Looking Ahead ...

This Weekend

In a Gospel that is so inclusive and filled with song, we are hearing a particularly challenging portion of the Gospel of Luke who we've been hearing from over the past weeks. Last week's challenge to love our enemies is daunting. This week we hear the question, "Can a blind person lead another blind person?" The answer is obviously "no," but Jesus goes on to emphasize the importance of a teacher or mentor to lead when a student or disciple is somewhat blind. The spiritual seeing continues with the command, "Remove the wooden beam from your eye first, then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in the eye of another."

To remove the large barriers to our spiritual sight can be very challenging, but it may be a significant spiritual exercise in order to see an enemy, experience or institution in a clearer way. Such clarity can open us up to understanding. This may clear the way for dealing with enemies either personally or institutionally. Our perception or belief of that which makes another an enemy might even be the beam in our eye. Keeping another in the enemy category may even be the beam.

In my homily last week, addressing the challenge to love our enemies, I referenced part of the Our Father when we express a desire to connect the divine will and kingdom with ours here on earth. If we are really sincere about connecting those two wills and kingdoms, we must love unconditionally, and loving unconditionally might depend on removing what blocks us from clearer vision.

But, the challenge doesn't end with the removal of the blockades in our eyes and hearts. It continues with recognizing what blocks the sight of others. In other words, we all have things that obstruct our vision; some are splinters, some are beams.

Ash Wednesday

This coming Wednesday begins Lent. We are continuing pilgrimage language to guide us as our Adventures in Grace; a pilgrimage guides us all year long. Our Lenten theme this year is:

Adventures in Grace: The Nature of Mercy

The readings cited above set us up well for a classic aspect of every Lent – Mercy. This Lent will include a commission on Ash Wednesday requiring the classic response on the part of all of us to extend Mercy. The response will be AMEN.

This coming Friday, March 4 we will have live Stations of the Cross in Church at 7:00pm led by Deacon Dennis Brown. Virtual Stations of the Cross will be offered throughout Lent.

Our next FM multi-generational Mass will be next weekend March 6 at 9:00am and we will hear the story of the temptation of Jesus in the desert.

Adventures in Grace will bring a different spin on our annual parish Lenten Mission. We will delve into the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick with the word Mercied as a focus on two nights, Monday, March 14 and Tuesday, March 15.

Our Lenten Social Justice Project will be a partnership with Precious Blood Ministries in the Back of The Yards neighborhood of Chicago. PBM serves youth, families and community members who are impacted by violence. They offer a restorative justice approach to conflict while building a sense of community. This entails many unique efforts, but one of them is to have perpetrators of crime and victims of their crimes to sit down and meet in person. It is a courageous and special form of reconciliation. Our Sacrament of Reconciliation ritualizes what often takes place in this restorative justice process – namely, to put back together something that has been fractured or broken. Men and women who are currently incarcerated are also supported by this ministry.

Please access our website for more information on all activities and events during Lent, and indeed all year around.

Also, keep your sights on our annual Gala Rock Fest on Saturday, April 23.

The Parish Support & Services Community... oversees the parish business and infrastructure activities to ensure they operate efficiently.

This Sunday was known in traditional times as “Quinquagesima” Sunday (meaning “50th” in Latin) marking the 50 day countdown to Easter and the beginning of Lent. It’s a time to start preparing for the hope, joy, sacrifices, glorious gifts and promise that Easter brings.

In our “Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage” journey, we’ve started this preparation by exploring the sacrament of “Confirmation”. Not just the traditional rite, but the call to activate “Confirmation” continuously in our everyday lives. We’re challenged to take stock of our own individual gifts, then share them lovingly and generously with the world. It’s about discovering and Affirming our own unique gifts, those of others, and together, sharing them in service to the world as God intended.

We hope you’ll join us on Ash Wednesday evening, March 2 from 7-8:30PM, for our next “Rest Stop” along the “Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage” path. Come share this joyful, inspirational experience with fellow pilgrims. Please note: since March 2nd is also Ash Wednesday, this “Rest Stop” will be held in person at Holy Family and will also be available online via livestreaming.

Spread the word, invite others and visit our special website section at: www.holyfamilparish.org/aig where you can learn more and access all of our pilgrimage materials.

The Human Concerns

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Holy Family Catholic Community is partnering with Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation (PBMR), located in Chicago, serving the neighborhoods of Back of the Yards/New City and Englewood. Their mission is rooted in the spirituality of the Precious Blood to restore human dignity through radical hospitality, hope and healing. They serve youth, families and community members who are impacted by violence and the criminal justice system. PBMR is mercy personified promoting a restorative justice approach to conflict while building a sense of community. Men and women who are currently incarcerated are also supported by their ministry.

PBMR is celebrating their 20th year. Holy Family has a unique opportunity to impact the lives and futures of people living in these Chicago neighborhoods by learning more about PBMR and supporting the many ways they provide radical hospitality, hope and healing.

How does PBMR provide radical hospitality, hope and healing? PBMR is Mercy Personified by building relationships among the youth and families impacted by violence. They create safe spaces where people can process trauma and heal. Most, importantly, they promote Restorative Justice as an approach to conflict - versus criminal punishment or incarceration - as a way to restore relationships.

Much more about PBMR and their work in the community will be introduced throughout Lent.
