Return to Ordinary Time

We return to Ordinary Time this weekend, a long period of our church calendar that will conclude in November. Lent interrupted the first phase of Ordinary time in mid-February. It now resumes after Lent and the Easter season, guided by passages from the Gospel of Mark. We hear two images for the Kingdom of God this weekend. The first uses functioning language saying, "This is how it is with the Kingdom of God." It describes a person who seems to scatter seed, apparently somewhat randomly, then goes about their normal life and lets the land partner with the seed to yield a fruitful harvest in phases.

Spiritually this can invite us to trust the process of fruitfulness that unfolds in our lives in phases, perhaps also urging us to be patient.

The second asks a couple of questions: "To what shall we compare the Kingdom of God?" or "What parable can we use for it?" What follows is a familiar image, that of the tiny mustard seed that grows into the largest plant or bush. This enables birds to take shade and make a home in it. This literary language of a parable is extolled by Jesus, not only here but in several other Gospel passages. He uses parables a lot to teach and to stimulate our religious and spiritual imagination.

May the parable of the Mustard Seed invite you to consider something that started out very small in your life and has blossomed into something that has become large enough to benefit others.

Updates on Covid Protocols

The deadline for this bulletin is always Tuesday. As of this writing, we continue to update and change the protocols that we will ask you to continue to practice. The most updated information is available through email blasts on Fridays, so please look for those as Friday, June 11 was a day that brought us important changes.

We follow the guidelines set forth by the CDC and State of Illinois. Then those guidelines must be tweaked by the Archdiocese so they will be applicable to churches and even the slightly different campuses of various parishes in the Archdiocese. There are 350 different campuses with different sizes and shapes. These facilities are different than restaurants and those that hold outdoor activities. Some in the Archdiocese are educational in nature. Some spaces are for meetings, and consider here at Holy Family that our narthex is a place of gathering which under normal conditions we do so in much closer proximity to each other, moving and breathing as we do so. These are activities that we must continue to monitor for our safety.

Our Re-opening committee meets more often these days to keep up with updates and alterations. Please know that we continue to have your safety in mind as well as sharing your desire to "open up" our activities, campus, worship and other ministerial meetings.

Welcome Joan Sloan

This week we welcomed Joan Sloan to our Family & Teen Faith Staff as Administrative Assistant. Joan is no stranger to Holy Family. In her own words, here is a brief background:

"I have been a parishioner since 2011 when my family moved back to this area. My parents are parishioners here, and love it, so it made sense to me. We were asked to bring up the gifts the first day we attended, so I knew I was in the right place. I have been involved with Family Faith since 2012 as an aide then a catechist. I have also been involved with Teen Faith through Kairos Retreats and mission trips. During the pandemic, I helped as an usher and greeter. I am now very excited to join the staff as Administrative Assistant in the Family & Teen Faith Department." Please extend a warm Holy Family welcome to Joan when you see her around the campus.

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for June 20, Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary time, and then reflect on these questions:

Liturgical Arts

The Liturgical Arts Community... creates a vibrant prayer
and worship experience so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and
worship experiences, for all attending Holy Family.

1. In the first reading, “the Lord addressed Job out of the storm.” We’ve all faced “storms” in our life. When have you felt God’s presence during a storm?
2. Paul tells us that “whoever is in Christ is a new creation” – the old has gone, and the new has come. When have you felt this renewal in Christ? Can you pinpoint a singular event?
3. In the Gospel, Jesus “crossed to the other side” to get away from the crowds and get some sleep. Why is it important to be reminded of his human side?
4. Even if you don’t get what you pray for, Jesus has the power to make “even wind and sea obey.” How does this knowledge comfort you?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

To the poor and disadvantaged, life is a storm as they try to cross to calmness on the other side. To whom can you be a partner, what guidance can you offer and what would you learn from that experience?

Sunday 11:00am Mass

Our Sunday 11:00 am Mass has resumed!
Please remember that you still need to register to attend (via our website) until further notice.

Volunteer Opportunities

We have an urgent need for Ushers and Greeters for Baptisms, Weddings and Funerals! Weddings are on Friday evenings and Saturdays and are always scheduled in advance. Funerals are mid-morning and, obviously, not planned far in advance. Baptisms are scheduled in advance twice a month at 11:00 am on Sunday mornings during April and May and beginning in June the time will change to 1:00 pm.

You can sign up to serve for one ministry or multiple ministries.
For more information on this opportunity please visit the website.

The Sin of Racism

Individual and systemic racism, in our past and currently, is a sin. It is antithetical to the founding principles of our nation's Democracy, the vision of equality in which our God created us, and the Gospel values of Jesus Christ. Sin is reconciled by truly acknowledging it, being as sincere as possible in asking for, and trusting in, God's forgiveness and genuinely committing to change through action.

WE here at Holy Family Catholic Community will carry out our commitment to reconciling racist sin by fully living out the seven principles of Catholic Social Teaching and will carry out that commitment through education, formation, discussion, and engagement. We ask all who call Holy Family home for a full and genuine commitment to this reconciliation. Go to www.holyfamilyparish.org to view educational materials and resources. New materials and resources are added every month.

We're in a spiritual crisis, and the key to building a true belonging practice is maintaining our belief in inextricable human connection. That connection—the spirit that flows between us and every other human in the world—is not something that can be broken; however, our belief in the connection is constantly tested and repeatedly severed.
