Fr. Terry Keehan

I will not be with you to celebrate the Eucharist in person this weekend, but I will be with you in prayer. I will be on my annual 8-day Silent Directed Retreat. Each year for 33 of my 35 years as a priest, I have done an 8-day Silent Directed Retreat. This is a profound spiritual exercise during which participants use silence to reflect on their journeys of faith and the spiritual movements taking place. Participants are to be silent except for Mass and a session of between a half hour and an hour daily with a trained director. Such retreats are offered in groups as large as 40 and in some settings where there may be only one or a few participants. The purpose of the sessions with a director is to identify issues, concerns and other spiritual stirrings on the part of the retreatant. The director offers guidance and direction mostly through suggesting scripture passages for further reflective prayer.

One of the two years that I did not do a Silent Directed Retreat I did a Silent Retreat, relying on the silence and my own sense of direction. I did NOT find that experience to be as fruitful. The other year, 1994, I did the 36-Day Silent Directed Retreat at El Retiro Retreat Center in Los Altos, California. This is obviously more intense and extensive and is structured by the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius Loyola who founded the Jesuits.

I can't quite explain how powerful this experience was, the fruit of which I experience to this day. That retreat was perhaps the most significant spiritual experience of my life. I, or any Jesuit, could provide many more details of this retreat.

I am often perplexed and even frustrated because many people claim to be spiritual and not religious, and they connect the Catholic Church with the ultimate religious and not so spiritual institution. The source of my frustration is that our Roman Catholic spiritual tradition is filled with diverse and engaging spiritualities. I happen to be engaged in and fed by the Jesuit spiritual river, but we have so many others from traditional to contemporary. The Catholic Church offers the greatest array of spiritual activities, prayer forms and spiritual masters who have expressed various approaches and convictions of faith and prayer through the centuries.

Today we have Richard Rohr, Bishop Bob Barron (my classmate in the seminary), Sister Helen Prejean, Mother Teresa, Joan Chittister, Edwina Gateley, as well as mystic saints whose writings are available including St. John of the Cross, Therese of Lisieux, etc.

A good spiritual director suggests other spiritual reading beyond scripture, and silence can be a powerful way to delve into those listed above and so many more.

Do your own research about spiritual giants, historical and contemporary. Avail yourself to the rich reservoir of spiritual resources available through our Catholic faith. Obviously there are many outside of Catholicism as well, but my point here is that our Catholic Church, both historically and currently, offers such rich and diverse ways to be enriched spiritually.

A Silent Directed Retreat is but one of those many resources. Almost in our back yard is the Bellarmine Jesuit Retreat House in Barrington. In the Jesuit tradition, they offer many retreats including silent directed ones that are as short as a few days. The 8-day version is only one type. They also offer many retreats on a variety of topics and focuses far beyond those that are identified as Jesuit.

Bellarmino is but one retreat house. There are so many others, nationally and internationally, because our Catholic Church is world-wide and culturally integrated in such deeply spiritual ways.

Many of you have heard me sum up the Silent Directed Retreat experience by saying, "It is amazing how God can speak to you when you shut up."

Masks Required

Masks are REQUIRED indoors, regardless of vaccination status, for all clergy, staff, volunteers and parishioners inside archdiocesan facilities in Suburban Cook County and in the City of Chicago, including Masses, liturgies and all activities/events within our parishes.

We have said for so long that We are in this together. The THIS now is a communal approach to being pro-life. Wearing a mask to protect yourself and others is a way to protect life – yours and others. I am encouraging you to put aside secondary influences surrounding current Covid protocols and wear a mask anytime you enter any Archdiocesan facility in keeping with the mandates of the State, medical professionals at the highest levels and, thus, the Archdiocese and us here at Holy Family. Our staff and leadership are not the only ones called to enforce this. We are in THIS together. Thanks for your assistance and support.

BUILDING A NEW FUTURE FOR WORKING FAMILIES

Our worlds have been turned upside down in the last 20 months, as we have adapted how we worship, work, educate our children, grocery shop, and so much more. This has also been a time when many of us more fully realized the stark injustice of income inequality and its suffocating impact.

As a nation we recognize that we were kept safe and comfortable of workers, from health-care, to first responders, to grocery workers, to farm workers. We have come to appreciate how essential their contribution is to our lives. Many of these workers suffered greatly and many are still suffering. Restaurant workers, hotel housekeepers, convention hall workers and so many more are still waiting to be recalled, and to experience economic recovery. This Labor Day let's honor all of these workers and re-commit ourselves to support them in securing their rights. Pope Francis got it right in a speech in June, when he challenged us, saying, "Let us look for solutions that will help us build a new future of work based on decent and dignified working conditions, originating in collective negotiation, and promoting the common good, a phrase that will make work an essential component of our care for society and Creation."

