Fr. Terry Keehan

As I sat down to write these words, our Emergency Alert System sounded as it does at 10:00am on the first Tuesday of each month. Through varying tones sounded loudly from speakers atop tall towers, our community is notified of various threats, usually potentially dangerous weather. They also notify us of impending federal and state level attacks of war and other threats. Right now in Ukraine the same sirens are sounding for real, notifying citizens of tremendous danger and attack. They are calling citizens to take shelter in the midst of an evil and violent attack on a country, democracy and humanity itself. I cannot imagine the terror that so many are experiencing. Let us all pray for them. And for the rest of us, those sirens seem to be warning us about the attack on democracy and human decency. One way of articulating this situation is that there is a serious challenge to basic values of human life involving many things, but mainly power. Certain values are being expressed in contrary and tragic fashion.

We hear the story of the Temptation in the Desert this weekend, and the temptations that take place are centered on values – those espoused by evil and those espoused by good. One of them is power.

Satan tempts Jesus to satisfy his hunger immediately. He suggests that Jesus has the power to turn stones into bread to accomplish this. Jesus redirects Satan's focus to the many other things that give us life besides physical food, and does so by quoting the power of God's word.

Next Satan promises the power that comes with ruling earthly kingdoms and lands if Jesus acknowledges his power by worshipping him. Jesus again redirects Satan to the ultimate power of divine worship.

Finally, Satan tempts Jesus by assuring him of the power of others who will catch him if he jumps. He takes his temptation to a higher level by quoting scripture himself, assuring Jesus that the power of God, through the angels who will catch him, will save him. Jesus digs even deeper into the power of the word by citing the sin of putting God to the test.

Amidst the challenge of responding to our own temptations and watching anxiously a violent evil that could threaten the peace of our entire world, let us pray for one of the great gifts of the Holy Spirit that is WISDOM. Let us pray for God's wisdom so that we may be led to a greater sense of global power for good. Our Affirmed leg of the pilgrimage has helped us to focus on the giftedness of the Holy Spirit ritualized in all the Confirmation gifts.

As we pursue the very nature of Mercy this Lent, I strongly suggest that we both tap into and be examples of UNDERSTANDING, WISDOM and REVERENCE. Let us be Confirmed and Affirmed in these Holy Spirit Gifts that are at the heart of Mercy, indeed its very nature.

Lenten Social Justice Project

Our Lenten Social Justice Project will be a partnership with Precious Blood Ministries in the Back of the Yards neighborhood of Chicago. PBM serves youth, families and community members who are impacted by violence. They offer a restorative justice approach to conflict while building a sense of community. This entails many unique efforts but one of them is to have perpetrators of crime and victims of their crimes to sit down and meet in person. It is a courageous and special form of reconciliation. Our Sacrament of Reconciliation ritualizes what often takes place in this restorative justice process - namely, to put back together something that has been fractured or broken. Men and women who are currently incarcerated are also supported by this ministry.

Precious Blood Ministries has a mission that entails RADICAL HOSPITALITY, HOPE and HEALING. We often think of hospitality as snacks and drinks in the narthex following Mass. PBM builds Radical Hospitality including an emphasis on Mercy Incarnate. Incarnate is a great Catholic word that means something becomes real. Jesus Christ is the Incarnate Word of God. God became real in Jesus. Jesus becomes real in the Eucharist and Mercy becomes real in the restorative justice initiatives of Precious Blood Ministries. May our partnership with them become real this Lent.

THANK YOU!

So many of you have taken the time and care to offer your prayers for my recovery from total hip replacement surgery. I am on the mend and because of your prayers I feel a strength that is leading to God's healing. Thank you for your cards, notes, good wishes and especially your prayers. I should be a bit more visible next weekend.

The Lenten season is upon us, a time for contemplation and personal sacrifices as we prepare for the joyous meaning that we know is to come with Easter. We hope that you were inspired by last week's special "Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage" evening Mass that was held on Ash Wednesday. We encourage all to take this solemn Lenten time to reflect on what our pilgrimage has meant for you so far. We're just about at the halfway point, so it's the perfect time to also contemplate what you'd like the journey to be for you and those you love going forward.

