Baptism and the United States of America

This past weekend we celebrated the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. I have always found the most powerful element of this event is that God, through Jesus Christ, walked into the river of human life and immersed himself in it. He demonstrated that he is with us in the murky river of human life, and so we have a God who is with us on the journey, traveling with us and sharing the life-giving water of human life.

God did not have to do that, but it was a statement of unity enveloped by the moving current of life. It was God's way of assaying not only is this God of ours with us, but that God wants to be with us in all of life, our struggles and our triumphs. Also, remember that God through Jesus suffered and died a horrible, violent death. That means we do not have a God who does not understand our suffering. On the contrary; we are children of a God who knows suffering and, thus, is with us in it.

This feast invites us to reflect on our own life with God, our own immersion into the same river, and our struggles when the water is really dirty, and in the joys of floating and letting the river take us along.

The primary element of and, thus, the symbol of Baptism is water. However, our fonts are dry now because of concerns for spreading the coronavirus. We are reminded of this at our church buildings, but we at Holy Family have an added dimension. We not only have fonts, but a huge, deep font that is always beneath the beautiful wooden covering in the center of the church – in the center aisle – right in the middle of us. When you reflect on our deep baptismal font, when you see the wooden cover, when you walk across it, be reminded and trust that beneath it lays a tremendous source of life. It is there. It is ALWAYS there.

At this time of chaos, struggle, violence and transition in our country the baptism experience can speak to us and help us to make some sense of this chaos. Our politics are currently murky, even dirty. Our spirit of democracy is dry. But those are only on the surface and at this particular moment in a journey. The long river of our life's voyage is one of faith, unity, freedom and love.

At this moment in our country's history, the baptism experience invites and challenges us to go deeper into the river, deeper into our souls to retrieve the connection with God through Christ. We must go beneath the dryness of a threatened spirit and trust that God is in the river with us. The violence of the past year that has threatened the spiritual community of our democracy is real, but we must go deeper to connect with the unifying principles of life itself and our common sacred sharing of that life.

Let's remind ourselves that beneath the surface is the current of a God who loves us and guides us. We just need to go deeper to connect with it these days.

Baptism and Call

In my writing about the importance of seeing our work as God's work, I emphasize the importance of our call or calling. I am very committed to the movement of the Second Vatican Council that invites, and even challenges, us ALL to see that we are called by God by virtue of our Baptism.

God begins to call us in baptism to acknowledge Him as the source of our call, to identify the talents that He has given to us and to share those talents to make the world, and thus the Church, a better place.

Two of the scripture readings this weekend give details and invite us to see how God's call and our response play out in our lives. In the first reading the young Samuel doesn't realize God is calling him. The wise Eli reminds him. We can do the same for each other when we recognize that someone else doesn't realize God is calling them. John's Gospel tells us that two disciples follow Jesus at the encouragement of John the Baptist. They are curious about Jesus and they want to know more. Jesus invites them to see. They respond.

One of them, Andrew, is so moved by this experience; he finds his brother Peter and brings him to Christ. We can encourage others, we can recognize their curiosity, we can respond and we can bring others to Christ.

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for January 24, Third Sunday of Ordinary Time, and then reflect on these questions:

The Liturgical Arts Community...

creates a vibrant prayer and worship experience so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and worship experiences, for all attending Holy Family.

1. God spared the people of Nineveh when they had a change of heart and mind. What does this tell us about the importance of repentance and asking for forgiveness?
2. God “changed his mind” about punishing the people of Nineveh. Have you ever thought that we have the ability to change God’s mind?
3. Paul told the Corinthians: “For the world in its present form is passing away.” With everything we’ve witnessed in the past year, is our world passing away?
4. Like the first disciples, what do we have to leave behind to do a better job as “fishers of men?”

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

“The world in its present form is passing away.” How does this message from the 2nd reading challenge us to live differently? Whose shoes will you walk in this week to understand their unique perspective?

