Holy Week

As Catholics, and particularly here at Holy Family, we emphasize the importance of the Triduum. The word is a descriptive one having to do with the number three. The three in this case refers to the sacred three experiences of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter, and it is always good to remember that liturgically these three are in fact ONE Liturgy. In other words, there is not an end to the prayer experience on Thursday and Friday and Saturday, but simply a pause to wait for the next event.

Chronologically the liturgy spans four days – Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. I like to emphasize that the three of Triduum marks three transitions of four events, ideally prayerfully marked as one.

The three sacred transitions are:

From the Institution of the Eucharist
on Holy Thursday evening
to Suffering of Good Friday
to
Death later on Good Friday
to Resurrection on Easter.

The Resurrection celebration begins with the Vigil on Holy Saturday evening and concludes on Easter Sunday.

This three-part transition can also be described as:

Sacred Meal to Suffering (1)
Suffering to Death (2)
Death to New Life (3)

A profound spiritual exercise is not to simply observe these sacred events but to own them, admit that they are your story as well as Jesus'. The reflection opportunity is to identify them in your own life and the lives of your loved ones. Another way to put this is to ENTER into them yourself, not simply for Jesus.

And that is where Palm Sunday comes in. Jesus entered into the holy city of Jerusalem to institute the Eucharist, suffer, die and rise to new life. His entry was dramatically ritualized with palms laid on the path before him.

Practically though, I have noticed many people getting a palm on Sunday, pausing for three days (Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of Holy Week), then beginning again by going to church on Holy Thursday. I want to invite/challenge you to really ENTER into Holy Week beginning this Palm Sunday. Get yourself ready with extra reflection on your own experience of the Eucharist, your sufferings, your deaths and your new life experiences. May I suggest a simple ritual to enhance your entire experience of Holy Week. Don't simply take a palm this Sunday and place it somewhere in your home. Use Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday to prepare for the Triduum by holding the palm in your hand as you pray. This may help you to focus on your own Triduum of transitions.

Holy Family's Lenten Social Justice Project 2022 Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation Mercy Personified

The Human Concerns Community... offers assistance with
life's basic needs,
spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Our Catholic faith calls us to engage in Prayer, Fasting and Alms-giving for Lent. Prayer - Lent is essentially an act of prayer spread out over 40 days. As we pray, we go on a journey, one that hopefully brings us closer to Christ and leaves us changed by the encounter with him.

Fasting – Fasting is more than giving up a certain food or drink. It is an opportunity to provide an emptiness which allows more space for God to enter our lives and transform us.

Alms-giving - Through prayer and fasting, we grow in solidarity with others living in despair or without basic, adequate resources and turn our attention away from ourselves and to the suffering of our brothers and sisters, no matter where they live. Alms-giving is additional generosity beyond your financial support of Holy Family's regular operation of our mission and the quality programs offered.

This Lent, as a way to engage in prayer, fasting and alms-giving, we are partnering with Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation (PBMR), located in Chicago, serving the neighborhoods of Back of the Yards/New City and Englewood. Their mission is rooted in the spirituality of the Precious Blood to restore human dignity through radical hospitality, hope and healing. They serve youth, families and community members who are impacted by violence and the criminal justice system. PBMR is mercy personified promoting a restorative justice approach to conflict while building a sense of community. Men and women who are currently incarcerated are also supported by their ministry.

When you are prepared to give financially, Lenten SJ Project envelopes are located on the narthex shelves. Please make your check payable to Holy Family with a notation: Lenten SJ Project or go to www.holyfamilyparish.org to make an electronic donation.

PALM SUNDAY

April 10, 2022

HOLY WEEK BEGINS

"...the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen, saying,

"Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest!"

Luke 19:37-38

Gospel Summary

Jesus is our Savior. He 'delivers us from evil'. He rescues us from sin and leads us to a new life full of joy that will never end.

Today's Readings

Luke 19:28-40; Isaiah. 50:4-7; Ps 22:8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24;
Phil 2 6-11 and Luke 22:14-23

Note: We read two (2) gospels on Palm Sunday.

- The first Gospel from Luke recounts Jesus' Entry into Jerusalem. We hear it as part of the Blessing of the Palms at the very beginning of Mass.
- The second gospel is the story of the Passion from the gospel of Luke.

Family discussion questions

1. How did the people welcome Jesus? (they waved Palm Branches and shouted "Hosanna!")
2. Why were the people in Jerusalem so excited to see Jesus? (Jesus had done so many amazing things, they believed he must be the messiah (the One) God had sent to save them).
3. Why did the people choose Palm Branches to lay before Jesus? (Palm branches were a symbol of goodness and victory.)
4. Why do we Bless palm branches and carry them into the Church at the beginning of Mass today? (We too praise Jesus and welcome Him into our hearts as the one who saves us.)
5. Why do we take the blessed psalms home and put them in a special place of honor? (To remind us of Jesus' love for us, and that we believe Jesus is our savior).
6. Finish this sentence, God save me/us from...
7. The story of the Passion according to Luke tells the story of how Jesus suffered and died for us. Name some of the events the Passion tells us about (the Last Supper, the arrest of Jesus, Jesus carries the Cross...)

Lord, by your cross
and resurrection,
you have set us free.
You are the savior
of the world.

Our Gospel Challenge

Enter into Holy Week as a family. As Catholics, we do not simply remember or reflect upon the events and mysteries we celebrate during Holy Week. We "enter into" each event becoming a part of the scene, seeing these events of so long ago unfold before us as if for the very first time. Everything we live and believe as Catholic Christians culminates during the seven (7) days from Palm Sunday through Holy Saturday.

The key to a meaningful celebration of Holy Week, is about how we approach this time we will spend with Jesus as he journeys to the cross. Will we be spectator or participant?

- Come and worship with your parish family during this week. If you cannot come to all of the Holy Week services, choose one. See our parish website for times of the services.
- Celebrate Holy Week at Home using family friendly resources available on our parish website.
