Fr. Terry Keehan

As we continue our Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage we realize how many pilgrimages there are in the Christmas season. I am sure that, even limited by Covid, you and your family have been on many excursions or trips in the past few weeks. Undoubtedly shopping was turned into an adventure, or more than just a trip, as you checked gift purchases, cooking, dining and decorating items off of your list.

Almost all of us make trips to visit relatives and loved ones, and sometimes these trips or journeys involve very complex itineraries, which generate memories and excitement, even in the midst of restrictions, changes and the ever present weather factor in this part of the world. There is always an intricate balancing of schedules and availability. Undoubtedly, these will continue as we look forward to New Year's eve and day.

You may or may not know that one of my favorite entertainers, Jimmy Buffett, was born on Christmas Day. If you haven't already listened to it, his Christmas album has a special meaning. He covers some classics such as Melee Kalikimaka, the Hawaiian Christmas song, and So This Is Christmas. As the last song concludes, he reads the ever favorite 'Twas the Night Before Christmas poem by Clement Clarke Moore.

As is the case with most really talented artists, Buffett adds his own flair to the Christmas story. One song is entitled "Merry Christmas Alabama." Even though he was born just across the Alabama/Mississippi border in Pascagoula, he spent significant portions of his childhood in the Alabama towns of Fairhope and Mobile.

In the song he mentions many of the significant places that he has lived and visited and refers to his pilgrimage as a "long and crazy ride."

I mention this because the unique talent of people like Jimmy Buffett can turn trips into adventures. I would like to suggest that is what makes a trip an adventure, and an adventure a pilgrimage.

We here at Holy Family are continually encouraging you to see, identify and share the unique grace that comes with so many trips, which evolve into excursions, which evolve into adventures. If we are open to the grace that flows from these experiences, they form the elements – rest stops, base camps and chapters – in a pilgrimage, a deeply spiritual pilgrimage!

As Advent this year rolled out the carpet for Christmas, we tied it into the ADVENTures in Grace theme. As we try to do on a regular basis, we put our Holy Family flavor on the classic themes and seasons of our Church year. I hope that our prayerful attention, planning and creativity helps to turn so much of our faith journey into an adventure, and this year in particular as we use the word pilgrimage to describe that adventure. Why do we call it a pilgrimage? Because of the persistent, bold and direct suggestion that all life is filled with grace. Heightening our attention of the grace that flows from everyday life, we can see the entire experience of life as a pilgrimage towards the ultimate destination of a holy union with God and others.

But that union need not be reserved for eternal life. Recognizing grace here and now can create holy unions among us HERE and NOW, giving us glimpses of the holy union that awaits us beyond this life.

Looking at life as a pilgrimage brings a spiritual elevation to the precious gift of life that God has given us. At its heart, this Adventures in Grace pilgrimage is very pro-life. It urges us to name and celebrate the constant flow of grace that is present in the very sacred fabric of our God given lives.

The Christmas pilgrimage continues this week with the Feast of the Holy Family that tells us of one more adventuresome trip, or pilgrimage, that Mary, Joseph and Jesus make fulfilling their religious obligation with a visit to Jerusalem, only to discover that their son apparently went on his own pilgrimage, back to Jerusalem. Next week we hear of the pilgrimage of Kings in the Epiphany story.

These are not ordinary trips, they are Adventures – full of Grace!

A Blessed Christmas to all! Our anticipation and joy abound this week as we welcome and celebrate the birth of Jesus – the greatest gift of unconditional love.

We hope that you all enjoy this special time with friends and loved ones. But now that the busyness of the season winds down, you might be asking, “what do we do now?” as the faithful have asked through the ages. That’s why we’re continuing on our journey of “Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage” together. It’s about exploring ways that all of us can recognize and appreciate the wonders of grace in everyday life. Not just at the holidays, but in the simple, every day experiences where God’s presence is revealed to us.

Our next “Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage” events are coming up on January 9th during weekend Masses and on Wednesday night, January 12th. Mark your calendars, save the date, share the excitement and invite others. To view previous program sessions, register, and connect with others, visit our special website section at: www:holyfamilyparish.org/aig. Our invitation for anyone to join at any time never ends, and that also includes joining one of our “GiGs” -- Gatherings in Grace small group forums.

Every New Year brings hope, possibilities and an opportunity to start anew. We hope you’ll embrace the renewal that “Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage” offers; it’s a wonderful way to fulfill a New Year’s resolution to explore your faith through seeking and finding grace.

Seniors Over 70 ½

Support Holy Family & Reduce Your Taxes

Did you know that many retirees can donate all or a portion of your IRA required minimum distribution (RMD) directly to a charity? It's called a qualified charitable distribution (QCD). The Secure Act raised the age for RMDs for some taxpayers to 72, but didn't raise the QCD age from 70 1/2.

QCDs do not provide a charitable deduction but they can help reduce your taxes. With a QCD, a check is sent directly from your IRA to your designated charity. The donor can then exclude the amount of the donation from their taxable income.

Consult your tax expert and determine if making a qualified charitable distribution to Holy Family as a part of your annual RMD makes sense for you. It can be a WIN-WIN proposition for you and Holy Family!

The journey in Romans with Paul continues, with the addition of 1 Corinthians. If you were unable to attend Bible Journey in the Fall, these four sessions stand apart and don't require previous study in Romans for full understanding and involvement.

January 19 – "Love"
January 26 – "Spiritual Gifts and the Church"
February 2 – "Individual 'gift' inventory – What is my gift?"
February 9 – "Fruit of the Spirit"

All sessions begin at 9:45 am and will conclude by 11:15 am and the fee will be $15. You may attend a live presentation at Holy Family or you have the option to view the session on Zoom.

Christmas Consolation

*Come, Lord Jesus,
Come into the hearts of all in need of hope and consolation.
Expand our celebration of this sacred feast so as to include them in our thoughts, prayers, and outreach.*

*Come into the lives of those bereft and overcome by despair.
Make manifest in us your incarnate love
so that we become messengers of hope and promise.*

*Come into the wastelands of a world immersed in violence and self-interest.
Bring us the light of your compassion, generosity, and peace so that we, through your blessed Spirit, become instruments of transformation.*

Come, Lord Jesus, Come.

HOLY FAMILY PADS SITE for the Homeless UPDATE

Holy Family's PADS site, a Sunday evening shelter for people facing homelessness is unable to open. The number of volunteers is inadequate to safely serve our guests in need of a place to stay as well as not to overburden the volunteers that were willing to serve.

We want to serve the homeless in our midst and have committed to providing 50 meals to the guests that remain in the hotels. If you would like to help by providing a meal item, please go to www.carecalendar.org. ID – 134413 Sec – 9236. Drop off at door 20 is between 5 and 5:15pm.

Volunteers are also needed to prepare the meals for distribution. Since we must maintain social distancing until further notice, volunteers needed to pack are limited. You must sign up through Alma to volunteer in the kitchen. Food donations can be done solely through the Care Calendar website which is listed above.

The dates are:

January 2 & 16 & 30; February 6 & 20

If you have questions about the dinners or to volunteer to pack the meals, please contact Alma at delia03@comcast.net.
