Fourth Sunday of Advent

When I was very young and on the football team representing St. Antoninus school on the WEST side of Cincinnati, one of our arch rivals was Visitation Catholic school. Their uniforms were powder blue in a time when most schools had basic colors of navy blue, red, black or gold. This color caught my eye and when I inquired why Vis, as we called them for short, had the light colored blue uniforms I was told by a boy a couple of grades above me, "It's the color of Mary, stupid."

I still didn't make a connection between Mary and Visitation, and in taking my quandary to my dear mother Pat, she offered a kind and comforting response as only she could. Mom said, "Oh honey, Mary often wears light blue so we can recognize her when she visits us."

The story we hear from the Gospel of Luke this week hopefully speaks to us on a number of levels. In a classic way we hear of two women, both surprisingly pregnant. One is Mary at the very beginning of her child bearing years and the other, her cousin Elizabeth at the end of her child bearing years.

We appreciate the haste of Mary's journey, and comfort from an older wiser cousin. Mary's greeting to Elizabeth causes the baby in her womb, John the Baptist, to leap and stir. That inspires Elizabeth to proclaim in a loud voice how blessed Mary is and how blessed the baby Jesus is in her womb.

Because of the redactive nature of all scripture, and thus this story, it is written long after this visit is made so as to emphasize its impact on the world. Elizabeth names Mary "the mother of my Lord." That is certainly worth reflecting on. The older wiser cousin has lofty hopes and dreams for her own child, yet recognizes that there will be no child born with more impact than the baby that Mary is holding in her womb. Time tells us this. As a matter of fact, we are told this time and time again.

Elizabeth recalls to Mary the stirring feeling that she had when hearing her greeting and again names Mary as blessed because she believed that the promise made to her by God, carried by the Angel Gabriel, would be fulfilled. The story that unfolded, the story of the ages, proved that to be true.

It is a story that was predicted often in the Old Testament, but this week we hear from the prophet Micah who tells us that tiny Bethlehem, the place of Jesus' birth, shall give us a giant ruler, a ruler as our second reading from Hebrews says, "... comes to do your will oh God." And by that will we have been consecrated through the offering of the body of Jesus once and for all.

I am at liberty to emphasize the kindness of Mary, perpetuated by my mom, in applying the Vis to our lives. Let us recognize Mary's blessedness when she visits us.

The Visitation of Mary to Elizabeth and to us is the result of a short pilgrimage that she makes into the hill country above Nazareth. Mary stays with Elizabeth for the final three months of her pregnancy and is present to help Elizabeth when she gives birth to John the Baptist. Mary then returns to Nazareth and she and Joseph will make their own pilgrimage to Bethlehem to give birth to Jesus.

This Christmas story is filled with travel, visits, journey and destinations. There is so much we can apply to our Adventures in Grace Pilgrimage. This story is filled with the tender support of cousins, the world and dramatic charisma of John the Baptist who journeys from the desert to fulfill a prediction from the great prophet Isaiah long before.

Mary, Joseph and Jesus will make a different kind of journey to Egypt shortly after his birth, one that is more fleeing than pilgrimage because of the vicious and insecure Roman king who will seek to destroy Jesus and destroys many other innocent children in the process.

As always, please take some time to make connections between your pilgrimage and that of the characters in scripture. Periodically, let others visit you on their way. Invite Mary into your pilgrimage, and not only do I assure you, but my own kind and gentle mother Pat assures you, that Mary will visit us. Let's be sure to recognize her and, when she greets us, let us trust the Grace that will stir in the deepest part of us.

Please take advantage of the many resources that we have worked so hard at providing for you along your way of pilgrimage. May the blessings of connecting your pilgrimage with those in the Christmas story bring you more grace than ever.

Hope, anticipation, and joy is what our third week of Advent is all about. And so is “Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage”. We call it “a journey in joy”.

To experience a sense of it, to register or catch up on prior sessions, visit our special website section at: www:holyfamilyparish.org/aig. Our invitation for anyone to join at any time never ends, now through the journey’s last stop at Pentecost. Spread the word, invite others and share the joy!

Joining a “GiG” (“Gatherings in Grace” small group forum) is also a great way to start your pilgrimage. You’ll make connections with others and together, explore thoughts, feelings, questions and the amazing presence of Grace in everyday life.

