Annual Catholic Appeal

This weekend is the second and commitment part of the three week Annual Appeal. Last weekend we introduced the need for the Appeal and began to offer additional means and methods to support it financially.

Each year this Appeal broadens our notion of and awareness of Church. As Catholics we are a part of the 340 parishes and many non-parish agencies and services for all people, not just Catholics, in Lake and Cook Counties. We are very blessed here at Holy Family with resources that most parishes do not have. We should be very proud of the outreach that we do in our local community to assist and to serve our neighbors with some of life's basic needs. We are also able to provide programs of formation and education that, quite frankly, are easy to take for granted. This Appeal invites us to help our neighbors beyond our local communities.

The Annual Appeal assists parishes, communities and agencies that do not have the resources we do, or do not have any means of raising funds to support their ministries. In many of those areas the need is the greatest. This campaign expresses our support for each other as an Archdiocese. It is a great way to serve.

The ministry of the local church, our Archdiocese includes non-parish ministries as well. For example, Fr. Kurt now focuses his ministry as the Vicar for Priests, which is a source of support for all of us priests. I worked in the Vocation Office for the Archdiocese for eight years, assisting post-college aged men and women discerning priesthood, religious life and lay ministry in the Church. These are two of the many agencies that have no community or parishioner base to directly support their efforts. They rely on funds generated by a sharing diocesan-wide, including this Appeal.

This weekend at Mass, including the 9:00am Mass that is always live streamed and available to view at any time via our website, we will hear a message from Cardinal Cupich articulating the need for this effort. As your Pastor, I ask that you be attentive to his message and to make a gift to the Appeal. I want to thank all of you who have given to the campaign in past years. I can assure you that the funds generated are deeply appreciated by the parishes, schools, agencies and people served by the Archdiocese. Each of us is called to share his or her gifts in support of the local Church, the Archdiocese of Chicago which I refer to in the Eucharistic Prayer each time I have the honor of presiding at the Eucharist.

Cardinal Cupich's message will be available on our website as well.

Here are the giving options for this year's Annual Appeal:

- Online at www.annualcatholicappeal.com

- Text to give:

1. Using a mobile device, open your text message application
2. Enter the phone number 345345 in the To: section
3. Type the Keyword: ACA2021 (not case sensitive) in the message of your text application
4. Hit the send button
5. A text reply to your phone will give you a hyperlink to a secure online giving form
6. Complete your gift by filling out the form and submitting

- There are Envelopes in Narthex to be picked up on your way out of church. Simply return them to the Offering Boxes also in the Narthex.

- Please see more details about supporting the Annual Catholic Appeal on our website.

At the Table Week 2

In our discussion this weekend during homily time we will be focusing more on what we do at Mass to celebrate the Eucharist - our rituals, structure and the action of our communal prayer. Join us and encourage others to do so as well and spread the word to access our Masses via live stream EVERY week either at 9:00am or any time following on our website.

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for February 14, Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time, and then reflect on these questions:

Liturgical Arts

The Liturgical Arts Community... creates a vibrant prayer and worship experience so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and worship experiences, for all attending Holy Family.

1. In the time of Leviticus, leprosy was considered a result of sin. Even today, some people view their own or another's misfortune as punishment for a past transgression. If approached, how would you help that person?
 2. Paul says: "Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God." How do we model this message of tolerance in order to be better "imitators of Christ"?
 3. In our Gospel, the leper crosses a boundary by kneeling before Jesus, and Jesus crosses a boundary in touching him. What should the church's role be in crossing boundaries to help people?
 4. Why did Jesus warn the leper not to publicize his healing? In the leper's defense, why is it so hard to remain silent when we are touched by the power and the glory of God?
 5. This Wednesday we begin Lent. How will the events of the past year impact your Lenten journey?
- SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION
Jesus came to announce God's kingdom, a reign of wholeness, healing, restoration and life. In what acts of service are you bringing about the reign of God to your family, your parish, your neighborhood?

Service of Remembrance and Light Sunday, February 21, 6:00-6:30 PM

As we exceed 400,000 deaths in the United States from COVID-19, many of us may feel "deprived of peace," in the words of the Old Testament Book of Lamentations. But we are also reminded that we have hope in the Lord, even in the midst of a life-changing pandemic.

Please join us as we gather in the church parking lot for a short service to remember those who have died, and to proclaim our trust in God, our Light in the darkness of despair.

Mark your calendars; more details will follow in the coming weeks.

Lenten Mission 2021 Lenten Spiritual Practices During the Pandemic

Wednesday, March 10, 2021 at 7:00 pm

In these stressful times we often begin or end our greetings to one another with, "Take care of yourself." Yes! But also, strange as it may sound, we should allow our spirits connected to the Divine Spirit to take care of us. The mission of Spirit is to enter into our minds, bodies, and social relationships and fill them with passion, pleasure, and purpose. But we have to engage in spiritual practices for that to happen. Let's talk about it this Lent with Jack Shea, S.T.D., theologian, storyteller and speaker of international repute. He has written several books, the most recent is To Dare the Our Father: A Transformative Spiritual Practice. Please join us via Webinar.

