Angels and Images

During my recent “Tune in With Terry” zoom session that focused on the readings for the Fourth Sunday of Advent, we had a very engaged crowd and a stimulating discussion. The Gospel story under consideration was the Annunciation, Luke 1:26-38. In it the Angel Gabriel appears to Mary and announces that she will give birth to a baby, who will become an eternal King who fulfills God’s promise to another king, David. But the Christ Child King will reign over a forever kingdom.

Our discussion highlighted the fascination that so many have with angels. We shared various experiences of angels in our lives. We considered what it would be like to have an angel appear to us as well as how Mary felt at the apparition of Gabriel. We shared stories of angel apparitions in varying levels from very concrete and real to images and sightings that reminded us of angels. I was once again put in touch with the intrigue of these heavenly messengers.

May I suggest a simple spiritual exercise to do as a family to connect the Feast of the Holy Family that we focus on this weekend, and the angels in our midst? Have a family discussion similar to the one on our zoom, asking, How would you feel if an angel appeared to you? Have you ever seen an angel? Where have you seen images of angels?

We are actually surrounded by many beautiful figurines, lawn ornaments, paintings, pictures and sculptures of angels, expressing even further the human fascination with them. Images of angels often comfort us, but they certainly can inspire as well.

One such inspiration moved the heart of my friend, Jack Shea. You have heard me quote Jack quite a bit out of respect and admiration for his deep spiritual insights. Jack is a theologian and storyteller, but he is also a poet and the image of an angel created by his wife Anne inspired him to write this beautiful poem included in their Christmas card that conveys such a peaceful message.

Enjoy for yourself Anne’s art and Jack’s poetry.

It happens when we least expect it.

When we wake in the night with worries of the day.
When we mask a child
too young to have her face unseen.
When we ache to see people
but fear to invite them.
When we touch a forehead and hope it is not hot.

Suddenly comfort comes,
arriving as grace
into exhaustion.

It must be a mistake.
Nothing has changed.

Dare we allow it in?

Are the angels of Bethlehem
still wandering the world,
trumpets uplifted,
visiting us with Christmas news?

“There is One among you who brings peace.”

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for January 3, The Epiphany of the Lord, and then reflect on these questions:

The Liturgical Arts Community... creates a vibrant prayer
and worship experience so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and worship experiences, for all attending Holy Family.

1. In view of COVID, how was your Christmas experience different this season? What really touched or stayed with you?
2. How have the words of the prophets, especially Isaiah, strengthened your faith?
3. Paul could be viewed as the ultimate missionary. Why?
4. Epiphany celebrates the revelation of God incarnate as Jesus Christ. Are there times you focus on Jesus as only human or only divine, and other times as both?
5. Have you ever been warned by God – in a dream or otherwise – to go down another road?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

The second reading from Ephesians talks about the commissioning of God's grace. What does this mean in your life and how does this commissioning relate to anyone experiencing racial bias and discrimination?

Congratulations to our newly baptized and welcome into the Body of Christ and Holy Family!

Spiritual Direction

Are you wondering about God's movement in your life, or wanting help bring God in a little closer from what sometimes feels like a long distance? If so, we have Spiritual Directors who are happy to spend some time with you to guide you through your spiritual wonderings.

Our Spiritual Directors are trained in Spiritual Direction and are well versed in Christian spiritual practices. If you would be interested in speaking with one of them, please contact Mary Whiteside and she will help connect you. Visit our website for more information. Go to www.holyfamilyparish.org, click on the Pastoral Care tab and then on "Spiritual Direction."

Challenging times sometimes call for a spiritual "tune up." Let us know if we can help! All inquiries will be kept confidential.

Tune in with Terry

We invite you to mark your calendar for our next Tune in with Terry session:

Wednesday, December 30, 2020 at 7:00pm –
A discussion about Epiphany

If you haven't joined us for Tune in with Terry yet, it is a short presentation by Fr. Terry followed by relaxed and "come as you are" conversation on the topic of the night. We have found that this allows for great community time and a little freedom from all the things weighing us down. Please plan to attend and let's focus on the HOPE of the Christmas season.

THE ART OF SPIRITUAL READING OF THE PSALMS

4 Thursdays, January 7, 14, 21, 28, 2021
ZOOM sessions, 9:45am to 10:45am

The Psalms are a never-ending treasure trove of wisdom and grace, so we are taking a "deep dive" into these Scriptural readings this season. In the fall we completed the outstanding series about "The Psalms" offered by Anne Madsen. On four Thursday mornings in January, we will continue with our study of the Psalms by hosting Dr. Elizabeth Nagel (back by popular demand!) as she teaches us the art of spiritual reading of the Psalms. This study will not be a duplicate of the fall series, but rather a look at other Psalms and their spiritual depth. There is no fee for this program.

Registration is required by contacting

They are trained in recovery support, mentoring, and advocacy and are ready to listen and support you. Holy Family's Statement Against the Sin of Racism Individual and systemic racism, in our past and currently, is a sin. It is antithetical to the founding principles of our nation's Democracy, the vision of equality in which our God created us and the Gospel values of Jesus Christ. Sin is reconciled by truly acknowledging it, being as sincere as possible in asking for, and trusting in, God's forgiveness and genuinely committing to change through action.

WE here at Holy Family Catholic Community will carry out our commitment to reconciling racist sin by fully living out the seven principles of Catholic Social Teaching and will carry out that commitment through education, formation, discussion and engagement.

I ask all who call Holy Family home for a full and genuine commitment to this reconciliation.