Building this new future is underway in Illinois and in the United States. The Pro Act, a new law, which has passed the U.S. House of Representatives, and is now being considered in the U.S. Senate will recognize all workers for their God-given inherent dignity and their right to organize. The "Protecting the Right to Organize Act", the PRO-Act, would allow workers to more freely join a union without harassment, which is quite common now. The PRO-Act would close the income inequality gap, help secure safe workplaces, strengthen the middle class, stabilize communities, and put the U.S. on par with other industrialized countries. The Pro Act is the most significant worker empowerment legislation since the Great Depression.

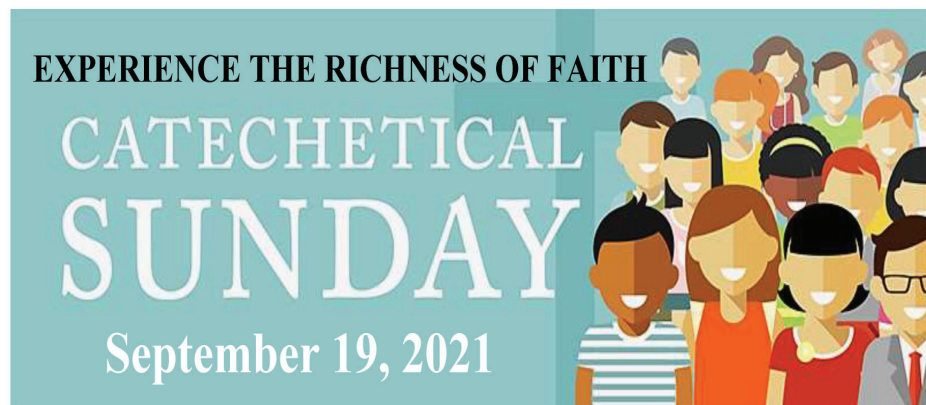

Laws reflect our values. But, laws do not get passed by themselves. It requires a community, organized and appreciative of the value and dignity of workers and of work itself. It requires communities of faith, as Pope Francis urges, to get engaged and stand in solidarity with workers. It requires organizations like ARISE Chicago, which connects our broad interfaith network to working people. I am proud to serve on the Religious Advisory Board for ARISE/Chicago.

On this Labor Day, let us remember the words of Cardinal Mundelein who said of the Church of Chicago more than 100 years ago now: "our place is beside the worker". Happy Labor Day!
- Fr. Clete Kiley, Chaplain, Chicago Federation of Labor

Family & Teen Faith

Peg Hanrahan
Director
847-907-3431
phanrahan@
holyfamilyparish.org

The Family & Teen Faith Community... offers faith formation and catechesis to preschool through elementary school aged children and high school teens and their families.

Since 1935, Catechetical Sunday is the day when all Catholics bless and pray for all who share the Word of God and the teachings of the Church with others. It is a day to reflect on the role that each of us plays, by virtue of our Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. It is a day to rededicate ourselves to this mission as a community of faith.

The past year has highlighted the urgent need for healing--physical, spiritual, emotional--in ourselves and in our world. Responding to this need, this year's theme for Catechetical Sunday is "Say the Word and My Soul Shall be Healed." These words open our hearts to, the healing that Jesus offers all.

Celebrating Catechetical Sunday at Holy Family

Family & Teen Faith and HFCA students, their families and catechists and teachers will celebrate Catechetical Sunday by attending Mass together (at 9:00 am or 4:00 pm). Doing so, we enact and reinforce some very important beliefs we share.

1. We are one Parish Family – sharing our faith with one another and with the world.
2. Celebrating the Eucharist together strengthens the bonds between us, increasing our unity and effectiveness as one Parish Family.
3. Everyone, no matter their age, is called to be a witness to the Gospel, in their own unique way.
4. Holy Family embraces and celebrates the diversity and complexity of family life
5. Holy Family Parish supports and strengthens the faith of families and family participation makes Holy Family Parish more vibrant and responsive to all.

Family and Teen Faith begins in two weeks!

Family Faith families (K-6) are asked to join us at the 9:00 am Mass. Teen Faith families are asked to join us at the 4:00 pm Teen Mass.

- Family Faith Adam's Apple and Gathered at Table families please arrive 20 minutes early and check-in in the Narthex. Attending Mass counts as your Faith Class.
- Materials for the Faith families who chose the Gathered at Table 2.0 (Hybrid program) or Gathered at Table Home Faith Version, will be distributed after the Mass in the Narthex.
- IGNiTE and FLAME teens will attend the 4 pm Mass with their small group. After Mass, the small groups will meet till 6:45 pm. Faith on Fire teens and all Kairos Alums are also invited to attend the Teen Mass.

Reminders: If you have not registered, please do so this week.

We still need Catechists and Hall Monitors. Contact ferlita@holyfamilyparish.org
