Asking, Requesting, Pleading, Bargaining, Negotiating

A little bit of all the above runs through our scripture readings this weekend. Abraham is quite the negotiator with God on behalf of the people of Sodom. Their communal sin is so great that God comes down from Heaven to check the authenticity of their wayward behavior. This is similar to the risk of coming down that God took in becoming human in Jesus Christ. However, in this Genesis story God speaks intimately and personally only with Abraham, who not only talks God down from destroying Sodom because of 50 innocent people, all the way down to 10. He also mixes the fate of guilty and innocent, and Sodom is saved from God's wrath, similar to the way God becoming human has saved the human race — guilty and innocent both.

This negotiating led to what Paul says to the Colossians in the second reading: "...having forgiven us all our transgressions; obliterating the bond against us." I suggest that God obliterates any bond that separates us from Him and each other.

The Gospel from Luke tells us how the disciples plead with Jesus for teaching on prayer. His response is the all too familiar Lord's Prayer that contains a string of requests:

- Thy kingdom come
- Thy will be done
- Give us today's bread
- Forgive us as we forgive
- Lead us away from temptation
- Deliver us from evil

The passage goes on to include more pleading:

- A friend pleading for a loan (as well as a loaf) of bread at an inconvenient hour
- The friend continuing after being denied and eventually getting his request because his persistence supersedes the untimely hour and friendship bonds

It goes even farther to extol the importance of asking, seeking and knocking, essential but certainly not inclusive of the many types and styles of prayer.

It then goes still even farther, putting us in the role of parent responding to the requests of our children, like God responding to our requests.

What parent would give their child something dangerous if they ask for something innocent.

The ultimate lesson is that God responds to our pleading, asking, requesting and, even sometimes, to our negotiating in the same way.

Let's not let our prayer be dominated by requests to God, but let's also not be afraid to ask, particularly like Abraham, on behalf of others. Let's continually request a melding between God's Kingdom and ours. Let's only ask for the things we need daily and not get too greedy.

Perhaps the most important requests we can make are to be forgiven as we forgive, because that requires significant self-reflection. And, most importantly, let's request God's will be done. In the midst of so many challenges, tragedies and mysteries in our world today God's will seems hard to find sometimes.

I have gotten to a point in my life where I really have only one request, and that is to accept and understand God's will, which is sometimes a very tall order.

A Little Bit about Work

Work is not only a pervasive part of our culture, it is equally pervasive in scripture. I have strongly contended that our good work, whether we realize it or not, continues God's good work. For prayerful but not literal consideration, this work was begun in creation. See Ecclesiastes 3:9 and following, asking us what advantage we have from our work connected with the timelessness that God has placed in our hearts, considering from beginning to end, the WORK which God has done.

Ministry Spotlight

I believe there is a teacher in all of us, particularly in the ways of faith. Our Family and Teen Faith ministries are always in need of Catechists. Right now we have a particular need for Teen Catechists. Now this may scare some of you, but the resources that Dr. Peg and her staff give you, and the structure of our formation program, will support you. You already have what you need, life experience and your own experiences of faith. Make a real difference in the life of our young people – be a Catechist. Contact Dr. Peg Hanrahan at phanrahan@holyfamilyparish.org or by phone through our main office.

RCIA Inquiry Night

Mark your calendar for Wednesday, August 24 at 7:00 pm if you would like to learn more about becoming Catholic, or invite someone who is seeking a spiritual home in the Catholic Church to join us. If you are a baptized Catholic, but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation, you are also invited to join us for this informational evening. This will be a very relaxed event and any questions you have about the process will be answered.

At Holy Family, our RCIA experience is a journey of head and heart. We will learn about the faith while walking together through the joys and challenges of life, and we will explore how to live sacramentally in it all. Our team is excited for the year ahead! If you're feeling a nudge, contact Mary in the Adult Faith Life office at mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3450 for more information.

Attention Homebound

If you are homebound and would like a Minister of Care to bring you the Eucharist, please contact Jeannie Parry at jparry@holymfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3448.

Back to School Holiday Sharing Tags

Yes, it's early, but the beginning of the school year is not that far away. Holy Family is committed to serving individuals in need through the Holiday Sharing Tag program. Instead of the tags hanging in the narthex, these "tags" will be listed on Sign Up Genius on our website - holyfamilyparish.org - under Volunteer Opportunities. As we have done in the past, we will be supporting children from these local agencies - Hopeful Beginnings, Catholic Charities and WINGS. We will be collecting items listed on the Sign Up Genius. They are due back to the parish by July 24th.

Your backpacks with school items can be dropped off in the hallway by the chapel during parish regular hours of operation and at Mass times. More details are on Sign Up Genius. Your school supplies for children in need will surely be a welcome gift for this upcoming school year in the fall.

Holy Family to Host Summer Meals Program through September

Holy Family will host a Summer Meals Program the 4th Monday of each month through September from 6:30-7:30pm for anyone in need of a meal. Many volunteers are needed to donate food as we have committed to serve about 160+ people including PADS guests staying in hotels. Sign up to bring food items listed on Carecalendar by visiting www.carecalendar.org; ID 134413 Password 9236. Fully-prepared food can be dropped off at Holy Family the evening that meal will be served (door 20) between 4:45-5:15pm.

Dates: Mondays: August 22 and September 26

For questions or to volunteer to pack the meals, you must sign up through Alma at delia03@comcast.net. No walks in will be allowed due to limited space.

Holy Family Needs An Assist-a-Family Co-Coordinator

The Assist A Family (AAF) program provides food and gifts appropriate to the holiday three times a year - Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter - to families being assisted through Holy Family and local organizations. The program is completed about three weeks before the actual holiday. The majority of effort involves emailing Holy Family donors, that have already agreed to adopt a family, and follow up with the organization and donor families to ensure gifts are delivered on time. Each holiday requires roughly a 8-hour time commitment spread out over about 6 weeks working at your convenience. If you are interested, contact Sue Geegan at sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3443.

Five more really good reasons why YOU should to be a Catechist at Holy Family this coming year

5. Catechists are role models

Walking the talk is a powerful witness not easily forgotten. You will make a lasting impression on the lives of those you share your faith with (and they you).

4. Sharing the faith is an honor

Catechists are people who "keep the memory of God alive," says Pope Francis. "They keep it alive in themselves and are able to revive it in others." Did you say you were looking for a renewed sense of purpose in your life?!!

3. Being a catechist is satisfying

The creativity, energy, imagination and joy children/teens have is contagious. You also become a member of a faith community within the larger parish community.

2. You will be helping others discover and embrace God's presence in their lives.

Learning to recognize God's presence in the everyday of our daily lives is a life skill that brings contentment and peace during both the joyful and difficult times of our lives.

1. There is a critical need for catechists at Holy Family

COVID decimated our Faith Programs. Our catechist #'s staff went from 100 down to 36. Our enrollment is starting to increase. However, without more catechists, we won't be able to welcome those families who want to return to our Faith programs.

If you are willing to be a catechist starting this Fall, please contact Laura Ferlita, ferlita@holyfamilyparish.org or Maureen Cochran, mcochran@holyfamilyparish.org.
