Anointing of the Sick

Please know that recent hospital privacy laws have significantly limited our knowledge of parishioners who are hospitalized. If you have a loved one who is ill, please contact Jeannie Parry in our Pastoral Care office at 949-632-2059 or jparry@holymfamilyparish.org to request the Anointing of the Sick. The ideal time for anointing is when family is present and not necessarily in the final hours of life. Anointing of the Sick is offered on the First Friday of every month following the 9:00am morning Mass.

Fr. Terry Keehan

Pray without becoming weary! That is the essence of the Gospel challenge this weekend. Jesus uses the example of a persistent widow who wears out a judge in search for justice against her adversary. The story tells us that the judge really does not care about people. This stands in stark contrast to our God who cares deeply about us.

We hear another parable on prayer next weekend comparing the Pharisee (religious leader) with the Tax Collector (publican). These two weekends in particular remind us of the importance of prayer and, particularly as Catholics, the variety of prayer forms that our faith tradition offers.

There are classic definitions of prayer and classic questions about it as well. Often people will comment that God does not hear their prayers. "Why even pray, because God doesn't answer my prayers." It is a statement that I have heard a lot.

God alone knows the answer to this, but here are some things to consider when you feel that God is not listening to or answering your prayers.

- You might not be asking for the right thing. Our prayer comes from our heart, soul and situation. We may think that we have the solution, or the ONLY solution or concern to a problem or issue, and that just might not be best for all, or God's will.

- It is not time yet.

We may be on the right track, but our request is not timely. Patience is a virtue and the widow in today's Gospel is an example of persistence that can supplement patience.

- Perhaps God has already answered prayer.

I am reminded of the philosophy of Sir Mick Jaeger and the Rolling Stones. "You can't always get what you want, but if you try sometime, you just might find, you get what you need." The fact that trying is interjected into Jaeger's philosophy resembles the persistence of the widow in today's Gospel parable.

Some additional perspectives to consider when you feel frustrated, abandoned or ignored in your prayer...

- You have the ability to address that for which you are praying.

For a while, there was a popular saying, "Let go and let God." I think I understand the gist of this saying, and that it helps us to yield to God's will, but I have truly heard people say that their prayer was answered when they stepped up or put effort into addressing an issue or concern leading to a feeling that prayer had been heard.

- Consider that others may be praying for things that stand in stark contrast to your petitions.

One of my seminary professors introduced this idea for us. What happens when a group of people in a rural parish are praying for rain because the fields are dry and the crops at risk? In the same parish there is a group of people praying that it doesn't rain because the parish picnic is in a few days. Whose prayer does God hear, and why wouldn't God answer the prayers of the ones who did not get what they wanted? That also sets up an image of God who plays favorites.

Let us also consider some of the language of our Adventures in Grace as it relates to prayer. It is a question with a couple of different context. The question is, "Where's the grace?" It can be asked in desperation, doubting that there is any grace to be found. It can also be asked out of genuine curiosity. When we inquire about grace genuinely, the question can form the basis for our prayer moving forward.

Perhaps you have heard me say once or twice that I really only have one prayer these days and that is, "Give me what I need Lord to integrate your will into my life." I supplement that with a simple prayer that are the first words I pray each day: "God, come to my assistance. Lord, make haste to help me."

Please be attentive to a resource that we are providing as our Tenderness Series of AIG continues on Wednesday, November 9. Bill and JoAnne McElroy will speak on "Tenderness in Prayer" focusing on Contemplative Prayer. PLEASE do not be intimidated by contemplative prayer. It is really quite easy to do and has many physical as well as spiritual benefits. The McElroys will both explain and give examples of this rich form of prayer. Please join us!!!

AIG Continues...

The Adventure Continues!

Tenderness in Prayer with JoAnne and Bill McElroy

Wednesday, November 9, 7:00pm-8:30 pm

Our year-long Adventures in Grace pilgrimage culminated with a Spirit-filled Pentecost celebration in June. At that Mass, we stood, fully aware of our identity as Beloved of God, and committed ourselves, actively and passionately, to continued grace-filled adventures in both our daily lives, and as a faith community. One of the ways in which we are continuing to pursue Adventures in Grace (AiG) this year is our “Revolution of Tenderness” Series.

Pope Francis has often called for a “revolution of tenderness” in the world. He says, “Tenderness is the love that comes close and becomes real....Tenderness is a properly Christian attitude. Christianity without tenderness does not work.” Inspired by these words we have developed a series of four Wednesday evening events based on the spirituality of tenderness

The second of these events is Wednesday, November 9, 7:00 PM – 8:30 PM. Please join us in the church as we focus on the gift of Tenderness in Prayer. Our speakers, JoAnne and Bill McElroy, will introduce us to contemplative prayer in order to awaken in us the desire to move into a deeper relationship with God through contemplative practice.

JoAnne holds a Master of Arts degree in Contemporary Spirituality and a post-graduate Certificate in Spiritual Direction from the Institute of Pastoral Studies at Loyola University of Chicago. She is a commissioned presenter of Centering Prayer, which she has practiced for over ten years.

Bill has a Master’s degree in Spirituality and Spiritual Direction from the Institute of Pastoral Studies at Loyola University of Chicago. He is a commissioned presenter of Centering Prayer, which he has practiced for over 20 years. He was the Founding Convener of Illinois Men As Learners and Elders, a men’s spirituality organization founded by Richard Rohr, OFM.

