Changes in Remembering our Dearly Deceased

As is the case with just about everything else, the Covid restrictions have presented challenges to our normal procedures of remembering our dearly deceased loved ones. However, as in many cases, these restrictions also offer opportunities for us to be more inclusive and even more prayerful, and so it is with this special remembrance.

We offered a Mass that was exclusively livestreamed with only ministers in attendance for All Souls' this past Monday evening, and it was very well attended online and very well received. We are confident that we offered a very prayerful experience to many who are grieving. The encouragement of families to have a photo of their departed loved ones and a candle near enhanced the prayer.

Going forward we will have a beautiful Book of the Dead in which we will enshrine the names of deceased loved ones and displayed as Covid restrictions allow.

Our presiders will be more intentional in pausing to "...remember all of our deceased loved ones whom we once again commend to your (God's) mercy" during the Eucharistic Prayer.

During the month of November, our beautiful (and larger than most) paschal candle will remain in our sanctuary as a visible reminder to those present, as well as to those joining each Mass via livestream, that our loved ones share in the eternal light of Christ. The Book of the Dead will be next to that candle.

We will no longer display in our chapel the large framed list of people whose funerals we have held here at Holy Family because of its limited exposure in our chapel. We also are confident that we can be more inclusive of our departed loved ones going forward and not only those whose funerals have been held here.

Fr. Michael McGivney Presented for Sainthood

As we celebrated All Saints Day last week, we were also excited to share that Fr. Michael McGivney, the founder of the Knights of Columbus, is being presented to the larger worldwide church for sainthood. This formal process of recognition begins with waiting five years after the person's death. The bishop of the diocese where the person died opens up an investigation into their life, then proof of a life of heroic virtue follows by verification of miracles directly attributed to the person being considered. The verification of miracles brings with it the title 'Blessed' and the final step is canonization.

Fr. McGivney died in 1890 after serving in New Haven, Connecticut as a parish priest. He founded the Knights as a mutual aid and fraternal insurance organization, particularly for immigrants and their families. It has developed into the world's largest Catholic fraternal organization.

This news is received with particular joy and excitement by our own Knights of Columbus here at Holy Family. I want to take this opportunity to again thank them for the charitable ministry that they share to make our parish and church stronger. The Knights are always supportive and, as you may well know, have a particular fondness for feeding us at our Knights Cafes following Mass along with many other events.

Survey for Christmas

Christmas is coming. I know we haven't even had Thanksgiving or started Advent yet, but we always begin to plan for both Christmas and Advent together, selecting a theme and preparing to welcome so many of you and so many who don't regularly join us. This year we face a unique challenge of preparing for the unknown factors of changing pandemic protocols from the state and the Archdiocese, and the general unknown regarding how many people will join us, thus requiring a radically changed Mass schedule for Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. In order to best serve you and our many guests, please fill out the survey that will we will be sending out this week. Your input and feedback will help us prepare for a most prayerful Christmas. Thank you!!!

This Weekend's Scripture Question

Are you prepared for the feasts of life that will come unexpectedly? See Matthew 25:1-13 for details.

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for November 15, 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, and then reflect on these questions:

The Liturgical Arts

Community...

creates a vibrant prayer and worship experience so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and worship experiences, for all attending Holy Family.

1. In Proverbs we are told "Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting." Why is this warning even more important in our secular world today?

2. Our first reading seems to contradict how women were typically depicted in scripture. What was the author trying to teach us?

3. Paul talks about: "Peace and security, then sudden disaster." How have the events of 2020 changed you?

4. Why wasn't it good enough to just bury and save the one talent? What is the lesson for us?

5. What talents has God granted you that you will make better use of in 2021?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

We all have God-given talents. What are your talents and how do you share them on behalf of others in need? What inhibits you from sharing them at times?

Congratulations to our newly baptized and welcome into the Body of Christ and Holy Family!

Tuesday, November 17, 2020

10:00 am – 11:00 am

Hope is the way into the future. The way into the kingdom of God is hope. Hope is the theological virtue that helps us move forward. We aren't going to be here forever, hope helps us leave a more just, compassionate and loving world. Hope helps us to inspire others and pass it on as has happened to us.

The Tenacious and Gentle Mystery of Hope

(ZOOM Presentation)

Presented by

Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson

Tuesday, December 1, 2020

6:30 – 8:30 pm

Enter into the mystery of hope with this inspirational presentation by our beloved friend, Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson. His ever thoughtful, personal, story-telling style brings us to the truth of who we are, and connects us to the hope that is inside us. Come and rest for a while, and be in the light during this time of challenge.

