Vision Statement

Holy Family

Catholic Community

invites all to new life in Christ. Our response to God's call is evident through full, conscious and active participation in our community.

Mission Statement

To empower all to experience New Life In Christ through sacramental living, transformative worship, lifelong spiritual growth and community in service to others.

Core Values

Animated by our faith in God to evangelize, we live the following core values:

- Integrity
- Excellence
- Unity
- Service
- Justice

Welcome to Holy Family

Holy Family Catholic community invites all to new life in Christ. Are you new to Holy Family? Are you considering becoming a registered parishioner? We welcome you to become part of our holy family in carrying out our mission. Go to the website or contact Sue at sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3443 to register.

Saint Paul says, "We are the Body of Christ." We look forward to experiencing that reality with you.

Fr. Terry Keehan, Pastor

Fr. Terry Keehan

I feel so blessed with the grace that God gives me through continued fascination and connection with the Eucharist. As I have said so many times, the Eucharist is the most important thing in my life. My fascination, wonder and awe of this sacred dynamic is heightened by the honor of presiding. I sense such reverence in sharing with you the celebration of God, who gives himself to us in Jesus, and Jesus, who then gives himself to us in the Eucharist. This sharing of those gifts with you and with so many brings me such joy and fulfillment. I know that so many of you, if not all of you, feel the same.

This giving progression, God of himself in Jesus, and Jesus of himself in the Eucharist is, in my opinion, the greatest font of and manifestation of grace. I say this as a preface to a recent realization that I had about the physical and spiritual presence of Christ in the Eucharistic Liturgy and I am passionate about sharing this with you here.

In his book "The Spiritual Wisdom of the Gospels For Christian Preachers and Teachers" (Liturgical Press 2005), our friend Jack Shea offers some profound insights on the Gospel for this weekend (John 20:19-31). Of his appearance to huddled disciples Shea writes, "The post Easter Jesus does not enter through doors as people with physical bodies do. The doors are locked yet he is in their midst."

We know and believe that Christ rose from the dead. He was not a ghost, he was real; yet he didn't appear or be manifest in their midst in a typical physical manner. He was physically present, but not through normal physical ways.

We believe in the REAL presence of Christ in the Eucharistic bread or host. Yet, Christ does not become real in a normal physical way. We believe that the Holy Spirit changes ordinary and simple bread and wine, making them much more, making them extraordinary and transforming them into Christ's Body and Blood.

This process is strikingly similar to what Shea describes as Jesus appeared to the disciples after his Resurrection. He was really in their midst, but does not appear through ordinary, typical physical ways.

Each time we celebrate the Eucharist, Christ comes into our midst as an assembly, and then individually, physically in the form of consecrated elements of bread and wine. Those elements are real and they are a vehicle for the REAL presence of Christ.

We also know and believe that Christ is present in us, God's people gathered who do appear through normal physical means, by car, through doors etc... We also believe he is present in the sacred stories of scripture proclaimed, sung about and preached on. These are physical realities as well. And last I checked, each priest who presides, and others who lead the celebration, are, in fact, real and are present through typical physical means.

So my fascination with Christ's REAL presence continues, augmented by Jack Shea's insights of physical presence realized in spiritual ways through atypical physical action, resulting in a presence that, like the peace that Jesus offers, is not of this world, yet it is real in this world. Fascinating!!!!

Coming up....

I have heard and noticed so many people have heightened anxiety during these unique and stressful times. There are several online resources that can help you if you feel increased anxiety, due to uncertainty or other factors, and many of them focus on using silence and techniques such as Meditation and Contemplation.

For this reason, I am offering a three part series during the Easter Season entitled, "Three Rivers of Silence." During these sessions I will be offering and modeling three ways of praying with scripture – using silence.

The three rivers or ways are MEDITATION, CONTEMPLATION and CONSIDERATION. I hope you will find these helpful in managing some stress and anxiety, as well as deepening your prayer with scripture.

The dates are Wednesdays, April 24, May 5 and May 19 via zoom at 7:00pm. Please see our website for details or send Marsha Adamczyk in our Adult Faith office an email at madamczyk@holyfamilyparish.org.

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for April 18, Third Sunday of Easter, and then reflect on these questions:

The Liturgical Arts Community...

creates a vibrant prayer
and worship experience
so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and
worship experiences,
for all attending Holy Family.

