Baptism of the Lord 2021

Baptism has such significance – spiritually, historically and ecclesiastically – just for starters. As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord this weekend, our readings offer some words and concepts that are the foundation for the ritual prayer that publicly celebrates the sacrament. We hear of covenant, thirst, God's word, love, commandments, begotten, the Holy Spirit and, of course, water.

As always the accounts of the Baptism of Jesus vary from Gospel to Gospel. Matthew's account tells us that God says, "This is my beloved son..." as Jesus comes out of the water. We can infer from this statement that God is speaking to everyone - in fact, the whole world for the rest of time. Luke and Mark on the other hand tell us that God says, "YOU are my beloved son." We may infer here that God is speaking directly to Jesus, but wants the whole world to know. This version carries with it a commissioning so to speak. He reveals the real identity of Jesus, and thus grounds his very mission and purpose here on earth.

John's account does not include an actual baptism event for Jesus, rather emphasizes the importance of the role of John the Baptist and the distinction between being baptized with water (physical reality) and the Holy Spirit (spiritual reality). In fact, both come together in the ritual of baptism that the church celebrates.

I find the richest symbolism of his Baptism is Jesus walking into the dirty Jordan river as if he is walking into the murkiness of human life, and the ritual carried out by John seals God's desire, through Jesus, to be in the murky river of human life with us. God is with us when life is clean, cleansing, soothing and quenching. He is also with us when it is muddy, murky and dark. His immersion into the river of life with us is another marking of the full humanity of Jesus and conveys that he can understand and relate to our human nature.

The river or pool of water symbolizes life as well as the church into which Jesus is immersing himself. You have heard me say many times, 'wherever there is water, there is life.'

Ecclesiastically, and even institutionally, the record of baptism is significant. The church wants to always accurately record a baptism because it celebrates the emersion of the baptized individual into the community or pool of the church. It is proof of the event that conveys the spiritual reality.

As Catholics, the record of baptism serves as a collector of all future sacraments because all other sacraments are rooted in baptism. Some practical items assist in this process:

- The place of your baptism is the permanent keeper of all of your sacramental records.
- Each time you prepare to receive another sacrament you must either produce proof of baptism or notify the church of baptism and request an updated baptismal certificate.
- When the sacrament is received, that church automatically notifies the church of baptism so the ledger can be updated.
- Each church also keeps separate First Communion and Confirmation records for additional record keeping.
- Baptismal records are always stored in a fire proof vault or by other secure means in case natural disasters threaten the structure where they are housed.
- When a parish closes, the baptismal and sacramental records are either moved to a neighboring church or archived at a special facility of the diocese.
- Other significant information such as annulments are also added to the baptismal ledger
- Our church is world-wide and thus these procedures are universal. Often people express anxiety by saying they were baptized in another country. That is of no concern because the record keeping of and requests for updated baptismal certificates is common practice all over the world.
- There can never be any record of the reception of the sacrament of reconciliation to preserve its private nature so that sacrament is never documented. There is also no record of the Anointing of the Sick because it can be received many times.

I strongly encourage you to have a baptismal certificate on hand. If you don't have one, contact your church of baptism and they will forward it to you. Know that this is essential when your children or you are preparing for First Communion, Confirmation and Marriage.

Preparing for Next Week...

Gene Garcia
Director of Liturgical Arts

ggarcia@
holymfamilyparish.org

The Liturgical Arts Community... creates a vibrant prayer and worship experience so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and worship experiences, for all attending Holy Family.

We invite you to read the scripture readings for January 17, 2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time, and then reflect on these questions:

1. Isaiah says: "I, the Lord, have called you for the victory of justice." Why is the victory of justice elusive for so many?
2. We hear in Acts that "God shows no partiality." How do we defend this statement in view of the inequity in the world?
3. In Acts, an emboldened Peter enters the house of Cornelius, a Roman centurion, to preach the Good News of Jesus. Whose house should you enter?
4. Baptism can occur at any age. Do you have a favorite baptismal story about yourself or someone you know?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist in fulfillment of God's plan to bring a relationship between God and humanity. How do you view your baptism and where it is leading you in your relationship with God, your family, your community?

Bible Journey 2021

THE ART OF SPIRITUAL READING OF THE PSALMS

Thursdays, January 14, 21, 28, 2021
ZOOM sessions, 9:45am to 10:45am

The Psalms are a never-ending treasure trove of wisdom and grace, so we are taking a "deep dive" into these Scriptural readings this season. In the fall we completed the outstanding series about "The Psalms" offered by Anne Madsen. On four Thursday mornings in January, we will continue with our study of the Psalms by hosting Dr. Elizabeth Nagel (back by popular demand!) as she teaches us the art of spiritual reading of the Psalms. This study will not be a duplicate of the fall series, but rather a look at other Psalms and their spiritual depth.

There is no fee for this program.

Registration is required by contacting
Marsha Adamczyk, madamczyk@holyfamilyparish.org

Prayer Requests

As the new year begins, we want to assure you that we are here for you if someone you love is ill. We are happy to add your loved one to the prayer list and have their name listed as part of our live-streamed Mass. Please note that these requests must be made by a family member due to privacy laws. Procedures for anointing people have been very fluid during COVID-19. Each hospital should have a priest on call if you are in need for a non-COVID-19 related anointing. Please call Jeannie during work hours (9:00 am – 4:00 pm) at 949-632-2059 to help you with the most recent procedures, or call Mary at 847-767-2927 for assistance if you are calling after office hours.

May 2021 bring peace, comfort and good health...

Welcoming A New Year

A new year stands on my doorstep ready to enter my life's journey.

Something in me welcomes this visitor: the hope of bountiful blessings, the joy of a new beginning, the freshness of unclaimed surprises

Something in me rebuffs this visitor; the swiftness of the coming, the boldness of the entrance, the challenge of a year's good-bye.

Something in me fears this visitor: the unnamed events of future days, the wisdom needed to walk love well, the demands of giving away and growing.

A new year stands on my doorstep.

With fragile caution I move to open the door for its entrance.

My heart leaps with surprise, joy jumps in my eyes, for there beside this brand-new year stands my God with outstretched hand!
He smiles and gently asks of me: Can we walk this year together?

And I, so overwhelmed with goodness,
Can barely whisper my reply:

Welcome in!

Holy Family's Statement Against the Sin of Racism

Individual and systemic racism, in our past and currently, is a sin. It is antithetical to the founding principles of our nation's Democracy, the vision of equality in which our God created us and the Gospel values of Jesus Christ. Sin is reconciled by truly acknowledging it, being as sincere as possible in asking for, and trusting in, God's forgiveness and genuinely committing to change through action.

WE here at Holy Family Catholic Community will carry out our commitment to reconciling racist sin by fully living out the seven principles of Catholic Social Teaching and will carry out that commitment through education, formation, discussion and engagement.

I ask all who call Holy Family home for a full and genuine commitment to this reconciliation.