To register and receive your Zoom link, please contact Marsha Adamczyk at madamczyk@holymfamilyparish.org

Tune in with Terry

We will be taking a break during the month of November from our Tune in with Terry sessions. We invite you to mark your calendar for our December sessions:

Wednesday, December 16, 2020 – A discussion about Advent
Wednesday, December 30, 2020 – A discussion about Epiphany

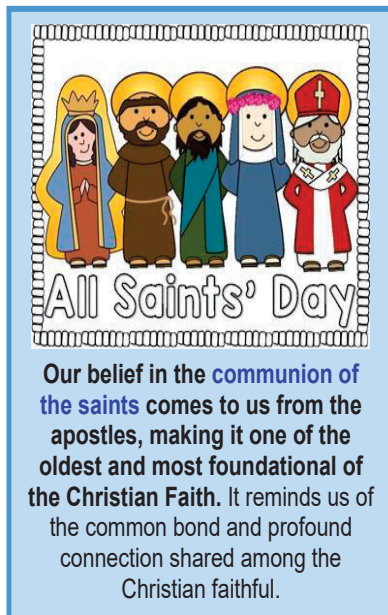

If you haven't joined us for Tune in with Terry yet, it is a short presentation by Fr. Terry followed by relaxed and "come as you are" conversation on the topic of the night. We have found that this allows for great community time and a little freedom from all the things weighing us down. Please plan to attend and let's focus on the HOPE that comes at Christmas.

We are all saints in the making!

This is a big weekend – Halloween (Oct 31), All Saints Day (Nov 1) and All Souls Day (Nov 2). All three of these celebrations focus on connections.

The spiritual genius of Christianity is the fundamental belief that through our relationship with Christ we are one.

"There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus". (Galatians 3:28).

The salvation of Christ is for all. In a world fractured by division and the violence employed to maintain these divisions, the Christian teachings of universal salvation and the equality of all believers was new in biblical times and astonished many (and still does). Christians made, and still make their commitment to communion, tangible in the celebration of the Eucharist and in the Christians care for all those in need.

Christ's resurrection and the promise of new life, expands our understanding of the bond we share to include the living and those who have died. As the Christian community grew and developed, our understanding of Baptism evolved as well. Rather than being a single choice made at a particular time, we came to see Baptism as an on-going reality. As our relationship with Christ deepens, we continue to become more like Him. The Holy Spirit, received in Baptism, inspires and guides or sanctifies us, to be our best selves – reflections of God's glory and goodness in the world, in short a saint.

Saints are not perfect. They struggle with the same challenges we all struggle in becoming our best selves. What sets the saints apart is their commitment to developing their relationship with Christ. Their effort, draws them closer to Christ and to their neighbors. They cultivate within themselves what the Church refers to as the unum necessarium – the ability to know in any given moment, in any given situation what is needed – what is necessary.

REMEMBER

Knowing what is needed does not guarantee doing what is needed.

This is why the Church lifts up or canonizes Christians of all ages, from diverse times and cultures, to be examples for us.

CONNECTING WITH FAMILY LIFE

The most resilient relationships most of us share between birth and death are among those we call family. It is our families who play the earliest and most enduring influence in shaping who we are and who we are becoming. What we are, according to God, is good, for we are made in the image of God, the Most Holy. What we are called to be are saints, men and women who reflect the glory and goodness of our creator.

Becoming our best selves takes effort and encouragement. As Catholics, we believe that encouragement comes through many – our families, friends, co-workers, neighbors and yes all those who accompany us as we journey toward the fullness of life in Christ, including the citizens of heaven - the angels and saints. On this All Saint's Day, let us renew our personal commitment to support and encourage each other.

Christmas is not that far away. Holy Family is committed to serving individuals in need, especially this year, through the Holiday Sharing Tag program as they struggle more than ever due to the pandemic. Instead of the tags hanging in the narthex, these "tags" will be listed on Sign Up Genius on our website - holyfamilyparish.org - under Volunteer Opportunities. As we have done in the past, we will be supporting children and adults from Hopeful Beginnings, Little City, St. Joseph's Home for the Elderly and WINGS. Due to the COVID-19 virus, we are asking for gift certificates only in order to limit the need of collecting, handling and delivering gifts. It will also be easy to mail your gift card in or drop it off securely at the parish. Gifts cards are due back to Holy Family by Sunday, November 22. More details are on Sign Up Genius. Your gift card will surely be a bright light of hope this Christmas. Contact Barb at bstec58622@gmail.com with questions.

God of compassion,
God of dignity and strength,
Watch over the veterans of the United States
In recognition of their loyal service to our nation.
Bless them with wholeness and love.
Shelter them.
Heal their wounds,
Comfort their hearts.
Grant them peace.

God of justice and truth,
Rock of our lives,
Bless our veterans,
These men and women of courage and valor,
With a deep and abiding understanding
Of our profound gratitude.
Protect them and their families from loneliness and

May their dedication and honor
Be remembered as a blessing
From generation to generation.