1. In our first reading, Peter is a powerful witness. Can you recall a homily or testimony that made a difference in your faith life?
2. Peter tells the people he knows that they acted out of ignorance, but still need to repent. Why do we need to repent even when we have acted in ignorance?
3. John tells us that Christ is our Advocate with the Father. In the Gospels, the Holy Spirit is also an Advocate. Who do you pray to and why?
4. Why was it important for Jesus to eat a piece of fish in the presence of everyone?
5. In Luke, Jesus states that everything written about Him had to be fulfilled. How does this knowledge strengthen and secure your faith?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

Where have you recently recognized the peace of Jesus? How did you share that peace with others?

11:00am Mass Resumes

“Rivers of Silence: Meditation, Contemplation, and Consideration”
Presented by Fr. Terry Keehan
Wednesday evenings,
April 21, May 5 and 19
7:00 pm-8:00 pm

Now is the time...as we begin to open up our world again...to build our spiritual imagination. What should we keep from our life before the pandemic? What should we surrender? What have we learned?

Join Fr. Terry as he explores three ways to move into the silence to begin to explore what is within our souls as we grow through challenges. Now is the time for new life!

To register for this Zoom gathering, contact Mary Whiteside at mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org.

Spiritual Direction – Support for your journey in faith

We don't know all the reasons that propel us to go on a spiritual journey, but somehow our life compels us to go. Something in us knows that we are not just here to toil at our work. There is a mysterious pull to remember... (Jack Kornfield)

Explore your life journey one-on-one with a caring listener. All spiritual directors are trained professionals with a minimum of two years of certified course work. This is an opportunity for adults seeking a safe place to share hopes, joys, struggles and losses. Discover how God is present in your life when faced with transitions and difficulty. God is in everything!

Who will walk with you on your journey?

- Lay people from the Holy Family Community who are trained in Spiritual Direction and knowledgeable about Christian spiritual practices.
- People committed to their own faith journeys and spiritual development
- Spiritual direction sessions are typically meetings held once a month for about one hour. The first meeting or interviewing session will be provided at no charge. Further sessions are at a fee based on a sliding scale. Prayers and conversation are centered around your needs and your life journey.

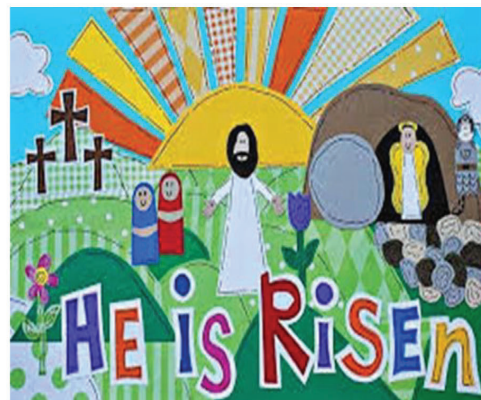

When we honestly ask which persons in our lives mean the most to us, we often find that it is those who, instead of giving much advice, solutions, or cures, have chosen rather to share our pain and touch our wounds with a gentle and tender hand. A friend who can be silent with us in a moment of despair or confusion, who can stay with us in an hour of grief and bereavement, who can tolerate not-knowing, not-curing, not-healing and face with us the reality of our powerlessness...makes it clear that whatever happens in the external world, being present to each other is what really matters... Henri Nouwen

now is the time to share the Good News!

The empty tomb is only the beginning of the story.

In today's first reading, we hear, 'With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. The apostles did so by trusting the Spirit, sent by Christ, who formed them into a community of believers of one heart and mind, sharing what they had so there was no needy person among them. The love they showed each other and their tenderness with the poor drew others to them. Their willingness to share their experiences of heartaches healed, doubts relieved, and hope restored, through the one they called Jesus, crucified, now risen and living within them, always found willing listeners. Their very presence exuded a vibrant sense of abundant life. Bearing witness is powerful stuff!

Now is our time to bear witness to the truth

In today's gospel, the evangelist John tells us, bearing witness is always personal. It is a choice, a gift of love, an expression of deep respect.

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name. John 20:30-31

John's gospel accounts of a loving presence that brings a peace that banishes fear and an acceptance that allows and then removes doubt, rings true, because we too have experienced those things from those we love. Think about the power of those everyday experiences of resurrection we have enjoyed because of the conscious decision made by generations of men and women who came after the apostles, to share their experiences of the presence of the Risen Christ with each of us. The parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, spouses, children, friends, neighbors (you could go on and on) who made deliberate choices and sacrifices, so that we would come to believe and have life in Christ.

