Holy Family's 2022 Gala

Our 2022 Gala, Rock Fest, will be held here at Holy Family on Saturday, April 23, and for those of you planning on attending get your tickets soon. There are only 350 available this year and they are selling fast! The funds raised at the Gala support efforts in our parish and academy that would not be possible in our regular budgets. Recently we have upgraded our first responder radio coverage on campus; upgraded streaming, sound and video capabilities in our church and chapel; replaced our original kitchen appliances; enhanced our community outreach efforts; purchased new computers and laptops for Academy students along with a new math curriculum; provided student counseling services, and much more. Join us at the Gala and I guarantee you will have a rockin' good time.

If you can't make to this year's Gala you can still show your support by donating to our 'May I Have The Envelope Please' challenge. We have 500 envelopes valued from $1 to $500 available; if we can fill all 500 envelopes with the corresponding donation amount, we will have raised $125,000. You can purchase one or more envelopes on-line at the Gala website, or take an envelope from the board in the Narthex and return it with your donation to the front office. See the Gala ad in this Bulletin for more details.

As of this writing there are still 141 tickets available and 23 VIP Tickets. Please join us for some fun and to support a great cause.

The Nature of Mercy

I have been collecting words and statements from various sources, including scripture, that are helping to lead me to clarify the very nature of mercy and thus leading me to embrace both our Lenten theme and the Mercied portion of our Adventures in Grace pilgrimage.

This week's Gospel according to John tells us of some extravagant mercy extended to the adulterous woman by Jesus, and then to a hostile crowd who want to stone her. I have often said that Jesus masterfully shifts the focus from a sinful woman into the hearts of a condemning crowd. Brilliant!!!!

So one of the statements that is helping me clarify the nature of mercy is:

Let the one among you with no sin be the first to cast a stone at her.

I believe that the Nature of Mercy is to realize that we are all sinners, and if we dare to condemn another – even for something that we have NEVER done – if we dare throw a stone for whatever reason, we better make damn sure we have no sin. Since there is no one who has ever lived, other than Jesus and Mary, who has never sinned, then we all should make sure that we throw resources instead of stones to those who are hurting in our midst; resources for improvement, recovery, healing, compassion, support and hope. In short we must extend forgiveness and mercy rather than throwing stones of condemnation.

Two other statements came from Fr. David Kelly who preached at all of our Masses last weekend and is the leader of the Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation with whom we are partnering this Lent to advance the cause of Social Justice and Catholic Social Teaching. He said:

Mercy does not overlook sin, it overwhelms sin.

I am inspired by this image and notion of Mercy. The reality of sin cannot be overlooked, but so often genuine, sincere mercy can overwhelm it, like a strong steady rain overwhelms dirt and grime in our world leaving it cleansed, but not forgetting why it needed cleansing.

The second statement is one that I crafted after hearing his comment on healing mercy. My statement is:

Don't let your hurt turn you into a Hurter; let your healing turn you into a healer.

I hope that both of these statements help you in identifying the Nature of Mercy.

FM

Our next multi-generational Mass will be at 9:00am on Palm Sunday. Palm Sunday leads us into Holy Week, just as Jesus entered into the holy city of Jerusalem to complete his mission on earth: to suffer, die and rise to new life.

Please join us for this and all FM Masses, and please encourage three generations of your family to attend, to pray together and, on Palm Sunday, to begin the holiest week of the year with this unique, vibrant and inclusive Mass.

Holy Family Catholic Academy applied and interviewed to be part of the Museum of Science & Industry Science Lab improvement team. The goal of the MSI Leadership initiative is to "address the critical issue of student achievement and exposure to STEM by supporting science education on a whole-school level." HFCA is developing a resource of experts who could lend their expertise to our science, technology, engineering and math units. This compilation of experts will eventually be shared as a resource for all HFCA teachers.

We know the Holy Family Community has connections with people and groups who have expertise in many areas of science, technology, engineering, and math through a career, hobby, or passion. As you think of your family members (yourself), friends, and professional contacts who would be willing to share their knowledge with our students, would you please share or complete the following survey? ## Holy Family's Lenten Social Justice Project 2022 Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation Mercy Personified spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Our Catholic faith calls us to engage in Prayer, Fasting and Alms-giving for Lent. This Lent, as a way to engage in prayer, fasting and alms-giving, we are partnering with Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation (PBMR), located in Chicago, serving the neighborhoods of Back of the Yards/New City and Englewood. Their mission is rooted in the spirituality of the Precious Blood to restore human dignity through radical hospitality, hope and healing. They serve youth, families and community members who are impacted by violence and the criminal justice system. PBMR is mercy personified promoting a restorative justice approach to conflict while building a sense of community. Men and women who are currently incarcerated are also supported by their ministry.

What is restorative justice?

A system of criminal justice which focuses on the rehabilitation of offenders through reconciliation with victims and the community at large.

The three core elements of restorative justice are the interconnected concepts of Encounter, Repair, and Transform. Each element is discrete and essential. Together they represent a journey toward wellbeing and wholeness that victims, offenders, and community members can experience. Encounter leads to repair, and repair leads to transformation.

When you are prepared to give financially, Lenten SJ Project envelopes are located on the narthex shelves. Please make your check payable to Holy Family with a notation: Lent SJ Project or go to www.holyfamilyparish.org to make an electronic donation.

The Fifth Sunday of Lent Celebrating the Third Scrutiny

There is no condemnation in God, only mercy.

Mercy is a love characterized by a deep sense of compassion, a kindness expressed in the willingness to forgive, spare, or help.

"Jesus Offers Mercy, Not Condemnation"

Mercy is a gift. Wholly undeserved, mercy is a blessing which flows from a deep and abiding love – the unconditional love of God for each of us.

Lent, is a time of purification and enlightenment, especially for those preparing to receive the Easter sacraments (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist). Today, we celebrate the Third Scrutiny with our first and second year Confirmation candidates.

The Scrutinies, (celebrated on the third, fourth and fifth Sundays of Lent) are rituals of self-searching and repentance. They are ancient Christian rites, expressing in word and symbol, God's faithful love. The Scrutinies are meant to uncover, then heal, all that is weak and broken in us and in the hearts of our Confirmation candidates. They give voice to God's mercy, inviting us to look within for anything that makes it difficult for us to experience divine love. The Scrutinies call us to recognize, and then strengthen, all that is upright and good in us and in the world.

Who scrutinizes, or investigates the inner recesses of our hearts? Who alone is our judge? The one who knows us best, Christ, the saving Word of God. Like the woman in today's gospel, Christ showers us with mercy. Like her, Christ does not condemn us. He enfolds us in mercy, finding us worthy of His love and friendship. Christ's affirmation empowers the woman and us to renounce sin, to turn away from evil in all its forms, and embrace God's love.

"In Christ, we find no condemnation and we're able to "approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need."

(Hebrews 4:16)

Participating in these holy rites as one community, we stand in solidarity with our Confirmation candidates. We recall our own Baptism and prepare for its Easter renewal. We take to heart the Lord's declaration in the Prophet Isaiah, "I am doing something new!" Like our ancestors in faith we trust God is making a way for us in the wilderness, preparing us to celebrate new life, through the grace of the Easter sacraments.
