned precinct. Verify the location before you go because some polling locations have been changed for this election.

Still need to register to vote or to confirm your registration? Go to the Illinois Online Voter Registration Application website as soon as you can because the online voter registration system will close at 11:59 p.m. on October 18, 2020. Go to <https://ova.elections.il.gov>

Have you applied for your Vote by Mail ballot? Your application must be received by October 29, but don't wait! Due to possible mail processing delays, USPS recommends applying no later than October 19. If you apply online, Suburban Cook County will notify you via email when your ballot has been mailed to you, when it receives your completed ballot, or if it has a question.
