Anointing of the Sick

Please know that recent hospital privacy laws have significantly limited our knowledge of parishioners who are hospitalized. If you have a loved one who is ill, please contact contact Jeannie Parry in our Pastoral Care office at 949-632-2059 or jparry@holyfamilyparish.org to request the Anointing of the Sick. The ideal time for anointing is when family is present and not necessarily in the final hours of life. Anointing of the Sick is offered on the First Friday of every month following the 9:00am morning Mass.

Several Important Things Coming Up

Family Faith Classes begin next Sunday, September 11, so registration for classes continues. If you have children from pre-school through high school ages, please contact the Family Faith Office to register for this year's program. We work hard to provide both Sunday morning and Sunday evening options to give greater flexibility, keeping the very busy schedules of families in mind. If you know someone with children and teens who do not attend a Catholic school, please encourage them to register.

Note: We are still in need of Catechists for pre-school, 7th and 8th grades

New Parishioner Gatherings

Almost 300 families have joined Holy Family since we were last able to hold a New Parishioner Gathering in person. We want to extend a warm invitation to any new families to join us in the Rectory following all Masses the weekend of September 17 & 18. This is also a great opportunity for you to register as a parishioner if you haven't already.

Upcoming Retreats

Beloved is the main Adult Retreat for our community that we encourage all adults to attend. It is held on the beautiful grounds of Mundelein Seminary and provides rest, reflection and prayer. This year's Beloved will be held Friday, December 9 – Sunday, December 11. Contact Mary Whiteside in our Adult Faith Office for more details.

Bellarmino Jesuit Retreat House is a phenomenal spiritual resource right in our own backyard, located on County Line Road in Barrington. Visit jesuitretreat.org for more details. They are offering several upcoming retreats including:

A Men's Silent Directed Retreat Friday, September 30 – Sunday, October 2

A Women's Midweek Retreat, Tuesday, October 4 – Thursday, October 6

A Women's Weekend Retreat Friday, October 28 – Saturday, October 30

Shenanigans Fall Fest Sunday, September 25

Fun for the whole family begins with 11:00am

Mass followed by a Knights of Columbus Breakfast then games and fun activities here in our parking lot until 3:00pm.

FM

Our three generations Family Mass kicks off again this year on Sunday, September 18 at the 9:00am Mass. This is a great opportunity to gather the WHOLE family to celebrate a lively, contemporary, uplifting Mass for all.

Labor Day—More About Work

We celebrate Labor Day as a nation this weekend. As I continue to share with you some of my passions and convictions about the importance of work, I naturally seek to express spiritual underpinnings of this very pervasive part of all of our lives. One of my convictions regarding connecting our work with God's work is to urge us all to Work Like God, Work With God and Work For God. These three come with powerful connections to scripture and our Judeo-Christian tradition.

Work Like God

One way to work like God is to follow God's work pattern in the first story of creation (Genesis 1:1-31, 2:1-2). God worked, stepped back and reflected on that work, which led to the observation that it was good. Then, ultimately, God rested and took a break from work.

Work With God

In the desert God made a Covenant with the people seeking a better way of life. Several scripture passages tell us of this Covenant (Exodus 6:7 and Jeremiah 31:33 are just two). I believe we are all on a similar journey and the more we remind ourselves that viewing our work as a partnership – a divine/human enterprise, with God – the more meaning we will see in it.

Work For God

In John 6:27, as a response to the people seeking more from Jesus following the Multiplication of the Loaves and Fish, he says, "Don't work for food that perishes, work for food that lasts." Food here is a great metaphor for what feeds the passion and purpose that each and every one of us has. Let's not just work; let's work for things that last!!

Of Special Note

The Adventure Continues!

Our year-long Adventures in Grace pilgrimage culminated with a Spirit-filled Pentecost celebration in June. At that Mass, we stood, fully aware of our identity as Beloved of God, and committed ourselves, actively and passionately, to continued grace-filled adventures in both our daily lives, and as a faith community. With that commitment in mind, we'd like to inform you of how we will continue to pursue Adventures in Grace (AiG) over the next year here at Holy Family.

Beginning in the fall and continuing through May 2023 we will be offering four Wednesday evening events based on the spirituality of tenderness: Tenderness and Forgiveness, Tenderness in Relationships, Tenderness Toward Creation, and Tenderness in Prayer. These events will include a noted speaker, opportunity for small-group discussion, and hospitality.

We will also be promoting, and offering book discussions on, Fr. Greg Boyle's newest book The Whole Language: The Power of Extravagant Tenderness, a call to witness the transformative power of tenderness, rooted in his lifetime of experience ministering to gang members in Los Angeles. This book has been the inspiration for our spirituality of tenderness programming.

There will be a renewed focus on the creation of small Christian communities (Gatherings in Grace) devoted to small-group discussions of experiences of Grace in daily life and in the Sunday scripture readings, as well as other topics.

During Lent, our pastor, Fr. Terry, will lead a two-day parish mission on the spirituality of Holy Week.

We will also be continuing our popular Bible Journey program and powerful Beloved Retreat, as well as opportunities to serve in a variety of social justice/outreach projects.

Please watch the bulletin, our parish website, and social media for exact dates and more information on all these Adventures in Grace!

Bible Journey Fall 2022 Registration is open!

Presented by Anne Madsen

Wednesdays, October 12, 19, 26, November 2, 9, and 16

9:45 am – 11:45 am

(one hour lecture,

one hour small group discussion)

Cost: $25

The new liturgical year begins in Advent and the gospel readings will be from the book of Matthew. The theme of Matthew is “the kingdom of heaven.” Through genealogy, parables and miracles proof of Jesus as king will be established. The people who comprise “the kingdom of heaven” are described in the teachings from the Sermon on the Mount.

In our Bible Journey series we will study what Jesus’ kingdom is and how we live as people in his “kingdom of heaven” here on earth.

For information or to register, contact Mary Whiteside at 847-907-3450 or mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org

RCIA

It’s not too late to join our RCIA 2022-2023 experience!
