Welcome Karen McHale to our Family Faith Staff

Please join me in welcoming Karen McHale as our new Family Faith Religious Education Coordinator. She and her husband, Michael, have been parishioners for several years and they have four children – Michael, Brendan, Margaret and Kevin. Karen has been a Catechist for the past six years and she brings many organizational talents with her through her extensive involvement with the city of Rolling Meadows. Welcome, Karen!

Looking Back

Last week I mentioned some resources in my homily to address toxic polarization in our nation, our church and our world. They are:

- A Book: The Way Out: How to Overcome Toxic Polarization by Peter T. Coleman, 2021. Published by Columbia University Press. This is a resource for healthy conflict resolution and listening.
- A Non-Profit: Story Core founded by David Isay. This organization is dedicated to sharing stories of Americans from a very diverse group of backgrounds. It is a resource for story-sharing and expressing that we are not as different as we think.
- The Acronym THINK – When we talk with others with differing views, we should ask ourselves if what we say is: True, Helpful, Inspiring, Necessary, Kind. This is a resource for increased respect and decreased meanness
- The Eucharist (Mass): A deeply spiritual way to regularly celebrate so many things, including our commonality as the Body of Christ, and what Mother Theresa said, “We belong to each other.”

Looking Ahead

We hear more challenging words from this section of the Gospel of Luke this week. The question is asked to Jesus, “Lord, will only a few be saved?” His answer is that many will attempt, but will not be strong enough to enter the Kingdom of God. He indicates that many will seek to have the door opened, but will be looking in from the outside. He ends with the admonition, “Behold, some who are last will be first and some who are first will be last.”

Once again, physical images are used to make a profoundly spiritual point. They include the narrow door, eating and drinking, teaching in the streets and the four directions – North, South, East and West – are used to paint a picture that is critical to the challenge. These physical entities represent things that might lull us into assuming that we have some connection with Christ. Even the mention of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob represent the lineage of salvation (Abraham as father, Isaac as son, Jacob as grandson) and, particularly in Jacob’s case, someone who has reformed, reconciled and has converted from behavior that is contrary to admission in the kingdom.

Keep in mind that this message is first told to the earliest followers of Jesus and he must emphasize the challenge of following him. Similar to last week’s Gospel, some people will really believe in the suffering, death and resurrection of Christ, and some will not.

I believe that it is all about our belief in – and our living out – the Paschal Mystery. Can we look at our own sufferings and deaths through the lens of faith in our Triune God and be led to new life in whatever form that takes?

A Little Bit About Work

In our first reading this weekend from Isaiah (66:18-21) the Lord says through the great prophet, “I know their works and their thoughts.” Scripture is filled with the wide and varied use of the word works. It means activity, among other things, and this passage implies that God is watching our work. Other passages focus on the goodness of our work and even our partnership with God in our good work.

Ministry Spotlight

R.C.I.A . (The Rite for the Christian Initiation of Adults)

I believe that we all know someone who may be interested in becoming Catholic. The RCIA is the best of adult education, combining information with guidance, community building and a safe place to both share and grow in faith. Please know that there is no pressure whatsoever to become Catholic; rather adult learning about Catholicism followed by an adult decision to choose full initiation into the Catholic Church. We are hosting an information session on Wednesday, August 24 at 7:00pm in Breakout Room 1. Please contact Mary Whiteside at mwhiteside@holyfamilyparish.org

Congratulations to our newly baptized and welcome into the Body of Christ and Holy Family!

Mark your calendar for Wednesday, August 24 at 7:00 pm if you would like to learn more about becoming Catholic, or invite someone who is seeking a spiritual home in the Catholic Church to join us. If you are a baptized Catholic, but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation, you are also invited to join us for this informational evening. This will be a very relaxed informational event and any questions you have about the process will be answered.

At Holy Family, our RCIA experience is a journey of head and heart. We will learn about the faith while walking together through the joys and challenges of life, and we will explore how to live sacramentally in it all. Our team is excited for the year ahead! If you're feeling a nudge, contact Mary in the Adult Faith Life office at mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3450 for more information.

Special Collection for Franciscan Works - Liberia Mission - August 27 and 28

Franciscan Works is a Catholic missionary organization dedicated to breaking the cycle of poverty for children and families through material and spiritual support and a Catholic education. Franciscan Works currently operates Liberia Mission in West Africa. We welcome speakers Bob and Kathy O'Dwyer at all Masses next weekend.

Founded in 2003, just as the civil war was ending, Liberia Mission began with six orphaned children. Today it is a vibrant, life-saving community of love, learning, work and prayer, with 45 residents. Nearly 450 youth from surrounding villages attend St. Anthony of Padua Mission Grade School or are funded to attend local high schools. These are young people who would not otherwise have access to education, medical care, adequate food and shelter, faith formation, and the sacraments. St. Michael the Archangel Church, located on the Mission, serves the students and the community. A student-run farm and piggery are part of the vocational education the students receive. These children are learning to become future leaders in their families, communities and country. Much prayer, joy and hope is evident at Liberia Mission, even with the sorrow and hardships associated with the Ebola outbreak of 2014, the ongoing pandemic, and the political and economic strife there. Many challenges remain.

Your help is needed for this important ministry. Please be generous. Thank you!

Silver Rose Prayer Service Friday, August 26, 2022 7:00 PM (approx. 45 minutes) St. Theresa Church

The KofC Holy Ghost Council #4977 of Palatine; the KofC Holy Family Council #11981 of Inverness; and the St. Theresa/St. Thomas Respect Life Team are proud to be coordinating a special prayer service honoring Our Lady of Guadalupe (patroness of the Americas).

Made of pure silver, the Silver Rose (#3 of 8) is being escorted by Knights of Columbus councils on a 9-month pilgrimage from Canada, through the United States, and completing the religious journey to Mexico in December. Every stop the Silver Rose makes is a rosary-centered occasion for the community; reaffirming the Order's commitment to the Sanctity of Life; to pray for International Unity; and to honor the Blessed Virgin under her title of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The Silver Rose will be on display starting at 6:30 pm.

You and your family are cordially invited to join us for this blessed prayer service. Please remember to bring your rosary (extras will be available).