Bible Journey 2021

THE ART OF SPIRITUAL READING OF THE PSALMS

Final two sessions - Thursdays,
January 21 and 28, 2021
ZOOM sessions, 9:45am to 10:45am

The Psalms are a never-ending treasure trove of wisdom and grace, so we are taking a "deep dive" into these Scriptural readings this season. In the fall we completed the outstanding series about "The Psalms" offered by Anne Madsen. On four Thursday mornings in January, we will continue with our study of the Psalms by hosting Dr. Elizabeth Nagel (back by popular demand!) as she teaches us the art of spiritual reading of the Psalms. This study will not be a duplicate of the fall series, but rather a look at other Psalms and their spiritual depth.

There is no fee for this program.

Registration is required by contacting
Marsha Adamczyk, madamczyk@holyfamilyparish.org

Bible Journey 2021 continues in February! Women in the Bible

This will be a study of narratives in the Old and New Testaments that include the role and work of women and how they are used by God in the redemption found in Jesus Christ.

Presented by Anne Madsen (Also back by popular demand!)

Thursdays, Feb. 4, 11, 18, 25, March 4, and 11 (ON ZOOM)

9:45 am – 11:00 am

There will be no charge for this program, but we encourage you to become a regular electronic donor at Holy Family to help keep our vital programs running strong. Donations are also welcome through our front office. You may call Debbie at 847-359-0042 to make a donation with a credit or debit card. Thanks in advance for supporting the work of this community of faith!

Looking for a good read with some meat?

Try Thomas Groome's, What Makes Us Catholic: Eight gifts for Life.

A longtime member of the Boston College theology faculty, Groome is arguably the single most influential person in Catholic religious education circles in the U.S. and enjoys an international reputation for his insights into the formation of Catholic identity.

Published the same year the Boston Globe published its explosive exposé, breaking open the sexual abuse crisis in the Church, Groome's honest look at what makes us Catholic and how the faith is lived out in everyday life, brought hope to many during that difficult time, and still speaks compellingly to contemporary seekers and believers. This is an easy read, uplifting and inclusive coming from a more progressive Catholic perspective.

Catholics and non-Catholics alike, interested in

- exploring the essential character of Catholic faith and identity,
- re-engaging the beauty of the Catholic tradition, after the disillusionment and violence of the sexual abuse scandal or
- simply fed-up with the arrogance, narcissism and rigidity of a clerical culture (which according to Pope Francis is a perversion and the root of many evils in the Church), will find Groome's work refreshing and comforting – perhaps just what we need in the long dark winter ahead.

Join members of the Family & Teen Faith Staff for an informal and lively discussion of this book on Wednesday, February 3 beginning at 7:30 pm. We ask that you RSVP to lferrita@holyfamilyparish.org. This book is available through Amazon.com

Holy Family's Statement Against the Sin of Racism

promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Individual and systemic racism, in our past and currently, is a sin. It is antithetical to the founding principles of our nation's Democracy, the vision of equality in which our God created us and the Gospel values of Jesus Christ. Sin is reconciled by truly acknowledging it, being as sincere as possible in asking for, and trusting in, God's forgiveness and genuinely committing to change through action.

WE here at Holy Family Catholic Community will carry out our commitment to reconciling racist sin by fully living out the seven principles of Catholic Social Teaching and will carry out that commitment through education, formation, discussion and engagement.

I ask all who call Holy Family home for a full and genuine commitment to this reconciliation.

Fr. Terry Keehan, Pastor

The civil rights leader John Lewis (1940–2020) wrote these words of wisdom that still ring true as our work continues to address racial divides bringing respect and dignity to ALL people.

"Study the path of others to make your way easier and more abundant. Lean toward the whispers of your own heart, discover the universal truth, and follow its dictates. Know that the truth always leads to love and the perpetuation of peace. Its products are never bitterness and strife. Clothe yourself in the work of love, in the revolutionary work of non-violent resistance against evil. Anchor the eternity of love in your own soul and embed this planet with goodness. Release the need to hate, to harbor division, and the enticement of revenge. Release all bitterness. Hold only love, only peace in your heart, knowing that the battle of good to overcome evil is already won. Choose confrontation wisely, but when it is your time don't be afraid to stand up, speak up, and speak out against injustice. And if you follow your truth down the road to peace and the affirmation of love, if you shine like a beacon for all to see, then the poetry of all the great dreamers and philosophers is yours to manifest in a nation, a world community, and a Beloved Community that is finally at peace with itself."