Sunday, March 7, 2021 (on Zoom) from 3:00-4:30 p.m.

Whether seen through the lens of racism, politics, or the pandemic, the divisions in our country became more visible over the last year and our personal and collective wounds grew wider. How might our internal and communal narratives impact the divisions? Is there another narrative that may move us forward? Nicole Sotelo will speak on the topic of narratives, healing, and forgiveness in a time of division. Ms. Sotelo is the communications coordinator at Sheil Catholic Center at Northwestern University and the author of Women Healing from Abuse: Meditations for Finding Peace (Paulist Press) and Pray Your Way Through Forgiveness (Twenty-Third Publications).

How to be a Hero

When you hear the word “hero,” what image or words come to mind? We often use this word to honor the bravery of firefighters, soldiers, policemen and women, hospital-workers, activists, etc. It’s a well deserved title for anyone who sacrifices for others, or shows courage when life presents a challenge. These people stand out and inspire others by their actions.

In our ancient Catholic tradition, through the passage of time, Christians have celebrated, honored and prayed to “saints,” in whom we have found evidence of heroism. These men and women lived for God, and many of them sacrificed their lives, livelihoods, self-interest or reputations for their faith. Oftentimes, this happened in a society that was generally opposed to their beliefs and practices - the ones that died for their faith are called “martyrs.” We remember and honor them as “Heroes of the Faith,” and the remembrance of their heroism is enshrined in our songs, prayers, religious devotionals, statues and stained-glass.

Unfortunately, in today’s modern world, many Catholics (our young ones especially) hear about Saints and they view them as “otherworldly” or “unapproachable.”

They say, “How could I, of all people, be like St. Paul, St. Francis... or St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta?” Ironically, these very saints viewed themselves as no better than anyone else and were (just like every other saint) made of the same human flesh and bone that we are, too. So, what has to change to fix this problem...? Their life-stories don’t have to change, but the way we talk about their life-stories must.

Yes, St. Paul did travel thousands of miles in his ministry spreading the Gospel message far and wide and inspired the early church with his devotion to our Lord, although he also struggled just like us and begged God to take away the “thorn in his flesh” (2 Corinthians 12:6-7). St. Paul never specified exactly what this “thorn” was, but in his humanness, he expressed that he too, suffered anxiety over troubles that pained him. On this same note, both St. Francis of Assisi and St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta, in all their great accomplishments done for the glory and love of God also suffered and were not perfect.

St. Francis was known to lose his temper on occasion and not always be the charitable person we popularly remember him as today. St. Mother Teresa underwent long periods of doubt and torment in her faith, which may come as a surprise to many readers. She one time wrote in a letter to a priest-friend, “Jesus has a very special love for you. As for me, the silence and the emptiness is so great that I look and do not see, listen and do not hear.”

In this difficult time in our world, let us remember that to be a “hero,” that to be a “saint” doesn’t mean that you are perfect and sinless, but that heroism is a possibility to all of us. Embrace your humanity and recognize that God can use you in service and light to others, even through the hardest of times. Seneca said, “sometimes, even to live is an act of courage.” Here’s to the heroes.

In Christ,
Grant James Guthrie - Associate Director of Teen Faith

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Holy Family Parish will be distributing fresh produce from the Greater Chicago Food Depository in the remote parking lot on Thursday, Feb 11. If you would like to help with the distribution, contact Sue at 847-907-3443 or sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org.

This will be a drive-through distribution to maintain social distancing between volunteers and guests. We ask for adults and children no younger than 12 years old. Due to the pandemic, numbers of people coming for food has doubled, so we need many hands to assist us in distributing the produce to our neighbors in need. We need helpers at 8:30am unloading pallets and setting up before the distribution and people to clean up until about noon. Distribution is outdoors rain or shine.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY UPDATE

Although we have been hampered by the Covid pandemic, the Habitat ministry made substantial progress in 2020. Through Holy Family's participation in the Spring of Life partnership, we completed two projects last year. Unfortunately, yet understandably, the local Habitat affiliate has suspended all volunteer participation in build activities until March 31, at the earliest. The potential exists to begin our next project in early April. It is all dependent on the rollout of the Covid vaccine. Our highest priority is the health and safety of all volunteers.

The following is a recap of our work in 2020 showing Spring of Life (SPRING) achievements and some notable milestones this year.

In July, SPRING completed our 18th project in a record period. We broke ground in December 2019 and held the house blessing in July. The project was on schedule for completion in early May before the Covid pandemic lockdown. Through the effort of numerous volunteers, the new homeowner and her two children have an affordable home which will greatly stabilize their finances.

In early July, SPRING assumed the task of completing a second home this year. The project had been placed on hold by the Habitat affiliate during the height of the pandemic. SPRING volunteers, working in smaller teams to follow prudent safety protocols, completed the project in November. The new homeowner works regularly with our volunteer construction crews, learning all the tips and tricks it takes to build and maintain a home.

Habitat does not provide handouts but a hand up. This mother, because of domestic violence and divorce, has progressed from a WINGS resident to full time employment, and now, homeownership. The mother and daughter will move into their home shortly after the holidays.