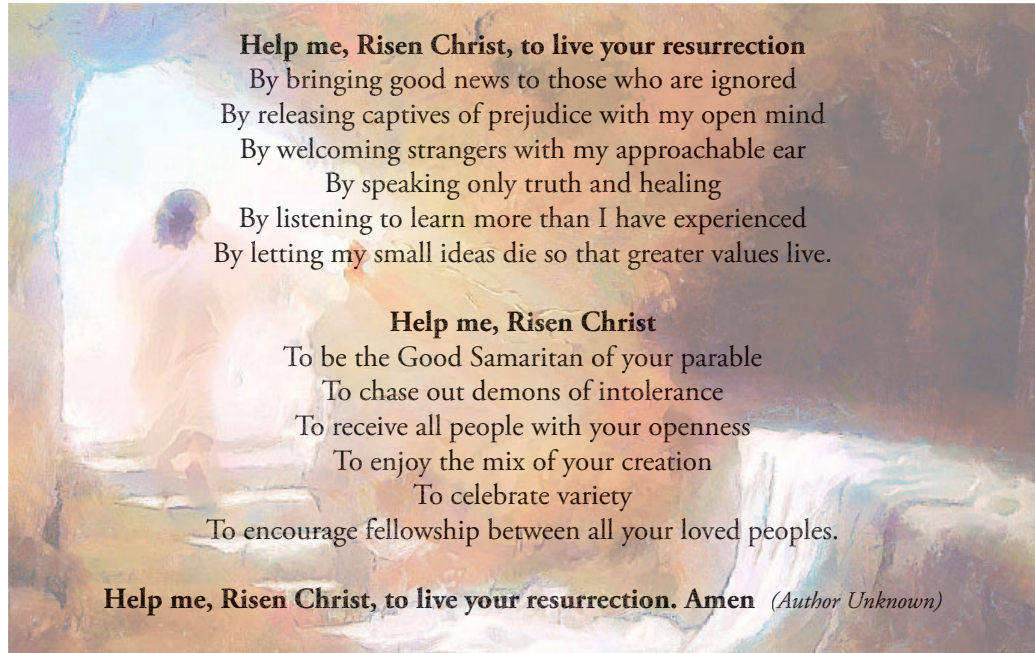

In the lives of those who passed on to us their belief in the Risen Christ, let us see an invitation to share our faith in Christ, so that others might come to believe and through this belief may have eternal life Christ.

Habitat for Humanity ReStore

Habitat for Humanity of Northern Fox Valley opened a new ReStore in Arlington Heights this past October. As they continue to see an increase in donations at both Habitat ReStore Elgin and ReStore Arlington Heights, they are in need for volunteers. There is a wide array of volunteer tasks such as unloading donations, clean/assemble/pricing items before they go to the selling floor and helping our customers find great values throughout each ReStore.

With plenty of flexibility in scheduling, volunteers can volunteer for ½ day to full day shifts ranging from one day a month to multiple days in a month. There is never a shortage of things to do at ReStore, and with Spring upon us, get out of the house and come volunteer with us!

A NEW TO RESTORE Orientation is held twice a week so that you can get familiar with the expectations for a Volunteer, ReStore Sales Policies, ReStore Safety video and answer any questions you might have.

Give it a try! If interested or for more information contact Lance Dailey Volunteer@ReStoreElgin.org or Volunteer@ReStoreArlingtonHeights.org or give him a call at 847-742-9905 press 2 press 2 5 GREAT REASONS to Patronize the Merchants in Our Church Bulletin!

1. They support the work of our church.
2. It keeps money in our community. For every $100 spent at a locally owned business, $68 goes back into the community and your tax base. For every $100 spent at a chain store, only $43 comes back. Online purchases bring nothing back to our local community.
3. Keeps our community unique. Where we shop, where we eat and have fun—all of it makes our community home. Our one-of-a-kind businesses are an integral part of the distinctive character of our community.
4. Creates more good jobs. Small local businesses are the largest employer nationally and in our community.
5. Get better service. Local businesses often hire people with a better understanding of the products they are selling and take more time to get to know customers.

WHY ADVERTISE IN YOUR LOCAL CHURCH BULLETIN?

J.S. Paluch will create, produce and print your ad for less than you'd spend elsewhere. They help you reach consumers at extremely affordable rates and offer options to advertise effectively and keep pace with market change.

Advertise With Us!

If you own a business or know of a local business that might like to support your local Catholic parish by advertising in its parish bulletin, please contact J.S. Paluch. Grow your business by advertising in the church bulletin and create strong connections with your target audience. Benefits include:

GREAT COVERAGE - 97% of all households attending church take at least one church bulletin home every Sunday.

GREAT VALUE - 70% of all households are aware of and look at the advertising in the church bulletin and 68% of households surveyed when making a choice between businesses are inclined to choose the one who advertised in the church bulletin.

GREAT LOYALTY - 41% of households do business with a company specifically because they are advertising in the church bulletin.

GREAT PRODUCT - 62% of households keep the church bulletin the entire week as reference.