As we move ever closer to Christmas, may the spirit of hope and joy fill your hearts. Make Way and Rejoice!

Seniors Over 70 ½

Support Holy Family & Reduce Your Taxes

Did you know that many retirees can donate all or a portion of your IRA required minimum distribution (RMD) directly to a charity? It's called a qualified charitable distribution (QCD). The Secure Act raised the age for RMDs for some taxpayers to 72, but didn't raise the QCD age from 70 1/2.

QCDs do not provide a charitable deduction but they can help reduce your taxes. With a QCD, a check is sent directly from your IRA to your designated charity. The donor can then exclude the amount of the donation from their taxable income.

Consult your tax expert and determine if making a qualified charitable distribution to Holy Family as a part of your annual RMD makes sense for you. It can be a WIN-WIN proposition for you and Holy Family!

of lifelong learning by

for the parish and the community.

Our fall Bible Journey session has ended after a wonderful journey through Romans with Anne Madsen. We explored GRACE through it all and we look forward to beginning again this winter as we dive into a journey with Paul and Life in the Spirit!

If you are wondering what Bible Journey is, imagine a program that began over a decade ago as a morning Scripture study experience. We have studied Scripture with amazing teachers who have opened our eyes and our hearts and helped us understand and apply what we have read to our lives. We have gathered in small groups and shared our life experiences as they relate to Scripture. We have become a Bible Journey family, laughing and sharing stories and also experiencing some of life's more challenging times together.

During the pandemic our program changed a little bit and we had our sessions on Zoom when it was safest to do so. This year we are offering a hybrid experience. We are meeting in person and also providing a Zoom option for those who are still more comfortable socially distancing. We have also encouraged small groups through our Pilgrimage rather than during Bible Journey due to space considerations during the day.

If you would like to join us, we will be beginning again in late January for more time with Paul and and Life in the Spirit, and we'd love to see you there! For more information, contact Marsha Adamczyk at madamczyk@holymfamilyparish.org.

Stay tuned for dates and details in the next Bulletin!

If someone you love is sick...

It is very helpful if a family member calls us to let us know if someone from our parish is in the hospital or in need of prayers. If they are already receiving visits from a trained Minister of Care and their health situation changes this is also very helpful for us to know so we can continue to provide spiritual care in the best way possible. Due to privacy guidelines we must have the permission of a family member to add a name to our public prayer list.

The Adult Faith Life office has trained Ministers of Care who are able to visit and bring the Eucharist to the homebound and those in nursing homes and hospitals (in cooperation with each facility's COVID-19 policies). Please contact Jeannie Parry at jparry@holymfamilyparish.org or 949-632-2059 to let her know if there is someone in need of a visit from a Minister of Care or if you have an update on someone for whom we have been providing spiritual care.

Where's the grace? In people who give of their time and share their love, faithfully bringing the Eucharist and giving hope to those who aren't able to be with us at Mass.

Wishing you a grace-filled Christmas with those you love! From the Adult Faith Life Team Holy Family's PADS site, a Sunday evening shelter for people facing homelessness is unable to open. The number of volunteers is inadequate to safely serve our guests in need of a place to stay as well as not to overburden the volunteers that were willing to serve. Later this year we will evaluate the situation to see if there is potential to open sometime in 2022.

We want to serve the homeless in our midst and have committed to providing 50 meals to the guests that remain in the hotels. If you would like to help by providing a meal item, please go to www.carecalendar.org. ID – 134413 Sec – 9236. Drop off at door 20 is between 5 and 5:15pm.

Volunteers are also needed to prepare the meals for distribution. Since we must maintain social distancing until further notice, volunteers needed to pack are limited. You must sign up through Alma to volunteer in the kitchen. Food donations can be done solely through the Care Calendar website which is listed above.

The dates are:

January 2 & 16 & 30; February 6 & 20

If you have questions about the dinners or to volunteer to pack the meals, please contact Alma at delia03@comcast.net.

Solidarity

We are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers and sisters keepers, wherever they may be. Loving our neighbor has global dimensions in a shrinking world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace. Pope Paul VI taught that if you want peace, work for justice. The Gospel calls us to be peacemakers. Our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we promote peace in a world surrounded by violence and conflict.
