Fr. Terry Keehan

Many years before I joined you here at Holy Family (which was in 2009) I began to state and restate a very strong conviction of mine namely:

We all share ONE world and the world that we share is both physical and spiritual.

You have probably heard me convey this both in homilies and in meetings, and probably here in my weekly article.

We often hear a philosophy that separates our ONE world into two worlds: one that is physical, and the other one spiritual. I believe this separation categorizes, and actually diminishes, the ONE world and the creative source of it – God’s love. This separation limits the potential for grace.

I have found not only a platform for my convictions here at Holy Family but kindred spirits who view the sacredness of our ONE world so similarly. So many of you have lived this philosophy.

This is an excerpt from my writing about work that may help to clarify:

“Put another way – REAL or REALITY is both physical and spiritual. Put yet another way, as the spiritual and physical come together—that is REALITY.” Work is just one arena for reality to play out. There are countless others.

I attended our Priest Convocation this past week and one of the keynote talks was given by Cardinal Wilton Gregory from Washington DC, who was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Chicago and served in many priestly capacities here. The convocation is about hope and in his presentation the Cardinal said, “Hope is born by facing reality.”

I find this melding of physical, spiritual, reality and hope gives further substance to my view. This spiritual mindset was really the earliest movements of my soul leading to and underpinning our Adventures in Grace pilgrimage. One of the strongest statements is a song that we sang often this past year, “Everything is Holy Now” by Peter Mayer. Give it a listen if you haven’t yet.

Our year-long spiritual adventure has been a powerful collaboration between our wonderful staff, Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson and his Soul Play staff.

This whole thing has been such good and renewed church. It has been lay led, creative, evocative, moving and oh, so sacred. Collaboration is not often Catholic. We are dominated by the competitive Catholic attitude of ...“another parish has THIS program, why don’t we?”

Adventures in Grace was a tender, warm collaboration with Soul Play. Terry’s creativity supplemented the sacred rituals of our Seven Sacraments with new, fresh and expansive rituals. I so regularly ask you to spiritually place on the altar your sorrows, frustrations, worries, joys, triumphs, hopes and anything else you want to offer to God, then be guided by the priest at Mass who ritually offers them to God.

This spiritual/physical connection has really deepened my appreciation for the all Sacraments, but most important, the most sacred thing for all of us Catholics – the Eucharist. Physical elements such as water, oil, fire and touch are central to the celebrations of our faith. Christ’s REAL presence is conveyed by the physical elements of bread and wine. Here the spiritual flows from the physical most powerfully, and physical makes the spiritual a reality.

Without physical, real world elements such as vines, vineyards, seeds, coins, treasures, pearls, sheep and so much more, Jesus has no basis for parables and images for the kingdom.

One Wednesday evening during the pilgrimage when we all placed Sacramentals on the altar it was a very tactile ritual that connected and expanded my invitation of offering. Led by Mary Whiteside’s bell, it was one of the most sacred rituals I have participated in because so many made the spiritual offering that I urge to be manifest in a more physical way, placing them physically on our ONE altar, and simultaneously celebrating meaningful death and spiritual experiences.

We were empowered during the pilgrimage to see that we all have the authority to mediate grace. This extends the vision that the founders of Holy Family had of a flexible sanctuary space – movable altar, ambo and presider chair so the experience of sacred could be expanded. Our young Spirit Campers dance in our sanctuary. Our teens dramatize Christ’s Passion every Good Friday in our sanctuary. I believe these make the space even holier.

We have begun and are passionate about the next phase, where the spiritual and physical will continue to come together. Our Sunday/Wednesday pattern for the next year will include GIG (Gatherings in Grace) small groups, expanded Social Justice components and more.

We are still forming specifics and AIG follow up will merge nicely with the Renew My Church initiative as well. More details to come.

Roe v. Wade Statement

Fr. Kurt and I shared this simple statement at all Masses last week:

We are all beneath this beautiful Cross that I believe invites us into even deeper reflection on life in light of the Supreme Court overturning the Roe v. Wade law on Friday. This decision has caused much debate, and although we may have differing opinions about the law, let us protect all life like a seamless garment from womb to tomb. Please see Cardinal Cupich’s statement on our website and the Archdiocesan website for further wisdom in this dialogue.

The Adult Faith

of lifelong learning by providing educational, spiritual, and formational activities for the parish and the community.

