At the Table

Beginning next Saturday and Sunday and continuing for the weekend of February 6 & 7 we will host a special two-week homily series entitled At the Table. This is a unique, unscripted, honest and candid presentation about the Eucharist. Perhaps you have heard the questions in the promotion of this series before Mass recently. Has Covid kept you away or something deeper? Are you Catholic out of obligation or desire? Do you come to the Eucharist with love or indifference?

The recent protocols for safety in the midst of the pandemic have placed restrictions on the availability of the 'Live' celebration of the Eucharist. We have worked very hard to offer taped masses and virtual live streamed experiences and, although helpful, these have also, in their own way, forced us to reflect on the very essence of the Eucharistic gathering, particularly the REALITY of Christ's presence in it.

Analytics have shown us that the vast majority of people viewing online log off after the homily. This fact has stirred us as a staff to look deeper at our collective experience of Christ's REAL presence in the Eucharistic gathering – in the people gathered, the stories of scripture proclaimed, the person of the priest, and the elements of bread and wine.

My greatest conviction is that the most powerful experience of grace in the Sacrament comes from sharing it. I sense a decline over the years in appreciation of this grace.

Our Church holds and conveys so many long standing and beautiful teachings about the sacredness of the Eucharist and we here at Holy Family put forth so much effort to recast that sacredness in creative, vibrant, engaging, progressive and relevant ways. We take our responsibility to lead the celebration of the Eucharist reverently and to share that sacredness in a way that helps to feed the spiritual hunger of our parishioners and those we invite to join us through the prayerfulness of our Masses.

As Catholics, we believe in a God who has given himself to us in Jesus, and in the Eucharist Jesus gives himself to us. That is one of the most succinct ways that I can describe the miracle and power of the Mass. It is a profoundly deep spiritual exercise that celebrates who we are as the body of Christ. Last week I shared in my homily that God calls us five ways: personally; as a universal people through Baptism; repeatedly throughout our lives; in various aspects of our lives; and finally, collectively in the Eucharist.

The power and grace of the Eucharist has been proclaimed through countless reflections, books, teachings, writings, songs and other vehicles of our faith. We feel that this candid and fresh presentation will help the sacredness of the Eucharist to grow in our hearts and thus impact our lives in a new and even more grace-filled way.

Please join us live for any of the four Masses, two on each Saturday evening and two on Sunday morning, via the live streamed 9:00am Sunday Mass. PLEASE SPREAD THE WORD about this special presentation. Invite others to attend or view At the Table.

Catholic Schools Week February 1-5

This weekend we welcome our Principal Kate O'Brien for a brief presentation at Mass to share an update about our Academy. We have had 425 children here on campus five days a week since the beginning of the year in late August. Over 40 students have chosen the virtual experience at home but are integrated into the learning environment with their classmates. Covid has created many challenges, but our HFCA staff and faculty have out-created the virus by offering an even greater learning environment.

There will be virtual tour opportunities to learn about our cutting-edge Academy in the afternoons of Catholic Schools Week from Monday, February 1 to Friday, February 5 at holyfamilyacademy.net. Please join us in spreading the word about our great school.

Fishers of People

This week's Gospel urges us all to be more than fishers, but fishers of people. It invites us to expand and even transform the actions and activities and work of our lives (fishing) to the people and relational aspect of it (of men/people).

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for January 31, Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time, and then reflect on these questions:

Gene Garcia
Director of Liturgical Arts
847-907-3434
ggarcia@
holyfamilyparish.org

The Liturgical Arts Community... creates a vibrant prayer and worship experience so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and worship experiences, for all attending Holy Family.

1. How is the Liturgy of the Word enhanced at Mass by hearing both the Old and New Testament readings?
2. As the first reading warns, should we be aware of false prophets?
3. Catholic clergy are unmarried, while this is permitted in the Protestant and Orthodox faiths. What do you see as the pros and cons of both?
4. Our Gospel ends with Jesus casting out an unclean spirit. What does this passage tell us about how to encounter and overcome the demons in our lives?
5. How difficult would it have been for Jesus to spread His Word without the use of miracles?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

More and more people are quick to tell others how to live yet rarely look at how they live their own lives. Jesus has the ultimate authority, but it is not because of what he says but because of what he does. Who do you know that needs to make a change in their life or cast away a "demon"? Are you willing to walk alongside that person through their journey?

Congratulations to our newly baptized and welcome into the Body of Christ and Holy Family!