JoAnne and Bill have been married for 47 years and are the parents of three adult children and grandparents of two grandsons. They have served as lay ministers and spiritual leaders at the parish, diocesan, and national levels for the past three-plus decades. They both enjoy exploring nature and have a deep connection to the natural world in support of their spiritual journeys.

To register, please contact Mary Whiteside at mwhiteside@holymfamilyparish.org. Reservations are very helpful for planning purposes, but walk-ins are always WELCOME. Please join us and bring a friend!

The Adult Faith Community... supports the mission of lifelong learning by providing educational, spiritual, and formation activities for the parish and the community.

Wednesday, November 2, 2022 is the Feast of All Souls, a day when we spend time in prayer remembering those who have entered eternal life. In a special way, Holy Family will be remembering those who have died and had their funerals at Holy Family this past year. Join us at Mass at 7:00pm in church. The Mass will also be live streamed through our website.

If you would like to display your departed loved one's photo in our church, please bring a framed photograph, marked with your name and phone number on the back, to the Front Office by Monday, October 31. These photos will be on display until November 22. After this date, you may collect them from the Front Office.

Please contact Jeannie Parry at 847-970-3448 if you have any questions.

Attention Homebound

If you are homebound and would like a Minister of Care to bring you the Eucharist, please contact Jeannie Parry at jparry@holystfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3448.

Bible Journey – Fall 2022 The Gospel of Matthew Presented by Anne Madsen

Dates: October 19, 26, November 2, 9, and 16, 2022

9:45 am – 11:45 am (live at Holy Family and a Zoom option is also available)

Cost: $25 (includes book)

The new liturgical year begins in Advent and the gospel readings will be from the book of Matthew. The theme of Matthew is "the kingdom of heaven." Through genealogy, parables and miracles proof of Jesus as king will be established. The people who comprise "the kingdom of heaven" are described in the teachings from the Sermon on the Mount.

To register, contact Mary Whiteside at mwhiteside@holystfamilyparish.org

Beloved Retreat-December 9-11, 2022

University of St. Mary of the Lake, Mundelein, IL

Cost: $195 (private room with bathroom and meals)

Registration is now open for Beloved. The Beloved Retreat has been run for many years through Old St. Pat's in Chicago and has been very popular at Holy Family in recent years. It is led by members of the Soul Play team who led our Pilgrimage last year, along with a team of Holy Family Beloveds. The weekend is focused on the understanding that our baptism is not just something that happened when we were babies, but is a call to live knowing that we are unconditionally loved by God. So, we ask, were you baptized, or ARE you baptized? Join us for a powerful weekend of gratitude, hope and abundance!

faith into action.

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching. We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person.

Whatever insults human dignity, such as subhuman living conditions, arbitrary imprisonment, deportation, slavery, prostitution, the selling of women and children; as well as disgraceful working conditions, where (people) are treated as mere tools for profit, rather than as free and responsible persons; all these things and others of their like are infamies indeed. They poison human society, but they do more harm to those who practice them than those who suffer from the injury. The Church in the Modern World (Gaudium et Spes. . .), #27

Holy Family PADS Program Update

Pre-COVID, Holy Family hosted a PADS site for homeless guests of JOURNEYS The Road Home's organization for 20 years. This year, unfortunately, we are unable to begin that program again due to insufficient volunteers available serving on the site over the course of all shifts beginning at 4pm on Sunday and ending at 7am on Monday morning. We will, however, open up on Sunday evenings to provide food and a place to rest to guests from 5-7:00pm.

We will need a few volunteers to help with food prep, food service and clean up. All volunteers must be fully vaccinated and masked at all times. We also need food donated for the dinners. Visit www.carecalendar.org; ID 134413 Password 9236 to get a list of items needed and more specific details.

If you are new to volunteering for PADS, you must go through a short online training session before serving at Holy Family. For questions about volunteering or food donations, contact Alma at delia03@comcast.net for further details.

You are invited to a Knights of Columbus fundraiser at Sarap Bistro, 1457 Palatine Rd, Hoffman Estates October 20 and 21, 2022, dine in or carry out, between noon and 7:00pm. Show them this ad or the flyer located on the narthex shelves to receive a percentage of the proceeds benefiting the HF Knights Council #11891 program to purchase an ultrasound machine for the TLC Pregnancy Center in Elgin.

FAMILY DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

NOTE: If you are viewing the FM via live stream or have attended another Mass, please respond to questions 1, 2, 3b, 5 and 7 in writing on the back of this sheet and turn them in to your HFCA classroom teacher or Faith catechist.

1. How is the FM different from other Masses at Holy Family?
2. What does your family like about the FM at Holy Family?
3. Ask your parents to name three (3) people who taught them about our faith. Write their names below.
1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____
b. Ask them to tell you some of the ways these people taught them about our faith.
4. What does the first reading teaches us? (Circle the letter of the right answer)
 - a. All Scripture is inspired by God
 - b. Reading and listening to the Word of God is useful for teaching us how to live right
 - c. We should always be ready to share God's Word with others and do good deeds
 - d. Only a and b
 - e. All of the above
5. What does 'be persistent' mean?
6. What does the widow want from the Judge in the gospel story? (Circle the right answer)
 - a. Money
 - b. A home in a different town
 - c. To be treated fairly and with respect
7. Why does the Judge give the widow what she wants in the gospel story?
8. Why did Jesus tell this story to his disciples?
 - a. So they would be persistent, like the widow in the story, and never give up
 - b. So they would treat all people fairly and with respect
 - c. So they would trust in God's love
 - d. All of the above
