Looking Back

As we journey through the Gospel of Luke, be aware that the entire Gospel is written as a pilgrimage towards Jerusalem. The destination is the suffering and death and Resurrection of Christ. I hope our recent year-long pilgrimage heightens your appreciation of this unique characteristic of the third Gospel. As with the other Gospels in the three-year cycle of different readings, we hear passages each week that sometimes come immediately following the previous week's passage, but often the passages are not chronologically presented so as to properly fit the rhythms of the Church year.

The current series of weeks give us the continual readings of a section of Luke, just as you would read it as you read a book. The five questions in last week's Gospel, highlighted by "Who is my neighbor?" give us all significant material to reflect on. The first question from last week's gospel was, "What must I DO to attain eternal life?" Notice the emphasis on DO. The scholar who is asking Jesus questions can read and recite the Law, but he is struggling with how to DO it. The adage Actions speak louder than words is given a powerful spin as a result of these questions. In the abundant legality of our lives, reciting and reading expresses the Law; doing brings about compassion.

The awful events of the Highland Park Fourth of July parade offer us opportunities to see the Highland Park community as our neighbors, and to see how many people have stepped forward to DO the acts of compassion that have brought about a beginning of healing.

Looking Ahead

The difference between doing and reflecting is presented in this week's passage from Luke that follows immediately on that of last week. Jesus visits the home of Martha and Mary, the sisters of his good friend Lazarus. Martha is busy with the details of hospitality. She is getting her home ready for a very important visitor. I believe we can all relate to this when we are preparing for guests. She is doing the tasks, but she is also anxious about many things. Don't we often heighten stress as we do the activities of life while simultaneously worrying about many other things? Don't we even at times DO tasks to try to take our mind off of what bothers us?

Martha's sister Mary recognizes the importance of focusing on the presence of Jesus. She sits at his feet as if to hang on every word and action that he does. She honors his presence by listening to him. Martha feels abandoned in the doing of her tasks. Mary's lack of help furthers her stress and anxiety. Jesus points this out. Let us not pit doing against reflecting; rather we have an opportunity to see how they complement each other.

Two New Features

I want to introduce two features of my weekly articles that will be ongoing. One is A Little About Work. My hope is to share my philosophy of work with you – namely that our work is God's work and just how pervasive work is in our lives. I have a real passion for connecting our work with God's and I want to share that with you regularly. The other feature is Ministry Spotlight which will regularly present details of one of over 100 ministries here at Holy Family

A Little Bit About Work

The word work is so pervasive in our culture. It most often refers to our livelihood, our job, our focus. Synonyms such as toil, labor, and exertion give it a rather negative feel. I define work as any effort we put forth to continue God's work. I believe that we work at and with many other people and elements in ways that are much more positive and life-giving. If we see our work as an extension of and in partnership with God's work, it can be much more uplifting.

Ministry Spotlight

Hospitality. We take pride here at Holy Family in offering people the opportunity to continue the sense of community and welcome after Mass. We are in need of additional teams to make and pour coffee and drinks. You can cook or bake some goodies if you wish, but there are currently people who do so. Simply arrive a few minutes before Mass, plate and serve treats and clean up after. Right now you would only have to serve every 4-5 weeks. Encourage others who are outgoing and friendly to inquire, or contact Sue Geegan at sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org yourself for details.

RCIA Inquiry Night

Mark your calendar for Wednesday, August 24 at 7:00 pm if you would like to learn more about becoming Catholic, or invite someone who is seeking a spiritual home in the Catholic Church to join us. If you are a baptized Catholic, but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation, you are also invited to join us for this informational evening. This will be a very relaxed event and any questions you have about the process will be answered.

At Holy Family, our RCIA experience is a journey of head and heart. We will learn about the faith while walking together through the joys and challenges of life, and we will explore how to live sacramentally in it all. Our team is excited for the year ahead! If you're feeling a nudge, contact Mary in the Adult Faith Life office at mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3450 for more information.

Back to School Holiday Sharing Tags

Yes, it's early, but the beginning of the school year is not that far away. Holy Family is committed to serving individuals in need through the Holiday Sharing Tag program. Instead of the tags hanging in the narthex, these "tags" will be listed on Sign Up Genius on our website - holyfamilyparish.org - under Volunteer Opportunities. As we have done in the past, we will be supporting children from these local agencies - Hopeful Beginnings, Catholic Charities and WINGS. We will be collecting items listed on the Sign Up Genius. They are due back to the parish by July 24th.

The Family & Teen Faith Community... offers faith formation and catechesis to preschool through elementary school aged children and high school teens and their families.

Register your Pre-K/Kindergarten kids in Family Faith's Adam Apple Program now. These limited sized classes fill fast!

Adam's Apple is Family Faith's program for our Pre-K/Kindergarten kids. It meets fourteen (14) times a year on Sunday morning from 9:00-10:00 am. This gives parents the opportunity to worship at the 9:00 am Mass. Class sizes are limited to fifteen (15) and fill quickly. Tuition for the year is $50.00 for one child, $75.00 for two or more. Classes will begin this year on Sunday, September 11, 2022.

This program focuses on the Sunday readings. We use the Pflaum Gospel Weeklies as a class resource along with crafts, music, stories, videos, and games. The Gospel Weeklies provide a lively and engaging way for catechists and parents to help young children experience the Gospel stories and learn about the liturgical seasons of the Church year. From September-May, each child receives a weekly colorful hands-on four-page handout, designed for this age group. On the weeks that our Adam's Apple kids do not meet with their catechist and each other, we provide families with on-line access to all the Pflaum materials. This includes the weekly videos, handouts, and the Parent Teaching Pages (easy-to-use guides that walk parents through teaching each lesson with step-by-step instructions, background information, and discussion starters) so families can continue to share the 'joy of the Gospel' with each other.
