Pilgrimage Update

This weekend's Kick Off of Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage will look a bit different than originally planned. Our friend, colleague and animator of the pilgrimage, Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson has been experiencing some blood pressure emergencies recently and will not be able to join us this weekend. Please keep Terry and his family in your prayers. He is under very good medical care and we are all praying for his continued recovery.

I really believe in God's providence and the fact that Terry cannot join us is an opportunity for us to address some questions some of you may have and clarify some information about this truly unique, year-long adventure. Many of you are continuing to ask just what a pilgrimage is. Terry's Soul Play teammate and a friend of Holy Family, Laura Field, will join me this weekend to get us ready for the adventure, clarify some information and answer any questions that you may have.

Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson earned a doctorate in Pastoral Studies from Loyola University. He was on the faculty of Loyola Academy for 18 years. He has been a member of the staff at Old St. Patrick's Church in Chicago and he started the Beloved Retreat that has been a significant adult spiritual experience for thousands, including many of our parishioners here at Holy Family. Terry has led missions, retreats and days of reflection nationally and internationally.

Laura Field is a retreat leader, spiritual director and communications professional. She holds a Masters in Spirituality from Loyola University. Her consulting and media relations corporate experience includes a position as Vice President for a world-wide IT consulting firm.

What will our Adventures in Grace pilgrimage look like?

Elements include:

- Homilies at five Sunday Masses between now and Pentecost 2022, both challenging and inspiring us to immerse ourselves in each of the 7 Sacraments (The Parish Mission will cover two Sacraments)
- A Wednesday follow up, live streamed presentation during which Terry will add even more unique rituals and reflections, broadening the sacramental experience accessible at any time
- Additional resources available on our website

- Periodic virtual rest stops that will provide opportunities for discussion if you choose
- We will provide additional resources such as discussion questions
- Holy Family Catholic Academy and our Family & Teen Faith programs will fold their Sacramental prep for parents into the Pilgrimage stops.

What are we asking of you?

Simply attend. There is NO cost

- Engage yourself in this unique adventure
- Trust that our planning and intentions for the importance of this initiative are VERY significant for the very mission of Holy Family
- Take a risk; do something different to enrich your faith life
- Ideally, gather a small group of your friends to have ongoing discussions, or invite others to participate.

Our staff has been planning this pilgrimage with Terry and Laura for almost three years now. The pandemic has delayed it, but we really believe now is the time to begin taking concrete steps to achieve our major Strategic Planning goal that so many of you supported in our recent Providing For Our Family's Future campaign—namely, to engage new parishioners and re-engage existing parishioners. We believe this Pilgrimage will do just that!

Our hope is that Terry will then make the initial presentation on Sacramentality on November 6 and 7 with follow up Wednesday, November 10. Until then, we are offering additional preparation presentations at Masses the weekend of October 10 and Wednesday, October 20.

The reason for these prep sessions are simple. A physical pilgrimage involves a lot of travel and walking. Participants need to get in shape. It also requires certain resources. The early disciples needed good sandals, food provisions for strength, proper clothing, considering who they would travel with, studying maps, finding people who knew the terrain and more. The early pilgrims of our founding democracy took many risks in their travels not only across the Atlantic Ocean, but in forming a new nation. They identified principles of their belief. Our Catholic faith has similar principles that we call Sacraments. Our spiritual preparation is similar. Let's take the next month and a half to get ready to receive anew the grace that flows from those sacraments and the sacrament of life.

“Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage” is still on track to launch very soon. We’re as ready and inspired as ever but want to inform you about a few changes to this exciting trip’s itinerary.

What’s Changed:

September

Pilgrimage Masses planned for 9/26 – originally set to be the kickoff for the seven stops in our pilgrimage – will now serve as an introductory session about the program. The first “Adventure” planned for 9/29 has been canceled and moved to early November (see November, below)

October:

Two sessions have been added for October:

1. Pilgrimage Masses on 10/10 where we’ll explore pilgrimages in depth
2. A “warm-up” session on 10/20 to get everyone ready to go

View the full new itinerary at www.holyfamilyparish.org/aig

Why We’re Making the Changes

- A keynote and beloved leader from our partners at the Soul Play team, Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson, has recently been faced with an unexpected health challenge (namely, a hypertension emergency). Terry needs time for treatment, rest and recuperation.
- Terry’s Soul Play colleagues will be stepping up and filling in the gaps, along with Fr. Terry and Holy Family staff members. The “Adventure” will go on!
- We’ve received lots of questions about the pilgrimage, its purpose, details and mechanics from many of you.
- Adding the introductory and “warm up” informational sessions in September and October will help provide clarity, more details, and answers to everyone’s questions.
- This will help us make sure that all are fully onboard, registered, warmed up and ready to embrace the adventure and make it an even better, richer experience.

If you have any questions or would like more detailed information, please visit holyfamilyparish.org/aig or stop by our travel booth in the Narthex after weekend Masses, beginning on 9/26. You can also reach out to Marsha Adamczyk, Mary Whiteside or any Holy Family staff member.

faith into action.

Holy Family's PADS site, a Sunday evening shelter for people facing homelessness, will begin again in November, if we get enough volunteers to adequately support the PADS site. Currently we do not have enough people to do that, so the opening has been delayed to open in November. Many new procedures will be implemented this season such as every volunteer for shift work must be vaccinated and will wear a mask at all times. Guests will be a limited number because of social distancing in the eating and sleeping quarters. If you have a desire and are fully vaccinated, we welcome your help!

Sign-ups for shift positions will take place after Masses in the narthex on Sunday, September 26.

Catholic Social Teaching – United States Catholic Conference of Bishops

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.

The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected--the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization and joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative.

Work is, as has been said, an obligation, that is to say, a duty, on the part of man. . . Man must work, both because the Creator has commanded it and because of his own humanity, which requires work in order to be maintained and developed. Man must work out of regard for others, especially his own family, but also for the society he belongs to, the country of which he is a child, and the whole human family of which he is a member, since he is the heir to the work of generations and at the same time a sharer in building the future of those who will come after him in the succession of history. On Human Work (Laborem Exercens. . .), #16

A man wakes up after sleeping and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower

shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then