Mark your calendar for Wednesday, August 24 at 7:00 pm if you would like to learn more about becoming Catholic, or invite someone who is seeking a spiritual home in the Catholic Church to join us. If you are a baptized Catholic, but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation, you are also invited to join us for this informational evening. This will be a very relaxed event and any questions you have about the process will be answered.

At Holy Family, our RCIA experience is a journey of head and heart. We will learn about the faith while walking together through the joys and challenges of life, and we will explore how to live sacramentally in it all. Our team is excited for the year ahead! If you're feeling a nudge, contact Mary in the Adult Faith Life office at mwhiteside@holyfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3450 for more information

From Fr. Kurt

This past Mother's Day, I gave a homily that was well-received by many folks. In the homily, I shared a poem written by Maggie Pittman entitled simply "HER HANDS." It is a tribute to all the love a mother shows through the "work of her hands." Here is that poem. - Fr. Kurt Boras

HER HANDS

HER HANDS held me gently from the day I took my first breath.
HER HANDS helped to guide me as I took my first step.
HER HANDS held me close when the tears would start to fall.
HER HANDS were quick to show me that she would take care of all.
HER HANDS were there to brush my hair, or strengthen a wayward bow.
HER HANDS were often there to comfort the hurts that didn't always show.
HER HANDS helped hold the stars in place, and encouraged me to reach.
HER HANDS would clap and cheer and praise when I captured them at length.
HER HANDS would also push me, though not down or in harm's way.
HER HANDS would punctuate the words, JUST DO AS I SAY!
HER HANDS sometimes had to discipline to help bend this young tree.
HER HANDS would shape and mold me into all she knew I could be.
HER HANDS are now twisting with age and years of work.
HER HANDS now need my gentle touch to rub away the hurt.
HER HANDS are more beautiful than anything can be.
HER HANDS are the reason I AM ME!!!

Human Concerns

Back to School Holiday Sharing Tags

Yes, it's early, but the beginning of the school year is not that far away. Holy Family is committed to serving individuals in need through the Holiday Sharing Tag program. Instead of the tags hanging in the narthex, these "tags" will be listed on Sign Up Genius on our website - holyfamilyparish.org - under Volunteer Opportunities. As we have done in the past, we will be supporting children from these local agencies - Hopeful Beginnings, Catholic Charities and WINGS. We will be collecting items listed on the Sign Up Genius. They are due back to the parish by July 24th.

Your backpacks with school items can be dropped off in the hallway by the chapel during parish regular hours of operation and at Mass times. More details are on Sign Up Genius. Your school supplies for children in need will surely be a welcome gift for this upcoming school year in the fall. Contact Barb at stec3950@gmail.com with questions.

St. Joseph's Home for the Elderly is looking for your help.

We have a serious replacement/repair situation at St. Joseph's Home that has come up and we need your help! Our building (173,000 square feet) is heated through a hot water system. The hot water is pumped through the building through seven (7) pumps. The pumps have been failing and we have just found out that they have reached the end of their useful life. They need to be replaced so that we can heat the building when the weather turns cold.

The estimated cost is $220,000. Additionally, with supply chain issues, there is an 8-week lead time for the parts. Do you think this project would be something that you would consider supporting financially? If so, please go to LittleSistersofthePoorPalatine.org to donate. Anything that you can give would be greatly appreciated! Please keep us in your prayers. We promise to pray for you and your loved ones each day!

Teen Mission Trip – Our Adventures in Grace continue

Holy Family teens teamed up with teens from Lumen Christi Parish in Mequon, WI for this year's Mission Trip to St. Louis, the week of June 19-24.

Day 1 and 3 of the Mission Trip saw the teens working at Feed My People, a food pantry and thrift store. The thrift store purchases support food purchases for the food pantry which has two locations in St. Louis and serves 1600 household a week.

Day 2 the teens headed off to work at the Bell Community Garden.

The teens also did some sightseeing, visiting the iconic Arch, the renown mosaics at the Basilica of St. Louis the Shrine of St. Rose Philippine Duchesne, RCSJ.

Holy Family teens, Catie Mooney and Bella Ffitch-Heyes hard at work.

What do they all have in common?

A need to know and experience that they are LOVED by God - recklessly, tenaciously, tenderly, irrevocably, mercifully and delightfully loved by God.

HELD by a God who whispers to them again and again, "It's O.K. I am with you."

NAMED by God - "You are my beloved!"

FREED by divine love to love.

A feeling of belonging

A sense of being connected to God and God's people. An experience of believing in something larger and more powerful than themselves.

Give them the priceless gift of a faith they can call their own.