Bible Journey 2021

THE ART OF SPIRITUAL READING OF THE PSALMS

Last session - January 21, 2021
ZOOM session, 9:45am to 10:45am

The Psalms are a never-ending treasure trove of wisdom and grace, so we are taking a "deep dive" into these Scriptural readings this season. In the fall we completed the outstanding series about "The Psalms" offered by Anne Madsen. On four Thursday mornings in January, we will continue with our study of the Psalms by hosting Dr. Elizabeth Nagel (back by popular demand!) as she teaches us the art of spiritual reading of the Psalms. This study will not be a duplicate of the fall series, but rather a look at other Psalms and their spiritual depth. There is no fee for this program.

Registration is required by contacting
Marsha Adamczyk, madamczyk@holyfamilyparish.org

Bible Journey 2021 continues in February! Women in the Bible

This will be a study of narratives in the Old and New Testaments that include the role and work of women and how they are used by God in the redemption found in Jesus Christ.

Presented by Anne Madsen (Also back by popular demand!)

Thursdays, Feb. 4, 11, 18, 25, March 4, and 11 (ON ZOOM)

9:45 am – 11:00 am

There will be no charge for this program, but we encourage you to become a regular electronic donor at Holy Family to help keep our vital programs running strong. Donations are also welcome through our front office. You may call Debbie at 847-359-0042 to make a donation with a credit or debit card. Thanks in advance for supporting the work of this community of faith!

Dear Family Faith Students and Families,

On behalf of Divine Mercy Academy students and their families, we would like to express our most sincere gratitude for your beautiful Christmas gifts!

For the young children who attend Divine Mercy Academy the small toys, crayons, coloring books, hair clips, socks and hand-written notes are gifts they have looked forward to for the entire year. In the poor community of Chokka, Nairobi, such items are a rarity. While many American children play with puzzles, Lego blocks, car toys and dolls, the children of Chokka often play with toys made of items they find in the streets: empty plastic bottles and caps. Drawing with a stick on the ground takes the place of crayons and coloring books and socks are worn until they tear apart.

While the children at Divine Mercy Academy were happy to receive these material gifts, they were also joyful to know that someone, in a far-away country, thinks about them in a caring and loving way. In Christ, these children are our little sisters and brothers and our sons and daughters. Thank you for the gift of your love and for caring about our little brothers and sisters!

Please know that the students of Divine Mercy Academy, their teachers and the entire MOP community consider you part of their family and pray for you every day!

We would like to share with you the wonderful news of our latest project – the opening of The St. John Paul the II Clinic. This clinic will provide our students and the poor community in Chokka, with essential medical and dental services. We are very blessed and happy to be a part of this project, which would not be possible without your continued support.

Be blessed during this New Year for it is in giving that we receive!

United in Christ,

MOP Volunteers with Children, Families and Teachers of Divine Mercy Academy

Fr. Richard Rohr practices meditation and contemplation from his Center for Action and Contemplation in Albuquerque, New Mexico. His Daily Meditations from Sunday, January 3, 2021 was worth sharing as we move away from 2020 and into 2021. For the full Meditation, go to: Meditations@cac.org

"The Daily Meditations theme for 2021 is "A Time of Unveiling." I'm convinced we are living in such a time—when reality is being revealed as it is. Systems of evil have become both more brazen and banal, our sense of "normal" has been upended, and yet in the midst of it, God continues to invite us to deeper transformation. A few weeks into the pandemic, some people even began to use the word "apocalyptic" to describe what was taking place. Often, this word is used to scare people into some kind of fearful, exclusive, or reactionary behavior, all in expectation of the "end times." But the word "apocalyptic," from the Greek apokálupsis, really just means "unveiling."

The beginning of the new year seems like a good time to pause, "pull back the veil," and ask, "Where is this all going? What is the end goal for all of us, and—for that matter—for the cosmos itself?" Is our "late, great planet Earth" really headed toward Armageddon? In these fractious, unmoored, and disillusioned times, I can hardly think of more relevant concerns.

No matter what is going on around us, it's important to remember that God keeps transforming creation into something both good and new. Instead of hurtling us towards catastrophe, God always wants to bring us somewhere even better. A helpful word here is "evolution." God keeps creating things from the inside out, so they are forever yearning, developing, growing, and changing for the good. That might be hard to see sometimes in the moment, but it's nevertheless true.

While more and more people seem to believe that the universe has no form, direction, or final purpose, as Christians, we can be confident that the final goal does have shape and meaning. The biblical symbol of the Universal and Eternal Christ (Alpha and Omega) stands at both ends of cosmic time. This assures us that the clear and full trajectory of the world we know is an unfolding of consciousness with "all creation groaning in this one great act of giving birth" (Romans 8:22). Why do I think this is such an important image to remember? Frankly, because without it we become very impatient with ourselves and others, particularly when we encounter setbacks (both personal and communal). Humans and history both grow slowly."

Adapted from Richard Rohr, The Universal Christ: How a Forgotten Reality Can Change Everything We See, Hope For, and Believe (Convergent: 2019), 91, 95–96.
