Fr. Terry Keehan

My good friend and theologian Jack Shea consistently brings profound insights into spiritual matters, particularly for the scriptures. Please see his three volume work entitled Spiritual Wisdom of the Gospels for Christian Preachers and Teachers published by Liturgical Press. You may be aware that I quote him often. One of my favorite insights that he offers is, "In regard to the Gospels, it is always dangerous to ask Jesus a question." Shea cites many examples of passages in the scriptures where people ask a question of Jesus and end up getting much more than a simple answer.

In this week's Gospel passage from Luke we enter into some very dangerous and thought provoking territory in which Jesus is asked two questions:

What must I DO to attain eternal life?
and
Who is my neighbor?

Interestingly enough, Jesus ask three questions in return:

What is written in the Law?
How do you read it?
and
Which of the three were neighbor to the man who was beaten by the robbers?

The lead off question is one designed to test Jesus and it is given by a scholar who knows the Law well and who knows the answer. He is trying to trip Jesus up. Jesus is well aware of this, so he does a wise thing. He asks two questions in return back to back, aware that the scholar knows in his HEAD what is WRITTEN in the law, but probably not how to DO it in his heart.

The scholar proceeds to answer the question perfectly with a combination of two quotes from the Law of the earliest Old Testament books: Deuteronomy 6 4-9 and Leviticus 19:18.

They read:

Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind and might
and
Love your neighbor as yourself.

I can only imagine that the scholar is pleased with himself, so he asks Jesus HIS (and our) most important question – Who is my neighbor?

We should all give significant reflection, and both spiritual and physical attention to our answer. We must not read about the answer to this question or consult laws about it. We must answer it from our hearts, particularly now when our world is being deluged by violence against life itself from so many sources, while considering laws that relate to such violence. Our answer is critical now in a time when disrespect for neighbors is rampant and sometimes unchecked.

I have put much self-reflection to my answer and, admittedly, need to do better at identifying and being compassionate to my neighbor. Such compassion was the core of the scholar's answer to Jesus' final question.

My neighbor is wealthy, successful, poor and lonely. My neighbor is Black, White, Brown, Asian and more. My neighbor is Gay, Lesbian, Straight, Transgender and Questioning their sexual identity. My neighbor identifies as Democrat as well as Republican. My neighbor is a conservative Catholic and a liberal Catholic. My neighbor is Christian and non-Christian. My neighbor is very young, very old and all ages between. My neighbor is ill and healthy, happily married, divorced, single and widowed. My neighbor speaks the same language as I do and my neighbor speaks a different language than I do. My neighbor has strong opinions which I should respect, and my neighbor is not always compassionate towards my way of thinking.

Who is your neighbor? Go and DO what the Good Samaritan did: treat your neighbor with compassion!

RCIA Inquiry Night

Mark your calendar for Wednesday, August 24 at 7:00 pm if you would like to learn more about becoming Catholic, or invite someone who is seeking a spiritual home in the Catholic Church to join us. If you are a baptized Catholic, but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation, you are also invited to join us for this informational evening. This will be a very relaxed event and any questions you have about the process will be answered.

At Holy Family, our RCIA experience is a journey of head and heart. We will learn about the faith while walking together through the joys and challenges of life, and we will explore how to live sacramentally in it all. Our team is excited for the year ahead! If you're feeling a nudge, contact Mary in the Adult Faith Life office at mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3450 for more information.

Attention Homebound

If you are homebound and would like a Minister of Care to bring you the Eucharist, please contact Jeannie Parry at jparry@holymfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3448.

Back to School Holiday Sharing Tags

Yes, it's early, but the beginning of the school year is not that far away. Holy Family is committed to serving individuals in need through the Holiday Sharing Tag program. Instead of the tags hanging in the narthex, these "tags" will be listed on Sign Up Genius on our website - holyfamilyparish.org - under Volunteer Opportunities. As we have done in the past, we will be supporting children from these local agencies - Hopeful Beginnings, Catholic Charities and WINGS. We will be collecting items listed on the Sign Up Genius. They are due back to the parish by July 24th.

Your backpacks with school items can be dropped off in the hallway by the chapel during parish regular hours of operation and at Mass times. More details are on Sign Up Genius. Your school supplies for children in need will surely be a welcome gift for this upcoming school year in the fall. Contact Barb at stec3950@gmail.com with questions.

The Human Concerns

Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY HOUSE BLESSING

Holy Family is a member of the Habitat For Humanity Fox Valley Spring of Life partnership. A newly renovated home in Elgin was dedicated and blessed in June. More than 20 homes have either be built or renovated over the past 25 years providing secure, safe and affordable housing to local families.

No One Gets a Free Home

The homes we build are purchased by homeowners who don't qualify for a conventional mortgage, but meet Habitat's strict requirements for an interest-free $500 down mortgage. In addition to financial requirements, adult homeowners must put in 250 hours of sweat equity on their homes. Working alongside the construction crew gives these first-time homeowners an opportunity not only to put some "skin in the game," but also to learn how to maintain their homes. (To read more about the process, see <http://www.habitatnfv.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/02/English-FAQ.pdf>.)

For more information about our work with Habitat, contact Larry Buettner at larrybuettner@outlook.com.

Five Really Good Reasons why you should to be a Catechist at Holy Family this coming year

5. The best way to learn is to teach.

Want a guaranteed way to deepen your own relationship with God? Be a catechist.

4. Our children/teens need to hear 'Good News'

Let's face it the world is a mess. Try to imagine what growing up in it is like. Being a bearer of the 'Good News' you will be a bearer of hope in a desolate time.

3. Catechists tell the truth

If ever there was a time for truth telling it is now. The Scripture tells us the truth sets us free. All of us need to be freed from the distrust, fear, anxiety, worry, anger, resentment, cynicism... the constant barrage of falsehood has unleashed in our society.

2. You enact/embody your belief in our parish mission of lifelong spiritual learning.

So many are looking for a God they can connect with, a spiritual home to belong to, you could give that gift.

1. There is a critical need for catechists at Holy Family

COVID decimated our Faith Programs. Our enrollment was cut in half; our catechetical staff went from 100 to 36. Without more catechists, we will not be able to welcome the families who want to return to our programs.
