Exponential Awareness and Concern

Former Chicago Bulls basketball coach Phil Jackson wrote a book entitled Sacred Hoops. In it he comments, "It is better to be aware than it is to be smart." If you know anything about Jackson, you know that he is very philosophical and finds a heightened sense of awareness for himself through Zen Buddhism. Jackson is a very reflective man.

I believe that this is a time that calls for heightened awareness, what I call an exponential amount of awareness of how our behavior might not simply affect those we encounter, even at a six-foot distance, but all those who encounter those we encounter during this Covid challenge. We still don't know everything about this virus, so let us all be more aware of what we do and who might be affected by it.

Christ the King

The overriding image of the kingliness of Christ in the scriptures this weekend is that of shepherd. As we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King and bring to a close this church year, consider the attributes and actions proclaimed in the readings that guide us.

From Ezekiel, we hear that as a shepherd the Lord tends his flock and that he will look after us. This shepherd/Lord/King seems to have special compassion for the scattered sheep and the ones who need to be rescued. He seeks out, brings back and binds up. This shepherd heals, and there is much that we need healing for these days, and so let us turn to this shepherd/king in prayer for it.

Our Psalm is number 23, perhaps one of the most recognizable pieces of scripture, simply states, "The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want." The Lord leads us to rest, guides us, anoints us. These are communal statements for us all, but the psalm ends, and, in fact, in its entirety is written in the first person, "I shall dwell in house of the Lord forever."

The Gospel passage from Matthew paints the picture of Christ as a glorious king sitting on a throne in judgement, separating sheep from goats according to their responses to others in need. The two groups share a blindness to Christ's presence in those least in social stature but most in need. "When did we see you with such needs?" they ask.

I believe that a significant amount of human nature leads us to our failures to both recognize Christ in and comfort those in need. Perhaps the image of the shepherd King can help us to recognize when we did reach out to those in need and truly recognized Him in even the least in our midst. As you reflect, I bet you will be surprised at how much good you did. If not, it is never too late because the shepherd king is seeking you out, binding you up, rescuing, and most importantly, healing you.

Christmas Schedule

Once again, thank you to all who responded to the recent survey seeking your feedback about your intentions to worship with us live on either Christmas Eve or Christmas Day. We are still crafting a schedule based on our observations of changing worship habits and protocols from the State and Archdiocese that may change at any time.

Remember, you must register for Masses on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. Please pass the word to others that this must be done in order for us to provide the many volunteers needed to host Masses safely. Accessing our website enables you to register for all masses, to get the most updated information and tap into some really good spiritual resources. Pass the word to go to our website!!

Gala Reveal

It is hard to believe that we have begun planning for our 2021 Gala already. I want to thank our chair couples, Chad and Roshny Archer and Cobey and Erich Struckmeyer.

This promises to be a truly unique, virtual Gala with some portions pre-recorded and some live, and you will begin hearing promotion for the event being held on Saturday, February 27.

This year's theme is "Live From Hoy Family, It's Saturday Night!" Please be attentive to details as they become available. The evening will be more kid friendly and inclusive and less expensive than previous years. Get ready to incorporate your favorite Saturday Night Live routines and spread the word farther and wider than in previous years to increase participation by your family and friends. The virtual nature of the Gala will enable us to do so this year. Thanks in advance for your participation and support.

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for November 29, The First Sunday of Advent, and then reflect on these questions:

Gene Garcia
Director of Liturgical Arts
847-907-3434
ggarcia@
holyfamilyparish.org

The Liturgical Arts Community... creates a vibrant prayer and worship experience so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and worship experiences, for all attending Holy Family.

1. Isaiah says: "Why do you let us wander, O Lord, from your ways, and harden our hearts so that we fear you not?" How does everyday life contribute to us "wandering from his ways?" When this happens, what brings us back?
2. We also hear in Isaiah that God does "awesome deeds we could not hope for." When has God surprised you?
3. Paul tells the Corinthians: "for the grace of God bestowed on you in Christ Jesus ... you are not lacking in any spiritual gift." What are the times when you are most aware of spiritual gifts?
4. Mark's Gospel is about being watchful and alert. What are the things that we need to be particularly watchful of?
5. With all the unrest in 2020, what gives you HOPE this Advent season?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

Life's "busy-ness" and distractions make it difficult to stay alert and ready at a moment's notice, especially for people living in poverty as they are burdened to continually meet their basic needs of food, clothing and shelter. How are you an advocate for the poor?

Congratulations to our newly baptized and welcome into the Body of Christ and Holy Family!

The Adult Faith

supports the mission of lifelong learning by providing educational,
spiritual, and formational activities for the parish and the community.

This year we will not be ordering the Little Blue Advent Prayer books, but there are a couple of ways you can get them. We encourage you (and your SCC groups) to join us in becoming paperless, especially during this pandemic. The Little Books organization is now offering an app so you can access the Advent, Lent and Easter devotions. Go to the App Store on your smart phone and look for "Little Books." The app will offer you the option of purchasing the entire three (Advent, Lent, Easter) sets of reflections for $10.

If you prefer a hard copy of the books, you may order them at www.littlebooks.org. The cost is $4.00 per book. If you choose this option, the books are also available in large print and ebook format.

May your prayer life be rich as we prepare for these holy seasons!

The Tenacious and Gentle Mystery of Hope
(ZOOM Presentation)
Presented by
Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson
Tuesday, December 1, 2020
6:30 – 8:30 pm

Enter into the mystery of hope with this inspirational presentation by our beloved friend, Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson. His ever thoughtful, personal, story-telling style brings us to the truth of who we are, and connects us to the hope that is inside us. Come and rest for a while, and be in the light during this time of challenge.

To register and receive your Zoom link, please contact Marsha Adamczyk at madamczyk@holymfamilyparish.org

Tune in with Terry

We will be taking a break during the month of November from our Tune in with Terry sessions. We invite you to mark your calendar for our December sessions:

Wednesday, December 16, 2020 at 7:00pm –
A discussion about Advent
Wednesday, December 30, 2020 at 7:00pm –
A discussion about Epiphany

If you haven't joined us for Tune in with Terry yet, it is a short presentation by Fr. Terry followed by relaxed and "come as you are" conversation on the topic of the night. We have found that this allows for great community time and a little freedom from all the things weighing us down. Please plan to attend and let's focus on the HOPE that comes at Christmas.

The Human Concerns Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

The person is not only sacred but also social. How we organize our society-- in economics and politics, in law and policy -- directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. Marriage and the family are the central social institutions that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined. We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

The nation's founders took daring steps to create structures of participation, mutual accountability, and widely distributed power to ensure the political rights and freedoms of all. We believe that similar steps are needed today to expand economic participation, broaden the sharing of economic power, and make economic decisions more accountable to the common good. Economic Justice for All, #297

Give Thanks

"In all created things discern the providence and wisdom of God, and in all things give Him thanks." - St. Teresa of Avila

We always need to be giving thanks to the Lord. Without him, nothing is possible. Our whole life must be ordered to give the Lord thanks through our thoughts, actions and prayers. Our infinite God created us, finite human beings to love Him. How crazy is that? God made each little thing for our good. Take 5 minutes today and tell God what gifts from Him you are thankful for.

The Sin of Racism

"We cannot tolerate or turn a blind eye to racism and exclusion in any form, yet claim to defend the sacredness of every human life." "At the same time, we have to recognize that violence is self-destructive and self-defeating. Nothing is gained by violence and so much is lost. Let us pray for reconciliation and peace."
