All Saints' Day

There are seventeen Solemnities throughout the Church year marking liturgical celebrations worldwide. In addition, individual countries and certain religious orders celebrate Solemnities for events and saints with a particular local significance. A Solemnity is a feast day of the highest rank celebrating:

- a mystery of faith, such as the Trinity
- an event in the life of Jesus, such as the Annunciation of his birth, his Resurrection, his Ascension into heaven
- significant events in the life of Mary, the Mother of Jesus
- the life of a significant saint.

All Saints' Day, always celebrated on November 1, falls on this Sunday. Almost always, when a Solemnity falls on a Sunday, it takes precedent over the regular weekend calendar. The readings and theme of the Mass are focused on the Solemnity, and so we will do so this Sunday.

All Saints' Day is always an opportunity to highlight, or reflect on, a particular saint that we find inspiring or interesting, but it also invites us to consider the union, or communion, or holy union not only of the canonized saints (those formally recognized by the Church), but also the Holy Communion that our deceased loved ones are sharing with them now.

The Feast of All Souls' follows the next day, November 2, in the calendar. All Souls is not a Solemnity, but the fact that it follows All Saints' Day so immediately, it is easy to make the connection and expand what we believe to be "The Communion of Saints." This spiritual exercise can be ongoing as we take All Souls' Day to continually commend our deceased loved ones to God and trust in their communion with the saints.

We will have a special celebration of All Souls' this coming Monday, November 2, at 7:00 pm via livestream. Unfortunately, we will not be able to have people gather in church, but we will celebrate a special Mass that memorializes any of our deceased loved ones or friends, and particularly those who have died in the past year as well as a special prayerful mention of those whose funerals also have been celebrated here at Holy Family. In addition, this year we will also be remembering the 1.16 million people who have died world-wide with some complication of Covid-19 contributing to their death.

Please participate in this Mass. Access the All Souls' Mass by going to our website and pray along. We encourage you to place a photo of your deceased loved one close to you accompanied by a candle near the photo. This could be a very prayerful remembrance of them, and be yet another way of commending them to the Communion of Saints with God.

This time of remembering can be tender and emotional. The prayer we share may surface emotions and grief that are quite strong and, hopefully, some gratitude for the blessings that your deceased loved one brought to your life.

A poem written by Sr. Roberto Allen, an Ursuline nun and the aunt of our parishioner Marianne Hogan, gives another perspective on the dying and rising cycle, particularly at this time of year.

A maple tree against the sky,
a flaming breath of God most high.

It tells the world that life must change,
but beauty comes despite life's pain.

And then one morn the flame was gone, but thru truth I knew – life goes on.

A naked tree arms lifted high,
cries out to me, "Life does not die."

For in the spring the buds will come,
and Resurrection, like His Son.

Ah, sad for those who only see,
the flaming autumn in the tree.

May all of our departed loved ones rest in the peace of our eternal God. May the families of those who have died with some complication of Covid-19 know of our prayers for them.

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for November 8, 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, and then reflect on these questions:

Liturgical Arts

The Liturgical Arts Community... creates a vibrant prayer and worship experience so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and worship experiences, for all attending Holy Family.

1. Our first reading tells us that “Wisdom is found by those who seek her.” Have you found wisdom through prayer? How have you used this newfound wisdom?
2. Paul reassures us that death is not the end. How are we encouraging others with this belief?
3. How close do you think we are to the 2nd Coming of Christ?
4. Like the five bridesmaids, what have you learned from an experience where you were unprepared?
5. The recurring theme of these readings is salvation and growing our faith individually and as a community. How can we use these readings to grow our faith as we approach Advent?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

What service projects or ministries are you engaged in that keep you awake and ready to welcome the “bridegroom”? How do you remain steadfast even when the work is laborious and you don’t feel a sense of accomplishment?

The Adult Faith Community... supports the mission of lifelong learning by providing educational, spiritual, and formational activities for the parish and the community.

Monday, November 2, 2020 is the Feast of All Souls, a day when we spend time in prayer remembering those who have entered eternal life. In a special way, Holy Family will be remembering those who have died and had their funerals at Holy Family this past year, as well as all who have lost their lives to COVID-19 around the world.

We invite you to share in this prayerful evening. This Mass will be offered as a livestream experience. We encourage you to visit our website www.holyfamilyparish.org at 7:00 pm on Monday, November 2 and to be with us by clicking on the link to the Mass on our home page. Please join us from the comfort of your own home. Place a photo of your loved one who has died and a candle near you as you participate. All are welcome to join us in prayer and remembrance.