Our next segment of "Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage" will kick off during all weekend Masses on March 13th. But given the importance of the Lenten season, our March events will be expanded to a two day Mission. Following the kickoff, there will be two special Evenings of Reflection on March 14th and 15th, all focusing on the sacrament of Reconciliation, which we call "Mercied". As we've done with Baptism and Confirmation, we'll explore the concept of Mercy – love's response to suffering – its presence, meaning and relevance in our everyday lives. Following the two day Mission, we'll hold another "Rest Stop" on the evening of April 6th. Mark your calendars, save the date, invite others and spread the word.

As always, visit our special website section at: www.holyfamilyparish.org/aig where you can learn more and register to participate at any time. We look forward to continuing on our journey together during this very special Lenten time of the year.

The Human Concerns Community... offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Raising a child to be the best he or she can be is the most important job in the world. It is also one of the most difficult. Imagine trying to do this job in an area plagued by daily violence. Knowing that peaceful streets must begin with peaceful homes, a Catholic priest, a deacon's wife, and a retired teacher co-founded Parenting for Non-Violence (P4NV) in 2003 to provide parents with the tools and knowledge to create a peaceful home environment, thereby lessening the chance of children being seduced into violence outside the home.

Parenting for Non-Violence, a non-profit, continues to facilitate workshops in violence prone communities in Chicago. These workshops are held in neighborhood schools, churches and community centers for the convenience of participants and are offered free of charge. With the advent of Covid, P4NV has continued to reach out to parents via zoom. If you would like more information about our programs, volunteer opportunities or wish to donate, please visit our website: www.parentingfornon-violence.org or call (708) 321-0311.

Trust in the Spirit!

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil.

Luke 4: 1-2

Gospel Summary

The Holy Spirit gives us strength and the Word of God guides us during times of temptation.

Family discussion questions on today's Readings

Deuteronomy 26:4-10; PS 91:1-2, 10-11, 12-13, 14-15; Lk 4:1-13

1. In the first reading, when the Egyptians mistreated and oppressed the Israelites, what did they do? (Cried out to the Lord, who heard them and helped them). What should we do when we are in trouble?
2. Temptation is the desire to do something, which we know we shouldn't. Name some temptations kids face. Name some temptations families face.
3. What were the three (3) things that the devil tempted Jesus to do? What did the devil say that Jesus would show or receive if he gave in to each temptation? (Turn stone to bread to prove he was the Son of God; worship the devil and so receive power and glory; jump off a high place to test God)
4. The choices that we make each day and each week tell us much about what is important to us. Share one choice you made this past week with your family. What might that choice tell you about what you value? (I.e. I worked hard at soccer practice, because being a team member is important to me).
5. How we choose to spend our time can tell us a lot about what is important to us. For Lent talk about and choose one thing you will spend more time on as a family and one thing you will spend less time on as a family.
6. When Jesus rebuked the devil, he quoted Scripture. Each of these Scripture quotations was about having trust in God. Is there a word or phrase that you can use to remind yourself to trust God in all things?

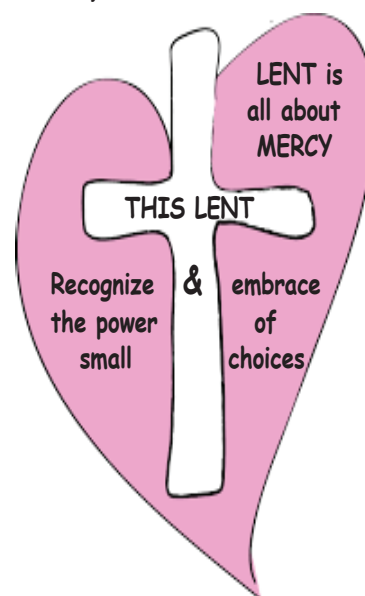

Gospel Challenge for Mar 6

Lent is a time to look at the choices we make.

Good choices strengthen our faith and build up the kingdom of God. Poor choices weaken our faith and delay the coming of God's Kingdom.

See the FM page in today's bulletin for examples of choices you might want to make this Lent.

- Take five (5) minutes every day to pray – this helps us avoid temptation and make good choices.
- Choose one thing you will spend more time doing this Lent
- Choose one thing you will spend less time doing this Lent
- Help feed the hungry in our community. We are struggling to get food donations for our bi-monthly PADS meals. If your family can help, please contact Alma at delia03@comcast.net.