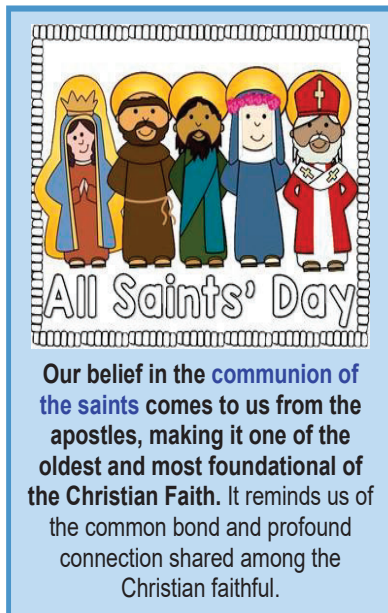

After a long period of anticipation, most of our RCIA group from 2019-2020 was finally able to celebrate their Sacraments on Sunday, September 20, 2020 (two more have chosen to wait until the Easter Vigil of 2021). It was a beautiful day and a powerful celebration as we welcomed our newest members to the faith. Congratulations, Neophytes!

The Family & Teen Faith Community... offers faith formation and catechesis to preschool through elementary school aged children and high school teens and their families.

We are all saints in the making!

This is a big weekend – Halloween (Oct 31), All Saints Day (Nov 1) and All Souls Day (Nov 2). All three of these celebrations focus on connections.

The spiritual genius of Christianity is the fundamental belief that through our relationship with Christ we are one.

“There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus”. (Galatians 3:28).

The salvation of Christ is for all. In a world fractured by division and the violence employed to maintain these divisions, the Christian teachings of universal salvation and the equality of all believers was new in biblical times and astonished many (and still does). Christians made, and still make their commitment to communion, tangible in the celebration of the Eucharist and in the Christians care for all those in need.

Christ's resurrection and the promise of new life, expands our understanding of the bond we share to include the living and those who have died. As the Christian community grew and developed, our understanding of Baptism evolved as well. Rather than being a single choice made at a particular time, we came to see Baptism as an on-going reality. As our relationship with Christ deepens, we continue to become more like Him. The Holy Spirit, received in Baptism, inspires and guides or sanctifies us, to be our best selves – reflections of God's glory and goodness in the world, in short a saint.

Saints are not perfect. They struggle with the same challenges we all struggle in becoming our best selves. What sets the saints apart is their commitment to developing their relationship with Christ. Their effort, draws them closer to Christ and to their neighbors. They cultivate within themselves what the Church refers to as the unum necessarium – the ability to know in any given moment, in any given situation what is needed – what is necessary.

CONNECTING WITH FAMILY LIFE

The most resilient relationships most of us share between birth and death are among those we call family. It is our families who play the earliest and most enduring influence in shaping who we are and who we are becoming. What we are, according to God, is good, for we are made in the image of God, the Most Holy. What we are called to be are saints, men and women who reflect the glory and goodness of our creator.

Becoming our best selves takes effort and encouragement. As Catholics, we believe that encouragement comes through many – our families, friends, co-workers, neighbors and yes all those who accompany us as we journey toward the fullness of life in Christ, including the citizens of heaven - the angels and saints. On this All Saint's Day, let us renew our personal commitment to support and encourage each other.

REMEMBER

Knowing what is needed does not guarantee doing what is needed.

This is why the Church lifts up or canonizes Christians of all ages, from diverse times and cultures, to be examples for us.

The Human Concerns

Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

The person is not only sacred but also social. How we organize our society-- in economics and politics, in law and policy -- directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. Marriage and the family are the central social institutions that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined. We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

Economic and social policies as well as organization of the work world should be continually evaluated in light of their impact on the strength and stability of family life. The long-range future of this nation is intimately linked with the well-being of families, for the family is the most basic form of human community. Efficiency and competition in the marketplace must be moderated by greater concern for the way work schedules and compensation support or threaten the bonds between spouses and between parents and children. Economic Justice for All, #93

GIVING THANKS TO GOD

God is with us in every moment of our lives. Let us take time this month to be sure to be thankful for the many blessings God gives us.

Enter the temple gates with praise, its courts with thanksgiving.

Give thanks to God, bless his name.

Good indeed is the Lord,

Whose love endures forever;

whose faithfulness lasts through every age. Psalms 100:4-5

The Sin of Racism

“We cannot tolerate or turn a blind eye to racism and exclusion in any form, yet claim to defend the sacredness of every human life.”

“At the same time, we have to recognize that violence is self-destructive and self-defeating. Nothing is gained by violence and so much is lost. Let us pray for reconciliation and peace.”

Pope Francis, June 3, 2020

Holiday Sharing Tags

Christmas is not that far away. Holy Family is committed to serving individuals in need, especially this year, through the Holiday Sharing Tag program as they struggle more than ever due to the pandemic. Instead of the tags hanging in the narthex, these “tags” will be listed on Sign Up Genius on our website - holyfamilyparish.org - under Volunteer Opportunities. As we have done in the past, we will be supporting children and adults from Hopeful Beginnings, Little City, St. Joseph’s Home for the Elderly and WINGS. Due to the COVID-19 virus, we are asking for gift certificates only in order to limit the need of collecting, handling and delivering gifts. It will also be easy to mail your gift card in or drop it off securely at the parish. Gifts cards are due back to Holy Family by Sunday, November 22. More details are on Sign Up Genius. Your gift card will surely be a bright light of hope this Christmas. Contact Barb at bstec58622@gmail.com with questions.
